Event Grundlagen des Rechts
IUS_AD27 / Colloquium / 5,205

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Modul soll Doktorierenden und Habilitierenden der Rechtswissenschaften die Möglichkeit geben, ihr Vorhaben zur Diskussion zu stellen. Dabei sollen auch und gerade Projekte einbezogen werden, die ihren Schwerpunkt jenseits der Grundlagenfächer haben. Solche Vorhaben sollen in den perspektivischen Zusammenhang insbesondere des römischen Rechts, der Rechtsgeschichte und der Rechtstheorie gestellt werden. Diese Diskussion konkreter Forschungsvorhaben aus der Sicht der rechtswissenschaftlichen Grundlagenfächer soll die Vertiefung der jeweils untersuchten Fragestellungen möglich machen. Für die Zukunft ist geplant, den Kreis der beteiligten Doktoranden und Habilitanden auf andere Universitäten zu erweitern, um die fachwissenschaftliche Diskussion zu bereichern.

Event R Programming Skills
6151514a / Seminar / 4,799

Description:

Business event contents:

Dieser Kurs gibt eine Einführung in das Programmieren und die Informatik. Das Ziel ist es, besseren Code in R zu schreiben und in der Lage zu sein, nützliche neue Funktionen mit der gesamten R-Gemeinschaft zu teilen. Wir beginnen mit tidyverse, gefolgt von grundlegenden Konzepten (Sequenz, Verzweigung, Schleife) und lernen, wann und wie man eine Funktion schreibt. Dann sehen wir, wie wir effizienten und parallelen Code schreiben können, um ihn schneller zu machen. Wir sehen uns ein Tool an, mit dem wir verschiedene Codes gegeneinander auswerten können, um zu sehen, welcher schneller ist. Danach sehen wir uns an, wie man eine generische S3-Funktion und objektorientierten Code zusammen mit dem Grundkonzept schreibt. Dann werden wir uns mit SQL beschäftigen und sehen, wie wir es in R verwenden können, um Daten aus einer SQL- Datenbank zu lesen und in sie zu schreiben. Danach schauen wir uns Regex und Webscraping an. Am Ende sehen wir, wie wir in R ein Paket erstellen und es auf GitHub und CRAN hochladen können.

Event Direkte Demokratie - Segen oder Fluch?
6151522a / Seminar / 4,802

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Schweiz gilt als das Mutterland der direkten Demokratie. Nirgendwo sonst auf der Welt steht den Bürgerinnen und Bürgern eine solche Fülle an Volksrechten zur Verfügung. Im Zentrum des Seminars stehen die Effekte der direkten Demokratie - stets im Vergleich mit der repräsentativen Demokratie. Neben der Schweiz befassen wir uns vor allem mit den US- Gliedstaaten und einigen westeuropäischen Ländern.

Event Kantonale Wahlen und Abstimmungen

6151524a / Seminar / 4,804

Description:

Business event contents:

Wenig Systematisches ist über die Wahlsysteme in den Kantonen bekannt.

Dabei fällt die hohe Vielfalt an kantonalen Wahlsystemen auf. Welche Konsequenzen hat diese unterschiedliche Ausgestaltung für das politische System, das Parteiensystem und das Stimm- und Wahlverhalten? Die

Veranstaltung soll zuerst einen primär juristisch geprägten Überblick über die verschiedenen Settings bieten.

Sodann rücken aber politologische Fragen in den Vordergrund: Wie oft werden die Volksrechte genutzt? Von wem werden sie genutzt?

Diese und weitere Fragen werden im Seminar beantwortet.

Event International Climate Policy
6151527a / Seminar / 4,803

Description:

Business event contents:

Climate change is one of the most difficult global challenges of our time. This seminar will use tools and insights from political science, economics and environmental science to discuss the main challenges of international climate policy. After an introduction to the science of climate change, the module offers an overview of the main topics discussed in the international climate negotiations, the major stakeholders, and the institutional setting in which the discussions take place, before introducing various models and theories to analyse global cooperation on climate change. At the end, the module zooms into the national level, to discuss climate policy-making within states. Throughout the module, we examine different policy propositions from the perspectives of fairness, efficiency, political acceptability, and the prospect of actual implementation, including the role of carbon markets and of non-state actors, future development paradigms, as well as individual countries' approaches to address climate change. The module integrates lectures, group work and student debates, as well as a climate negotiations simulation.

Course Materials:

The course materials will be made available via OLAT. The lectures will be based both on journal articles and on individual chapters of following book:

Event Capstone: Developing a Multilateral Negotiation Simulation
615I601a / Seminar / 4,811

Description:

Business event contents:

The Institute for Global Negotiation (IGN) is a non-profit association based in Zurich that promotes and supports the use of negotiation as an essential tool in building a more equitable, peaceful and sustainable world. To this end members of the IGN initiate and engage in projects, develop teaching resources and organize events and courses. At the heart of the IGN's approach is a belief in fostering an exchange between practitioners and academics to generate new insights into negotiation and conflict resolution processes. The goal of this capstone course is for students to develop a multiparty negotiation simulation on a topic of global concern to be used in the annual Global Negotiation Conference hosted each summer at the University of Zurich. In addition, the course will develop two bilateral negotiation simulations and a practitioner reflection article outlining the experience of key actors involved in the chosen topic's negotiation process.

Event Capstone: Heimat neu erzählen - Alternative nationale Narrative für die Schweiz
6151602a / Seminar / 4,812

Description:

Business event contents:

Was sind zukunftsorientierte nationale Narrative für die Schweiz und welche Wirkung hätten sie auf das politische Geschehen? In der Schweizer Politik bestehen seit Jahrzehnten unveränderte Narrative fort und dominieren bis heute den politischen Diskurs (siehe <https://www.geschichtenderheimat.ch>). Im Rahmen dieses Capstone-Projekts in Zusammenarbeit mit Pro Futuris sollen zunächst neue, zukunftsorientierte Narrative entwickelt werden, die sich an der Schweiz der Gegenwart orientieren aber bisher von Parteien nicht oder kaum genutzt werden. Mithilfe von Fokusgruppen-Interviews und Umfrageexperimenten wird das Projekt dann ihre mögliche Wirkung auf den politischen Diskurs in der Schweiz systematisch evaluieren.

Notes:

Der Projektmanagement-Workshop wird am Montag, den 23.09.24 von der Dozentin Ursina Wälchli von 13 bis 17 Uhr im Raum AFL-F-101 durchgeführt.

Event Capstone: StatGuide – creating a digital platform for personalized methods education
6151603a / Seminar / 4,909

Description:

Business event contents:

In this Capstone course, we will jointly conceptualize, write, and design the e-learning content for the StatGuide platform. Specifically, we will work as a team to develop step-by-step guides to help future generations of students to understand and apply common quantitative methods, such as linear regression or logit models. The guides we develop will be published on the StatGuide platform, to serve as a personalized digital learning resource for students.

In this one semester module, there will be two groups. The first group will write additional content for the project while the second group will give written feedback on the content and suggest improvements. The first group is for more advanced students while the second group is for beginners which check if the content is understandable for beginners. Please indicate the group you want to join when applying for the module.

Benefit to you:

Deepen your knowledge of quantitative methods - a differentiating skill in both academia and the private sector

Contribute to the development of an innovative digital platform for personalized methods education

Contribute to advancing the teaching at UZH

Take responsibility for planning and executing project tasks

Publish your work results as a new learning resource.

Event Excursion: East Asian Art Collections in the Netherlands
6421031a / Field Trip / 4,964

Description:

Business event contents:

This course explores the rich and distinctive collections of East Asian Art preserved in the Netherlands on both practical and theoretical levels, including a workshop jointly organized with Leiden University students. Through a series of museum visits and object-handling sessions guided by museum curators and private collectors, it offers students a firsthand and practical opportunity to engage directly with art objects. The history of East Asian collections in the Netherlands is intertwined with centuries of trade, diplomacy, and cultural exchange between the Low Countries and East Asia. While the Dutch East India Company (VOC) played a significant role in establishing economic, political, and cultural connections, it is not the sole agent of this exchange. These interactions facilitated the acquisition of East Asian objects, which subsequently found their place in private collections, royal cabinets of curiosities, and eventually, public museums and institutions. The course aims to provide insight into these rich histories and their lasting effects. By facilitating direct engagement with art objects, this course aims to enhance students' skills in visual analysis, interpretation, and critical thinking. It also seeks to deepen their contextual understanding of objects in museum settings, exposing how art and material culture intersect with historical narratives and cultural practices. Moreover, it provides insight into the operation of cultural heritage institutions by acquainting students with museum practices, exhibition design, and curatorial methodologies, essential for students' professional development.

Event Von van Eyck bis Rubens. Flämische Malerei im räumlichen Kontext
640I047a / Field Trip / 4,993

Description:

Business event contents:

Im ausgehenden Mittelalter und in der frühen Neuzeit war Flandern eine der wirtschaftlich stärksten und am dichtesten besiedelten Regionen Europas. Zugleich war es Schauplatz bahnbrechender künstlerischer Entwicklungen: beginnend mit dem revolutionären Realismus der altniederländischen Malerei bis zur barocken Bildsprache der Rubenszeit. Vom 15. bis zum 17. Jahrhundert setzte Flandern Massstäbe für ganz Europa. Nirgendwo griffen Kommerz und Kunst so eng ineinander: Mit seinen Seehäfen war Flandern wichtiger Warenumsschlagplatz, in Städten wie Gent, Brügge und Löwen beherbergte es Zentren umsatzstarker Textilproduktion. Flandern war aber auch Territorium fürstlicher Zentralgewalten - zunächst der Herzöge von Burgund, und ab 1477 der Habsburger - die der Kunstentwicklung mit ihrem Bedarf an höfischer Repräsentation zusätzliche Impulse verliehen. So war die flämische Kunst eine Kunst der Kaufleute, Bankiers und der städtischen Korporationen, aber auch des Hofes und seiner Ansprüche an Aussendarstellungen. Die Exkursion führt zu insgesamt fünf Städten im heutigen Belgien, die für die hier skizzierte Entwicklung eine entscheidende Rolle spielten: Gent, Brügge, Brüssel, Löwen und Antwerpen. Sie bietet so die Gelegenheit, wichtige Hauptwerke wie den Genter Altar der Brüder van Eyck, das Sakramentsretabel von Dieric Bouts, das Johannes-Retabel Hans Memlings oder den Altar der Kreuzaufrichtung von Peter Paul Rubens innerhalb ihrer räumlichen Kontexte kennenzulernen und die urbanen Strukturen der spätmittelalterlichen und frühneuzeitlichen Zentren Flanderns vor Ort zu studieren.

Event Dialogues on Art and Modernism in Brazil
645I511a / Exercise Group / 4,995

Description:

Business event contents:

In this one-day course taking place in Bern, we will engage with art and modernism in Brazil. Following a workshop with Rafael Cardoso (State University of Rio de Janeiro/Freie Universität Berlin) and Ana Magalhães (Museum of Contemporary Art of the University of São Paulo) at the University of Bern in the morning, the afternoon will be dedicated to a joint visit of the exhibition "Brasil! Brasil! The Birth of Modernism" at the Zentrum Paul Klee. This course is a collaboration between the program for Art History in a Global Context at the University of Zurich and the section for World Art History at the University of Bern, bringing together students from both universities.

Participants are expected to prepare selected readings before the workshop, to participate in the discussions during the workshop, and to write a critical review of the exhibition (2–3 pages), to be submitted one month after the workshop. A travel allowance for the trip to Bern is planned. The number of participants is limited. Event Exkursion ans Stummfilmfestival Zürich

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Stummfilmfestival im Filmpodium ist ein fester Bestandteil der Filmkultur in Zürich. Gezeigt werden historische Filme aus der Zeit des Stummfilms in neuen Restaurierungen mit Live-Vertonung durch renommierte Musiker*innen, die ein breites musikalisches Spektrum abdecken. Rund die Hälfte des Programms widmet sich einem Themenschwerpunkt, wie zuletzt 2024 «Nasty Women».

Wie kuratiert man ein solches Programm? Wie kommt man an die Filmkopien und nach welchen Kriterien wählt man die Live-Musik aus? An der Exkursion werden wir uns an mehreren Abenden eine Auswahl des Festivalprogramms anschauen und Gespräche mit den Programmgestalter*innen sowie mit ausgewählten Stummfilm-Musiker*innen führen. In einer einführenden Seminarsitzung werden Texte zum Thema «Stummfilmpräsentation heute» diskutiert und auf dieser Grundlage Leitfragen für den Festivalbesuch entwickelt. Nach einer abschliessenden Reflexionssitzung werden die Teilnehmenden kurze Texte zu den besprochenen Themengebieten anfertigen.

Die Exkursion soll Einblick in die Organisation eines filmhistorischen Festivals geben, in theoretische Fragestellungen einführen, die sich an die heutige Präsentation von Stummfilmen im öffentlichen Raum knüpfen, und insbesondere den Aspekt der Live-Vertonung in den Blick nehmen.

Notes:

Bedingung ist die Teilnahme an mindestens zehn Filmprogrammen während des Festivals mit begleitenden Gesprächsrunden (9.–26. Januar 2025, abends), an den rahmenden Seminarsitzungen (7. Januar 2025, 14–18 Uhr; 26. Januar 2025, 15–17 Uhr), sowie die Anfertigung einer schriftlichen Übung (8–10 Seiten) bis zum 15. Februar 2025. Die genauen Termine für die Filmvorführungen werden Ende November 2024 bekanntgegeben.

Alle Teilnehmenden erhalten einen Filmpodium-Programmpass für die Spielzeit Januar/Februar 2025.

Event Generative KI und visuelle Kultur
2551522a / Colloquium / 5,043

Description:

Business event contents:

KI-generierte Bilder sind längst Teil unserer visuellen Alltagskultur geworden. Täglich werden sie millionenfach in sozialen Netzwerken geteilt, begegnen uns auf Zeitschriftencovern, in Galerien und auf Werbeplakaten. Doch war generative KI von Beginn an höchst umstritten. Wo manche von ungeahnten künstlerischen Möglichkeiten schwärmen, warnen andere vor der massenhaften Aneignung, Ausbeutung und Entwertung kreativer Arbeit durch die großßen Tech-Firmen. Und nachdem der erste Hype um Dall-E, Midjourney & Co. abgeklungen scheint, rücken zunehmend die problematischen Seiten der Technologie in den Fokus: ihr massiver Ressourcen- und Energieverbrauch, ihre Tendenz, rassistische und sexistische Stereotype zu reproduzieren und sogar zu verstärken, oder auch die Gefahr massenhafter Desinformation. All diese und weitere Aspekte wollen wir im Seminar kritisch diskutieren - an konkreten Beispielen und auf Basis gemeinsamer Lektüren und Recherchen.

Wir wollen uns mit den konzeptuellen Grundlagen wie den medienkulturellen Voraussetzungen generativer KI vertraut machen, ihre unterschiedlichen Anwendungsfelder in den Blick nehmen und aktuelle Entwicklungen gemeinsam verfolgen. Bildwissenschaftliche Perspektiven darauf, wie generative KI unsere visuelle Kultur bereits verändert hat und weiter verändern wird, sollen dabei ebenso im Zentrum stehen wie die Frage danach, ob und wie ein reflektierter künstlerisch-gestalterischer Umgang mit diesen Technologien aussehen könnte.

Event Die Metaphysik des Todes

160I035a / Seminar / 704

Description:

Business event contents:

Alle lebenden Organismen sterben eines Tages. Das ist unbestritten. In diesem Seminar werden wir einige klassische metaphysische Schwierigkeiten diskutieren, die die unten erwähnte Selbstverständlichkeit aufwirft. Wir werden damit beginnen, uns zu fragen, was genau der Tod ist, und uns darüber hinaus fragen, was es bedeutet, am Leben zu sein.

Wir werden auch die These diskutieren, dass der Tod ein Ereignis ist, das man fürchten muss, eine schlechte Sache. Epikur zufolge ist der Tod nicht zu fürchten. Wir werden versuchen herauszufinden, ob er Recht hat.

Event Die selbstkritische Schweiz: Neuere und ältere filmische Blicke
255I004a / Seminar / 4,047

Description:

Business event contents:

Typisch für das «Cinema of Small Nations» ist eine eingehende Besch lokaler und nationaler Kultur und Geschichte, oft als eine Form des Widerstands gegen den globalisierten Mainstream. In der Schweiz gibt es im Zusammenhang mit dem Diskurs des «Sonderfalls» und des «Enigma Helvetia» Tradition von kritischen Auseinandersetzungen mit Fragen der nationalen und regionalen Identität in verschiedenen Kunstsparten, darunter Literatur, bildende Kunst und Musik.

In diesem Aufbauseminar gehen wir dieser Tradition filmgeschichtlich nach und setzen Werke aus dem 21. Jahrhundert mit historischen Vorgängern in Verbindung.

Wir legen den Fokus auf ausgewählte Beispiele aus dem Spiel-, Dokumentar- und Experimentalfilmschaffen, ergänzt durch Inputs aus dem weiteren kulturellen und künstlerischen Kontext.

Welche Schweizbilder werden in diesen Filmen heraufbeschworen und gegebenenfalls demontiert? Wie setzen sich diese Filme mit Aspekten der Geschichte, der Politik und des Alltagslebens in der Schweiz auseinander?

Neben dem Begriff des «kritischen Heimatfilms» und weiteren Analysemethoden Filmwissenschaft greifen wir auch Begriffe aus anderen relevanten Fachbereichen auf, wie etwa den Gender Studies und den Postcolonial Studies. Close readings von Filmbeispielen werden ergänzt durch Textlektüren, Theorie-Inputs und Diskussionen.

Event Exkursion an die Internationalen Kurzfilmtage Winterthur
255I005a / Field Trip / 4,048

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Kurzfilmtage in Winterthur sind das wichtigste Festival in der Schweiz, das sich ganz der kurzen filmischen Form verschrieben hat. Auch international gelten die KFTG mittlerweile als bedeutender Treffpunkt und Kompetenzzentrum für Liebhaber*innen dieser Filmgattung.

Das Eintauchen in die thematischen Programmblocke und Sektionen der Wettbewerbe eröffnet den Teilnehmer*innen der Exkursion die Möglichkeit, verschiedenste Facetten des aktuellen und historischen Kurzfilmschaffens kennenzulernen und zu diskutieren. Denn, so wird auf der Webseite der KFTG (<https://www.kurzfilmtage.ch>) klargelegt: «Der Kurzfilm ist nicht einfach ein kürzerer Film. Er ist eine eigene Kunstform». Über die Auseinandersetzung mit den filmischen Werken hinaus, sollen Einblicke in die Festivalarbeit des Teams der Kurzfilmtage ermöglicht werden.

Vor dem Festivalbesuch sind zwei obligatorische Sitzungen an der Uni als Vorbereitung vorgesehen: Neben organisatorischen Fragen widmen sich diese vor allem der Geschichte, den verschiedenen Genres und der spezifischen Ästhetik des Kurzfilms. Es gilt insbesondere, die Besonderheiten des kurzen filmischen Erzählens zu analysieren und die Gemeinsamkeiten und Unterschiede zum Langfilm zu diskutieren.

Die Nachbereitung der Exkursion findet in einer weiteren Sitzung an der Uni statt.

Notes:

Termine:

Sitzung 1: 22.10. (16:15-18:00 Uhr)

Sitzung 2: 29.10. (16:15-18:00 Uhr)

Exkursion: 06.-08.11.24 mit gemeinsamer Visionierung von ausgewählten Programmblocken oder Besuche von Rahmenveranstaltungen. (Darüber hinaus ist der Besuch des Festivals 05.-10.11.24 selbstverständlich sehr erwünscht.) Sitzung 3: 12.11. (16:15-18:00 Uhr)

Abgeschlossen wird das Modul mit dem Verfassen einer schriftlichen Übung (SU).

Abgabe bis Ende Dezember. Weitere Informationen dazu erfolgen in den Vorbereitungssitzungen.

Kosten: Die Verpflegung und die Fahrtkosten müssen von den Studierenden selbst bezahlt werden. Die Kosten für den Festivalpass werden vom Seminar für Filmwissenschaft übernommen.

Achtung: Für die Exkursion gilt eine Begrenzung auf 15 Studierende.

Event Einführung in die Arbeit mit ethnologischen Texten Übungsgruppe E

Description:

Business event contents:

In dieser Übungsgruppe werden wir Megan Styles's in 2019 erschienenes Buch Roses from Kenya: Labor, Environment, and the Global Trade in Cut Flowers lesen.

Styles, Megan. A. (2019) Roses from Kenya: Labor, Environment, and the Global Trade in Cut Flowers. Seattle: University of Washington Press.

Kenya supplies more than 35 percent of the fresh-cut roses and other flowers sold annually in the European Union, and over half are grown near the shores of Lake Naivasha, a freshwater lake recognized as a wetland of international importance. This industry--which employs at least ninety thousand workers--is lucrative but controversial. Critics decry its environmental side effects, and activists demand better wages and living conditions for workers, most of whom are women.

Event Study of religions based didactics: From research to education practices
56SS003 / Seminar / 4,159

Description:

Business event contents:

Die LV richtet sich an Studierende, die das Lehrdiplom für das Unterrichtsfach "Religion" an Maturitätsschulen erwerben möchten. Bei diesem Unterrichtsfach handelt es sich um einen nicht-konfessionellen, religionskundlichen Unterricht über Religion(en), der sich einerseits an Idealen wie "Neutralität" oder "Unparteilichkeit" in Religionsfragen orientieren, andererseits aber auch zur Wertebildung und -vermittlung im Sinne der Bildungsinstitution Schule beitragen soll. Diese Spannung wird zudem dadurch verstärkt, dass Religionsfragen gesellschaftlich zunehmend auch als Herausforderung säkular-liberaler Wertordnungen inklusive ihrer ethischen Normen wahrgenommen werden. Die Behandlung von Religion sowie ihrer ethischen Herausforderungen stellt für den schulischen Unterricht folglich ein Spannungsfeld dar, in dem sich Lehrpersonen zwischen "Neutralität", "Unparteilichkeit" und ethischer Urteilsbildung orientieren müssen. Die Religionswissenschaft als eine der fachwissenschaftlichen Referenzdisziplinen des religionskundlichen Unterrichts versteht sich gleichwohl selbst als deskriptiv arbeitende Disziplin, ethische Urteilsbildung gehört hingegen nicht zu ihrem zentralen Kompetenzbereich. Die Einbindung der Religionswissenschaft in den schulischen Ausbildungskontext erfordert jedoch, dass sie sich sowohl mit den ethischen Anforderungen dieses Handlungsfeldes selbstreflexiv auseinandersetzt als auch Möglichkeiten eruiert, wie sie diese Überlegungen fachdidaktisch für den religionskundlichen Unterricht fruchtbar machen kann. Das Anliegen der LV umfasst daher drei Punkte:

1.) Eine historische Einordnung des Spannungsfeldes zwischen säkularer Ethik und Religion in der modernen Gesellschaft, 2.) eine selbstreflexive Positionsbestimmung der Religionswissenschaft zur Wissensordnung Ethik und 3.) eine fachdidaktische Übersetzung dieser Standortbestimmungen für den Unterricht.

Event Einführung in das Altkirchenslavische
480-039a / Exercise Group / 4,427

Description:

Business event contents:

Als Sprache des ältesten slavischen Schrifttums (ca. 10./11.Jh.) ist das Altkirchenslavische für das Studium der slavischen Sprachen und Literaturen von grundlegender Bedeutung. Sein archaischer Charakter bietet Einblicke in die Vorgeschichte des Slavischen. Als Sprache der ältesten slavischen Literatur ist das Altkirchenslavische von literatur- sowie kulturgeschichtlichem Interesse. Die aus ihm hervorgegangenen kirchenslavischen Redaktionen spielten insbesondere bei der Herausbildung ost- und südslavischer Standardsprachen eine wichtige Rolle. Von Bedeutung ist das Altkirchenslavische weiter in seiner Funktion als Medium zur Vermittlung der byzantinischen Kultur. Kenntnisse des Altkirchenslavischen tragen somit zu einem tieferen Verständnis der slavischen Sprachen, Literaturen und Kulturen bei.

Die Lehrveranstaltung bietet unter Einbeziehung von Textproben eine Einführung in die Schriftsysteme, die Laut- und Formenlehre sowie die Syntax des Altkirchenslavischen.

Event Reading List and Oral Exam

645-501a / Selbststudium mit Leistungsnachweis / 4,467

Description:

Business event contents:

Elements of Art History in a Global Context is a mandatory self-study module that builds the methodological basis for the Art in a Global Context teaching program. Students have access to a corpus of digitized texts online. These cover a relevant choice of approaches, terms and questions concerning a wide chronological and geographical range of artistic phenomena that students will encounter in their studies. The knowledge acquired is examined at the end of the semester in an oral exam carried out by Prof. Weddigen.

Notes:

The date for the one-hour oral exam is set individually. It can take place on- site or via video conference. Contact Prof. Weddigen well in advance to arrange the date. Please be aware that the exam must be taken before the grade submission deadline.

Course Materials: The reading list and all texts in PDF format are accessible on the OLAT platform.

Event Der Bildgrund als Bildkonzept

640-017a / Seminar / 4,494

Description:

Business event contents:

Seit eh und je ist die Figur ein zentrales Interesse der Kunstgeschichte. Doch scheint es keine Figur ohne Grund zu geben, von dem sie sich abheben muss. Sowohl aus der Perspektive des Bildaufbaus und der Platzierung von Figuren im Bildfeld als auch von der Wahrnehmungsseite her lassen sich Formen und Figuren nur durch die Abgrenzung von einer Umgebung denken. Die Unterscheidung von Figur und Grund, ähnlich der Unterscheidung von Form und Materie, teilt das Bild in sich selbst und führt eine fundamentale Differenz in die Bildgestaltung ein. Paradigmatische Kippbilder wie die Rubinsche Vase zeigen auf eine abstrahierende Art die Ambivalenz der Unterscheidung von Figur und Grund und führen die Wahrnehmung und die Möglichkeiten der Beschreibung an eine Grenze, die das visuelle Denken herausfordert. Während in solchen Kippbildern eine Äquivalenz von Figur und Grund demonstriert wird, so haftet dem Bildgrund nichtsdestotrotz etwas Sekundäres an. Die Teilung von Bildern und Kunstwerken in Figur und Grund geschieht oft auf eine normative und asymmetrische Art auf Kosten des Bildgrundes. Trotzdem hat er seine eigene Geschichte und Signifikanz. Im Lektüreseminar wollen wir deswegen diesen Räumen, Hintergründen und Materialien, die oft mit den figürlichen Darstellungen verknüpft bleiben, sich allerdings auch verselbständigen können, nachgehen. Was ist die Rolle eines konkreten Bildgrundes in Bezug auf die gesamte Darstellung? Was sagen Hintergründe aus, welche Geschichte verbirgt sich in ihnen? Wie kommentieren oder unterlaufen die Bildgründe und Hintergründe die Handlungen des figürlichen Bildpersonals? Dabei werden wir uns mit Rezeptionsfragen und dem Anteil der Wahrnehmung an Kunstwerken befassen. Zugleich soll es um die Produktion von Kunstwerken gehen und wir werden die Stellung, die der Bildgrund darin einnehmen kann, reflektieren.

Event Argument Structure Constructions
440-120a / Seminar / 4,646

Description:

Business event contents:

Argument Structure Constructions (ASCs) are part and parcel of language, as well as a key concept in Construction Grammar theory and research. This seminar looks at these constructions from a theoretical and empirical point of view. It will look at the importance of ASCs for Construction Grammar theory in general and focus on specific ASCs that have been discussed more in depth in previous research, such as the ditransitive construction. It will also discuss syntactic alternations and at both corpus linguistic and psycholinguistic research on this topic.

Course Materials: The second chapter in the following book is a good introduction to the topic: Hilpert, Martin. 2014. Construction Grammar and its Application to English. Edinburgh: Edinburgh University Press. Additional reading will be made available on OLAT in due time.

Event Multilingualism and Education
440-121a / Seminar / 4,666

Description:

Business event contents:

This seminar will cover the basics of the concept of multilingualism and multilingual education. In the first part of the seminar, we will take a general look at what multilingualism is and how it can be researched. A broad array of different methods in this field will be covered. The second part is dedicated to the main theoretical and practical foundations of multilingual education. Among other things, we will explore the importance of teachers' expectations in the multilingual classroom, how attitude research helps us understand the sometimes contradictory stances towards multilingualism in education as well as the interplay between home context and school environment. We will examine different approaches towards including multiple languages in education and students are offered knowledge of bi- and multilingual education at various levels and with respect to a range of target languages: dominant or majority languages, traditional and new foreign languages as well as regional and minority/minoritized and immigrant languages.

Course Materials: Readings will include chapters from: Wright, Wayne, Boun, S. & García, O. (2015): The handbook of bilingual and multilingual education. Malden: Wiley Blackwell. Van Avermaet, P., Slembrouck, S., Van Gorp, K., Sierens, S. & Maryns, K. (2018): The Multilingual Edge of Education. London: Palgrave MacMillan.
A full list of readings will be available on OLAT at the beginning of the course.

Event Shipwrecks: Real and Imaginary
440-223a / Seminar / 4,677

Description:

Business event contents:

A ship bound for the New World but thrown off course in a storm and wrecked on the coast of an unidentified island; an ocean-liner considered unsinkable that collides at night with an iceberg and sinks within less than three hours: In all their stark reality such events can easily be imagined in terms of a "nautical metaphors of existence," as Hans Blumenberg writes in his philosophical study "'Shipwreck with Spectator.'" The seminar will discuss literary shipwrecks, with surviving castaways and the loss of life witnessed by observers. Literature writes from the safe distance of the shore, one might argue, but the engagement with shipwreck from the age of exploration to the recent refugee crisis in the Mediterranean has created texts steeped in existential and political interpretation. The seminar aims at putting them into the contexts of their times and current critical debates.

Among the texts discussed will be William Shakespeare's "The Tempest" with reflection on the magic of Art and its reference to the Bermuda Pamphlets about early colonial settlements as well as Daniel Defoe's "Robinson Crusoe" in context of travel literature, slave trade, reports of marooned privateers, and utopian fantasies. In addition to these classical texts, we will look at the loss of the Titanic as a symbol of technological progress in the context of the enduring media spectacle about the catastrophe - from press coverage to poems, music, and movies. We will further study a selection of works by women writers reviewing the masculinity of maritime literature from a feminist perspective, such as - for example - Adrienne Rich's "Diving into the Wreck" and the po of Yvette Christiansë.

Course Materials: Defoe, Robinson Crusoe and Shakespeare, The Tempest; a full reading list will be made available on OLAT before the beginning of the semester. Students are expected to have read Robinson Crusoe by the third week of the semester.

Event Stay Abroad Portfolio

440-410a / Selbststudium mit Leistungsnachweis / 4,699

Description:

Business event contents:

Students who have spent six or more weeks within one year and with max. one interruption (i.e. min. 42 days) in the same particular Anglophone region (region = usually not a whole country) compile a research-based portfolio. The portfolio must be handed in no later than 6 months after the end of the stay abroad and consists of four parts: (1) a short account of their stay abroad, in the form of a report that goes beyond mere narrative (i.e. which includes some meta-level reflection on the experience); (2) a brief presentation and discussion of one linguistic feature of the local variety of English, in a format that would be accessible to non- specialists; (3) an encyclopedia-style entry about one literary text or author from the region; (4) a short journalistic text on one key cultural and/or historical dimension of the Anglophone area in question.

Notes:

Students are expected to submit written proof of their stay abroad (e.g. flight tickets, certificates of employment, etc.). Study abroad exchange semesters and summer schools do NOT count as a possible stay abroad case for the portfolio. Guidelines and information on the submission can be found on the English Department website. Please read the additional guidelines carefully: <https://www.es.uzh.ch/en/master/advanced/modulecatalog/modulesalphabetic/all/stayabroadresearchbasedreport/additionalguidelines.html>

Description:

Business event contents:

The self-study module Independent Reading: Critical Debates is designed for students who wish to acquire in-depth knowledge in a specialized field not offered by the regular curriculum. The module requires students to compile a reading list on a clearly defined topic of their choice. The list consists of a substantial number of theoretical texts; it can include literary and historical texts as well. In contrast to the corresponding Bachelor module, this work has to be done independently for the most part. The module will conclude with a 30-minute oral exam on the agreed reading list.

Notes:

Students must contact the instructor prior to booking the module.

Event Stay Abroad: Research-Based Report
440-850a / Selbststudium mit Leistungsnachweis / 4,720

Description:

Business event contents:

Students who have spent six or more weeks within one year and with max. one interruption (i.e. min. 42 days) in the same particular Anglophone region (region = usually not a whole country) compile a research-based report. The portfolio must be handed in no later than 6 months after the end of the stay abroad and consists of two parts: (1) a short account of the stay abroad in the form of a report that goes beyond a mere narrative (i.e. which includes some meta-level reflection on the experience); (2) an in-depth analysis of either linguistic or literary data in the context of the region in question that shows the student's close familiarity with current research on a specific aspect of that region. The analysis should be concerned with either a distinctive linguistic feature occurring in the particular region or an anglophone literary work which displays a strong connection to that region.

Notes:

Students are expected to submit written proof of their stay abroad (e.g. flight tickets, certificates of employment, etc.). Study abroad exchange semesters and summer schools do NOT count as a possible stay abroad case for the portfolio. Guidelines and information on the submission can be found on the English Department website. Please do read the additional guidelines carefully: <https://www.es.uzh.ch/en/bachelor/advanced/modulecatalog/modulesalphabetical/stayabroadportfolio/additionalguidelines.html>

Event Political Behavior (Lecture)

615-026a / Course / 4,711

Description:

Business event contents:

This course provides an overview of the most important forms of mass political behavior: participation in social movements and the voting booth, and public opinion (attitudes, beliefs, and values). The course stands out through its combination of both macro- and micro-level perspectives and the blending of political sociological and psychological approaches.

The course is organized along a narrative of evolving political conflict since the early 20th Century in Western Europe and North America, including new cultural conflicts that were first manifest in the social movement arena (centering on issues of gender, gay rights, global peace, and ecology). These conflicts ultimately resulted in today's conflict between "New Left" and radical populist right. In parallel, we discuss the individual-level underpinnings of this evolution (values, ideologies, preferences and attitudes). A final part focuses on democratic representation, and broadens the view to new democracies.

Notes:

Course requirements

- Weekly readings for each session (the readings will be made available via OLAT)

- Exam in last week of term

We strongly advise participants to engage with these slides after class and re-think the reading for the specific week in the light of what has been presented.

Event Vorbereitung zum Forschungsseminar: Abstimmungsforschung in der Schweiz
615-509a / Seminar / 4,732

Description:

Business event contents:

Was die Abstimmungshäufigkeit auf nationaler Ebene anbelangt, so sind die Schweizer unangefochtene Weltmeister. Nirgendwo wird so häufig über Sachfragen abgestimmt wie in der Schweiz. In diesem Seminar stehen Fragen zum direktdemokratischen Meinungsbildungsprozess im Vordergrund: Wie gelangt der Stimmbürger zu seinem Entscheid? Welche Rolle spielen Elitensignale, Framing und Priming, Kampagnenausgaben und andere kontextuelle Bestimmungsgrößen? Zusätzlich wird auf Erhebungsmethoden und Auswertungsverfahren, welche für die Abstimmungsforschung zentral sind, eingegangen.

Event Quantification and modelling of the Cryosphere: dynamic processes
GEO815.1 / Lecture with Practical Exercises / 2,991

Description:

Business event contents:

This course introduces quantitative approaches and models to processes of the cryosphere in high mountain areas with a focus on dynamic and thermal processes related to glaciers and permafrost.

This includes applications of simple mathematical and numerical models to investigate ground temperature profiles as well as glacier evolution and dynamics in relation to climate. The course consists of lectures introducing the basic concepts of the different themes, but the main focus lies on extensive computer practicals in which the related quantitative methods and models are applied and explored.

Group work with the quantitative models will also contribute to a deeper understanding of the physical processes involved.

Notes:

Please book module GEO815 in the "Modulbuchungstool" for the fall term.

Course Materials: Course information and documents will be provided on OLAT

Description:

Business event contents:

The course provides an overview of dominant and emerging trends in the theory and practice of environmental governance. The course addresses environmental issues as policy problems and explores how the environment is regulated, controlled, and contested by a range of actors and institutions. The course focuses on the spatial dimension of environmental change and uses key concepts from geography (scale, region, network) to advance regional environmental governance thinking.

The lectures are complemented by seminar classes to work on case studies in smaller groups of students.

Course Materials: All course materials will be available for download on OLAT at the start of the semester.

GEO721.2 / Field Trip / 1,051

Description:

Business event contents:

Der Schweizerische Nationalpark bildet die Kernzone des Biosphärenreservats Engiadina Val Müstair. Auf der Exkursion werden Entstehungsgeschichte und die (politischen) Regionalisierungen des Gebiets vermittelt. Die Forschung spielt in sowohl im Nationalpark (Kernzone) als auch in der Umgebungs- und Entwicklungszone im Unterengadin eine wichtige Rolle. Forschungs- und Monitoringprogramme verschiedener Disziplinen werden während der Exkursion vermittelt. Zudem führen die Studierenden jeweils ein kleines Volunteer Employed Photography-Projekt durch.

Notes:

Die Wanderung ist relativ lang (5h reine Marschzeit, 1000 Höhenmeter, 13-15 km). Im Notfall besteht eine (kleine) Abkürzung durch Auslassung des Munt la Schera. Bei sehr schlechtem Wetter nehmen wir eine alternative Route.

Event Aufgeklärte Musiker: Telemann, Mattheson & Co.
760k015a / Seminar / 284

Description:

Business event contents:

Das 18. Jh. ist geprägt durch Entwicklung in Philosophie, Wissenschaft und Künsten, die durch die zentralen Prinzipien aufklärerischen Denkens

- Förderung von Kritik und Vernunft - ausgelöst sind. In der Musik wird nach ihren "natürlichen" Prinzipien gesucht und die Rolle der Musik im System der Künste diskutiert. Für die Beurteilung von Musik kommen Konzepte wie "Geschmack" oder "Galanterie" ins Spiel. In der Kompositionsgeschichte ist eine Auseinandersetzung mit unterschiedlichen musikalischen Traditionen Europas zu beobachten, die z.B. zum sogenannten "vermischten Geschmack" führt. Wichtige Protagonisten wie J.

Mattheson, G. Ph. Telemann oder J. D. Heinichen legen dabei nicht nur interessante Kompositionen vor, sondern beteiligten sich als Autoren theoretischer Schriften, Korrespondenten oder Publizisten an theoretischen Debatten. Im Seminar werden mit einer Auswahl einschlägiger Werkbeispiele aus verschiedenen Gattungen (v.a. Oratorium, Oper, Instrumentalmusik und Lied) und Schriften wichtige Aspekte der ästhetischen und kunstphilosophischen Debatten behandelt.

Event Poesie als Musik im Lied des 19. Jahrhunderts
760k014a / Seminar / 2,770

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Transformation eines Gedichts in ein Lied wird mit dem Begriff der 'Vertonung' nur sehr ungenau erfasst. Durch die musikalische Dek eines poetischen Textes entsteht vielmehr ein je neues, eigenes Gebilde, das von Komponisten ganz unterschiedlich erzeugt, gewichtet und gewertet wird. Im Seminar soll diesem Phänomen anhand ausgewählter Beispiele von Schubert, Schumann, Brahms, Wolf und Mahler nachgegangen werden. Eine genaue Werkliste wird rechtzeitig vor dem Seminar mitgeteilt. Das Seminar wird als Blockseminar in Kooperation mit der Hochschule für Musik und Theater, München, durchgeführt.

Event A: Beyond the Page: Unveiling the Metafictional Landscape (Continuation from last semester)
440-227a / Seminar / 50

Description:

Business event contents:

"Metafiction, in its ascendant and most important phases, was really nothing more than a single-order expansion of its own great theoretical nemesis, Realism: if Realism called it like it saw it, Metafiction simply called it as it saw itself seeing itself see it", David Foster Wallace once mysteriously concluded, and his rather puzzling assessment deserves a closer look.

Metafiction burst onto the literary stage during the tumultuous 1960s in America, boldly and even shockingly, yet with an infectious exuberance. This form of fiction not only recognizes the elements used in its creation but also places the act of composition at the forefront of its narrative.

In this seminar, we'll explore how metafiction challenges traditional storytelling by blurring the lines between fiction and reality. With intermediality as our lens, we will delve into metafiction's use across different media forms and examine how it pushes the boundaries of storytelling, defying expectations and experimenting with narrative conventions.

Notes:

Term papers are due on September 1st, 2024.

Course Materials:

Our core texts start with modernist sensibilities, such as Virginia Woolf's "Orlando" (1928) but we will swiftly move into the postmodern era when looking at Thomas Pynchon's "The Crying of Lot 49" (1966) or Nicholson Baker's "The Mezzanine" (1986). We will also explore cinematic metafictional portrayals when engaging with "I'm Not There" (2007), dir. Todd Haynes, "Being John Malkovich" (1999), dir. Spike Jonze or "Inglourious Basterds" (2009)" dir. Quentin Tarantino.

Event B: Meet the Tudors: Historical Fictions and the Court of Henry VIII (Continuation from last semester)
440-227a / Seminar / 293

Description:

Business event contents:

This seminar will explore the genre of historical fiction by reading fictional accounts of the lives of key historical players at the court of Henry VIII. We will begin with the late Hilary Mantel's Wolf Hall (2009) and extracts from Bring up the Bodies (2012), and The Mirror and the Light (2020), a trilogy of novels which chronicles the rise of Thomas Cromwell from the son of a London blacksmith to Henry's VIII chief minister, and his sudden fall from grace in 1540.

Mantel was scrupulous in her research, wonderfully well-versed in early modern textual and visual culture. We will situate Wolf Hall in the material world of Tudor England and read the novel alongside poems by Thomas Wyatt, the play Henry VIII (Shakespeare and John Fletcher), The Chronicle History of Thomas Cromwell (of uncertain attribution), Sir Thomas More (Anthony Munday et al.), and extracts from Diarmaid MacCulloch's biography, Thomas Cromwell: a Revolutionary Life (Penguin, 2019). Mantel and MacCulloch were friends and their differing but often complementary perspectives will help us understand where history and fiction meet and part ways.

Notes:

Your essay should develop a topic discussed in the course of the semester. It will include an analysis of Wolf Hall and at least one other primary text as well as relevant secondary criticism that builds on and extends the material discussed in class. The finished piece will be between 4000 and 5000 words in length.

Event (Post)Colonial Environments: Literary and Theoretical Perspectives
440k503a / Seminar / 42

Description:

Business event contents:

In his non-fiction book "The Nutmeg's Curse" (2021), the celebrated Indian novelist Amitav Ghosh traces the current climate crisis to imperial history. As Ghosh explains in a recent interview, "for two centuries, European colonists tore across the world, viewing nature and land as something inert to be conquered and consumed without limits and the indigenous people as savages whose knowledge of nature was worthless and who needed to be erased." This process not only involved material practices (such as the large-scale extraction of raw materials and the enforcement of new ways of managing the land); it also entailed the imposition of Western modes of knowing and seeing the non-human world.

Both forms of hegemony persist to the present day. With regard to contemporary India, Pablo Mukherjee has powerfully demonstrated how, aided by local officials, multinational corporations continue the work of imperialism under the mantle of globalization. Over the last fifteen years, there has been growing interest in the relationship between (neo) imperialism and environmental change, not only in academic research but also among creative writers. In this seminar, we will look at a range of environmental novels set in India, West Africa, and the Canadian Arctic, respectively. Using a variety of genres and narrative styles, these novels tackle the consequences of the Bhopal gas leak of 1984, the worst industrial disaster in history (Indra Sinha, "Animal's People," 2007); they explore the impact of the oil industry on both the environment and human communities (Helon Habila, "Oil on Water," 2010); and they imagine a dystopian world in which North American indigenous people themselves become a natural resource, being hunted for their bone marrow and ability to dream (Cherie Dimaline, "The Marrow Thieves," 2017). Our reading of these texts will be informed by recent scholarship from the field of postcolonial ecocriticism.

Course Materials:

Event Introduction to chemical crystallography
KRI101.1 / Lecture with Practical Exercises / 1,782

Description:

Business event contents:

An introduction to the principles and theory of X-ray diffraction and crystal structure determination as it relates to Chemistry. Fundamental crystallographic concepts: what is crystallography and what can it tell us, unit cells, Bravais lattices, Laue symmetry, crystal classes, point groups, space groups, crystal growth, instrumentation. Diffraction of X-rays by crystals: physical and geometric basics, powder and single crystal methods. A brief demonstration of structure solution and modelling. Interpretation of crystal structure data; internal coordinates for structure description: atom spacing, co-ordination polyhedra, bond angles, torsion angles; intermolecular interactions, absolute configuration determination. Crystallographic databases. Overview of the principles of macromolecular crystallography.

The course should equip participants with the knowledge that will enable them to understand how a crystal structure determination is performed and to analyse critically any crystal structure reported in the literature or retrieved from a crystallographic database.

Notes:

This course is a prerequisite for the subsequent course, KRI 102, which focuses more on the practical aspects of crystal structure determination and the interpretation of results.

Course Materials: Will be handed out during the course

Description:

Business event contents:

Demands on today's leaders in science and business continue to get higher and higher. In addition to proven professional skills, so-called soft factors are becoming increasingly important, and are often decisive for individual careers.

No matter whether we want to successfully lead a group, recruit new colleagues, convince potential investors or funding sources about a research project, or negotiate with customers and suppliers: communication is an essential part of daily life.

We talk to each other, listen to each other, write, read, and exchange non-verbal signals. We constantly convey and reveal information while we are in contact with other people - consciously and deliberately, but also unintentionally and unknowingly.

The CMSZH Graduate School aims at providing optimum development opportunities for you as future top leaders and researchers. We have designed a two-day communication course, in cooperation with an external partner. The program is tailored to meet your needs.

360-514a / Colloquium / 2,973

Description:

Business event contents:

Mittelalterliche und frühneuzeitliche Texte unterliegen grundsätzlich anderen Überlieferungsbedingungen als moderne Literatur. Der Umgang mit Handschriften und Frühdrucken gehört daher zu den grundlegenden methodischen Herausforderungen der wissenschaftlichen Beschäftigung mit älterer Literatur.

In diesem Kolloquium werden wir uns daher jeweils am Beispiel ausgewählter Handschriften und Drucke den medialen und materiellen Modalitäten vormoderner Schriftlichkeit annähern. Die Studierenden werden dabei einerseits grundlegende Einblicke in die hierzu relevanten hilfswissenschaftlichen Felder (Paläographie, Kodikologie, Einbandkunde, Provenienzforschung etc.) erlangen. Andererseits werden wir auch exemplarisch den kulturwissenschaftlichen Fragen nach Gebrauch, Überlieferungswegen und "Sitz im Leben" mittelalterlicher und frühneuzeitlicher Literatur nachgehen, die die untersuchten Textzeugen jeweils aufwerfen.

Primär werden wir dabei auf Buchobjekte aus Zürcher Sammlungen fokussieren, um direkt am Gegenstand arbeiten zu können. Eine zusätzliche Exkursion ist geplant.

Description:

Business event contents:

13 Briefe im Neuen Testament geben als Absender Paulus an. Von ihnen sind gut die Hälfte authentische Briefe aus der Mitte des 1. Jh., die übrigen sind mit verschieden grosser Wahrscheinlichkeit Pseudepigrapha aus dem späten 1. oder frühen 2. Jh. Wie nehmen die späteren dieser Schriften Bezug auf die früheren? Wie wurden sie insgesamt im Zuge der Kanonentstehung zum "Corpus Paulinum"? Welche zentralen Themen halten dieses Corpus zusammen und wie entwickeln sie sich? Welche Impulse für die spätere Entwicklung einer christlichen Theologie gingen von dieser Schriftensammlung aus? Die Vorlesung geht diesen komplexen Fragen nach. Grundkenntnisse aus den BA-Modulen Bibelwissenschaft sind dabei vorausgesetzt.

In dieser Lektüreübung begeben wir uns auf die Spuren der ersten Christinnen. Wir übersetzen gemeinsam Textausschnitte aus dem neutestamentlichen Kanon, in welchen Frauen porträtiert werden - sei dies die Handwerkerin Priska, die Purpurchandlerin Lydia oder die theologisch versierte Samaritanerin aus Joh 4. Wir werden die Texte philologisch und theologisch analysieren, und darauf hin befragen, was sie uns über die Lebenswirklichkeiten von Frauen in den Gesellschaften des Römischen Reichs sowie den sich entwickelnden frühchristlichen Bewegungen berichten können. Unsere Lektüre wird uns quer durch den neutestamentlichen Kanon führen, mit Schwerpunkten auf den Evangelien und der Apostelgeschichte.

Business event contents:

Die Untersuchung von "Hexenverfolgungen" genießt derzeit in Forschung und Politik ein zunehmendes Interesse, da verschiedene Schweizer Kantone daran sind, dieses Thema aufzuarbeiten. Freilich ist das Thema kein schweizspezifisches, fanden doch derartige Verfolgungen in ganz Europa von 1450 bis 1750 statt, wenn auch der Höhepunkt sich ohne Zweifel zwischen 1550 und 1650 bewegte. Der Hexenflug der «Vaudoises» (1451 gemeint sind Waldenser - auf dem Besen ist ein Hinweis, dass die Hexenverfolgungen auch eine konfessionelle Note trugen und gleichzeitig auch gendergerecht behandelt werden sollen.

Das Seminar bietet den Studierenden nicht nur die Möglichkeit, die Hintergründe im Mittelalter, die Rezeption und Ausbreitung im Konfessionalismus und das Abklingen in der Aufklärung differenziert kennenzulernen, sondern auch anhand von Fallbeispielen die gängigen Muster und Parameter der Hexenverfolgungen komparativ zu prüfen und - auch im Blick auf eine säkulare Welt - realistisch einzuschätzen.

Notes:

Das Seminar strukturiert sich durch Quellenlektüre, Referate, Diskussionsthesen usw; Latein, Französisch und Italienisch sind wünschbar, aber nicht Voraussetzung. Auditoren sind zugelassen.

--Während der Reading-Week vom 14.-18.10.2024 finden keine Lehrveranstaltungen statt.

Event Divine Machines – An Introduction to Contemporary Thought in Trans- and Posthumanism#
23LB002 / Proseminar / 3,163

Description:

Business event contents:

As philosopher Martin Heidegger (1889-1976) famously argued, the essence of technology is by no means anything technological. Rather, technology is always constitutive of a form of thought and life. Central to our Western tradition is the belief that we, as self-governing individuals, should exercise control over technology to prevent it from dominating us. More recent developments in the area of human-technology-world relations have questioned this binary opposition of autonomous freedom and determinism. In this course we are thus going to explore central ideas in contemporary trans- and posthumanist thought, such as Artificial General Intelligence or superintelligence, mind-uploading, singularity, cyborgization etc. To what extent can these ideas overcome the limitations and blind spots of humanist anthropocentrism and provide a proper framework for interpreting technological advancement? This course will concentrate on the religious and spiritual aspects inherent or assumed in the anthropological perspectives found in the works of contemporary thinkers like Nick Bostrom, Ray Kurzweil, Donna Haraway, and others. In the first part of the course, we will delve into the historical origins of these concepts within Western religious and philosophical traditions, and also explore their societal repercussions in contemporary society. In the second part we will have a closer look at the spiritual underpinnings of different trajectories of human- technology-world relations, often summarily contrasted as Western (dualist) and Eastern (non-dualist) worldviews. Plato, the Bible, and Buddhist thought will all make an appearance, helping us to find our way into the future of digital technology.

Notes:

There will be no courses during the Reading Week from Oct 14-18, 2024.

Course Materials: Course materials will be provided in digital format.

Event ST/PT Seminar Dogmatics: Sanctification
23SS035 / Seminar / 3,157

Description:

Business event contents:

Wie andere Religionen so ist auch das Christentum seit seinen Anfängen von der Überzeugung getragen, dass sich der Glaube in einer konkreten religiösen Alltagspraxis manifestieren muss. Wie ein solches «christliche Leben» auszusehen hat und ausgestaltet werden soll, wu jedoch zu allen Zeiten kontrovers diskutiert. Diese theologische Frage ist gerade in mehrheitlich säkularen Kontexten besonders spannend und brisant. Und sie stellt sich erst recht den Theologinnen und Theologen selbst: Wie geht es zu - so fragte schon Karl Barth provokativ - «wenn die Theologie (...) auf einen Menschen zukommt, ihn angeht und in ihn hineingeht, in ihm konkrete Gestalt annimmt»? Gibt es so etwas wie «Existentialien», Grundhaltungen, Kernvollzüge und basale Praktiken christlichen Lebens und theologischer Existenz - und wie sind sie theologisch zu bestimmen?

Das Blockseminar geht unter dem klassischen Stichwort «Heiligung» d Fragen sowohl in praktisch-theologischer als auch systematisch- theologischer Perspektive nach.

Notes:

Die Blockwoche ist als ST: Seminar Dogmatik (3 ECTS), HE: Vertiefung einer hermeneutischen Thematik I oder II (3 ECTS) oder als Übung in PT 1 oder Wahlmodul in PT und ST buchbar (3 ECTS). Der LNW für ST: Dokumentierte aktive Teilnahme inkl. Essay.

Für die Blockwoche sind wir im Haus Bodenweidli (Wildhaus) zu Gast. Es ist mit Kosten (Essen und Logis) von CHF 250.- für die ganze Woche zu rechnen. Anmeldung an: tobias.frehner@reformiert-winterthur.ch

Event PT Übung: Seelsorge-Übung für Theologiestudierende
24SU004 / Exercise Group / 2,639

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Rahmen der Seelsorgeübung besuchen Studierende während des Semesters kranke und pflegebedürftige Menschen in einem Spital oder einem Pflegeheim. Die Einsätze werden vorbereitet und begleitet von erfahrenen Seelsorgerinnen und Seelsorgern, die in der betreffenden Institution tätig sind. Ziele der Seelsorgeübung sind das Kennenlernen der Tätigkeit von Seelsorgenden und die Reflexion und Entwicklung der eigenen Kompetenzen in diesem Bereich. Die Seelsorgeübung wird von den Kirchen finanziert und in Zusammenarbeit mit den Fakultäten angeboten.

Zur Seelsorgeübung gehören ein Kennenlerntag, vier Einführungstage, ein Zwischentag und drei Auswertungstage, sowie seelsorgerliche Einsätze in einem Spital oder einem Pflegeheim an 10 frei wählbaren Halbtagen während des Semesters. Während des Semesters wird eine schriftliche Gesprächsaufzeichnung erstellt, zum Abschluss ein 8-10-seitiger Praktikumsbericht. Die Übung ist anspruchsvoll. Sie verlangt zeitlichen Einsatz und fordert auch psychisch. Alle vor- und nachbereitenden Veranstaltungen gehören obligatorisch dazu. Die Blockveranstaltungen plus eine Zwischenauswertung in der Mitte der Übung (nach Vereinbarung) werden durch den Lehrbeauftragten Pfr. Markus Naegeli zusammen mit Pfrn.

Nicole de Lorenzi wahrgenommen. Beide sind erfahrene und ausgewiesene Seelsorger:innen, die auch als CPT-Supervisor:innen arbeiten. Die Einsätze während des Semesters werden von erfahrenen Seelsorgerinnen und Seelsorgern begleitet.

Notes:

Ab 2019 ist der Besuch der Seelsorgeübung Voraussetzung für die Anmeldung zum Lernvikariat. Die Übung wird als Wahlmodul Seelsorgeübung im Rahmen des Studiums an der Theologischen Fakultät der UZH gebucht. Es besteht zudem alternativ die Möglichkeit, das äquivalente Wahlmodul Spiritual Care, das im Rahmen des interdisziplinären Lehrangebots an der Theologischen Fakultät der UZH angeboten wird, zu buchen.

Es wird empfohlen, die «Seelsorge-Übung für Theologiestudierende» n oder zeitgleich mit den Modulen «PT: Seminar Seelsorge» (im FS) und Vorlesung/Übung Seelsorge» (im HS) zu absolvieren, da die drei Module eine didaktische Einheit bilden. Description:

Business event contents:

Diagnostische Verfahren in der Reproduktionsmedizin, Hormontherapien und künstliche Befruchtung werden zunehmend als Therapiemöglichkeiten von Personen mit unerfülltem Kinderwunsch in Anspruch genommen. In diesem Seminar soll aus christlicher und islamischer Perspektive über die theologischen Positionen zu medizinischen Eingriffen in die menschliche Reproduktion reflektiert werden. Die Studierenden sollen den Begriff der "Person" im Kontext der Embryonenforschung erörtern und theologisch einordnen. Darüber hinaus werden ethische Fragen unter anderem zu den Themen Schwangerschaftsabbruch, Leihmutterschaft und Samenspende in Christentum und Islam gemeinsam diskutiert. Das Seminar zielt darauf ab, Studierende dazu zu befähigen, Gemeinsamkeiten, Ähnlichkeiten und Unterschiede in den beleuchteten medizinethischen Fragen am Lebensbeginn in den beiden Religionen zu untersuchen und darüber ins Gespräch zu kommen.

Event Transcriptomics RNA-seq course
BIO675 / Lecture with Practical Exercises / 2,149

Description:

Business event contents:

Next-generation sequencing (NGS) technologies have revolutionized many fields in biology and are changing the practice of medicine. As a joint state-of-the-art research and training facility of the ETH and the University of Zurich, the Functional Genomics Center Zurich (FGCZ) offers a four-day course hands-on practical. The aim is to help participants master fast developing NGS techniques. The practical consists of a library preparation starting from polyA enriched RNA, and a sequencing run on a bench top sequencer, together with an introduction to the analyses of the resulting data and exercises. The lectures cover NGS technologies, their applications and data analysis principles. An entire module has been added for single cell transcriptomics, both for experimental and data analysis.

Event CRISPR-Cas: A versatile and scalable gene perturbation system for Genetic Screens
BIO695 / Lecture with Practical Exercises / 498

Description:

Business event contents:

The CRISPR-Cas system revolutionized the genome engineering field with its ease of use and versatility, and has thus been widely adopted for basic and applied research. Yet, the feature that distinguishes CRISPR- Cas from the previous genome engineering tools is its scalability.

Combined with the increasingly powerful and accessible Next-generation sequencing (NGS) technologies, thousands of genetic perturbations can now be performed and assessed simultaneously.

The Genome Engineering and Measurement Lab (GEML) is the knowledge and technology Hub of FGCZ, with the mission to stimulate, support, and lead research activities in the genome engineering space. As part of our training and technology transfer activities, we offer a three-day course with hands-on practicals on the cutting edge application of CRISPR Sceens. The lectures cover theoretical background on genetic approaches for the functional interrogation of entire genomes, the pooled genetic screen concept, and considerations when designing CRISPR Screens including their compatibility with modern NGS technologies. The practicals consist of NGS library preparation, sequencing and evaluation of CRISPR libraries, and bioinformatic analysis of CRISPR Screen datasets.

Description:

Business event contents:

Digitalisierung und künstliche Intelligenz sind zu einem dominanten Diskurs geworden, der zentrale Aspekte ausblendet. Wir untersuchen im Seminar zum einen Schnittstellen zwischen Aneignungsprozessen in digitalen und alltäglichen Räumen: Wie beeinflussen digitale Repräsentationen von Ordnung und Unordnung unser Bild von Urbanität? In welchem Bezug stehen jugendkulturelle Codierungen zum Beispiel bei Hip Hop-Videos, Memes, Graffiti oder Street Art zu nicht digitalen Erfahrungen? Zum anderen gehen wir aktuellen postdigitalen Trends nach: Wie manifestieren sich aktuelle Bedürfnisse nach Stille und Entschleunigung? Welche Identitätswürfe machen digitale Introspektionen zu Mental Health und «Digitaler Traurigkeit» (un)sichtbar? Wie verändern sich Arbeitswelten durch künstliche Intelligenz? Wie interpretieren Vertreter:innen von Techfirmen postdigitale Trends? Im Fokus des Seminars stehen konzeptionelle und methodische Grundlagen sowohl für literatur- als auch für forschungsbasierte Seminararbeiten.

Event Gruppe 03: Recht und Gesellschaft

600-007a / Seminar / 362

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Bereiche Recht und Gesellschaft sind seit jeher eng miteinander verschränkt und stehen in einem stetigen Spannungsverhältnis, das allerdings einem historischen Wandel unterliegt. Diesen werden wir in diesem Kurs anhand folgender Fragen näher untersuchen: Wer definierte und setzte früher Rechtsnormen durch? Wer klagte an? Wer strafte wen in welchem Kontext? Welche gesellschaftlichen Werte und (Moral-)Vorstellungen widerspiegeln sich in der historischen Jurisdiktion? Und welchen Einfluss übten weitere Faktoren, wie beispielsweise Politik, Religion, Geschlecht oder soziale Zugehörigkeit auf die jeweilige Rechtsetzung aus?

Im Basismodul werden wir diese Fragen anhand von vier Themenfeldern - Mord, Ehe, Sexualität und Magie - aus geschichtswissenschaftlicher Perspektive bearbeiten.

Im Proseminar 1 liegt der Fokus auf der frühneuzeitlichen Schweiz (16.-18. Jahrhundert). Die Grundlage bildet die Lektüre von und der wissenschaftliche Umgang mit aktueller Forschungsliteratur zu den oben genannten Themen, deren Fragestellungen, Thesen/Argumente sowie Ergebnisse. Im Zentrum steht dabei der Mensch als Drehscheibe zwischen Gesellschaft und Recht.

Im Proseminar 2 mit Schwerpunkt auf dem gallo-fränkischen Raum an der Schwelle zwischen Spätantike und Frühmittelalter werden wir den eingangs gestellten Fragen anhand ausgewählter Quellen nachgehen. Neben römischen, gentilen und kirchlichen Rechtsnormen werden wir als weitere Quellen ebenfalls Briefe, Formulae ("Musterurkunden"), die Geschichtsschreibung und Predigten für die Analyse und Diskussion heranziehen.

Ziel des Basismodul I ist es, die Grundlagen des geschichtswissenschaftlichen Arbeitens zu vermitteln. Neben dem Umgang mit Forschungsliteratur, Bibliographien und Zitationsweisen stehen unter anderem die kritische Auseinandersetzung und Analyse historischer Quellen sowie das Verfassen einer Proseminararbeit im Vordergrund.

Notes:

Proseminar 1: Fr 10:15-12:00

Proseminar 2: Fr 12:15-13:45

Leistungsnachweis:

PS I: ein Forschungsbericht inklusive Bibliographie (3-5 Seiten ohne Bibliographie).

PS II: ein Konzept und eine Proseminararbeit (8-10 Seiten ohne Bibliographie).

In einem der zwei Proseminare ist zusätzlich ein Kurzreferat zu halten.

Neben der aktiven Teilnahme am Kurs fließt die Bearbeitung von kleineren Arbeitsaufträgen, die zu Beginn des Moduls genau definiert werden, in die Bewertung mit ein. Um das gesamte Basismodul I zu bestehen, müssen beide Proseminare mit "bestanden" bewertet werden.

Event How to do things. Rezepte und Handbücher in der Geschichte des Wissens (1500- 1800)
600-017a / Seminar / 1,631

Description:

Business event contents:

Historische Rezepte und Handbücher wurden von der geschichtswissenschaftlichen Forschung lange Zeit vernachlässigt. Erst in den letzten Jahren erkannten Wissenschaftler:innen den historischen Wert von sogenannten «How-to-Books»: Ob es um die Zubereitung von Gehirntorten und Abtreibungsgetränken oder die Herstellung von unsichtbaren Tinten oder Schutzamuletten geht - diese nicht-narrativen und handlungsanleitenden Quellen bieten bei sorgfältiger Lektüre und wissenschaftlicher Auswertung wertvolle Einblicke in vergangene Wissens- und Handlungskulturen.

In diesem Quellenseminar unternehmen wir gemeinsam einen Streifzug durch medizinische, kulinarische, magische und kosmetische Rezepte sowie technische Handbücher der Frühen Neuzeit. Dabei gehen wir folgenden Fragen nach: Wie lassen sich Rezept- und Handbücher als Quelle charakterisieren? Welches Potenzial entfalten sie für die geschichtswissenschaftliche Forschung und wo stoßen wir als Historiker:innen auf Interpretationsprobleme oder Erkenntnisgrenzen? Wer verfasste und publizierte Instruktionsliteratur? Welche Leserschaft sprach sie an? Und wie wurde das entsprechende Handlungswissen erworben, rezipiert, transformiert, ergänzt, aufbereitet und medial vermittelt? Ein besonderes Augenmerk liegt dabei auf der Rolle von Geschlecht/ sozialer Zugehörigkeit, Religion und Wissenschaft sowie der Frage, welche Weltbilder sich in handlungsanleitenden Texten der Frühen Neuzeit widerspiegeln.

Event Von Summerhill nach Trichtenhausen. Geschichte der antiautoritären Erziehung
600-018a / Seminar / 3,705

Description:

Business event contents:

Die «antiautoritäre Erziehung» hatte ihre Blütezeit zwischen 1967 u 1971 und war aufs Engste mit den theoretischen Konzepten der Studenten- und Frauenbewegung jener Jahre verbunden. Ein zentraler Bezugspunkt für Alexander S. Neills Arbeit über seine 1921 in Summerhill gegründete Schule, die er 1969 unter dem Titel «Theorie und Praxis der antiautoritären Erziehung» (mit einem Vorwort von Erich Fromm) auf Deutsch veröffentlichte. Die Arbeit wurde sofort zum Kultbuch. Auch in der Schweiz war der Boden für neue Erziehungsmodelle fruchtbar. Ende der 1960er Jahre diagnostizierte der Journalist Alfred Häsler eine unaufhaltsam wachsende Kluft zwischen Eltern und Kindern, aber auch zwischen Schüler:innen und Lehrer:innen. Eine Suche nach neuen Modellen setzte ein, in deren Verlauf 1968 auch die «Freie Volksschule Trichtenhausen» im Kanton Zürich gegründet wurde. Im Seminar beschäftigen wir uns mit der Geschichte der «antiautoritären Erziehung». Anhand von Fallbeispielen aus der Schweiz - aber mit Seitenblicken auf andere europäische Länder - gehen wir der Frage nach, wie es dazu kam, dass Kindheit im Verlauf der 1960er Jahre in den Mittelpunkt gesellschaftlicher Reflexion über soziale Ungleichheit, ihre Legitimität und ihre Bekämpfung rückte. Wir rekonstruieren die Ideen, Konzepte und Praktiken der «antiautoritären Erziehung» und untersuchen wie der Ansatz in konkreten Projekten umgesetzt wurde.

Entre l'amour et la littérature, le lien semble sinon naturel du moins anc À preuve, la poésie courtoise, la tragédie classique, la conversation mondaine transposée au théâtre, "Les liaisons dangereuses" et "Mme Bovary", la poésie surréaliste et les romans durassiens. Mais que fait Tinder au langage de l'amour? Mais les femmes écrivent-elles différemment des hommes? Event Blockkurs: Islam im «Fokus»: audio- visuelle Perspektiven auf Religion
55SS021 / Block Course / 471

Description:

Business event contents:

In diesem Blockseminar setzen wir uns mit den Möglichkeiten auseinander, wie Film und Fotografie in der Religionswissenschaft eingesetzt werden können. Dabei betrachten wir Film und Fotografie sowohl als Forschungsinstrumente wie auch als Mittel der Wissenschaftskommunikation. Das Ziel ist es, den Studierenden einen fundierten, praxisnahen und zugleich zugänglichen Einstieg in das Thema Religion und Visualität zu ermöglichen.

Das Blockseminar gliedert sich in einen theoretischen und einen praktischen Teil. Im ersten Teil beschäftigen wir uns mit den Grundlagen der visuellen Religionsforschung sowie mit Techniken des Filmens und Fotografierens. Im zweiten Teil liegt der Schwerpunkt auf der praktischen Umsetzung: Die Studierenden lernen, wie sie eigene kurze Film- oder Fotoprojekte erstellen können. In zwei Workshops, geleitet von einem erfahrenen Schweizer Filmemacher und Fotografen, erhalten die Studierenden das notwendige Know-how zur Aufnahme und Nachbearbeitung, einschliesslich Bildkomposition und Schnitttechniken. Der Fokus liegt darauf, die technischen Möglichkeiten der eigenen Geräte, sei es Kamera oder Smartphone, optimal zu nutzen.

Die Lehrveranstaltung bietet eine ideale Gelegenheit, praxisnah erste Erfahrungen im kreativen Umgang mit Film und Fotografie zu sammeln und diese gezielt zur Erforschung religiöser Phänomene einzusetzen. Das Blockseminar findet an drei Halbtagen statt und wird mit individuellen Beratungssitzungen ergänzt. Zusätzlich zur Buchung des Moduls werden die Studierenden gebeten, sich direkt bei mir zu melden (dominik.mueller2@uzh.ch), um die Termine für die drei Kurstage zu koordinieren.

410-006a / Seminar / 1,498

Description:

Business event contents:

Il seminario offre un'introduzione alla letteratura italiana nella quale si intrecciano lezioni di carattere panoramico e approfondimenti di carattere teorico, metodologico, critico e storico-letterario. Le unità didattiche si articolano attorno a nuclei tematici specifici, come i generi letterari, la materialità del testo, i rapporti tra la letteratura e il suo pubblico, le arti, la politica, la precettistica, la scienza, la spiritualità, la tradizione, l'identità nazionale e la varietà linguistica. Le lezioni offriranno alle e ai frequentanti uno sguardo critico sulle peculiarità del caso italiano, uno strumentario teorico e metodologico di base e la possibilità di applicare quanto appreso attraverso esercitazioni puntuali sui testi.

Course Materials:

I materiali di studio (programma dettagliato per le singole lezioni, saggi critici, bibliografia e altri materiali utili alla preparazione delle singole unità didattiche e dei lavori scritti) verranno messi a disposizione anticipatamente sulla piattaforma E-Learning OLAT. Event Advanced Topics in Yiddish Linguistics
Advanced Topics in Yiddish Linguistics
360I553a / Exercise Group / 104

Description:

Business event contents:

Since its emergence in the Middle Ages, Yiddish has been spoken in high-contact situations, such that elements of Germanic, Hebrew-Aramaic, Romance and Slavic origins converge in the language.

Today, Yiddish continues being the vernacular first language of several hundred thousands of speakers, especially (but not exclusively) in ultra-orthodox Ashkenazi Jewish communities. Due to its unusual wide geographical extent and the diversity of sociolinguistic embeddings the structure of Yiddish displays a remarkable degree of variation. It is therefore a fascinating laboratory for structural, historical and contact linguistics.

We will read and discuss recent publications on research related to the linguistics of Yiddish. Furthermore, we are planning to conduct field interviews with Yiddish native speakers.

Some familiarity with (work on) Yiddish is certainly advantageous, but it is not a prerequisite. Everyone with a solid general background in linguistics is welcome. Please read the following text for background information on Yiddish: Katz, Dovid (2011): Language: Yiddish. YIVO Encyclopedia of Jews in Eastern Europe.

Event Feministische Kapitalismuskritik
245k517a / Seminar / 1,152

Description:

Business event contents:

Silvia Federici, politische Philosophin und Aktivistin, hat mit ihrem Buch "Caliban und die Hexe" (2004, dt. 2012) lebhaft Debatten über feministische Kapitalismuskritik, Gewalt gegen Frauen und Körperpolitiken ausgelöst. Worum geht es in diesem Buch? Wie lässt es sich theoriegeschichtlich einordnen? Wie interveniert es in aktuelle Debatten im Feminismus? Wie wird es in der Geschlechterforschung aufgenommen? Im Seminar werden Auszüge aus dem Werk Federicis zusammen mit verschiedenen Diskussionsbeiträgen zum Thema gelesen und analysiert.

Event Demokratie und Care
245k620a / Seminar / 664

Description:

Business event contents:

In der politischen Theorie wird «Care» im Sinne von Sorge- und Fürsorgearbeit traditionellerweise dem Bereich des Privaten zugeordnet.

Care gilt als eine Praxis, die vor allem von Frauen im familiären Bereich als unbezahlte Arbeit geleistet wird.

«Demokratie» dagegen verweist als Staatsform auf den Bereich des Öffentlichen und der Politik, der historisch mit Normen von Männlichkeit verbunden ist. Nicht zuletzt angesichts aktueller gesellschaftlicher Krisen im Bereich der Sorgearbeit und der Demokratie, aber auch aus grundsätzlicher feministischer Perspektive erscheint diese Unterscheidung und Zuordnung höchst fragwürdig. Neuere Ansätze in der feministischen politischen Theorie fordern daher, Care und Demokratie systematisch miteinander zu verbinden. Im Seminar widmen wir uns einer solchen feministischen Vision der 'sorgenden Demokratie' und diskutieren ihre Leistungen und Grenze Als Grundlage dient das Buch «Caring Democracy» von Joan Tronto von 2013.

390k571a / Seminar / 2,962

Description:

Business event contents:

Lydie Salvayre, née en 1946 à Autainville, dans une famille d'émigrés espagnols républicains, a publié, depuis 1990, un nombre considérable de livres (romans, pièces de théâtre, essais...). Elle a reçu de prestigieux prix littéraires : le Prix Hermès du premier roman (1990), le Prix Novembre (1997) et, surtout, le Prix Goncourt (2014). Dans ses livres, elle s'intéresse aux traumatismes de l'Histoire, que ce soient ceux de la France de Vichy (« La Compagnie des spectres ») ou ceux de la Guerre civile d'Espagne (« Pas pleurer »), à la vie du travailleur (« La Médaille »), à l'art (« Le Vif du vivant », & « Jusqu'au soir », consacrés, respectivement, à Picasso et à Giacometti) à la musique (« Hymne », consacré à Jimi Hendrix), à la littérature (« Rêver debout », consacré à Cervantès). Elle a écrit un livre sur les femmes-écrivains, d'Emily Brontë à Djuna Barnes, en passant, entre autres, par Colette, Virginia Woolf et Ingeborg Bachmann (« Sept femmes »), s'est interrogée sur le rapport entre l'écrivain et businessman (« Portrait de l'écrivain en animal domestique ») publié un « Petit traité d'éducation lubrique », ainsi qu'un irréfutable essai de successologie ». Il y a peu d'écrivains contemporains dont la gamme thématique soit aussi vaste et le style aussi original. L'objectif de ce séminaire est de familiariser les étudiant.e.s avec les principales œuvres de cette écrivaine.

Course Materials:

Nous lirons les textes suivants :

- La Déclaration (Julliard, 1990)
- La Compagnie des spectres (Seuil, 1997)
- Portrait de l'écrivain en animal domestique (Seuil, 2007)
- Pas pleurer (Seuil, 2014)

D'autres textes seront pris en considération, selon les préférences des participant.e.s.

Description:

Business event contents:

Questa unità didattica presuppone i moduli della fase introduttiva (Fondamenti di linguistica sincronica, Prolegomena (linguistica), con in particolare il corso introduttivo di Fonetica e fonologia) nonché il modulo Fondamenti di linguistica diacronica e dialettologia. Il lavoro in classe è inteso come guida all'approfondimento della materia già affrontata in tali unità didattiche e serve inoltre come accompagnamento nell'iter di preparazione al successivo esame basato sulla lista di letture. A questo scopo, nel lavoro in classe, si alterneranno spiegazioni da parte del docente ed esercizi ai quali lavoreremo insieme. Di settimana in settimana, inoltre, sarà richiesto alle/ ai partecipanti di svolgere per proprio conto ulteriori esercizi assegnati in classe. L'esercizio mira a integrare strumenti e nozioni acquisite in precedenza imparando a vedere le connessioni e a comporre in un metodo complessivo, da applicarsi a qualsiasi oggetto linguistico, quanto nelle unità didattiche precedenti, per esigenza didattica, è stato presentato separatamente (taglio diacronico e sincronico; livelli di analisi fonologico, morfologico, sintattico, lessicale; studio di testi antichi e di varietà linguistiche moderne, ecc.).

Event QO Umberto Eco: filosofo, teorico e romanziere
410k576a / Seminar / 2,977

Description:

Business event contents:

Romanziere, filosofo, semiologo, studioso di cultura medievale, critico letterario, grande comunicatore e altro ancora: nella poliedrica e instancabile attività di Umberto Eco si condensa uno spaccato d'eccellenza del sapere contemporaneo e si individuano i segni del fruttuoso rapporto che intercorre fra la letteratura e la cultura italiane e la tradizione europea. Il seminario intende percorrerne l'opera letteraria, accostandola attraverso la specola dei testi teorici del medesimo.

Course Materials:

Si consiglia una lettura preliminare dei romanzi di Eco, tutti editi da Bompiani: Il nome della rosa (1980), Il pendolo di Foucault (1988), L'isola del giorno prima (1994), Baudolino (2000), La misteriosa fiamma della regina Loana (2004), Il cimitero di Praga (2010), Numero zero (2015).

Una scelta di testi tratti dalle opere teoriche di Eco e una bibliografia specifica, destinata agli approfondimenti sui singoli temi, verrà indicata nel corso del semestre e, quando possibile, messa a disposizione sul modulo OLAT di accompagnamento al corso.

Verrà inoltre allestita una biblioteca di presenza presso il Romanisches Seminar.

Event QO Análisis de Textos Literarios Hispanoamericanos
427-005a / Seminar / 2,937

Description:

Business event contents:

A finales de la década del sesenta, Fernando Lázaro Carreter reflexionaba sobre los usos y abusos del vocablo "realismo", advirtiendo que la palabra "ha recibido tan distintos matices, ha sido tallada con tantas facetas que de significar tanto ha llegado a significar nada".

Desde los estudios literarios la cuestión del realismo ha recibido una constante atención y un esfuerzo continuo por identificar y diferenciar diferentes tipologías. Para el caso de América Latina, la tradición realista no nace tanto con la recepción del modelo francés, sino más bien con la literatura colonial, mostrando ya las múltiples tensiones entre realidad y representación. Dichas tensiones no han dejado de permear la creación literaria en un vaivén entre desmitificación y remitificación, entre familiarización y desfamiliarización, entre radicalización realista y des-realización.

Este seminario propone una lectura detallada de varios textos realistas para luego centrarse en tres de las nuevas formas de realismo desarrolladas a partir de los años sesenta en América Latina y el Caribe: realismo mágico, realismo sucio/hiperrealismo, realismo idiota/críptico. Comenzaremos estudiando las bases conceptuales y teóricas del realismo (Jacobson, Barthes, Horne, Kohut, etc.) y comentando fragmentos de textos anteriores a la segunda mitad del Siglo XX, para luego pasar a una lectura detallada e interpretación de textos contemporáneos.

Course Materials: El material para las clases se pondrá a disposición en OLAT, a partir del principio del semestre.

Event QO Problemas Fundamentales de Gramática del Español
427-014a / Seminar / 2,968

Description:

Business event contents:

Hay algunos temas de la gramática del español que suelen parecer "complicados" (entre otros, el uso de los tiempos verbales, ser y estar, el subjuntivo, los demostrativos...) porque las gramáticas escolares los suelen tratar dando largas listas de diferentes casos con numerosas "excepciones". En este curso miraremos si la lingüística puede ofrecer modelos de explicación más adecuados y más "fáciles" desde el punto de vista de la sistematicidad de los fenómenos. En este sentido, el curso se orienta tanto a la teoría como a la práctica de la aplicación gramatical.

Course Materials:

Los materiales se pondrán a disposición de los participantes al principio del semestre. Además, trabajaremos con el libro de Hans-Ingo Radatz, Spanische Grammatik im Fokus: Klassische Beschreibungsprobleme aus neuer Sicht, Berlin: de Gruyter Mouton 2021 (disponible en línea para estudiantes de la UZH)

Description:

La Celestina, editada por primera vez -aunque incompletamente- en 1499, es un texto emblemático de la Baja Edad Media, cuyo sentido existencial propone una concepción de la vida y del arte instalada de lleno en la más plena modernidad.

A lo largo de este seminario estudiaremos los complejos problemas autoriales y filológicos que caracterizan este peculiar drama, y analizaremos todos los elementos que desde el plano de la expresión y el del contenido conforman su compleja red de significados.

Course Materials: Pocas semanas antes del comienzo del semestre se publicarán en OLAT el nombre del tutor o la tutora, la Bibliografía a emplear y el Programa provisional. La edición que utilizaremos es la que sigue:

Business event contents:

El curso tiene dos objetivos: por un lado, conocer diferentes modelos de descripción sintáctica (modelos cognitivos, generativos y estructurales) y, por otro lado, buscar la manera más adecuada de descripción (y, en la medida de lo posible, de "explicación") de ciertos fenómenos sintácticos del español. En este sentido, el curso tiene también una finalidad didáctica y de aplicabilidad de los modelos lingüísticos al análisis práctico de las lenguas y a la enseñanza.

Event QO Medien der Avantgarde

504k585a / Seminar / 3

Description:

Business event contents:

Die sogenannten 'historischen' Avantgarden der 1910er und 1920er Jahr zeichnen sich durch einen ebenso vielfältigen wie neuartigen und kontraintuitiven Einsatz von Medien aus. Dazu gehören Schreib- und Schriftexperimente, Zeitschriftenprojekte, medienübergreifende Klang-, Bild- und Schriftaufführungen an den Grenzen zum Geräusch, zum bloßen Material, zum Gekritzeln. Im Forschungsseminar erörtern wir Beispiele unterschiedlicher avantgardistischer Medieneinsätze, wir fragen nach den jeweiligen Kommunikationssituationen und -effekten, der Rolle der Rezeption und den Anschlussstellen zur Theoriebildung. Auf dem Programm stehen zudem Ausflüge in die Dada-Sammlung im Kunsthaus Zürich und einzelne Sitzungen im Cabaret Voltaire. Zudem werden wir die Surrealismus-Sammlung von Carola Giedion-Welcker in unserer AVL-Bibliothek nutzen.

Event Kindheit in den neueren skandinavischen Literaturen
360-602a / Seminar / 1,884

Description:

Business event contents:

Spätestens seit der Publikation von Philipp Ariès' Klassiker "Geschichte der Kindheit" ist klar, dass es sich bei der Kindheit um kein universell gegebenes, ahistorisches und biologisch definiertes Entwicklungsstadium des Menschen handelt, sondern um ein soziales Konstrukt, das maßgeblich durch Sprache erzeugt wird. Während die Erfindung der Kindheit vor allem durch pädagogische Disziplinen vorangetrieben wird, setzen sich ab dem späten 19. Jahrhundert eine ganze Reihe von medizinischen Disziplinen mit der Frage auseinander, wie sich die Wahrnehmung, das Denken und das Fühlen des Kindes wissenschaftlich erkunden lässt. Auch Autorinnen und Autoren setzen sich spätestens ab dieser Zeit intensiv mit dem fremdartigen Erleben des Kindes auseinander, wobei sie in ihren Texten die Wahrnehmung (vor allem die Sichtweise), das Denken und das Fühlen des Kindes zu imitieren versuchen. Im Seminar werden wir uns mit klassischen Kindheitsschilderungen der skandinavischen Literatur (u.a. von Hjalmar Söderberg, Selma Lagerlöf, Pär Lagerkvist, Sigurd Hoel, Tarjei Vesaas, Tove Ditlevsen, Johan Borgen, Christina Hesselholdt) beschäftigen. Dabei werden wir diese Kindheitsschilderung zum Teil mit den Kindheitsbildern vergleichen, die in der zeitgenössischen Kinderliteratur entwickelt werden.

Course Materials:

Event Kindheit in den älteren skandinavischen Literaturen
360-602b / Seminar / 1,885

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Egils saga erzählt vom dreijährigen Egill, der nicht mit zu einer Feier kommen darf, weil er sich betrunken immer danebenbenimmt: Vormoderne Vorstellungen von Kindheit und Jugend sind in der kulturwissenschaftlichen Forschung wiederholt auf ihre Alterität zu modernen Vorstellungen hin untersucht worden. Immer wieder in diesem Zusammenhang adressiert, inwiefern man überhaupt sinnvoll von Kindheit im vormodernen Kontext sprechen kann. Die Sagaliteratur bietet jedoch auch eine Reihe von Schilderungen von Figuren im jungen Alter, die durchaus Anknüpfungspunkte an die Moderne bieten: Grettir Ásmundarson etwa wird im Teenageralter als streitbarer Charakter geschildert mit destruktiven Neigungen geschildert, und mehrere Sagas erzählen Coming of age-Geschichten von Helden, die ihre frühen Jahre als so genannte Kohlenbeisser lethargisch an der heimischen Feuerstätte verbracht haben.

In Auseinandersetzung mit relevanten Forschungsbeiträgen werden wir Schilderungen in verschiedenen Genres der vormodernen skandinavischen Literaturen auf vorhandene Konzepte und Verhandlungen von Kindheit und Jugend behandeln und in diesem Kontext die mittelalterliche Tradition in Sagaerzählungen und eddischer Dichtung ebenso in den Blick nehmen wie jüngere Perspektiven in der postreformatorischen Zeit. Dabei werden wir auch sich entwickelnde Vorstellungen von Ausbildung und Erziehung vom Mittelalter bis zur Aufklärung berücksichtigen.

Notes:

Die beiden Lehrveranstaltungen im Modul verwenden Elemente des blended learning und finden standortübergreifend mit Studierenden in Basel und Zürich statt.

Course Materials: Einschlägige Primär- und Sekundärliteratur wird zu Kursbeginn auf OLAT und in einem Handapparat zur Verfügung gestellt.

Event Letture postcoloniali
410I037a / Course / 3,862

Description:

Business event contents:

NOI siamo qui, perché VOI siete stati lì, avete mai sentito questa frase? In un'aula universitaria? In una manifestazione antirazzista? In una pièce teatrale? In una discussione sull'autobus? Il VOI rappresenta l'Europa e in un senso più ampio l'Occidente, il NOI i popoli che hanno subito la colonizzazione proprio da quell'Occidente che dipingeva se stesso come faro di civiltà. La storia del colonialismo dell'età moderna inizia con Cristoforo Colombo che come ben ci ha raccontato Todorov non ha scoperto nulla, ma ha attraversato l'Oceano in cerca di ricchezza, portando con sé un bagaglio fatto di violenza, stereotipi e conquista violenta di risorse e corpi. E da qui, da quel 1492, la storia è diventata di sangue e di lotta. Una storia che ha coperto un arco temporale che va appunto dal 1492 ad oggi, e che va dalla tratta di esseri umani alle politiche estrattive, e di accumulo, della nostra contemporaneità. Le conseguenze di tutta questa violenza sono tristemente ancora visibili sul corpo del mondo, ferite aperte che sanguinano. Ferite in cui si annidano pregiudizio, razzismo sistemico e assassinio.

Course Materials: Leggere romanzi/poesie/saggi postcoloniali del nostro recente (a volte recentissimo) passato per saper leggere il presente Materialien werden über moodle.ethz.ch zur Verfügung gestellt. Wichtig: ETH Login benutzen, um vollen Zugang zu erhalten.

Event Zürich, eine linguistische Landschaft
360-107a / Seminar / 3,861

Description:

Business event contents:

Sprache ist nicht nur in uns und zwischen uns, sie formt und säumt unsere physische Umgebung. Egal ob Strassennamen oder Verbotstafeln, Graffiti oder Werbeanzeige: Was visuell so selbstverständlich unser Stadtbild prägt, sind kommunikative Spuren und Überbleibseln, die nicht nur nützlich sein wollen, sondern Diskurse aufgreifen, Identität verkünden und Momente konservieren.

Das Forschungsfeld der Linguistic Landscapes bietet die Möglichkeit, sich aus verschiedenen Perspektiven dem Gegenstand Sprache zu nähern; ob durch soziolinguistische Betrachtungen, semiotische Analysen oder Beobachtungen von Bewegungen und Interaktionen im öffentlichen Raum.

Notes:

Die Veranstaltung besteht neben regulären Plenumsitzungen auch aus eigenständigen Datenerhebungsphasen. Dabei werden die Teilnehmer*innen in Gruppen das Forschungsfeld in vivo erkunden. Diese Arbeitszeit wird entsprechend durch Entfallen der Präsenzsitzungen substituiert resp. kompensiert.

Event Zellbiologie Vorlesung
BIO112.1 / Lecture with Practical Exercises / 3,832

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Zelle ist die funktionelle Einheit des Lebens. Verschiedene Zelltypen erfüllen einzeln, oder in Geweben organisiert, spezifische Aufgaben. Ziel der Vorlesung ist, ausgewählte Aspekte von tierischen und pflanzlichen Zellen und die zugrunde liegenden Regeln zu diskutieren.

Notes:

Das Modul beinhaltet 2 Stunden Vorlesung pro Woche während des ganzen Semesters, sowie insgesamt zwei Praktikumsnachmittage.

Course Materials:

Alberts B. et al., "Molekularbiologie der Zelle" 6. Auflage, Wiley-VCH, ISBN: 978-3-527-34072-9
oder alternativ die englischsprachige Ausgabe: Alberts B. et al., "Molecular Biology of the Cell", 6th edition, Garland Science, New York, NY, 2014, ISBN 9780815344322. Dieses Buch gibt einen umfassenden Ueberblick über die moderne Zellbiologie. Es bildet das Rückgrat der Vorlesung und bietet Beispiele für Problemstellungen und Fragen sowie Selbsttests. Ein Glossar am Ende des Buches fasst die wichtigsten Begriffe zusammen.
Das Studium der englischen Version ist eine hervorragende Vorbereitung für den späteren Umgang mit englischer Fachliteratur. Obwohl nur selektive Ausschnitte dieses umfassenden Lehrbuchs für die Vorlesung direkt relevant sind, empfehlen wir dieses Buch auch im Hinblick auf die Veranstaltungen in Molekularer Biologie der höheren Semester.
Weitere Vorlesungsunterlagen siehe OLAT.

Event Lehrgrabung Bödeli/Interlaken
640I201a / Praktikum / 2,125

Description:

Business event contents:

Lehrgrabung Interlaken Unterseen Weissenau Ort der Lehrgrabung ist eine Burgruine am Übergang bzw. Einfluss der Aare vom Bödeli in den Thunersee. Sie befand sich auf einer Insel im Flussdelta. Es gibt eine Kernburg mit Turm, Palas und Ringmauer sowie eine merkwürdig grosse und speziell geformte Vorburg, bei der es sich um einen befestigten Hafen gehandelt haben könnte. Die angenommene Zeitstellung - durch die Grabungen noch zu überprüfen - ist das 13.

Jahrhundert.

Event Macroeconomics for Research StudentsPart I (Ph.D.) (E)
DOEC0380 / Exercise Group / 2,264

Description:

Business event contents:

This course is an introduction to macroeconomic theory at the PhD level. We develop tools that are commonly used in macroeconomics but also other areas of economics, notably recursive methods and discrete and continuous time dynamic optimization. We apply these tools to some of the most important topics of macroeconomics, including general equilibrium with complete and incomplete markets, consumption-savings problems, investment, dynamic contracts, fiscal policy, economic growth and climate macroeconomics.

Notes:

This module will not be podcasted or recorded.

Description:

Course Materials:

Francisco Rosales et al. (2017): CAMPUS SUR. Libro del alumno, Barcelona, Difusión.

Beim Kauf des Kursbuchs gibt es zwei Möglichkeiten: Wenn man an beiden Semestern (HS und FS) teilnehmen möchte, empfehlen wir den Kauf der Kompaktversion, die die Stufen A1-B1 enthält. Es gibt zwei Alternativen: eine auf Deutsch (von Klett) und eine auf Spanisch (von Difusión). Die erste (auf Deutsch) kann vor allem für Nicht-Romanisten, die es nicht gewohnt sind, romanische Sprachen zu hören und zu verstehen, von Nutzen sein.

Bei Unsicherheiten, ob man an beiden Semestern teilnehmen wird, kann man die Version von CAMPUS SUR kaufen, die die Niveaus A1-A2 enthält und nur auf Spanisch ist (Difusión).

Der Preisunterschied zwischen den beiden ist nicht sehr groß, so dass wir empfehlen, die Kompaktversion zu kaufen, auch wenn man nur am ersten Semester teilnehmen möchte.

Event Schriftlichkeit und Schriftgebrauch im Mittelalter. Neue Zugänge zu «älteren» Forschungsthemen
600I502a / Colloquium / 3,191

Description:

Business event contents:

In der Geschichtswissenschaft sind Schrift und Schriftzeugnisse nicht (mehr) nur als Informationsträger zu betrachten. Die verschiedenen Dimensionen ihrer Bedeutung in vormodernen Gesellschaften sind in den letzten Jahrzehnten aus unterschiedlichen Perspektiven und mit unterschiedlichen Zielsetzungen untersucht worden, was zu grundlegenden Erkenntnissen und neuen methodischen Überlegungen geführt hat. Zum einen sind Aspekte wie die Produktion, der Gebrauch und die Aufbewahrung von Schriftgut, zum anderen die Akteure und schliesslich die Materialität und Präsenz von Schrift auf Artefakten in den Fokus der Forschung gerückt. Darüber hinaus hat die Grundlagenforschung neue Ziele und Formen der (digitalen) Aufbereitung und Edition definiert. Im Rahmen des Kolloquiums sollen aktuelle Forschungsansätze und - ergebnisse anhand ausgewählter Beispiele gemeinsam diskutiert werden.

Course Materials: Die Materialien werden auf OLAT zur Verfügung gestellt.

Event Ungarn seit der Wende (1989). Eine Spätfolge des Traumas von Trianon (1920)?
612I001a / Colloquium / 3,637

Description:

Business event contents:

Als 1989 der «Eiserne Vorhang» im Zusammenbruch begriffen war, war Ungarn eines der ersten Länder, das die Grenzsperrren nach Österreich abbaute. DDR-Bürger «flohen» über Ungarn nach Österreich und Deutschland. Zu jener Zeit war, wie Otto von Habsburg 2001 festhielt, Ungarn eines der «fortschrittlichsten, demokratischsten Länder» der Ostblockstaaten. Heute steht Ungarn immer mehr am Scheideweg: Mit Premier Viktor Orbán hat das Land einen deutlichen Rechtsrutsch gemacht, die Medien werden zensuriert, gleichzeitig aber finden Massenproteste gegen die Regierung des Premiers und der Partei Fidesz statt, da die Macht stetig ausgebaut wird. Orbán und seine Gefolgsleute sehen ihren «Widerstand» gegen die «Allmacht» der Europäischen Union Vaterland, Nation und Christentum. Seit der «Ukraine-Krise» wird ein neues Kapitel der Geschichte Ungarns geschrieben. Quo vadis, Hungaria?

In dem Kolloquium werden die Hintergründe der Entwicklung in Ungarn nach der Wende untersucht. Dabei ist ein Blick zurück in die Geschichte des «Stephansreiches» notwendig, vor allem aber die Auseinandersetzung dem Vertrag von Trianon (1920), demzufolge Ungarn zwei Drittel des Territoriums des historischen Königreichs verlor. Die politischen Spätfolgen dieses «Friedensvertrages» werden in der 'westlichen' Forschung bis heute wenig thematisiert, aber spürbar sind sie in der jetzigen politischen Konstellation.

Course Materials:

Als Einführung wird empfohlen: Krisztina Koenen, Feinde, überall Feinde. Die Welt, wie sie Viktor Orbán sieht, Osteuropa 61 (12/2011), 105-118.
Paul Lendvai, Die Ungarn. Ein Jahrtausend Sieger in Niederlagen, München 1999. Joachim v. Puttkamer, Blicke auf ein gespaltenes Land. Die ungarische Nation und ihre Geschichte, in: Osteuropa 61 (12/2011), 9-30.

Event Forschungsseminar (Beginn HS 2024), Teil I
226-513a / Seminar / 1,245

Description:

Business event contents:

Die erziehungswissenschaftliche Forschung beschäftigt sich mit unterschiedlichen biografischen Übergängen und deren Bewältigung. Dazu gehören Übergänge zwischen verschiedenen institutionellen Kontexten, wie z.B. von der Kita in den Kindergarten oder von der obligatorischen Schule in den Lehrbetrieb, aber auch Übergänge in konkreten Lebensphasen, wie beispielweise der Auszug aus dem Elternhaus im jungen Erwachsenenalter ins selbstständige Wohnen oder die Aufnahme einer neuen Arbeitstätigkeit. Walther (2014) geht davon aus, dass aktuell eine Zunahme von Übergängen in persönlichen Biografien stattfindet (z.B. Arbeitsstellenwechsel) und damit auch vermehrt Herausforderungen verbunden sind. Übergänge sind mit sehr individuellen Erfahrungen verbunden und können gemäss Hof (2022) Lernanlässe sein, auf die mit der Entwicklung von neuen Fähigkeiten, der Aneignung von neuen Verhaltensweisen und durch die Übernahme von neuen Rollen reagiert werden muss. Die Bewältigung solcher Übergangssituationen ist von persönlichen Ressourcen, bestehenden Erfahrungen und dem sozialen Umfeld abhängig. Zudem sind Übergänge durch «normative Setzungen» (Demmer, 2017, S. 16), wie z.B. das Schuleintrittsalter, Übergangsbestimmungen oder Bedingungen des Arbeitsmarkts gekennzeichnet. Solche normativen Setzungen wirken sich auf die jeweiligen Übergangsmöglichkeiten und somit auf die individuellen Lebensverläufe aus.

Im Forschungsseminar werden unterschiedliche theoretische und forschungsmethodische Zugänge zur Betrachtung und Analyse von biografischen Übergängen in (ausser-)schulischen und (aus-)bildungsbezogenen Kontexten bearbeitet. Dabei stehen folgende übergeordneten Fragestellungen im Zentrum: Von welchen Normen sind Übergänge in verschiedenen Bereichen (z.B. Schule oder sozialpädagogischen Einrichtungen) geprägt? Welche Rolle spielen dabei Faktoren wie z.B. das Geschlecht, die Herkunft oder das Vorliegen einer Behinderung? Welche historischen Kontinuitäten und Veränderungen lassen sich hinsichtlich von Übergängen feststellen? Wie werden Übergänge von den Betroffenen wahrgenommen? Welche Ressourcen zur Bewältigung von Übergängen stehen zur Verfügung? Welche Rolle spielen Eltern, Geschwister, Peers, Lehrpersonen oder andere Fachpersonen bei Übergängen?

Ausgehend von den unterschiedlichen Zugängen und möglichen Forschungsfeldern werden die Studierenden im Forschungsseminar angeleitet, eigenständige Forschungsprojekte zur Seminarthematik zu konzipieren und umzusetzen. Aufgrund des breit gefassten Themas haben die Studierenden die Möglichkeit unterschiedlichen Interessen nachzugehen und verschiedenste Fragestellungen mit unterschiedlichen Forschungsmethoden zu bearbeiten. Je nach Fragestellung können die studentischen Forschungsprojekte quantitativ, qualitativ als auch historisch ausgerichtet sein. Die Zusammenarbeit mit der Fachstelle Methoden zur Unterstützung der studentischen Forschungsprojekte ist vorgesehen.

Event Dämonische Versuchungen in der ägyptischen Wüste: Athanasius' Vita des Antonius
3221016a / Colloquium / 2,014

Description:

Business event contents:

356 verfasste der alexandrinische Bischof Athanasius die "Vita Antonii".

In ihr schildert er nicht ohne kirchenpolitische Interessen, aber grossenteils historisch zuverlässig, wie Antonius zum Einsiedler in der ägyptischen Wüste wurde. Die bewundernde Schilderung des Eremiten fand weiten Anklang und trug dazu bei, die neue Lebensform des Mönchtums (später auch in einem Kloster zusammenlebender Mönche) zu verbreiten. Als "erste Heiligenvita" war die Antoniusvita stilprägend für unzählige Werke der Spätantike und des Mittelalters. Das Werk wird in Ausschnitten in deutscher Übersetzung mit einem Blick auf das griechische Original gelesen und besprochen.

Course Materials: Die zu lesenden Textausschnitte werden auf OLAT zur Verfügung gestellt.

Description:

Business event contents:

In den letzten Jahrzehnten sind Ranglisten der reichsten Einzelpersonen und Familien (z.B. die seit 1990 jährlich erscheinende Sonderausgabe "300 Reichsten" des Wirtschaftsmagazins Bilanz) zu einem medialen Ritual geworden. Die Forschung zur Einkommens- und Vermögensungleichheit hat eine neue Blüte erlebt, und auch auf der politischen Agenda stehen teilweise heftige Debatten über die soziale Ungleichheit und die Rolle des Vermögens in unserer Gesellschaft. Doch was wissen wir über die Art und das Ausmaß; von hohen Einkommen und Vermögen, wenn man eine langfristige Perspektive einnimmt?

In diesem Forschungsseminar wird das Profil des Spitzenvermögens anhand von Steuerunterlagen des 19. Jahrhunderts untersucht, um die Quellen des Reichtums während der Industrialisierung zu erforschen. Wer waren die Reichen vor 1900? Woher stammte ihr Vermögen? Wie haben sie ihr Vermögen angehäuft? Wurde man durch Vererbung oder durch Arbeit und Innovation reich? Wie sahen die sozialen, wohnlichen, beruflichen und familiären Strukturen der obersten Vermögensschichten aus? Die Teilnehmenden des Seminars werden sich mit diesen Themen auseinandersetzen und durch die Arbeit an Originalquellen einen Beitrag zur Beantwortung dieser Fragen leisten und damit zu einem lebendigen Feld der historischen Forschung beitragen.

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Herrschaftszeit von Philipp II. und Alexander dem Großen hat nicht nur das makedonische Reich besonders geprägt, sondern auch die politische Landkarte des antiken Mittelmeerraums stark verändert. Ihre Eroberungen und die daraus resultierenden kulturellen Austausch und Verflechtungen haben die Geschichte ganzer Regionen nachhaltig beeinflusst. In diesem Seminar wird zunächst der politische Kontexte des makedonischen Reiches während der Regierung von Philipp und Alexanders des Grossen analysiert und die kulturellen Konsequenzen des gewaltigen Eroberungszuges von Alexander in den Fokus besprochen.

Event She said. Politik der Autorinnen seit 2010
255k512a / Seminar / 3,326

Description:

Business event contents:

In einem vielbeachteten Essay schrieb Girish Shambu 2018, dass aus dem ursprünglich emanzipatorischen Ansatz des Auteurismus eine «manspreading machine» geworden sei: «an ingenious mechanism for ceaselessly multiplying discourse on a limited number of directors». Dies gilt für Bestenlisten (trotz Chantal Akermans JEANNE DIELMAN auf der Pole Position der Sight and Sound-Bestenliste) und DVD-Kollektionen ebenso wie für filmwissenschaftliche Curricula. Wir werden in diesem Semester auf den oft erschreckend niedrigen Anteil von Regisseurinnen in unseren Seminarplänen reagieren, indem wir ausschliesslich Filme von Filmemacherinnen behandeln: von Pelin Esmer, Greta Gerwig oder Kelly Reichardt; von Athina Rachel Tsangari, Céline Sciamma, Carla Simon, Judy Kibinge oder Lucrecia Martel; von Jessica Hausner, Alice Diop, Alice Rohrwacher, Justine Triet, Maren Ade oder Naomi Kawase. Für unser kleines Panorama einer zeitgenössischen «Politique des autrices» gi die zusätzliche Spielregel, dass die Filme, die wir diskutieren wollen, in den Jahren seit 2010 entstanden sind: Ein ABC von Tsangaris ATTENBERG (2010) bis Martels ZAMA (2017) und darüber hinaus. Neben filmkritischen und filmanalytischen Texten zu den Filmen werden wir Texte aus den historischen und zeitgenössischen Debatten um spezifisch weibliche Ästhetiken sowie filmpolitische Diskussionen über Quoten und andere anti-diskriminatorische Maßnahmen lesen, die im Umkreis des Feminismus und dessen kritischen Erweiterungen und Revisionen nach den 1970er Jahren entwickelt wurden.

Event Auf und ab: Berge im Schweizer Film
255k010a / Seminar / 282

Description:

Business event contents:

Wenig überraschend kommen in Schweizer Filmen Auf- und Abstiege in den Bergen immer wieder vor. Es werden damit die Topografien der Gebirgslandschaften erfahrbar gemacht oder es wird etwa von körperlichen, sozialen sowie psychischen Grenzerfahrungen erzählt. Die Schauplätze am und auf dem Berg können als Orte des Schreckens, aber auch des Erhabenen dargestellt werden. In vielen fiktionalen und nichtfiktionalen filmischen Variationen wird das menschliche Handeln im Kontext der spezifischen Landschaft gezeigt, in einigen wird der Berg selbst zum Handlungsträger.

Im Seminar drängen sich daher einerseits Fragestellungen auf, die sich grundlegend dem filmischen Erzählen in der Berglandschaft sowie der audiovisuellen Darstellung der Berge selbst widmen. Ein zentraler Aspekt ist dabei, in welchem Verhältnis Mensch und Landschaft in den Filmwerken stehen.

Andererseits ist der Berg die wichtigste touristische Werbeikone und ein beständiges und mit verschiedensten Bedeutungen aufgeladenes Symbol für die Schweiz als Nation. Vermengt mit einer mythisierten Entstehungsgeschichte der Eidgenossenschaft wird die schweizerische Identität bis heute wesentlich mit den Alpen verknüpft. Je nach Phase gilt es daher in der Untersuchung der Schweizer Filmgeschichte, verschiedene nationale Selbstbilder und mediale Konzeptionen der Berge zu differenzieren: von der Zementierung der Ursprungsmythen im Zuge der Geistigen Landesverteidigung über deren Dekonstruktion im Neuen Schweizer Film bis zu den Neubewertungen im jüngeren Filmschaffen.

Insgesamt ist es methodisches Ziel des Seminars, filmanalytische Fragestellungen mit historischen und kulturwissenschaftlichen Perspektiven zu verschränken. Die Studierenden sollen darüber hinaus das Schweizer Filmschaffen mit einem thematischen Fokus besser kennenlernen, an dem sich prägende filmhistorische Etappen und Entwicklungslinien gut ablesen lassen.

Event History Lessons: Filmisches Entwerfen und Spekulieren
255k002a / Seminar / 1,625

Description:

Business event contents:

Die US-amerikanische Filmemacherin Barbara Hammer entwirft in ihrem Film HISTORY LESSONS (2000) eine 'andere', lesbische Vergangenheit, die al Gegenprogramm zu einem vermeintlich fest etablierten und objektiven Wissen - zu Geschichte in Einzahl - steht. Mit dieser und weiteren «Geschichtsstunden» werden wir uns im AufbauSeminar beschäftigen, w wir das Wieder-, Neu- oder Anders-Erzählen von Geschichte(n) entlang der Begriffe «Entwerfen» und «Spekulieren» diskutieren fragen nach vergangenen und gegenwärtigen Anlässen, nach konkreten historischen und politischen Kontexten, die zum Spekulieren anleiten und beschäftigen uns mit unterschiedlichen Standpunkten, aus denen heraus entworfen, imaginiert, fabuliert oder spekuliert wird. Im Seminkontext setzen wir uns mit unterschiedlichen Formen und Strömungen des Spekulierens auseinander - zum Beispiel «Spekulativer Realismus», «Afrofuturismus» oder feministische Modi des Entw sie etwa Octavia E. Butler, Saidiya Hartmann oder Anna Tsing vorschlagen. Wir befassen uns dabei unter anderem mit Filmen von Kelly Reichardt (FIRST COW, 2019), Patric Chiha (BRÜDER DER NACHT, 2016), Lizzie Borden (BORN IN FLAMES, 1983) oder Ryan Coogler (WAKANDA FOREVER, 2022). Ziel dieses AufbauSeminars ist es, einen Überblick über unterschiedliche filmische/theoretische Modi des Spekulierens zu vermitteln. Diese sollen kontextualisiert, kritisch befragt und miteinander in Verbindung gebracht werden.

Event Stimmen im Film
255k001a / Seminar / 3,425

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Seminar interessiert sich für Erscheinungsformen von Stimmen im Film und ihre je spezifischen Ästhetiken und Politiken. Das Augenmerk wird dabei auf Filmen liegen, die Stimmen selbst zum Thema haben, sie in den Vordergrund rücken und selbstreflexiv verhandeln. Hierzu wollen wir das Objekt Stimme zunächst theoretisch konturieren und ein Gespür und Gehör entwickeln für seine jeweiligen Einsätze, die komplexen Verbindungen zwischen Stimme und Bild und die von uns eingeforderten Modi des Hörens.

Zur Sprache kommen dabei unter anderem Fragen von Repräsentation, Evidenz, Zeugenschaft, Zeitlichkeit und Übersetzung. Einschlägige filmtheoretische Positionen werden wir hierfür in Dialog bringen mit Ansätzen aus Sound Studies, Medientheorie und nicht zuletzt auch psychoanalytischer Theorie.

Event Speculative Turn? Theorien, Literaturen und Medien des Spekultativen
506k108a / Seminar / 3,361

Description:

Business event contents:

Zukunft boomt: in der Werbung, auf dem Bildungs- und Kulturfeld, in der Wissenschaft als Konferenzthema und Titel von Special Issues. Der Boom der Zukunft geht zeitgleich mit ihrer Krise einher. Dabei macht auch die andauernde Eskalation und Akkumulation von globalen Krisen - Kriege und Flüchtlingskrise, Finanzkrise, Klimakrise, Coronakrise und nicht zuletzt die Krise der Demokratie - Praktiken des Zukunft-Machens im Alltag sichtbar, wie beispielsweise das Berechnen und Prognostizieren von Risiko. Die Konstellation Zukunft als Krise spiegelt ein bekanntes Muster aus Kontexten wider, in denen Krise schon lange eine normalisierte Lebensweise ist. Das Seminar geht dem Phänomen der Spekulation in Kulturtheorie und -praxis nach. Wir untersuchen Spekulation als Methode, als Theorie und als heuristisches Konzept. Kann Spekulation dabei tatsächlich als neueres Paradigma kulturwissenschaftlicher Forschung aufgefasst werden? Spekulation und Zukunft sollen dabei nicht affirmativ erforscht werden, sondern müssen einer kritischen Befragung und historischen Figurierung unterzogen werden.

Event Folk Horror
506k107a / Seminar / 1,178

Description:

Business event contents:

Folk Horror ist eine Spielart des Horrors, die sich durch die thematische und/oder ästhetische Verwendung von volkstümlichen Elementen wie Sagen, Bräuchen und Ritualen charakterisiert. Gewisse Elemente finden sich wiederkehrend in Werken dieses Genres: Eine Landschaft, die sich als bedrohlich erweist, isolierte Gemeinschaften, die seltsame, ja gar unheimliche Sitten und Bräuchen pflegen, was in Gewalt und/oder übernatürlichen Ereignissen ausartet.

Seit einigen Jahren erlebt Folk Horror einen richtigen Boom, was sich in einer steigenden Anzahl an entsprechenden Medienprodukten und wissenschaftlichen Publikationen niederschlägt.

In der Lehrveranstaltung wollen wir uns mit Folk Horror-Produkten verschiedener Zeiten und unterschiedlicher Provenienz unter Einbezug aktueller Sekundärliteratur befassen, um uns ein vertieftes Verständnis von Folk Horror zu erarbeiten.

Event Lokale Nahrungskulturen
506k003a / Seminar / 2,184

Description:

Business event contents:

"Eat local, think global" - Lokaler Konsum wird oft als Lösung für ethische, ökologische oder auch gesundheitliche Probleme propagiert und als Schlagwort und Verkaufsargument verwendet. Dabei ist die Bedeutung des Begriffs - anders als bei zertifizierten Labels - nicht definiert: daraus resultieren vielfältige Auslegungen und Verwendungen. Mit 'Lokal' wird mehr assoziiert als die kleinstmögliche Distanz zwischen Produktions- und Konsumationsort. Es kann um eine Lokalspezifik im Sinne einer regionspezifischen Besonderheit gehen, die sich auf den Herstellungsprozess, die Zutaten oder das Rezept oder auch auf dem Ort zugeschriebene Werte bezieht. Oder es stehen andere Faktoren wie die Grösse und Handwerklichkeit eines Betriebes oder die Transparenz der Wertschöpfungskette im Fokus.

Im Seminar begeben wir uns auf eine kulturwissenschaftliche Spurensuche nach dem Trend des 'Local Food'. Welche Akteur:innen stehen direkt od indirekt mit dem Begriff in Verbindung? Woher kommt der Begriff und wie hat er sich vielleicht mit der Zeit gewandelt? Mit welchen Bildern, Geschichten und Narrativen wird dabei kommuniziert? Wie wird diese gefühlte oder tatsächliche Nähe des Lokalen hergestellt? Und in welchem Zusammenhang steht lokal mit anderen Ernährungswerten wie nachhaltig, biologisch oder fair? Dabei verstehen wir 'lokal' als Komponente in einem komplexen Wertesystem der Ernährung, wobei es letztlich auch um Fragen nach Nachhaltigkeit, Identität, Zugänglichkeit und Ernährungssicherheit gehen soll.

Event Arbeit

506k002a / Seminar / 2,053

Description:

Business event contents:

In diesem Seminar widmen wir uns einem klassischen Forschungsfeld der Empirischen Kulturwissenschaft: «Arbeit». Im Zentrum der Lehrveranstaltung stehen arbeitsethnografische Fallstudien und theoretische Texte. Wir werden uns mit den Veränderungen von Arbeit im Neoliberalismus beschäftigen und dabei auf klassische (etwa Fabrikarbeit oder Erntearbeit) und neuere Arbeitsfelder (etwa Lieferdienste oder digitalisierte Arbeit) sowie Veränderungen in Anstellungsbedingungen (etwa Leiharbeit/Zeitarbeit) blicken. Überdies wird die Frage danach, was als Arbeit gilt und wie dies diskursiv verhandelt wird, bspw. im Bereich der Care-Arbeit, diskutiert.

Im Laufe des Seminars sollen Fragestellungen für eigene ethnografische Arbeiten in ausgewählten Feldern erarbeitet und erste Schritte ins Feld unternommen werden.

Event Visuelle Anthropologie - populäre Bilder erkennen und verstehen
506k001a / Seminar / 3,698

Description:

Business event contents:

Das thematische Seminar widmet sich einem Themenfeld, das aus der Alltagskultur nicht nur nicht wegzudenken ist, sondern zu Recht auch als eine Chiffre des Wandels populärer Kommunikation und Medienpraxis gelten kann. Es stellt Bildwelten der Zeit seit etwa 1800 ins Zentrum und verbindet die Beschäftigung mit ausgewählten Genres mit einer Einführung in Konzepte und Arbeitsweisen der kulturwissenschaftlich- anthropologischen Bildforschung. Neben Grundlinien der Techniken und der Genealogien von Produktion, Vertrieb und Konsum populärer Bildlichkeit wird ein Schwerpunkt auf uns heute neben den alten und neuen Klassikern visueller Kultur (Film, Fotografie, neue Medien) unvertraut gewordenen Bildtypen und Gebrauchsweisen liegen. So werden wir uns u.a. mit populärer Druckgrafik, Hinterglasbildern, Bilderbögen oder Votivtafeln beschäftigen, nach ihrer historischen Situiertheit, aber auch nach ihrem Nachleben in gegenwärtigen Technologien, Bildgedächtnissen und - praktiken fragen. Das Seminar wird von ein oder zwei Besuchen in Sammlungen zur Alltagskultur begleitet, in denen im Dialog mit Expert*innen und anhand historischer Originale Spezifika ausgewählter Bildgattungen vertieft werden sollen.

Event Einführung in die musikalische Analyse
760-006a / Seminar / 875

Description:

Business event contents:

Musik zu analysieren gehört zum musikwissenschaftlichen Handwerk. Dabei müssen die Analysetechniken jedoch passend gewählt sein, um kompositorische Besonderheiten der Werke erschliessen und interpretieren zu können. Die Sonate bietet als zentrale Gattung der Instrumentalmusik und mit dem Modell des Sonatenhauptsatzes vielfältiges Repertoire, um die Umsetzung im individuellen Werk im Verhältnis zu Gattungs- und Formkonventionen zu untersuchen. Im Seminar werden exemplarisch Werke verschiedener Zeiten behandelt und Techniken der Analyse erprobt; die Ergebnisse werden mündlich präsentiert und schriftlich ausgearbeitet. Dabei wird auch auf aktuelle musikwissenschaftliche Forschungsliteratur eingegangen.

Event Excursion 1. Semester "Lägeren"

ESS101.2 / Field Trip / 1,013

Description:

Business event contents:

Earth System Science (ESS) is the science that aims at understanding the processes by which Earth's atmosphere, hydrosphere, cryosphere, geosphere and biosphere operate and interact among themselves and how human societies might impact them, interact with them and be affected by them. To this regard it focuses on compartments and flows, being by nature the study of dynamic earth processes and their changes due to global change. To study compartments and flows, we will explore the interactions between earth system spheres in situ with a day day hike excursion to the UZH research site Lägeren <https://www.gcb.uzh.ch/en/Research/TestSites/Laegeren.html> .

This site because it represents a gradient of geological, biological, and human conditions that interact through for example the natural cycles or energy and matter - water carbon, nitrogen, phosphorus, among others - and deep layer processes. It also includes human society, through a direct or indirect effect. During the excursion you will get an overview of each of the geo-biosphere, water-atmosphere, and human environments, and how they relate to the ecosystem services that support our livelihoods.

Notes:

The excursion will take place in the forest of Lägeren, close to Baden. Meeting point will be the bus stop "Wettingen Brunnenwiese" (bus 3 from train station) at 8:49 h (exact schedule will be provided during first lecture of the first week). From there we will hike 4 km uphill, with several stops, explore the surroundings, visit the experimental field site, make our own observations, then hike back in the afternoon. Bring food and water for the whole day. No other costs involved.

Event Einfluss der Digitalisierung auf Medienunternehmen und Handlungsoptionen aus ökonomischer Sicht
254I110a / Seminar / 802

Description:

Business event contents:

In diesem Seminar erhalten die Studierenden einen Überblick über die wesentlichen Herausforderungen der Digitalisierung aus Sicht eines Medienunternehmens. Ein spezielles Augenmerk widmet der Lehrplan auch der Verbreitung von digitalen Medieninhalten, welche die Medienunternehmen aufgrund neuer Wettbewerbsteilnehmer (Technologieunternehmen) ganz besonders fordern. Schwerpunkt bildet die Transformation von klassischen Medienunternehmen.

Die Studierenden verstehen die Problemstellungen und Handlungsoptionen, sowie die nötigen Planungsschritte einer ganzheitlichen digitalen Transformation. Zum Abschluss erfolgt auch eine kurze Einordnung der Marktregulierung und Medienförderung im Kontext der Digitalisierung, inklusive Blick in den EU-Raum. Das Seminar versteht sich als Praxistransfer.

Event NT Seminar: Sermon on the Mount
15SS035 / Seminar / 2,555

Description:

Business event contents:

Die "Bergpredigt" in Mt 5-7 ist nicht nur grundlegend für das Matthäusevangelium, sondern hat auch für die Theologie und Ethik insgesamt eine herausragende Bedeutung. Bekannte Perikopen wie die Seligpreisungen, das Unservater und die "goldene Regel" sind hier zu einer Rede Jesu komponiert worden. Dabei stehen die Zusage des Himmelreiches und die Forderung nach einer besserer Gerechtigkeit spannungsvoll nebeneinander. Die Beschäftigung damit verspricht hilfreiche Impulse für das Verständnis theologiegeschichtlicher Entwicklungen sowie für die eigene theologische Positionierung.

Im Seminar werden die einzelnen Perikopen im Griechischen interpretiert und die Gesamtdeutung der Bergpredigt innerhalb des Matthäusevangeliums sowie deren theologische und ethische Konsequenzen diskutiert. Exemplarisch schauen wir zudem auf die Wirkungsgeschichte des Textes.

Notes:

Voraussetzung ist Graecum, NT Proseminar und die Bereitschaft zur aktiven Mitarbeit.

Description:

Business event contents:

Die teilnehmenden Studierenden arbeiten unter individueller Betreuung durch eine/n fortgeschrittene/n Forscher/in (Doktorierende/r, Postdoc, Gruppenleiter/in) an einem spezifisch definierten Forschungsprojekt und verfassen einen Bericht nach Projektabschluss. Die Studierenden erhalten somit theoretischen und praktischen Einblick in aktuelle Forschung im Gebiet Molekular- und Zellbiologie.

Participating students work under individual guidance of an advanced researcher (PhD student, postdoc, group leader) on a specific defined research project and write a scientific report upon completion of the project. Thereby students acquire practical and theoretical insight into actual cutting edge research in Molecular and Cellular Biology.

Event DNA Next Generation Sequencing – from theory to practice
BIO680 / Lecture with Practical Exercises / 635

Description:

Business event contents:

Next-generation sequencing (NGS) technologies have revolutionized almost all fields in biology and are changing the practice of medicine. With the falling equipment and sequencing costs, they are becoming indispensable techniques in research and diagnostic laboratories. As a joint state-of-the-art research and training facility of the ETH Zurich and the University of Zurich, the NGS team at the Functional Genomics Center Zurich (FGCZ) offers a five-day course with hands-on practicals.

The lectures cover NGS technologies, their applications and data analysis principles. The practicals consists of sequencing library preparation from gDNA, sequencing run set up on bench top sequencer, and sequencing data analysis. Additionally, single molecule sequencing is covered during this course, including a practical session.

Event Transnational Histories of China

600-021a / Seminar / 3,585

Description:

Business event contents:

Following the method of transnational history, this seminar intertwines the defining moments of China's nation-state formation process and its relations with the outside world with the histories of individuals who experienced and influenced these critical junctures.

Each block session comprises a reading discussion and an in-class activity to emphasize the dual narrative threads between overarching themes and individual life histories. The reading discussion (90 minutes) familiarizes students with key themes, enabling them to grasp the interaction between China and the world in different historical contexts, while in-class activities (60 minutes) allow students to delve into the lives and decisions of historical stakeholders within specific historical moments.

This seminar is designed for students without prior knowledge of China's history, thus requiring longer sessions. This structure enables students to acquire essential topics and events and apply their learning directly in in-class activities focusing on historical individuals who transcended national boundaries in areas such as commerce, politics, and science, despite the persistent nationalistic undertones throughout 20th-century China.

Event Forschungsseminar (Beginn FS 2024), Teil II
226-513a / Seminar / 1,244

Description:

Business event contents:

Zahlreiche historische Quellen, die von grausamen pädagogischen Strafpraktiken berichten, stehen lediglich exemplarisch für eine in ihrer Tragweite für die Erziehung bedeutsamen - in der historischen Forschung oft vernachlässigten und im Selbstverständnis der Pädagogik oft verdrängten - Erziehungspraxis. Dabei beschränkt sich Gewalt in der Erziehung weder auf körperliche Züchtigung, Arreststrafen und Essensentzug, noch auf die Vergangenheit. Verschiedene Formen von Gewalt (physisch, psychisch, sexuell) sind auch heute noch in verschiedenen Erziehungskontexten präsent. Besonderes Augenmerk wird dabei auf die Trennung von Gewalt- und Machtfragen gelegt sowie auf die Bedeutung von Fragen der (Ohn) Macht in diesem Kontext. Gewalt in der Erziehung fand und findet sich in Familien genauso wie in pädagogischen Institutionen wie der Schule, Internaten, Kinder- und Jugendheimen oder sonderpädagogischen Einrichtungen für Menschen mit körperlichen oder geistigen Beeinträchtigungen. Im Zentrum des Seminars stehen folgende Fragen: Welche historischen Kontinuitäten und Veränderungen lassen sich in den disziplinären und öffentlichen Debatten sowie in den konkreten Praktiken von Gewalt in der Erziehung in Familien und in Institutionen ausmachen? Welche Bedeutung kommen dabei Fragen von Macht zu? Inwiefern sind bestimmte Gruppen, wie zum Beispiel Menschen mit einer Behinderung, besonders von Gewalt und Machtmissbrauch in der Erziehung betroffen? Welche evidenzbasierten Verfahren zur Gewaltprävention in der Erziehung gibt es? Das Forschungsseminar bietet den Masterstudierenden die Möglichkeit, sich mit verschiedenen Aspekten von Gewalt in der Erziehung auseinanderzusetzen. Im Seminar werden historische und aktuelle Perspektiven auf das Thema diskutiert. Dabei werden auch spezifische Herausforderungen im Umgang mit Gewalt in der Erziehung in unterschiedlichen Kontexten (Schule, Familie, Institutionen) thematisiert. Darüber hinaus werden mögliche Ursachen für Gewalt in der Erziehung sowie Präventions- und Interventionsansätze diskutiert. Besonderes Augenmerk wird auf die Komplexität und Vielschichtigkeit des Themas gelegt, einschliesslich der Wechselwirkungen zwischen individuellen, sozialen und kulturellen Faktoren. Das Seminar bietet den Studierenden die Möglichkeit, ihr Wissen zur Thematik zu vertiefen, kritische Diskussionen zu führen und ihre Forschungskompetenzen zu verbessern, indem sie sich mit aktuellen Forschungsergebnissen und verschiedenen methodischen Ansätzen auseinandersetzen.

Ausgehend von den hier skizzierten Themenschwerpunkten werden die Studierende im Seminar dazu angeleitet, eine eigenständige Forschungsarbeit zu konzipieren und durchzuführen. Die studentischen Forschungsprojekte sind entweder gegenwartsbezogen quantitativ oder qualitativ ausgerichtet oder historisch angelegt. Sie werden entweder auf der Basis von öffentlich zugänglichen Daten, von selbst erhobenem Datenmaterial oder von Archiv- und anderen Quellenmaterialien erarbeitet. Eine Zusammenarbeit mit der Fachstelle Methoden ist vorgesehen. Aufgrund der weit gefassten Forschungsperspektive können unterschiedliche Fragestellungen mit verschiedenen erziehungswissenschaftlichen Forschungsmethoden bearbeitet werden, so dass das Forschungsseminar eine grosse Bandbreite an Interessenslagen von Studierenden abzudecken vermag.

Event Fachdidaktik Chemie I
090Ch1 / Seminar / 1,090

Description:

Business event contents:

Der Chemieunterricht am Gymnasium soll einerseits grundlegende chemische Kenntnisse für den Alltag vermitteln und andererseits auf ein naturwissenschaftlich orientiertes Hochschulstudium vorbereiten. Diese beiden Ziele sind im Unterricht gleichermaßen zu berücksichtigen.

Da viele Lerninhalte sequentiell und einander benützend strukturiert sind, ist dem logischen Aufbau des Unterrichts besonderes Augenmerk zu schenken. Dies bedingt eine feine Abstimmung von fachlichen Inhalten und didaktischen Methoden auf die kognitive Leistungsfähigkeit der Lernenden.

Anhand der Diskussion bewährter Beispiele und dem Entwurf eigener Unterrichtsbausteine soll die zukünftige Lehrperson befähigt werden, einen den spezifischen Rahmenbedingungen angepassten Unterricht zu entwickeln, der diesem hohen Qualitätsanspruch genügt.

Notes:

Die Fachdidaktik Chemie I (Herbstsemester) bildet zusammen mit der Veranstaltung "Das Experiment im Chemie-Unterricht" (Fachdidaktik III, Herbstsemester) die Voraussetzung für die Zulassung zur Fachdidaktik Chemie II (Frühjahrssemester).

Die Fachdidaktik Chemie findet im Zimmer 27 an der Kantonsschule Freudenberg, Gutenbergstrasse 15, 8002 Zürich, statt.

FD 2 deals with aspects of teaching students at upper-intermediate and advanced levels. A substantial part of our course is dedicated to teaching and discussing literature. Participants are expected to read several novels, plays, poems and short stories. A reading list will be provided towards the end of FD 1. We will devise lesson plans on short stories with a view to LM exam requirements. Other areas addressed in this course include written and oral assessment (grammar at advanced levels, essay writing, presentations, oral marks), the use of ICT, film, literary theory, 21st-century skills, the Matura examination and continuous professional development. As in the first semester, students are expected to take an active part in the course.

Event English III: Human Rights Education in the English Classroom
090E3 / Seminar / 1,101

Description:

Business event contents:

Human Rights Education in the English Classroom Our educational goals to teach our students to be responsible human beings, prepare them to take on challenging tasks within our society, and encourage their sensitivity to ethical concerns can weigh heavily on our shoulders. This is all the more true when we are still struggling with classroom management and finding engaging activities to promote the development of our students' language skills. In this course, we are going to discover the many ways in which human rights education (HRE) supports our students in becoming compassionate members of their community and how we can easily implement HRE in the English classroom. We are going to start theory-centered by learning what human rights education is. From there we will move on to the practice-focused work of how we can introduce HRE into the English classroom, which will constitute the core of our course. We are going to create HRE activities to teach language skills as well as literature. Finally, we are going to conceptualize more elaborate HRE projects (multiple-lesson units), which offer students great opportunities to participate and constitute a deeply formative experience.

It is my goal that after this course considering HRE will lose its daunting quality and instead will become second nature when planning your English lessons.

Event Fachdidaktik Geschichte I (Weber)

090Ge1 / Seminar / 1,108

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Kurs Fachdidaktik Geschichte I bestimmen wir zunächst Ziele und Merkmale guten Geschichtsunterrichts (Wissen, Kompetenzen, Inhalte, Leitfragen). Wir isolieren dabei Narrativität und Dialog als zentrale Potentiale von Geschichtsunterricht heraus, um Geschichtsunterricht gut zu gestalten. Anschliessend besprechen wir Unterrichtseinstiege und studieren dann während mehreren Sitzungen jene Geschichten, mit denen Schülerinnen und Schüler historisch lernen können. Dabei geht es um die ganze Bandbreite geschichtskultureller Erzählungen, mit denen sich historisches Lernen auseinandersetzen kann (Lehrmittel, Vorträge, Filme, digitale Formate etc.). Die Studierenden bauen während dieser Phase bis Ende Semester ein Portfolio mit geeigneten Erzählungen für ein Unterrichtsthema auf.

Für jede Sitzung müssen die Studierenden fachdidaktische Texte lesen und Aufgaben zur Lektüre schriftlich bearbeiten.

Notes:

- Obligatorische Gestaltung eines Lektionsteils im November/Dezember sowie eine Hospitation an der Kantonsschule Zug
- In den Sitzungen brauchen die Studierenden ein Notebook/Tablet, auf dem das Programm «onenote» installiert ist; die im Kurs bearbeiteten Aufgaben werden mit den anderen Studierenden auf «onenote» geteilt
- Vorausgesetzt wird die Bereitschaft, während der Arbeit mit den Schülerinnen und Schülern der Kantonsschule Zug (praktischer Teil) videographiert zu werden und vom Dozenten ausgewählte Videoausschnitte im Kurs zu präsentieren (Videodaten werden nur für Kurs benutzt und am Ende des Kurses gelöscht)

Course Materials: Fachdidaktische Texte, die elektronisch zur Verfügung gestellt werden

Event Forensische Archäologie
6821105a / Course / 1,184

Description:

Business event contents:

Die "Forensische Archäologie" befasst sich mit Aspekten der Archäologie in Zusammenhang mit menschlichen Überresten. Anhand aktueller Beispiele, wie der im Winter 2023 durchgeführten Ausgrabung des ehemaligen Spitalfriedhofs des 19. Jh. der Kantonsarchäologie Zürich beim Universitätsspital Zürich, werden zentrale Aspekte im Umgang mit menschlichen Überresten vermittelt. Die Themenbereiche umfassen unter anderem Taphonomie, Anthropologie, Pathologie, Ethik und Forensik.

"Forensic archaeology" addresses aspects of archeology related to human remains. Using current examples, such as the excavation of the former 19th century hospital cemetery in 2023 by the Cantonal Department of Archeology at the University Hospital of Zurich, central aspects of dealing with human remains are conveyed. The discussed topics include taphonomy, anthropology, pathology, ethics and forensics.

Notes:

Die einzelnen Veranstaltungen bestehen jeweils aus einem Vorlesungs- und einem Diskussionsteil sowie aus Sammlungsbesuchen.

The individual events each consist of a lecture and a discussion part as well as visits to collections.

Sie behandelt die historische Entwicklung, die Methoden und zentrale Theorieansätze der Legal Gender Studies, und illustriert diese Ansätze anhand von Urteilen nationaler und internationaler Gerichte. Im Fokus stehen dabei die Frauenrechte und die Analyse ihrer Umsetzung auf nationaler und globaler Ebene. Die Vorlesung zeichnet die historische Entwicklung des Konzepts der Gleichheit nach, rekonstruiert das formelle und materielle Gleichheitsverständnis und beleuchtet den Begriff der Diskriminierung. Besonderes Augenmerk gilt auch der Untersuchung feministischer Bewegungen, ihrer Bedeutung für die Rechtsentwicklung und ihrer Wirkung auf gegenwärtige rechtliche Kontroversen.

Event Stress Testing of Banks (L)

22MO0044 / Course / 3,437

Description:

Business event contents:

In the aftermath of the financial crisis, regulators looked to ensure banks and financial institutions could survive a severe economic shock and no longer pose systemic risk. As a consequence, bank-wide stress tests became a key tool for risk management.

Bank-wide stress tests measure the resilience against a severe scenario such as a recession. A major advantage of stress tests, compared to more complex risk measures, is that its results are relatively easy to understand which facilitates the communication and usage. However, building a sound stress testing framework and stress testing models is complex.

This module takes place on site.

Event Literatur afrodeutscher Autor:innen der Gegenwart
504I061a / Seminar / 2,160

Description:

Business event contents:

In den letzten Jahren sind Fragen von Post- und Dekolonialismus immer mehr ins Zentrum des Bewusstseins gerückt. In diesem Zusammenhang ist zu beobachten, dass auch die Literatur Schwarzer Autor*innen im deutschsprachigen Raum eine verstärkte Aufmerksamkeit gewonnen hat, welche durch die Black Lives Matter-Bewegung und den Aufsehen erregenden Auftritt Amanda Gormans bei der Amtseinführung Joe Bidens 2021 noch einmal einen deutlichen Schub erhalten hat. So existiert mittlerweile nicht nur eine umfassende Forschung zu postkolonialen Fragestellungen, sondern es sind zahlreiche neue Werke Schwarzer Autor*innen erschienen (etwa von Sharon Dodua Otoo, Jackie Thomae, Olivia Wenzel).

Im Zentrum des Seminars steht die Analyse aktueller Werke afrodeutscher Autor*innen, doch sollen dabei auch allgemeinere Fragen zu Rassismus, Post- und Dekolonialismus diskutiert werden, um die Werke angemessen zu kontextualisieren und verstehen zu können.

Course Materials: Werden via OLAT bereitgestellt.

Description:

Business event contents:

Für die moderne Gesellschaft ist die fast grenzenlose Mobilität in Beruf, Freizeit sowie Aus- und Weiterbildung eine Selbstverständlichkeit. Was aber bedeutet Mobilität für Menschen mit unterschiedlicher Behinderung? Wie müssen sich Menschen mit Behinderung organisieren, um in allen Lebensbereichen teilhaben zu können? Welche Unterstützungsmöglichkeiten stehen ihnen zur Verfügung? Wie gestaltet sich das Gleichstellungsrecht für Menschen mit Behinderung im Bereich Mobilität? Diese Fragen werden in der Theorie besprochen und anlässlich der Exkursionen praktisch erfahren.

Description:

Business event contents:

Sie machen sich mit grundlegenden Mechanismen der Krankheitsentstehung (Pathogenese) auf Ebene der Zelle, des Organs und des Gesamtorganismus vertraut. Diese pathogenetischen Prozesse lösen funktionelle und morphologische Veränderungen von Zelle, Organ und Organismus aus und können anhand dieser Veränderungen erkannt werden. Sie werden erläutert und histologisch, ultrastrukturell und makroskopisch dargestellt und mit den molekularen bzw. biochemischen Vorgängen vernetzt.

Das Praktikum dient dazu, Sie mit typischen morphologischen Veränderungen vertraut zu machen, die das Erkennen und Interpretieren der spezifischen Organveränderungen ermöglichen, die Sie im Master kennenlernen werden.

Event The Art and Science of Negotiations

90WM30-1 / Course / 3,494

Description:

Business event contents:

Being an effective negotiator is a critical skill in any profession.

Negotiation skills are important in all life situations. For example, in order to get a job contract, assessment exercises usually require candidates to participate in a group negotiation exercise as one of the tasks. The negotiation process is a comprehensive strategy for resolving conflicts of interest in a sustainable way. It is based on skills that are not innate, but can be acquired and improved through intensive and practical study.

The 'Art and Science of Negotiation' course will introduce you to some key aspects of negotiation theory and practice. It is an interactive learning-by-doing course that focuses on the basic skills of negotiation. It can change participants' perspectives on how negotiations should be planned, structured and conducted to be successful. The course includes negotiation theory and concepts as well as extensive preparatory reading, combined with role-playing and mock negotiations, case analysis, class discussions and self-assessment tools.

The course is designed for those who would like to learn and reflect on how to resolve conflicts of interest in a sustainable manner - even under time pressure; who are interested in applying what they have learned in exercises in class and in daily practice; and who are willing to actively participate in all modules of the course.

"To me, this course was about more than just grades, which is not something I can say for a lot of courses" (M. J., course participant, fall term 2022).

Notes:

This course is a traditional classroom only course (there will be no online teaching). It will include hands-on training methods that will make the learning process more sustainable.

In order to allow for an interactive course format, the number of participants will be limited to 24 students.

The course language is English, so English language skills are essential.

If you want to attend this course, you must submit your module participation request during the request period (see ORGANIZATION) through the module booking tool (access via student portal and go to "Notices and Module Booking"). You must also upload a short letter of motivation while submitting the application (see REQUIREMENTS below).

Course Materials:

Required reading ((to be completed no later than the 2nd day of class): Roy J. Lewicki, Bruce Barry and David M. Saunders, Essentials of Negotiation, 7th International Edition 2020, New York / McGraw-Hill, ISBN: ISBN 978-1-260-57045-8 (note: The International Edition of the book is a condensed version of the main text, Negotiation, 8e, and is significantly less expensive). This book explores the major concepts and theories of negotiation psychology and the dynamics of interpersonal and intergroup conflict and resolution. The book can be ordered from Orell Füssli and should also be available at the ETH Store.

Additional readings and homework (preparation and debriefing materials) for each class will be distributed during the course. The course will also include a list of selected optional readings.

Event Stadtwandelung. Digitale Stadtrundgänge für Zürich und Basel
360-514a / Colloquium / 3,402

Description:

Business event contents:

In der Veranstaltung erarbeiten wir gemeinsam digitale Audioguides, die uns und anderen erlauben, einen vielleicht ungewohnten Blick auf Orte und Objekte unserer Lebenswelt aus der Perspektive der Vormoderne zu werfen: Wo wird die Ältere deutsche Literatur und die Geschichte der Vormoderne im öffentlichen Raum erfahrbar? Welchem Wandel sind solche in die Vergangenheitweisenden Orte/Objekte unterlegen? Und wie wandelt sich unser Verständnis der gewohnten Welt durch einen literatur- und geschichtswissenschaftlich informierten Blick? Ergebnisse des Seminars sollen als öffentlich zugänglicher Rundgang auf Website bzw. App für eine breitere Öffentlichkeit publiziert werden. Die Veranstaltung zielt damit auf die Vernetzung von Wissenschaft und Gesellschaft, indem die Leistungsnachweise zur Wissenschaftskommunikation eingesetzt werden.

Notes:

Das experimentelle Veranstaltungsformat erfordert eine unkonventionellere Seminarstruktur, bei der sich Präsenzphasen im Plenum und eigenständige Gruppenarbeitsphasen abwechseln. Ergänzend zum Unterricht durch die Dozierenden wird ein Workshop (Schreiben fürs Hören) mit dem SRF stattfinden. Das Kolloquium ist eine gemeinsame Lehrveranstaltung des Departments Geschichte (Prof. Dr. F. Missfelder) der Uni Basel mit dem Deutschen Seminar (ÄDL) der UZH. Sie wird darum abwechselnd 14tägig in Basel und Zürich stattfinden.

Event Kunst- und Ausstellungspolitik im NS. Auswirkungen Aufarbeitung Nachwirkungen
640-013a / Seminar / 4,472

Description:

Business event contents:

Unter dem Titel "Entartete Kunst" fand 1937 die bekannteste Propagandaausstellung der NS-Zeit im Galeriegebäude des Münchener Hofgartens statt und tourte anschließend durch verschiedene Städte Deutschlands. Sie zeigte zuvor aus 30 Museen beschlagnahmte Kunstwerke mit dem Ziel der öffentlichen Diffamierung der damaligen Avantgarde. Ihre hetzende Rhetorik setzte auf das Schüren von antisemitischen und antikommunistischen Ängsten. Parallel dazu wurde die "Große Deutsche Kunstausstellung" im neu gebauten und in direkter Nachbarschaft des Hofgartens liegenden Haus der Kunst eröffnet. Die Gegenüberstellung dieser beiden Ausstellungen macht deutlich, welche Rolle Kunst im Nationalsozialismus einnahm und wie sie im Sinne der faschistischen Ideologie gezielt eingesetzt wurde.

Im Verlauf dieses Seminars werden wir uns zunächst mit den historischen Umständen, die zu diesen Ausstellungen geführt haben, befassen. In einem zweiten Schritt werden wir die beiden Ausstellungen einer genauen Analyse unterziehen und damit auch die Auswirkungen der staatlich verordneten Gleichschaltung auf andere Ausstellungshäuser in den Blick nehmen. In einem dritten Schritt widmen wir uns dem Umgang mit diesem Erbe nach 1945. Hierbei finden auch gegenwärtige kuratorische und künstlerische Ansätze Berücksichtigung, die sich kritisch mit der Kunst- und Ausstellungspolitik des NS auseinandersetzen und die Verstrickungen der eigenen institutionellen Geschichte mit dem damaligen Regime in den Fokus rücken. Ein Beispiel hierfür etwa ist Bea Schlingelhoffs Ausstellung "No River to Cross" 2021 im Kunstverein München, der sich seit 1953 in den Münchener Hofgartenarkaden befindet.

Event Riech dran! Geruch in der Kunst der Neuzeit
640I043a / Exercise Group / 4,503

Description:

Business event contents:

Wie riecht die Vergangenheit? Haben Gemälde oder Skulpturen einen Geruch? Und welche Rolle spielt der Geruchssinn bei ihrer Entstehung und Wahrnehmung? Die Geschichte des europäischen Denkens war lange Zeit von einer festen Hierarchie der Sinne geprägt, wobei das Sehen als das vorrangige Tor zu Wissen und Wahrheit galt. Die Übung zielt darauf ab, die vernachlässigte Bedeutung des Geruchssinns in der künstlerischen und kulturellen Landschaft der europäischen Neuzeit neu zu überdenken. Düfte sind schwer in Worte zu fassen, jedoch können sie Erinnerungen hervorrufen und uns mit Gefühlen überwältigen. Sie sind nur während ihrer kurzen Existenz wahrnehmbar, aber sie authentisieren dadurch unsere Erlebnisse. Gerüche können soziale und politische Werte repräsentieren sowie individuelle und kollektive Identitäten definieren. Die Übung untersucht, wie der Geruchssinn in der Neuzeit dargestellt wurde und wie olfaktorische Erfahrungen durch Kunst ausgelöst und vermittelt wurden. Dabei wird die Rolle von Gerüchen bei der Gestaltung sakraler und profaner Räume erforscht, um die sensorischen Dimensionen religiöser Rituale, höfischer Zeremonien und des Alltagslebens zu beleuchten. Wir werden rekonstruieren, wie Düfte erzeugt, konserviert und freigesetzt wurden, indem wir verschiedene Arten von Behältern und Diffusoren analysieren und die Funktion sowie die Symbolik hinter diesen Artefakten entschlüsseln. Schliesslich werden wir uns mit den Herausforderungen befassen, die mit der Rekonstruktion der Geschichte dieses Teils des immateriellen Kulturerbes verbunden sind, sowie mit seiner Archivierung und Aufwertung durch kuratorische und museale Praktiken.

Notes:

Die Teilnehmer:innen werden in Gruppen arbeiten, um gemeinsame Referate vorzubereiten, und verfassen einen kurzen schriftlichen Abschlussbericht. Eine regelmässige aktive Teilnahme sowie die Vorbereitung der Pflichtlektüre werden erwartet.

GEO432.1 / Course / 3,712

Description:

Business event contents:

The seminar course GEO432.1 invites students to engage in a critical debate around the inequalities encountered in today's cities. The course draws on a rich body of literature which includes feminist geography, deconstructing established binaries and categories, and Black and anti-racist scholarship. It discusses critiques of neoliberalism, capitalism and low-wage labour. The course also addresses questions about theory-making and offers openings to different ways of knowing beyond dominant systems of knowledge production. Furthermore, it includes a guest lecture at the end of the semester.

Notes:

=> Die Veranstaltung findet im Raum Y25-K-22 statt.

Course Materials: All course materials will be available for download on OLAT at the start of the semester.

Event Critical Development Studies

GEO421.1 / Seminar / 608

Description:

Business event contents:

This course engages with different debates and perspectives in the study of development: What does development mean, and how can we capture it? How do people in "poorer" countries maintain their livelihoods under difficult conditions? What is done to help improve people's lives? All these questions relate to broader concerns of "development". Development, however, is a highly contested term. It used to (and sometimes still does) describe the modernisation of societies according to the model of the "West" that was assumed to be more and better developed than countries of the so-called "Global South". Nowadays, the term development and its normative connotations are discussed more critically. Employing a critical approach, this course centres around three dimensions of development: (i) development as a discourse (normative dimension), (ii) development as change and transformation (analytical dimension), and (iii) development as purposive intervention (practical dimension).

Event Glaciological Excursion to Rhonegletscher
GEO704.1 / Field Trip / 1,479

Description:

Business event contents:

This module gives a hands-on introduction into current topics of glacier and high mountain research. It is split in three parts: a preparatory session, a field excursion to Rhonegletscher, and project work. The field excursion provides the opportunity to take a closer look at processes on, within, under and in vicinity of the glacier. These processes include micro-structure of ice, ice deformation, glacier hydrology, glacier mass balance, long-term glacier changes and periglacial processes such as moraine formation/erosion, and proglacial lake and fluvial systems.

Course Materials: Course information and documents will be provided over OLAT.

Event OT Lecture: Hiob
14SV026 / Course / 63

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Buch Hiob gehört zu den bedeutendsten Werken der Weltliteratur. Als deutlich fiktive, im Glück wie im Unglück ins Extrem überzeichnete Gestalt veranschaulicht Hiob das Problem des unschuldigen Leidens, das zu der Frage führt, ob es in der Welt und im Leben gerecht oder ungerecht zugehe und inwieweit Gott dafür verantwortlich sei.

Zur Vorbereitung eignen sich: Markus Witte, "Hiob/Hiobbuch" in WiBiLex (<https://bibelwissenschaft.de/stichwort/11644/>), Thomas Krüger, "Hiob" in Erklärt - Der Kommentar zur Zürcher Bibel (Theologischer Verlag Zürich, 2010), Band 2, S. 1098ff.

Event OT Seminar: Exegetical Approaches to OldTestament Texts
14SS033 / Seminar / 61

Description:

Business event contents:

Neben den Methoden der historisch-kritischen Exegese hat sich in den vergangenen Jahrzehnten eine Vielzahl an weiteren Zugängen entwickelt, wie bspw. die kanonische, die tiefenpsychologische, die sozialgeschichtliche, die feministische oder die empirische Exegese. Diese neueren Zugänge positionieren sich teilweise in kritischer Abgrenzung zur historisch-kritischen Exegese, teilweise in produktiver Ergänzung zu ihr. Die Veranstaltung führt in ausgewählte neuere exegetische Zugänge ein und bringt sie miteinander ins Gespräch. Die Studierenden erarbeiten sich einen Überblick über verschiedene Zugangsweisen zu den Texten des Alten Testaments und setzen sich intensiv mit ausgewählten Zugängen auseinander, indem sie sie am konkreten Beispiel anwenden. Dazu gehört auch die Übersetzung der atl. Texte, weshalb sich die Veranstaltung auch an Studierende richtet, die ihre Hebräischkenntnisse auffrischen wollen.

Notes:

Event ST Seminar Dogmatics: Theologies of theministry
23SS036 / Seminar / 3,150

Description:

Business event contents:

Die reformierten Kirchen in der Schweiz weisen eine Vielfalt an Amtsverständnissen auf. Diese Vielfalt gerät freilich im Zuge zurückgehender Mitgliedzahlen, schwindender Finanzen und des weltanschaulich-religiösen Pluralismus zunehmend unter Druck. Welche Ämter und Dienste braucht es künftig? Diese Frage kann nicht nur organisationstheoretisch und ökonomisch entschieden werden. Sie erfordert auch eine solide amtstheologische und ekklesiologische Reflexion, die auch die kontroversen ökumenischen Standpunkte anderer Konfessionen/ Denominationen miteinbeziehen muss.

Im Seminar werden historische und moderne Amtstheologien studiert und wird gleichzeitig eine Urteilsbildung hinsichtlich gegenwärtig anstehender und künftiger Entwicklungen angestossen.

Event PT Homiletics/Liturgics Seminar: Rite, Speech and Participation
24LM000 / Seminar / 2,645

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Reformierten sagten früher, am Sonntag geht man "z'Predigt". Das ist sachgemäss. Aber ist es noch zeitgemäss? In der Predigtliturgie geht es in erster Linie um die Wortverkündigung. Wir predigen nicht nur im Gottesdienst und feiern nicht nur mit den Ohren. Wir singen, beten und segnen im Ritus am Sonntag. Was hilft uns diese Einsicht für die Verkündigung? Wie partizipieren Christ*innen am homiletischen Akt? Wo hat heute der Gottesdienst seine Orte? Wie passt die Predigt zu den Gebeten und den Liedern? Welche Rolle spielen die rituellen Praktiken in der Auslegung biblischer Texte? Im Seminar soll die Theorie der gottesdienstlichen Verkündigung unter diesen Leitfragen bedacht und die ars celebrandi exemplarisch geübt werden.

Notes:

Die Teilnehmenden des Seminars werden in Gruppen einen Gottesdienst konzipieren und gestalten. Dies erfordert ein gerütteltes Mass an Zeit und Aufwand. Bitte reservieren Sie sich den 1. Dezember, 8. Dezember und den 15. Dezember. Es wird empfohlen, begleitend die Übung "Evensong" am Mittwochabend zu buchen.

Description:

Business event contents:

The two-hour lecture covers the foundation of thermodynamics. It focuses on the equations of state of ideal gases, main laws of thermodynamics, work, heat, thermodynamic state variables and chemical potential. Building on these fundamentals, phase transformations and phase diagrams, mixtures, colligative properties and chemical reactions are discussed. A further chapter is dedicated to the topic of surface tension and related phenomena.

Special attention is paid to topics of particular relevance to the life sciences, such as energy conversion in chemical reactions, free enthalpy, osmosis and surface phenomena.

Event Surface and Interface Science

CHE437.1 / Lecture with Practical Exercises / 3,448

Description:

Business event contents:

Surface and interface science are essential for modern research, primarily in the field of nanoscience, as properties of nanostructures are largely determined by their surfaces. Well established experimental techniques such as X-ray diffraction, angular resolved photo-emission, scanning probe microscopy, X-ray photo-emission and absorption spectroscopy have been further developed to address surfaces and interfaces, also under "wet" conditions. Surface and interface effects are fundamental in understanding a variety of phenomena, particularly in fields such as micro-electronics, catalysis, and corrosion research. The pursuit of an atomic-scale comprehension and a deep interest in micro-structures emphasize surface and interface physics as an essential prerequisite.

The course covers the physics and chemistry of surfaces and interfaces.

The term "surface science" refers to the field dedicated to comprehending surface nature, including its physical and electronic structure and molecule-surface interactions. Contemporary surface and interface physics, which is a subset of condensed matter physics, is closely intertwined with other research areas. It has evolved with contributions from other branches of physics and chemistry, and it delivers results in key application fields, as well as in the advancement of experimental techniques and equipment.

Our overview begins with well-defined, clean surfaces that were only able to be studied after the development of UHV technologies. The focus is on the outcomes of the fundamental physics and chemistry of surfaces.

We will introduce surface-sensitive spectroscopies that have become available due to the development of particle beam optics, spectrometers and detectors, which are vital to the advancement of modern surface science.

Adsorption processes are a fundamental area of study that demands comprehension of the properties of adsorbing molecules and related chemical and physical processes. Additionally, we will examine how surface science has contributed to the progress of important fields such as semiconductor electronics, heterogeneous catalysis, nanotechnologies, and electrochemistry.

Event Physikalische Chemie III: Advanced Quantum Mechanics and Statistical Mechanics
CHE305.1 / Lecture with Practical Exercises / 2,759

Description:

Business event contents:

In the first part of the lecture we will review the basics of quantum mechanics in more detail. The properties and representations of operators and wavefunctions will be studied. On one side we will look at formal aspects of the theory, on the other side we will work with explicit representations using matrices and vectors. The Schroedinger equation and its solutions for special systems is treated. Variation theory and time-independent perturbation theory will be introduced and applied to specific problems.

In the second part (Statistical Mechanics), we will learn about the microscopic driving forces that underpin behavior of molecules in chemical, physical and biological systems. We will start with the concept of entropy as well as the difference between energy vs. free energy, and discuss them from a microscopic point of view. Partition functions will be introduced to link the microscopic theory to macroscopic thermodynamics. We will continue with the concept of a reaction coordinate, delve into the ideas of chemical and possibly phase equilibria and close with the discussion of microscopic dynamics that underlies chemical kinetics and transition state theory. Part of both the weekly exercises and the exam will require using Python programming language (you will need your own computer).

Event ST: Proseminar Ethik
23LB103 / Proseminar / 3,165

Description:

Business event contents:

Als Jesus von einem Schriftgelehrten nach dem höchsten Gebot gefragt wird, antwortete er mit dem Doppelgebot der Liebe. Dass die Liebe ein Zentralbegriff christlicher Lebensführung ist oder sein sollte, scheint unbestritten und führt kaum zu Kontroversen. Aber was bedeutet das genau für die theologische Ethik? Kann man lieben müssen? Ist es dann noch Liebe? Was genau soll man jetzt eigentlich tun und wer bestimmt das? In diesem Proseminar befassen wir uns mit der Bedeutung der Liebe für die theologische Ethik. Dazu werden verschiedene Ansätze von Theolog:innen, Religionsphilosoph:innen und christlichen Schriftsteller:innen gelesen, kritisch diskutiert und im Blick auf ausgewählte Anwendungsfelder analysiert.

Das Proseminar soll neben der inhaltlichen Schwerpunktsetzung dem Kennenlernen und Einüben von grundlegenden wissenschaftlichen Arbeitsmethoden dienen. Die Studierenden sollen die methodischen Fähigkeiten zur wissenschaftlichen Analyse, Bearbeitung und Diskussion ethischer Texte und Problemstellungen erlernen und üben, in ethischen Diskursen Position zu beziehen.

Event Lecture on the interrelationship between religion, economy and politics

010106 / Course / 806

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Vorlesung wendet sich dem Wechselverhältnis von Religion, Wirtschaft und Politik zu. Sie ist als Einführungsvorlesung in den Masterstudiengang Religion, Wirtschaft und Politik konzipiert, kann aber auch von anderen Studierenden besucht werden. Am Anfang der Vorlesung wird eine Einführung in die Religionswissenschaft und ganz besonders die Frage nach der Definition von Religion vorgenommen. Dabei wird auch das Verhältnis von Religion und Öffentlichkeit thematisiert. Danach folgen Vorlesungen zum Wechselverhältnis von Religion und Politik sowie zum Verhältnis von Religion und Wirtschaft. Hierbei wird etwa geklärt, welchen Einfluss Religion in der Gegenwart auf Politik hat und wie man diesen (politik-)wissenschaftlich erforschen kann. Weiterhin werden wirtschaftliche Theorien vorgestellt, die religiöses Verhalten erklären und es wird beschrieben, auf welche Weise Religion wirtschaftliches Verhalten beeinflusst. Neben diesen Einführungen nimmt die Vorlesung thematische Vertiefungen vor.

Die ersten fünf Sitzungen der Vorlesung bilden einen Einführungsteil und finden als reguläre Vorlesungen in Zürich statt. Die restlichen Sitzungen dienen der Vertiefung in spezifische Themengebiete und finden kompakt in Zürich vom 5.-6. Dezember statt (siehe Aufbau der Veranstaltung). Hieran werden externe Beiträger*innen teilnehmen. Die Inhalte der Vorlesungen und der Vorlesungstexte werden am Dienstag, dem 17.12.2024, Gegenstand der Abschlussklausur der Grundlagenvorlesung sein.

Aufbau der Veranstaltung

Einführungsteil in Basel

Die ersten vier Sitzungen finden Dienstags 14:15 (s.t.) - 16:00 Uhr statt. Danach gibt es ein abschliessendes Blockseminar in Zürich.

Event Seminar: Women in Early Islam

54SS040 / Seminar / 3,278

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Seminar beschäftigen wir uns mit den ältesten arabisch-islamischen Texten, die anhand ihres spezifischen geschichtlichen Rückblicks eine ganz eigene Lebenswelt der arabischen Bevölkerung zu Beginn des Islam im frühen 7. Jahrhundert rekonstruieren. Der thematische Fokus liegt dabei auf den Darstellungen von Frauen - insbesondere in den Bereichen "Politik", "Religion", "Gesellschaft" und "Wissen". Darüber hinaus setzen wir uns mit methodischen Problemen und der Frage nach der Historizität der frühislamischen Quellen auseinander. Die Texte werden in englischer oder deutscher Übersetzung gelesen; Arabischkenntnisse sind nicht vorausgesetzt.

Event Bioinformatics of Molecular Sequence Variations
BIO392 / Block Course / 459

Description:

Business event contents:

The analysis and interpretation of variations in molecular sequences - especially of DNA variants - is relevant for the definition of disease associated genes, elucidation of molecular mechanisms in health and disease and development of diagnostic and therapeutic approaches especially in the areas of rare diseases and cancer. Understanding the genome variants of an individual constitutes the basis of what is called "precision medicine". This course will address some of the technical procedures and data resources relevant for the analysis and interpretation of sequence variants, with a focus on genome variations and their relation to individual genetic background and disease association.

Event Textsorten im Wandel

360-106a / Seminar / 3,491

Description:

Business event contents:

Es gehört zum Schriftspracherwerb wie selbstverständlich dazu, dass wir lernen, wie man Dinge mit Texten tut und welche sprachlich-kommunikativen Muster dabei zum Tragen kommen, so dass wir "Textsorten" in der Regel wie selbstverständlich produzieren und routinisiert wiedererkennen. Unser schriftsprachlicher Alltag ist entsprechend voll von Textsorten aller Art, zu denen nicht nur die uns mehr oder weniger bekannten literarischen Gattungen, sondern auch unzählige Alltagspraktiken gehören (wie Bewerbungen, Kochrezepte, Liebesbriefe, Statusmeldungen, Grussbotschaften, Wohnungsanzeigen, Ansichtskarten oder Tagebuchnotizen). Gerade diese Alltagspraktiken zeigen, dass solche Textsorten einem stetigen Wandel ausgesetzt sind, wie schon ein flüchtiger Blick nur auf das 20. Jahrhundert veranschaulicht. Im Seminar wollen wir uns den (neueren) Textsortenwandel anhand ausgewählter Beispiele exemplarisch gegenwärtigen. Das Seminar wendet sich an Studierende, die Interesse daran haben, sich auf eine Textsorte Ihrer Wahl vertiefend einzulassen.

Event RWP Seminar: Introduction to Business and Economics of Religion
010311 / Seminar / 374

Description:

Business event contents:

Grundbegriffe der Wirtschaftswissenschaften und die Wechselbeziehungen zwischen Religion und Wirtschaft (Religionsökonomie) sind Gegenstand dieses Seminars.

Die religionsökonomischen Wechselbeziehungen werden auf zwei Ebenen dargestellt:

1. Wie beeinflusst Religion ökonomisches Verhalten? Und:
2. Wie beeinflusst Ökonomie religiöse Praxis? In den ersten Bereich fallen Fragen wie die bekannte Weberthese zur Wahlverwandtschaft von Protestantismus und Kapitalismus oder die Kapitalismus-als-Religion-Debatte. Auch religiöse Wirtschaftsethiken, die Einfluss auf das ökonomische Handeln der Gläubigen nehmen, gehören dazu. In den zweiten Bereich fallen Interaktionen von Religion mit wirtschaftswissenschaftlichen Ansätzen. So wie die Rational Choice Theory of Religion mit ihrem 'Supermarkt der Religionen', in dem sich die verschiedenen Glaubensangebote in Konkurrenz gegenüberstehen: Wer bietet das beste Angebot, wer holt sich mehr Anhänger? Wir diskutieren kritisch aktuelle Forschung und erarbeiten einen eigenen Zugang zum innovativen und interdisziplinären Forschungsfeld der Religionsökonomie.

Event Landesmuseum - Frische Geschichten für alte Sammlungen
506-552a / Seminar / 2,089

Description:

Business event contents:

Unsere Museen sind voller Dinge. Viele davon sind ziemlich stumm, haben immer weniger zu erzählen, weil das Wissen, das sich mit ihnen verbindet, veraltet ist oder überhaupt fehlt. In diesem zweisemestrigen Studienprojekt in Zusammenarbeit mit dem Schweizerischen Landesmuseum suchen wir frische Geschichte für alte Sammlungen. Gemeinsam mit der zuständigen Kuratorin Dr. Erika Hebeisen sichten und befragen wir die Sammlung „Technologie & Brauchtum“ und suchen nach Anknüpfungspunkten für fehlende und neue Geschichten von Relevanz. Es geht um Ideen, die materielle und immaterielle Dimension musealer Sammlungen auf innovative Art zusammenzubringen.

Parallel zu einer Einführung in die Theorie und Geschichte kulturhistorischer Sammlungen werden wir uns in diesem ersten Projektsemester über die Informationssysteme und im Sammlungszentrum des Schweizerischen Nationalmuseums einen Überblick über ausgewählte Bestände verschaffen und erste Ideen entwickeln. Die Lehrveranstaltung versteht sich als exploratives Projekt: Welche Objekte bearbeitet und in welchen Formaten sie neu erschlossen werden sollen, ist Gegenstand der gemeinsamen Arbeit. Die Möglichkeiten für die im zweiten Projektsemester realisierten Umsetzungen reichen dabei von der inhaltlichen Aufbereitung von Exponaten für konkrete Ausstellungsvorhaben des Museums bis zur ergänzenden Dokumentation und der Entwicklung kollaborativer bzw. partizipativer Methoden der Sammlungserschliessung und -vermittlung.

Event Perspektiven der Critical Race Narratology in der Kinder- und Jugendliteratur
506I004a / Seminar / 2,684

Description:

Business event contents:

Auf sozialen Medien, im Feuilleton, aber auch in universitären Kontexten werden seit mehreren Jahren kontroverse Debatten um die "Freiheit" (in) der Kunst und Kultur geführt. Vor dem Hintergrund hitzig diskutierter Fragen der kulturellen Aneignung und oft bedrohlich heraufbeschwörter (vermeintlicher) Schreib- und Sprechverbote wurden diese Diskussionen auch im Feld der Kinder- und Jugendliteratur mehrmals aufgerollt - insbesondere mit Blick auf die Verwendung diskriminierender und vor allem rassistischer Begriffe in Kinderbüchern. Anhand ausgewählter Beispiele wollen wir im Seminar diese Debatten kritisch unter die Lupe nehmen und die Perspektiven und Potenziale einer Postkolonialen Erzähltheorie und Critical Race Narratology in der literatur- und kulturwissenschaftlichen Analyse erkunden. In Auseinandersetzung mit Begrifflichkeiten, Werkzeugen, Modellen und Grundannahmen der klassischen sowie postklassischen Erzählforschung soll unser Verständnis von Narratologie und literarischem Erzählen hinterfragt und erweitert werden: Inwiefern ist es relevant, wer über wen schreibt? Inwiefern sind Kunst- und Wissensproduktion historisch, kulturell und körperlich situiert? Und wie bringen sich aktuelle Texte der deutschsprachigen Kinder- und Jugendliteraturproduktion in dieses komplexe Diskursfeld ein?

Event Multidirectional Solidarities. Aktuelle Debatten um postkoloniale Theorie
506I511a / Seminar / 2,523

Description:

Business event contents:

Postkoloniale Theorien sind als ein transdisziplinäres Unternehmen für die kulturwissenschaftliche Analyse und Theoriebildung seit langem wichtiger Referenzpunkt. Ihre Relevanz ist in den letzten Jahren auch in der Schweiz zunehmend diskutiert worden („Kolonialismus ohne Kolonien“). Die Aktualität äußert sich derzeit in verschiedener Weise: So eröffnet diesen Herbst erstmals im Schweizer Nationalmuseum eine Ausstellung zur Schweiz und dem Kolonialismus. Die Diskussionen um Sammlungen in Schweizer Museen, die im kolonialen Kontext angeeignet wurden, ist aus der kulturpolitischen Diskussion kaum mehr wegzudenken. Gleichzeitig ist „die“ postkoloniale Theorie wiederholt öffentlich und zumeist in polemischer und pauschalisierender Weise kritisiert worden. Vor diesem Hintergrund vermittelt das Seminar grundlegende Einblicke in die Geschichte und Vielfalt postkolonialer Theoriebildung. Es soll darum gehen, sich gemeinsam die Relevanz postkolonialer Theorieansätze für das Denken und Verstehen gegenwärtiger Macht- und Ungleichheitsstrukturen zu erarbeiten und für eine empirisch-kulturwissenschaftliche Analyseperspektive fruchtbar zu machen. Dabei bieten mehrere im Herbst in Zürich eröffnende Ausstellungen (Schweizer Nationalmuseum, Museum Rietberg und Völkerkundemuseum der UZH) die Chance, die erlangten theoretischen Perspektiven anhand konkreter Ansätze einer postkolonial informierten Repräsentationspraxis zu diskutieren und dabei Fragen der Ausstellungspraxis, der Sammlungsgeschichte und allgemeiner des Kunst- und Kulturbetriebs gemeinsam zu erörtern.

Event Theorie und Praxis des Archivs im Zeitalter der Digitalisierung
598-504a / Exercise Group / 262

Description:

Business event contents:

Archive liefern nicht nur das Material für die Geschichtsforschung, sondern "das Archiv" beeinflusst zutiefst unser (Nach)Denken über Geschichte und Vergangenheit. Dabei wird der Archivbegriff seit etwa den 1990er-Jahren philosophisch und künstlerisch so ausgeweitet, dass er jegliche Form von "gespeicherten" Wissensbeständen und Medien umfassen kann. Das hängt nicht zuletzt mit Digitalität zusammen. Wie hat die Digitalisierung Archive und Bibliotheken verändert, wie hat sie unsere Vorstellung dessen, was Archiv und Bibliothek 'sind' und 'tun&ap beeinflusst.

Ausgehend von klassischen Texten zum Archiv befassen wir uns im Modul mit theoretischen und praktischen Aspekten der zeitgeschichtlichen Arbeit mit und in Archiven. Es sind Besuche in unterschiedlichen Archiven geplant, die im Mittelpunkt der selbst erarbeiteten Projekte für den Leistungsnachweis stehen.

Event Grammatik und Orthographie
3601130a / Colloquium / 1,515

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Kolloquium werden zunächst die Grundlagen der lateinischen Schulgrammatik rekapituliert, dann folgt ein Überblick über verschiedene Grammatiktheorien (z.B. Generative Grammatik, Valenztheorie, Stellungsfeldermodell). Dabei steht die Frage im Zentrum, welche Theoriebestandteile sich eignen könnten, um im gymnasialen Deutschunterricht zur Analyse grammatischer Phänomene herangezogen zu werden. Der zweite Teil des Kolloquiums ist aktuellen orthographischen Fragen gewidmet. Hier wird es um drei Regelbereiche gehen: die Gross- und Kleinschreibung, die Getrennt- und Zusammenschreibung und die Zeichensetzung.

Für diese drei Bereiche soll anhand ausgewählter Regeln gezeigt werden, wie die jeweiligen Regelformulierungen motiviert sind und in welchem Verhältnis die Orthographie zur Grammatik steht.

Event Rächer, Mörder, Diktator? Augustus und sein neuer Staat, ein Wendepunkt der römischen Geschichte
600-004a / Seminar / 3,136

Description:

Business event contents:

Despot, Massenmörder oder Idealherrscher? Augustus, dessen Methoden zum Machterwerb und -erhalt bis heute polarisieren, schuf durch das Prinzipat eine neuartige Form der Monarchie, die bis in die Neuzeit als Modell des Kaisertums diente. Zugleich war die Etablierung der Monarchie in Rom ein epochaler Wandel in der Geschichte des Staates und seiner Gesellschaft. Als erster Mann an der Spitze (Princeps) veränderte Augustus die römische Welt massgeblich. Den Wandel und die neuen Strukturen untersucht das Seminar.

Event Körper und Geschlecht in der Antike
600-006a / Seminar / 2,067

Description:

Business event contents:

In der Antike waren Vorstellungen von Körperlichkeit und Geschlecht tief in den Strukturen des sozialen, politischen und kulturellen Lebens verwurzelt. Diese Vorstellungen beeinflussten nicht nur die persönliche Identität, sondern prägten auch die Normen, Werte und Institutionen der damaligen Gesellschaften. Durch die Analyse antiker Quellen und Artefakte werden wir die Vielfalt und Komplexität der damaligen Geschlechtervorstellungen erkunden und kritisch reflektieren, wie diese Vorstellungen unsere heutigen Gesellschaften beeinflussten.

Im Seminar werden u.a. folgende Themen besprochen: Die Konstruktion von Männlichkeit und Weiblichkeit in der antiken Literatur und Kunst; die Rolle des Körpers in der antiken Medizin und Heilkunde; Geschlechterrollen in politischen, religiösen und familialen Kontexten; Sexuelle Praktiken und Normen in der antiken Welt; die Rezeption antiker Geschlechtervorstellungen in der Moderne.

Event Gruppe 01: Bäuerliche Gesellschaften
600-007a / Seminar / 360

Description:

Business event contents:

In diesem Basismodul stehen nicht gesellschaftliche oder politische Eliten im Mittelpunkt, sondern Bauern und Bäuerinnen. Bis in das 19. Jahrhundert hinein war die Mehrheit der Menschen in der Landwirtschaft tätig. Landwirtschaftliche Produktivität war die Grundlage gesellschaftlicher und politischer Entwicklungen. Bäuerliche Gesellschaften haben ihre eigene ökonomische und soziale Logik, in der Aspekte der Autonomie und Handlungsmacht eine wichtige Rolle spielen. Auf der anderen Seite ist es für die politisch Herrschenden unabdingbar, die Produktion und die Arbeitskraft der Bauernschaft möglichst zu kontrollieren.

In diesem Basismodul werden wir uns mit der historischen Entwicklung bäuerlicher Gesellschaften seit dem Mittelalter beschäftigen. Die folgenden Fragen stehen dabei im Vordergrund:

Wie hat sich die Landwirtschaft seither entwickelt? Welchen Grad der Selbstbestimmung konnten sich Bauern und Bäuerinnen erhalten angesichts der Ausweitung von Herrschaft im Mittelalter, der ökonomischen Modernisierung und Industrialisierung seit dem frühen 19. Jahrhundert sowie der kolonialen Eroberung und Landnahme in der aussereuropäischen Welt? Wann wurden sie im Rahmen von Protesten, Aufständen und Kriegen zu aktiv handelnden Akteursgruppen? Und wie werden diese historischen Akteursgruppen bis heute in nationalistischen Narrativen instrumentalisiert? Mit diesem thematischen Schwerpunkt bietet das Basismodul eine umfassende Einführung in das geschichtswissenschaftliche Arbeiten. Eingeübt wird das Lesen, Verstehen und der Umgang mit wissenschaftlichen Texten, Techniken der Literatur- und Quellenrecherche sowie die Analyse historischer Quellen aus unterschiedlichen Zeitbereichen.

Event Gruppe 02: "Natur"-Katastrophen? Umwelt, Wissen und Gesellschaft in Krisenmomenten
600-007a / Seminar / 361

Description:

Business event contents:

Katastrophen sind transformative Momente auf verschiedenen Ebenen der Kultur, Gesellschaft und der "natürlichen" Umwelt. Im frühen 21. Jahrhundert, in dem verschiedene Erscheinungsformen des globalen Klimawandels den menschlichen Lebensraum in einem noch nie dagewesenen Ausmass bedrohen, werden Katastrophenabwehr, Katastrophenbewältigung und die Ursachen von Katastrophen selbst zunehmend als Auswirkungen kollektiver Entscheidungen wahrgenommen.

Dieses Modul befasst sich mit verschiedenen Katastrophen, von Hungersnöten und Pandemien im europäischen Mittelalter bis zu Kernschmelzen im nuklearen Zeitalter. Wir werden diese Fälle anhand verschiedener Primärquellen, Texte und anderer Medien analysieren und fragen, wie Wissen kollektive Entscheidungen beeinflusst, welche Faktoren eine «Natur-» oder «Umweltkatastrophe» und auf welche Weise die Erinnerung an vergangene Katastrophen Institutionen, Identitäten und Infrastruktur in der Gegenwart prägt.

Event Gruppe 11: Unfreiheit und Handel
600-007a / Seminar / 370

Description:

Business event contents:

Dieses Proseminar beschäftigt sich mit rechtlichen Vorstellungen von Unfreiheit und dem Einfluss von asymmetrischen Machtstrukturen auf Handel und Konsum.

Einerseits werden dabei Ordnungssysteme beleuchtet und die Bedeutungsänderung der lateinischen Rechtsbegriffe mancipia, ancillae und servi betrachtet. Im Zeitraum zwischen dem Niedergang des weströmischen Reiches (ab 400) und dem Jahr 700 veränderte sich die Lebenssituation assoziiert mit diesen Kategorien, sodass sich die Frage stellt, inwiefern in Bezug auf das europäische Frühmittelalter noch von Sklaverei gesprochen werden kann. Andererseits werden interkontinentale Ströme von Gütern, Ideen und Personen im Rahmen des transatlantischen Dreieckshandels sowie der kolonialen Bestrebungen von europäischen Handelskompanien im Indischen Ozean und Pazifik thematisiert.

Diese Austauschbeziehungen erstreckten sich über weite geografische sowie soziale Distanzen und führten zu tiefgreifenden Transformationen, die insbesondere im Hinblick auf Produktionstechniken, Konsumverhalten und Handelsnetzwerke besprochen werden. So wie sich rechtliche Vorstellungen von Unfreiheit gewandelt haben, wirkten sich vielschichtige Machtasymmetrien grundlegend auf die Materialität des Alltagslebens aus.

Während juristische Rahmenbedingungen frühmittelalterlicher Lebensrealitäten den Schwerpunkt des Proseminar I bilden, befasst sich das Proseminar II mit Spuren des Transfers in der materiellen Kultur in der Frühen Neuzeit. Das Thema «Unfreiheit und Handel» soll im Rahme des Basismodul I ins geschichtswissenschaftliche Arbeiten einführen, indem Lese- und Recherchetechniken, Zitierformen und die Arbeit mit wissenschaftlichen Texten und historischen Quellen geübt und gefestigt werden.

Event Global microhistories of the (post) colonial in northern Australia (Seminar mit begleitetem Forschungsprozess)
600-016a / Seminar / 1,484

Description:

Business event contents:

In the traditional colonial historiography, the history of Australia has been narrated from south-to-north, beginning with Captain Cook's 1770 encounter with Aboriginal people at Kamay (Botany Bay) and the British First Fleet's arrival in 1788, and spreading upwards in the wake of the colonists.

This course will instead focus on two Aboriginal Countries in northern Australia, namely the Yolngu and Guugu Yimidjirr peoples in Northern Territory and Queensland respectively, and the Torres Strait people of Waiben (Thursday Island), in order to understand the worlds in which northern Aboriginal communities first encountered people from beyond Australia. This will offer both a different timeline and a different spatial understanding of Australian history, one which encompasses a range of actors, from Makassarese beche-de-mer fisherpeople to Japanese pearl divers, and from British and German missionaries to postwar mining corporations.

Our weekly sessions will be based on specific case studies which foreground individual histories and therefore engage with the newest approaches of global microhistory. No prior knowledge of Australian or Asian history is required to take this course, but an openness to engaging with non-European epistemologies is essential.

Event Vom Wirtschaftsaufschwung zum Jugendaufstand: Zürich in der Nachkriegszeit
600-019a / Seminar / 3,702

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Stadt Zürich durchlebte in der Nachkriegszeit verschiedene gesellschaftliche, wirtschaftliche und politische Veränderungsprozesse. 1949 endete nach zwei Jahrzehnten die sozialdemokratische Regierungsmehrheit («Rotes Zürich»). Es folgte im Zeichen des Kalten Krieges eine lange Phase des Gleichgewichts der politischen Kräfte in Stadt- und Gemeinderat, bis die Bürgerlichen 1982 vor dem Hintergrund von Jugendkrawallen erstmals seit 60 Jahren für kurze Zeit Mehrheiten in beiden Gremien errangen. 1952 überschritt die Bevölkerungszahl die 400'000-Personen-Grenze. Angesichts des Wirtschaftsbooms und der starken Zuwanderung war bald vom zukünftigen «Millionenzürich» die Rede. Dies gab verschiedenen Infrastrukturprojekten Auftrieb, von denen vieles indessen nicht realisiert wurde. Auch lösten sich die traditionellen Sozialmilieus auf und machten einer Massenkonsumgesellschaft Platz, die stark auf Alleinernährerprinzip und Kleinfamilie beruhte. Wirtschaftliche Tertiarisierung, kulturelle «Amerikanisierung», Zuwanderung, Bildungsexpansion sowie schliesslich das Aufkommen einer neuen Frauenbewegung bildeten ebenfalls Triebkräfte des gesellschaftlichen Wandels. Ab Mitte der 60er-Jahre war die Bevölkerungszahl erstmals in der Moderne rückläufig. Wesentliche Gründe waren die Stadtfucht sowie ab 1973 die Wirtschaftskrise. Auch wurden Wachstumsprobleme sichtbar, so anhaltende Wohnungsnot, Verkehrsüberlastung, Umweltverschmutzung und Ängste vor «Überfremdung». Auch die Jugend wurde Gegenstand von Krisendiskursen – von den «Halbstarken» und dem tumultuösen Rolling-Stones-Konzert 1967 über das aufkommende Drogenproblem, den «Globuskrawall» 1968 und die «Republik Bunker» 1970/71 bis zum «Opernhauskrawall» 1980 und der «Bewegig» rund um das Autonome Jugendzentrum (AJZ). Das Seminar nimmt diese und weitere Entwicklungen des Zeitraums von den späten 40er- bis in die frühen 80er-Jahre ins Blickfeld und versucht, sie aus stadthistorischer Perspektive zueinander in Beziehung zu setzen.

Event The Japanese Empire in Ecological Perspective

600-022a / Seminar / 3,498

Description:

Business event contents:

This class explores the history of the Japanese Empire in Asia and the Pacific (ca. 1895-1945) from an ecological point of view.

Besides a historiographical survey of imperial Japan and its former colonies - chiefly Taiwan, Korea, and Manchuria, but also less prominent sites such as Sakhalin and Micronesia - this class builds a solid theoretical background in environmental history, STS and Anthropocene Studies.

The semester is structured in different thematic sections, reaching from "harnessing hydropower" to "harvesting the ocean" and "fueling industrial agriculture." Each section investigates different ways in which the infrastructure of empire shaped and was shaped by labor, migration, and unpredictable environmental change. Local perspectives are important: postcolonial approaches help recover the experience of displaced indigenous or migrant communities and they guide us to localities that carried the cost of imperial modernization. We will ask how historically grown infrastructures and collective memory both continue to affect power relations and resource dependencies across the region in the present. Finally, we discuss how East Asian experiences of industrial modernity expand and challenge Eurocentric views of the "Anthropocene".

This BA-Seminar is bilingual: students are free to make oral and written contributions in either German or English. Good passive command of both languages is crucial to complete this class. Knowledge of other languages is not mandatory, but students with knowledge of East Asian languages are especially encouraged to use this opportunity to explore Japanese and other non-Western archives.

Event L'étymologie galloromane
390-505a / Seminar / 2,071

Description:

Business event contents:

L'étymologie est une des branches les plus anciennes des Sciences du Langage. La réflexion sur les liens de parenté et de descendance entre les langues a joué un rôle déterminant dans la genèse de la linguistique moderne. En romanistique, l'étymologie a connu un développement exceptionnel, grâce à une bonne documentation diachronique et variationnelle des langues latine et néolatines.

Le séminaire a comme objectif premier de mettre en relief les méthodes constitutives et les buts de la recherche étymologique à l'heure actuelle, basée essentiellement sur la tradition originellement suisse représentée par les écoles de W. v. Wartburg et de M. Pfister. Nous prendrons appui sur les questions étymologiques soulevées par les dictionnaires étymologiques des langues galloromanes médiévales (français et francoprovençal, occitan et gascon) en cours d'élaboration. La comparaison des différentes trajectoires sémantico-formelles dans des champs sémantiques définis (vie rurale, commerce, artisanat) donnera lieu à une approche comparatiste et typologique permettant d'identifier la nature et le degré de différenciation des quatre langues de période médiévale.

Event Le Roman de Méliadus, père de Tristan
390I570a / Seminar / 2,111

Description:

Business event contents:

Avec le grand cycle du Lancelot-Graal et le Roman de Tristan en prose, l'histoire arthurienne reçoit sa forme canonique. Les deux oeuvres, malgré leur étendue, sont transmises par un nombre très élevé de manuscrits et arrêtent, pour le public médiéval, les contours des personnages et des événements principaux depuis l'ascension d'Arthur le trône jusqu'à la fin de la quête du Graal et l'implosion du monde arthurien dans la grande bataille finale près de Salisbury. Presque tout a été dit. D'où l'idée, simple, mais efficace, d'exploiter le su romans arthuriens et la notoriété des personnages, en écrivant un « prequel ». Le Roman de Meliadus, écrit vers 1230 par un autre inconnu, raconte, entre autres, la vie du père de Tristan, dans un monde narratif où tous les protagonistes sont plus jeunes. Plus précisément, l'auteur a décalé son récit d'une génération pour parler des pères des héros et de la sorte fonder l'univers arthurien. Dans ce séminaire, on examinera les relations intertextuelles qui lient le Roman de Meliadus au Lancelot- Graal et au Roman de Tristan en prose. Le but est d'examiner la marge de manoeuvre entre dépendance et autonomie dans laquelle l'auteur anonyme inscrit son oeuvre.

Event Standardsprache und Sprachgebrauch:aktuelle Debatten
360I552a / Colloquium / 3,405

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Kolloquium werden wir uns mit der aktuellen Forschung zur standardsprachlichen Variation im Deutschen befassen. Dazu gehört die Frage, in welcher Relation die Auffassung, dass das Deutsche eine pluriareale Sprache sei, zu der Annahme steht, es gebe nationale Varietäten (wie z. B. das österreichische Deutsch oder das deutsche Deutsch). Aber auch andere, nicht- diatopische Aspekte werden im Kolloquium diskutiert: Wie unterscheidet sich der Standard vom Substandard? Welche Rolle spielen die Kodizes (wie z.B. die Duden- Nachschlagewerke zur Rechtschreibung und Grammatik des Deutschen) in dieser Debatte? Welches Deutsch sollte im Bereich Deutsch-als-Fremdsprache unterrichtet werden? In welcher Relation steht die Standardsprache zum Dialektgebrauch (z. B. in Schweizer Schulen)?

Event Morfologia storica italo-romanza e teoria morfologica
410I030a / Course / 2,522

Description:

Business event contents:

La morfologia studia la struttura interna della parola, unità centrale della lingua, prominente per la coscienza dei parlanti e dunque tale da aver attirato, nei secoli, l'attenzione non solo dei linguisti. Ciò ha fatto sì che "parola" sia un termine carico di diverse accezioni e di definizione non univoca, anche in linguistica. Ad esempio in "tostapane" possiamo dire di aver di fronte una parola unica? E in che senso (a che livello) "cane" e "cani" sono due parole distinte? A questo tipo di domande ci accosteremo introducendo gli strumenti analitici della morfologia e offrendo un quadro generale della disciplina. Ciò fatto, il corso concentrerà l'attenzione sulla morfologia flessiva, la quale studia le forme che, in una lingua (flessiva, appunto) come l'italiano e le altre lingue romanze, una parola assume nei diversi contesti in cui compare. Per denominare la serie di tali forme esistono alcune etichette tradizionali, che s'incontrano fin dai banchi di scuola: paradigma, anzitutto, con i più specifici coniugazione (per il verbo) e declinazione (per il nome, il pronome, l'aggettivo). Nel corso si confronterà l'italiano con i suoi dialetti e le altre lingue romanze, mostrando come somiglianze e differenze siano insorte a partire dal latino ed introducendo nozioni e procedure utili a rivelare la sistematicità di tali sviluppi in diacronia, anche laddove essi possano apparire a prima vista irregolari o caotici.

Il corso si rivolge a tutti gli studenti/-esse, di linguistica italiana e di linguistica romanza comparata, sin dal primo semestre. Per sostenere l'esame, chi abbia frequentato il corso dovrà prepararsi in base agli appunti presi a lezione e in base alla lettura della bibliografia indicata di seguito (gli articoli saranno resi disponibili nella biblioteca di presenza virtuale su OLAT).

Event Los Girasoles Ciegos de Alberto Méndez
427-502a / Seminar / 2,185

Description:

Business event contents:

Los girasoles ciegos, de Alberto Méndez, se publicó en 2004, después de ganar el prestigioso premio Setenil, pocos meses antes de que ALberto Méndez (1941-2004) muriese en Madrid de cáncer. Un año después, en 2005, ganó el premio nacional de narrativa y el premio nacional de la crítica a título póstumo. En 2008 uno de los relatos fue llevado al cine bajo la dirección de José Luis Cuerda en una película en la que participaban, entre otros, Maribel Verdú y Javier Cámara. A qué se debe el éxito de este breve librito, que cuenta ya con más de 45 ediciones y ha sido traducido a decenas de idiomas? A lo largo de este seminario trataremos de dar respuesta a este y otros muchos interrogantes mediante su pormenorizado análisis discursivo, centrándonos especialmente en el estudio de la iconicidad y su efecto, la autorreferencialidad implícita. Como cierre del seminario, en la penúltima sesión se proyectará la película homónima de Cuerda y, en la siguiente, compararemos ambas obras y sus diferentes sentidos.

Course Materials: Alberto Méndez, Los girasoles ciegos, Barcelona, Anagrama, 2021.

Event Making Climate Knowledge

600-506a / Seminar / 2,270

Description:

Business event contents:

Does climate have a history? If historians deal with change over time, what special analytic tools do we bring to the study of climate change. We will begin with history of early climate science from Renaissance Astro- meteorology, farmer- and mariner prognostication to trace how it ascended in the 19th century to a public science. We will also study how climate science became entangled in the 20th century with the military- industrial complex. In the process we will work with almanacs, colonial weather archives, shipwreck records and documents produced by fossil fuel corporations over the last century.

This course is divided into 4 sections:

Section 1 engages the historiography on weather and climate and how knowledges about them transformed from the early modern period, through the colonial encounter and got consolidated as meteorology in the 19th century.

Section 2 will be a conceptual deep dive that explore the history of how we study and visualize climate change and what its sources are.

Section 3 will trace the development of climatology by contextualizing it in the history of how cold war and the military-industrial complex.

Section 4 will engage with the emerging field of research on climate coloniality and contemporary debates about adaptation and reparation.

Event Das Staunen der Welt? Der staufische Kaiser Friedrich II.
600-512a / Seminar / 647

Description:

Business event contents:

Der staufische Kaiser Friedrich II. (1194-1250) ist eine der schillerndsten Herrschergestalten des Mittelalters. Von Zeitgenossen wurde er als "Staunen der Welt" (stupor mundi) bezeichnet. Obwohl er als Herrscher eines riesigen Reiches, das von Norddeutschland bis Sizilien reichte, letztlich an der Vielzahl seiner Feinde scheiterte, war seine wissenschaftliche Neugier, sein gesetzgeberischer Impetus, seine Offenheit gegenüber anderen Kulturen für seine Zeitgenossen ebenso faszinierend wie abstossend. Facetten der Persönlichkeit Friedrichs sollen anhand ausgewählter Zeugnisse aus der umfangreichen Geschichtsschreibung der Zeit beleuchtet werden. Damit geht die Frage nach den Möglichkeiten von Persönlichkeitsdarstellung und Individualität im 13. Jahrhundert einher.

Course Materials:

Quellen mit modernen Übersetzungen und Forschungsbeiträge werden auf Olat bereitgestellt. Einführungsliteratur: Houben, Hubert: Kaiser Friedrich II. (1194-1250). Herrscher, Mensch und Mythos, Stuttgart 2008; Stürner, Wolfgang: Friedrich II. 1194-1250, 3. bibliographisch vollständig aktualisierte und um ein Vorwort und eine Dokumentation mit erg. Hinweisen erw. Aufl., Darmstadt 2009; Sommerlechner, Andrea: Stupor mundi? Kaiser Friedrich II. und die mittelalterliche Geschichtsschreibung, Wien 1999.

Event Hexerei und Hexenverfolgung im mittelalterlichen Zürich
600-516a / Seminar / 1,609

Description:

Business event contents:

Wir beschäftigen uns kritisch mit neueren Ansätzen der Erforschung von Hexenverfolgungen. Dabei geht es zum einen um eine Beschäftigung mit Ursachen und AkteurInnen der Hexenverfolgung und mit den damit verbundenen Transformationen von Religion, Geschlechterordnungen, Recht, Wirtschaft und Haushalt. Zum andern experimentieren wir mit neuen Methoden der Automated Text Recognition (ATR) und des Distant Reading, um Quellen des Staatsarchivs Zürich zu den lokalen Hexenverfolgungen unter neuen Fragestellungen zu untersuchen. Einen wichtigen Hintergrund unserer Arbeiten bilden aktuelle erinnerungskulturelle Debatten, zum Beispiel über das geplante Denkmal für die Hexenverfolgungen im Kanton Zürich. Diese werfen auch Fragen über die Rolle der Erinnerung an Hexen in Diskussionen über Patriarchat, Naturentfremdung und Kapitalismus auf.

Event Behavioral Ethics (S)
22BO0045 / Seminar / 386

Description:

Business event contents:

Behavioral (Business) Ethics ist ein interdisziplinärer Forschungszweig an der Schnittstelle Psychologie, Ökonomie/Finance und Ethik, der anhand empirischer Forschung untersucht, wie sich Menschen verhalten, wenn sie mit moralisch-ethischen Problemen im Wirtschafts- und Finanzkontext konfrontiert werden, und wie sich unethische Praktiken in Organisationen entwickeln können.

Im Fokus steht die Rolle von psychologischen Mechanismen und situativen Faktoren, die individuelles ethisches Handeln erleichtern oder behindern. In diesem Kurs werden anhand der Lektüre von (meist) experimentellen Studien aktuelle Themen von Behavioral Ethics vertieft und diskutiert. Es werden Fragen behandelt wie: Wie kommt es, dass sich (selbst integre) Personen unethisch verhalten, ohne es zu merken? Welche Faktoren tragen dazu bei, dass wir moralisch "blind" werden? Spielen beim moralischen Urteilen und Entscheiden eher Reflexion oder Intuition eine Rolle? Hat ethisches Verhalten etwas zu tun mit Selbstkontrolle und Umgang mit egoistischen Versuchungen? Wie wirkt sich mentale Erschöpfung auf ethisches Verhalten aus? Wie rechtfertigen Individuen eigenes (un)moralisches Verhalten? Gibt es so etwas wie subtile Kontexteinflüsse auf moralisches Verhalten? Erwartet werden eine aktive Seminarbeteiligung und das wöchentliche, gründliche Lesen wissenschaftlicher Artikel.

Notes:

Die Anzahl der Teilnehmerinnen und Teilnehmer ist beschränkt. Bei einer zu hohen Anzahl Anmeldungen erfolgt die Auswahl basierend auf der Bewerbung und dem Bewerbungszeitpunkt. Event Spinnerkönige und reiche Kaufleute. Die Geldelite während der Industrialisierung, 1850-1900
600-601a / Seminar / 1,349

Description:

Business event contents:

In den letzten Jahrzehnten sind Ranglisten der reichsten Einzelpersonen und Familien (z.B. die seit 1990 jährlich erscheinende Sonderausgabe "300 Reichsten" des Wirtschaftsmagazins Bilanz) zu einem medialen Ritual geworden. Die Forschung zur Einkommens- und Vermögensungleichheit hat eine neue Blüte erlebt, und auch auf der politischen Agenda stehen teilweise heftige Debatten über die soziale Ungleichheit und die Rolle des Vermögens in unserer Gesellschaft. Doch was wissen wir über die Art und das Ausmaß; von hohen Einkommen und Vermögen, wenn man eine langfristige Perspektive einnimmt?

In diesem Forschungsseminar wird das Profil des Spitzenvermögens anhand von Steuerunterlagen des 19. Jahrhunderts untersucht, um die Quellen des Reichtums während der Industrialisierung zu erforschen. Wer waren die Reichen vor 1900? Woher stammte ihr Vermögen? Wie haben sie ihr Vermögen angehäuft? Wurde man durch Vererbung oder durch Arbeit und Innovation reich? Wie sahen die sozialen, wohnlichen, beruflichen und familiären Strukturen der obersten Vermögensschichten aus? Die Teilnehmenden des Seminars werden sich mit diesen Themen auseinandersetzen und durch die Arbeit an Originalquellen einen Beitrag zur Beantwortung dieser Fragen leisten und damit zu einem lebendigen Feld der historischen Forschung beitragen.

Event Intermediate Corporate Finance (S)
22BO0017 / Seminar / 1,730

Description:

Business event contents:

The course builds on Corporate Finance 1, in which students will have learnt the basic tools and concepts of corporate finance. The course introduces few new tools, but it applies the tools learnt in Corporate Finance I to a range of corporate finance problems (specifically, the analysis of financial statement data, project appraisal, valuation, capital structure, willingness to pay and hedging foreign exchange risk). These are studied in the context of real cases. An important aspect of the course is its attempt to open the (financial) 'black box' that is a firm to reveal the mechanism that measures and determines firm value, and to explain the workings of this mechanism and the interactions amongst its components.

Notes:

No pre-registration required for UZH students.

Description:

Business event contents:

In this course, students are expected to practice and demonstrate thoughtful combination of knowledge and skills learned in the separate compulsory courses within the Doctoral Program in Neuroeconomics. Specifically, students read and discuss a series of research articles that relate to the material covered in the other, previously completed compulsory courses. The articles to be discussed with the instructor on each date will be listed and distributed at the first meeting. Students are expected to have read each article in depth before each meeting. They should come prepared to ask questions about the articles themselves and/or how they relate to neuroeconomics in general.

This module will not be podcasted or recorded.

Venue: BLU-003

Course Materials: The list of journal articles will be distributed via OLAT before the first meeting in the first week of courses.

Event Gegenwartslyrik
504I060a / Seminar / 1,354

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Lyrik der Gegenwart 'blüht' - diese in letzter Zeit immer wieder hörende Beobachtung vereint zwei Aspekte. Einerseits ist damit gesagt: Im historischen Vergleich und im Vergleich der literarischen Gattungen ist seit mehreren Jahrzehnten, besonders aber seit der Jahrtausendwende, eine Vielfalt an neuen Strömungen und Tendenzen ausgesprochen hochkarätiger Lyrik entstanden und auch breit rezipiert worden. Andererseits sagt die Behauptung: Es sind die Erfahrungen der Gegenwart - Digitalisierung und Globalisierung, postkoloniale Konflikte, Genderfragen, das Epochenbewusstsein des Anthropozän, der Verlust der Natur - die eine neue Lyrik auf den Plan gerufen haben, welche das, was diese Gegenwart ist oder sein kann, thematisch wie formal/- verfahrenslogisch aufgreift, verhandelt und neu entwirft. Vor diesem Hintergrund widmet sich das Seminar einer gemeinsamen Entdeckung der Gegenwart(en) der Lyrik seit dem ausgehenden 20. Jahrhundert.

Event Core Concepts of Digital Communication
2481631a / Seminar / 594

Description:

Business event contents:

Digital communication is omnipresent in peoples' lives and in the broader fabric of contemporary society. Scholars from different disciplines - from media and communication science over sociology, political science and anthropology to philosophy and law - have analyzed digital communication. They have used a variety of concepts, some specifically developed for, some adapted to the peculiarities of digital communication. In the seminar, we will introduce and discuss a selection of these concepts, their usefulness and limitations. This will involve a close and thorough reading of selected conceptual texts. Please read those texts before class, have them ready and be prepared to discuss them in class.

Event Kolonialgeschichte lesen
600I014a / Colloquium / 2,032

Description:

Business event contents:

Ausgehend von dem auf Archivrecherchen basierenden Roman der simbabwischen Juristin und Autorin Petina Gappah "Aus der Dunkelheit strahlendes Licht" (2019), den Sie bitte im englischen Original oder in der deutschen Übersetzung lesen, befassen wir uns mit den unterschiedlichsten Texten der Kolonialgeschichte und Kolonialgeschichtsschreibung. Im Roman geht es um ein weitgehend unbekanntes Stück afrikanischer Kolonialgeschichte, denn er handelt von der letzten seltsamen Reise von David Livingstone. Als der berühmte schottische Missionar und Afrikaforscher 1873 auf der Suche nach den Nilquellen starb, trugen seine afrikanischen Gefolgsleute seinen Leichnam an die Küste, damit er in seine Heimat zurückkehren konnte. Es handelt sich um eine wahre Geschichte, die hier aus der Perspektive der afrikanischen Reisenden fiktionalisiert wurde. Im Kolloquium befassen wir uns mit den unterschiedlichsten Texten aus dem Umfeld dieser Geschichte: Quellen, Sekundärliteratur und populärwissenschaftliche Texte vom Obduktionsbericht bis zur Werbung für das Livingstone-Museum. Es geht unter anderem um Kinderarbeit, Lücken im Archiv und die Wiederlegung von gängigen Vorstellungen zur kolonialen Geschichte Afrikas.

Event Key Themes in Postcolonial History
600I503a / Colloquium / 1,878

Description:

Business event contents:

What does it mean to decolonize? What are the cultural and economic imperatives of decolonization? Is decolonization a return to a form of nativism? What do we mean when we speak about continuing settler colonialism in the absence of formal colonies? This colloquium will tackle some of these questions in light of seminal and new writings on postcolonialism. It has been over 70 years since Aimé Césaire's "Discourse on Colonialism" (1950) and over 45 years since Edward Said's "Orientalism" (1978) began to transform our ideas of what constituted colonial power, its operation and institutionalization in both Europe and its colonies. The 1980s saw a new turn in historical writing, coming primarily from the Global South and the formerly colonized nations. Postcolonial histories not only opened new archives to write about the empires but also fashioned new theories about what constitutes an archive, how to read fragments, oral narratives, riddles and songs in order to understand the nature of power, knowledge and the formation of historical consciousness in the absence of written sources. The Subaltern Studies Group, founded during this moment, asked how to think about the erasures, silences, the violence and the small voices of history. As the city of Zürich begins the official process of reckoning with its colonial past this year, it offers a good moment to revisit the key debates in postcolonial histories and their afterlives in contemporary debates on decolonization and settler-colonialism.

Event Qualitative Multimodal approaches to visual social media
2481632a / Seminar / 2,989

Description:

Business event contents:

In this seminar, students will learn about some of the key qualitative approaches for the analysis of multimodal content in visual social media. We will consider the interactive and memetic nature of these platforms and their impact on society, including digital and popular cultures, identity, sociality, and politics. We will identify communities within these platforms and explore the different ways in which they adapt to the vernaculars that characterize each platform.

Aspects like algorithmic (in)visibility, reality construction, platform governance, and content moderation will be discussed.

Event Soziale Einflüsse in digitalen Medienumgebungen – Ansätze für die strategische Kommunikation
2501621a / Seminar / 3,346

Description:

Business event contents:

Soziale Medien bieten einen fruchtbaren Nährboden für soziale Verhaltenseinflüsse. Dazu zählen Einflussversuche von Influencer*innen hinsichtlich Konsumententscheidungen (#sponsored), einflussreiche Nachhaltigkeits-Normen im Freundeskreis (#slowfashion) oder Vergleichsprozesse mit Fitness-Idolen (#fitspiration). Aus einer kommunikationsstrategischen Perspektive ergeben sich daraus wichtige Ansätze, bspw. für die strategische Gesundheits-, Risiko- oder Nachhaltigkeitskommunikation.

Das Seminar baut auf dem Forschungsstand zu sozialen Einflüssen auf und diskutiert Ansätze für die strategische Kommunikation. Ausgehend von dieser Diskussion werden in Kleingruppen Forschungskonzepte erarbeitet, die als Grundlage für Kommunikationsstrategien dienen sollen.

Event Advanced Corporate Finance I (L)
22MO0007 / Course / 80

Description:

Business event contents:

This course develops and refines tools for evaluating investments (capital budgeting), capital structure, and corporate securities. With respect to capital structure, we start with the famous Miller and Modigliani irrelevance proposition and then move on to study the effects of taxes, bankruptcy costs, information asymmetries between firms and the capital markets, and agency costs. In this context, we will also study how leverage affects some central financial ratios that are often used in practice to assess firms and their stock. Other topics include corporate cash holdings, the use and pricing of convertible bonds, and risk management. The latter two topics involve option pricing. With respect to capital budgeting, the course pays special attention to tax effects in valuation, including in the estimation of the cost of capital. We will also study payout policy (dividends and share repurchases). The course seeks to deepen students' understanding of the link between corporate finance theory and practice. Cases may be assigned to reach this objective.

Description:

Business event contents:

Youth is the hope of our future amidst big societal transformations and with crises abounding. But what do people mean when using the word "youth" or "young people"? What do we know about youth populations and the role of digital technology in their lives? How are digital technologies accessed across geographies and cultures and for which purposes? What are the best ways to research youth behaviors, attitudes, and trends in the digital age? And with technology and society changing so rapidly, can research keep up? This course offers responses to these and related questions at the intersection of youth and digital technologies to better understand today's lives of young people as we embrace the challenge to build a better future across generations.

Event Privacy in a Digital Society
254I512a / Course / 2,860

Description:

Business event contents:

Our everyday life is increasingly mediated by digital technologies. Using these comes with many advantages. It has never been easier to find interest-matching products and to be entertained with content that is fitted to one's personal interests. However, this convenience also comes with risks. This filtering and tailoring of content is only possible due to extensive data collection. This raises questions about individual and societal privacy. In this lecture, we will discuss theoretical approaches to the concept of privacy as well as current research on the topic from a user-centered perspective. We will look at how privacy can be defined, how internet users perceive privacy, what attitudes they have towards it and how they cope with privacy-related risks.

Event Aufgaben und Organisation der archäologischen Denkmalpflege
640-518a / Exercise Group / 283

Description:

Business event contents:

Nach einer Entwicklung von 200 Jahren ist die archäologische Forschung heute eng an die archäologische Denkmalpflege gebunden und wird in der Schweiz auch zu grossen Teilen von dieser getragen. Aufgaben und Organisation von Kantonsarchäologien, Museen und weiteren Organisationen im Bereich der Bodendenkmalpflege prägen die Arbeitsweise und Fragestellungen der Forschung, die sich ihrerseits oft durch ihren Beitrag für die Bodendenkmalpflege legitimiert. Zum Verständnis der Archäologie in der Schweiz und in Mitteleuropa ist es daher wichtig, Geschichte und Regeln dieser Organisationen zu kennen. In der Übung sollen Konventionen und Leitsätze gelesen, exemplarische Organisationen kennengelernt und ausgewählte Themen diskutiert werden.

Notes:

Die Termine am 17. September, 24. September und 10. Dezember werden in Präsenz stattfinden. Die übrigen Termine werden voraussichtlich in Form von Zoom- Sitzungen durchgeführt. Zusätzlich sind zwei Exkursionsnachmittage vorgesehen (vorauss. Fr 18. Oktober nach Bern und Fr 15. November nach Aarau).

Event Die Rückseite der Bilder. Provenienzforschung als kunsthistorische Methode
640I048a / Exercise Group / 5,066

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Präsentation der Sammlung Bührle im Neubau des Kunsthaus Zürich hat eine öffentliche Debatte ausgelöst, welche nicht zuletzt von der immer stärkeren Bedeutung der Provenienzforschung für die Wahrnehmung der Kunst zeugt: Wo kommen die Objekte in Museen her? Wann, von wem und unter welchen Bedingungen wurden sie erworben? Die Notwendigkeit der Klärung dieser Fragen ergibt sich in zahlreichen Fällen bereits aus der Selbstverpflichtung der Museen gemäß den Washingtoner Prinzipien von 1998. Zugleich kommt ihr in fast allen Fällen eine genuin kunsthistorische Bedeutung zu. Schließlich wird die ästhetische Wahrnehmung eines Kunstwerkes nicht allein durch seine physikalischen Eigenschaften bestimmt, sondern auch dadurch, was der jeweilige Betrachtende über es weiß. Dieses Wissen sollte neben dem Urheber oder der Zuordnung zu einer Kunstepoche und -strömung auch vermehrt die Besitzgeschichte miteinschließen. Bietet die Provenienzforschung als kunsthistorische Methode doch das Potenzial, neue Zugänge zu bestehenden Sammlungen zu eröffnen. Im Rahmen der Übung werden aktuelle Fragestellungen der Provenienzforschung gemeinsam diskutiert und Einblicke in ihre Methoden gegeben. Dies soll als Grundlage dafür dienen, die vielschichtige Objektbiografie ausgewählter Werke aus der Sammlung des Kunsthaus Zürich im jeweiligen historischen Kontext zu rekonstruieren. Ihre Geschichte materialisiert sich dabei ebenso durch Stempel und Aufkleber auf den Rückseiten der Bilder als auch in den Inventaren, Rechnungen und Briefen, die im Archiv des Kunsthaus Zürich verwahrt werden. Ziel der Übung ist es, dieses unsichtbare Wissen über die Herkunft der Werke für ihre Betrachtung fruchtbar zu machen.

Event Sustainable Finance and Networks (L)

22MO0067 / Course / 5,140

Description:

Business event contents:

Sustainable finance is today a strategic area of investment for both private and public institutions. Our society faces unprecedented sustainability challenges both in terms of environment, such as climate change and biodiversity loss, as well as social issues such as mounting inequality and the new risk of pandemics. Financial technologies play a crucial role for the functioning of the modern economy and for the management of both for macro-economic challenges (financial stability, growth, inequality) and for sustainability (climate risk, low-carbon transition, green growth, resilience to pandemics). Depending on financial technologies are used, they can either support the good management of these challenges, or, instead they can exacerbate their mismanagement. The discipline of financial networks is key to make this difference: many important unintended effects and externalities can only be captured by a financial network analysis. Three main effects propagate through networks of financial contracts: the exposure of portfolios to risk (e.g. systemic, climate), the impact of portfolios on social and climate objectives, and the creation and redistribution of wealth. Accordingly, the course will start from the basic notions of graph theory and progress towards developing network models of financial actors with a focus on the context of financial stability and climate-related risks.

Event Inequality in Developing and Emerging Economies
6151509a / Seminar / 4,789

Description:

Business event contents:

This course introduces students to the study of inequality in developing and emerging economies. We will focus on topics ranging from the effect of economic disparities and structural and horizontal inequalities to the role of opportunity.

We will look at the role of institutions and policies on different types and levels of inequality. The first part of the course will focus on an overview of key concepts and central questions that will serve as the basis for the second part, focusing on inequality under different types of political regimes and the role of inequality in conflict and post-conflict contexts.

Notes:

Methodologically, we will resort to quantitative scholarly work to a large extent (but not exclusively). The class will combine a lecture- style seminar with group exercises, discussions, and presentations with student-led discussant roles. The course requires extensive reading, and students are expected to actively engage with the materials and be prepared to join group discussions during class.

Performance is graded based on two response papers, one presentation plus a discussant role, and a final research paper.

Course Materials:

All course materials, including journal articles and book chapters, will be available on OLAT.

The following text should be read ahead of the first session: Amendola, A., Easaw, J. and Savoia, A. (2013). Inequality in Developing Economies: The Role of Institutional Development. Public Choice. 155: 43--60.

Event Digital Technology, Politics, and Policy-Making
6151511a / Seminar / 4,788

Description:

Business event contents:

The seminar studies how digital technology (in particular social media and artificial intelligence) has affected liberal democracies with a focus on three key aspects of democratic politics: political communication, political participation, and policy-making. The impact of digital technology permeates the entire political process, affecting the flow of information among citizen and political actors, the connection between the mass public and political elites, and the development of policy responses to societal problems. The seminar discusses how digital technology has shaped these different domains, with an empirical focus on both Switzerland and other cases such as the United States and the European Union, as well as other countries and regions.

Event Von Azurit bis Verdigris. Eine materielle Geschichte der mittelalterlichen Palette
640-507a / Seminar / 4,961

Description:

Business event contents:

Farbe galt in der Kunstgeschichte lange als rein optisches und gleichsam immaterielles Phänomen, das die Wirkung von Kunstwerken auf einer visuellen Ebene bestimmt. Mit dem material turn der Kulturwissenschaften und dank neuer technischer Möglichkeiten der Materialanalyse ist in der jüngeren Forschung die Materialität der Farbe in den Vordergrund getreten. Jenseits der optischen Einordnung von Farbwerten lassen sich nun die Substanzen und Mixturen bestimmen, die diese visuelle Wirkung überhaupt erst hervorbringen. Erst auf dieser Grundlage lässt sich zuverlässig ausmachen, ob es sich um wasserlösliche Farbstoffe oder unlösliche Pigmente handelt und ob die verwendeten Farbmittel mineralischer, pflanzlicher oder tierischer Herkunft sind. So wissen wir erst seit wenigen Jahren, dass der aus Schnecken gewonnene Purpur der Antike im europäischen Mittelalter durch Purpur aus Flechten abgelöst wurde. Und nur mit einer technischen Analyse lässt sich sicher sagen, ob für den Blauton in einem Gemälde das kostbare Ultramarin oder das günstigere Azurit eingesetzt wurde. Über die Bestimmung der Farbmittel eröffnet sich so eine weite Welt der Farbgewinnung, des Farbenhandels, der Farb Rezepturen und der Farbverwendung. Die Herstellung von Kunstwerken ist auf dieser Ebene eng mit der Umwelt- und Wirtschaftsgeschichte, aber auch mit der Geschichte der Chemie und der Medizin verknüpft. Im Seminar wollen wir die materielle Geschichte der mittelalterlichen Palette ausgehend von einer Einführung zu mittelalterlichen Rezeptbüchern nachvollziehen und uns in jeder Sitzung mit ausgewählten Farbmitteln beschäftigen. Vorgesehen ist auch ein Gespräch mit Materialforscher:innen und der Besuch eines Analyselabors, die uns helfen sollen, die aktuellen technischen Grundlagen der Bestimmung von Farbmitteln kennenzulernen.

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Modul bietet eine Einführung in die japanische Kunstgeschichte. Mittels Werkbeispielen vom Neolithikum bis zur Gegenwart vermittelt es Studierenden wichtige Kunstformen, Medien, Techniken und Gattungen. Neben Einbettung in Strömungen und Entwicklungen der Kunstgeschichte Japans werden die Werke im Zusammenhang mit jeweiligen historischen und sozialen Kontexten diskutiert. Die Studierenden erarbeiten Kenntnisse der wichtigsten Kunstformen Japans und können Werke anhand der besprochenen Beispiele identifizieren und ihren historischen und sozialen Kontexten zuordnen. Sie kennen und verstehen die wichtigsten Kunstströmungen Japans, die sozialen und kulturellen Entwicklungen der Gesellschaft sowie die historischen Perioden, und sind in der Lage, Werke ausführlich zu beschreiben und die darin angewandten künstlerischen Techniken zu benennen. Sie können diese Kenntnisse mündlich und schriftlich mit den korrekten Fachbegriffen bezeichnen und deren Inhalte vermitteln.

Event Kühles Pathos – Melodramatik in Stummfilm und Literatur Skandinaviens
360I801a / Seminar / 4,970

Description:

Business event contents:

In den 1910er und 20er Jahren erlebt das skandinavische Kino eine erste Blütezeit. Dabei machen sich Carl Theodor Dreyer, Victor Sjöström, Mauritz Stiller und andere als frühe Vertreter eines Autorenkinos einen Namen, das sich vor allen Dingen über einen ästhetischen Anspruch definiert. Um diesen Kunstanspruch zu unterstreichen, greifen viele Regisseure auf Vorlagen aus der zeitgenössischen Literatur zurück, die sie wiederum eigenwillig bearbeiten. Interessanterweise werden dabei häufig Texte von Autorinnen adaptiert, die in den letzten Jahren eine regelrechte Renaissance erleben. Im Seminar wollen wir diesen intermedialen Dialog aus verschiedenen Blickwinkeln beleuchten. Dabei interessieren wir uns insbesondere für die Frage, wie unterschiedlich Film und Literatur mit Gattungskonventionen eines melodramatischen Erzählens umgehen. Diese Frage ist eng mit der übergeordneten kulturanalytischen Problemstellung nach der Geschichte und kulturellen Verfasstheit von Emotionen verbunden, der wir im Seminar mit Rückgriff auf aktuelle theoretische Diskussionen zum emotional turn nachgehen wollen. Sekundärliteratur: Eine Liste mit relevanten Sekundärtexten sowie Online-Links zu den Filmen für die Heimvisionierung werden zu Beginn des Semesters zur Verfügung gestellt. Primärliteratur: Selma Lagerlöf: Der Fuhrmann des Todes. Liwi-Verlag 2021. Selma Lagerlöf: Die Geschichte von Gösta Berling. Piper-Verlag 2007. Elin Wägner: Die Sekretärinnen. Ecco-Verlag 2022. Die genannten Texte sollten vor Semesterbeginn angeschafft werden. Alle weiteren Texte werden über OLAT zur Verfügung gestellt. Vorläufige FilmAuswahl: De fire djævle (Robert Dinesen, DK 1911) Ingeborg Holm (Victor Sjöström, SW 1913) Terje Vigen (Sjöström, SW 1917) Berg-Eyvind och sin hustru (Sjöström, SW 1918) Herr Arnes Pengar (Mauritz Stiller, SW 1919) Körkarlen (Sjöström, SW 1921) Johan (Stiller, SW 1921) Gunnar Hedes Saga (Stiller, SW 1923) Gösta Berlings Saga (Stiller, SW 1924) Norrstullsligan (Per Lindberg, SW 1923) Flickan i frack (Karin Swanström, SW 1926) Glomdalsbruden (Carl Theodor Dreyer, NO 1926)

Event SIKJM-Jahrestagung: Phänomenal emotional! Wie Kinder- und Jugendliteratur Gefühle weckt
506I517a / Selbststudium mit Leistungsnachweis / 5,001

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Jahrestagung des Schweizerischen Instituts für Kinder- und Jugendmedien (SIKJM) widmet sich dem Thema «Phänomenal emotional! Wie Kinder- und Jugendliteratur Gefühle weckt» und findet am 25. September 2024 im Volkshaus Zürich statt.

Beim Lesen und Vorlesen sehen Kinder und Jugendliche in die Gedankenwelt von Figuren, sie erfahren, dass sie in ihren Gefühlen nicht allein sind und entwickeln Empathie. Literatur löst etwas aus, will verarbeitet werden, setzt innere Prozesse in Gang. Sie befähigt aber auch dazu, Selbsterlebtes einzuordnen und zeigt Möglichkeiten auf, mit Emotionen umzugehen.

Was weiss die Hirnforschung darüber, wie Literatur sich auf die emotionale Entwicklung von Kindern auswirkt? Wie werden Emotionen in Bilder- und Kinderbüchern thematisiert, und wie spielen Jugendromane auf der Klaviatur der Gefühle? Wie setzt man Begeisterung, Wut oder Enttäuschung gekonnt ins Bild? Und welche Herausforderungen und Chancen beinhaltet das Sprechen über Gefühle beim Lesen in der Vermittlung?

Die Referate der Tagung beobachten und analysieren Phänomene und Trends in der Literatur und im Diskurs darüber, geben Einblick in künstlerische Strategien und reflektieren Herangehensweisen in der Vermittlung.

90IL6-1 / Course / 991

Description:

Business event contents:

The course European Tax Law is divided into three parts and begins with an introduction into the general principles of EU law looked at from a tax perspective and an overview of the tax relevant aspects of the relationship between Switzerland and the EU. In Part two, the ECJ case law on the fundamental freedoms in tax matters and its impact on the domestic tax laws of the EU member states will be discussed. Part III deals with the tax directives and the EU state aid rules with a focus on direct taxes. Part II and Part III will consist of presentations of the students.

2. a paper on an allocated topic (analyse of ECJ case law);
3. active participation in the classes during the entire semester.

Course Materials: Further Information about the course will be given on the website of Prof. Dr. Madeleine Simonek. The materials for the course will be available on OLAT (after registering for the course).

Event Grundfragen der Rechtsphilosophie
160I028a / Seminar / 1,537

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Seminar behandelt anhand zentraler Beiträge aus den letzten Jahrzehnten eine Auswahl zentraler Themen und Grundbegriffe der zeitgenössischen Rechtsphilosophie. Unter anderem geht es in dem Seminar um folgende Fragen: Was macht überhaupt rechtliche Normen und Institutionen aus? Sind die Geltung und der Inhalt rechtlicher Regeln abhängig oder unabhängig von moralischen Erwägungen? Was macht einen Staat zu einem "Rechtsstaat", und inwieweit und warum sollten wir «Rechtsstaatlichkeit» für etwas wünschenswertes halten? Welche Arte Interaktionen zwischen Menschen (zum Beispiel manche, aber nicht alle Schädigungen und manche, aber nicht alle Vereinbarungen) sollten Gegenstand rechtlicher Regelung oder Durchsetzung sein und warum?

Course Materials:

Die philosophischen Texte, die in diesem Seminar gelesen werden, sind grösstenteils auf Englisch verfasst. Von TeilnehmerInnen des Seminars wird die Fähigkeit und die Bereitschaft erwartet, anspruchsvolle englischsprachige Texte zu lesen und zu diskutieren.

Event Ethik von Krieg und Frieden
160I031a / Seminar / 979

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Ethik ist eine philosophische Disziplin, die sich mit der auf der Vernunft gegründeten Erkenntnis des rechten, moralischen Handelns des Menschen befasst. Sie setzt ein fast durchgehendes Verbot zwischenmenschlicher Gewalt fest. Die Kriegs- und die Friedensethiken sind Teilbereiche der Angewandten Ethik. Die Kriegsethik befasst sich mit möglichen Begründungen einer extremen Ausnahme des Gewaltverbots: der systematisierten Massengewalt zwischen Soldaten mehrerer Staaten und / oder Mitglieder sub-staatlicher Gruppierungen. Die Friedensethik reflektiert das Zusammenleben der Menschen hinsichtlich der Austragung von Konflikten und der Anwendung von Gewalt zwischen Gruppen. Sie thematisiert hauptsächlich die Grenzen von Gewaltanwendung. Wir lesen und besprechen ausgewählte Texte zu den Thematiken, bei der Friedensethik mit speziellem Fokus auf die Grenzen der Gewaltanwendung zwischen Staaten.

Course Materials: Die wöchentlich zu bearbeitende Literatur wird bereitgestellt.

Event Arbeit sehen: Bertolt Brecht und Film
255I002a / Seminar / 4,046

Description:

Business event contents:

Wenn auch Bertolt Brecht nur wenige Texte dezidiert über das in der ersten Hälfte des 20. Jh. immer noch neue Medium Film geschrieben hat und nur zwei Filme als Ko-Regisseur realisierte, beeinflusste der Film (wie bei vielen Autor*innen der Moderne) das Denken dieses wichtigen deutschen Schriftstellers nachhaltig. Sein Verständnis vom neuen Medium und seine Ansprüche daran lassen sich anhand von veröffentlichten Essays, Tagebucheinträgen, Briefen und (un) fertigen Drehbüchern aus dem Nachlass rekonstruieren. Ausserdem prägten Grundprämissen seines Denkens eine ganze Generation westeuropäischer Filmemacher*innen und Filmtheoretiker*innen der 70er Jahre, die an der Beziehung zwischen kultureller Produktion und sozialem Wandel interessiert waren. Die Rezeption seines Denkens in der Filmtheorie scheint schliesslich seit der Veröffentlichung der Artikel von Colin McCabe und Stephen Heath im Jahr 1974 ungebrochen zu sein und erstreckt sich bis hin zu neueren theoretischen Entwürfen von George Didi-Huberman und Jaques Rancière. Typisch Brecht'sche Gestaltungsmittel wie die direkte Anrede, nicht-lineare Erzähl und nicht auf Einfühlung abzielendes Schauspiel haben indes schon längst Einzug in Hollywood-Filme gefunden und auch andere Filmemacher*innen wie Jean-Marie Straub und Danièle Huillet oder Harun Farocki beeinflusst.

In diesem Seminar werden wir uns mit Texten von Brecht und Film- und Medientheoretiker*innen wie Roland Barthes, Theodor Adorno oder Noël Burch auseinandersetzen und Filme von Regisseur:innen wie Charlie Chaplin, Vsevolod Pudovkin, Rainer Werner Fassbinder und Alexander Kluge diskutieren, um so die Übertragbarkeit Brecht'scher Konzepte - z. B. Verfremdungseffekt, sozialer Gestus, episches Theater - auf den Film zu überprüfen und der Geschichte der Brecht-Rezeption in der Filmtheorie und der Filmpraxis - als einen wichtigen Faden der Geschichte des politischen Kinos - nachzugehen.

Das Seminar soll die text- und filmanalytische Kompetenz der Studierenden stärken. Die Anforderungen während des Semesters bestehen aus der Erstellung von Diskussionsimpulsen und der aktiven Teilnahme an den Gruppen- und Plenumsdiskussionen.

Event Vermittlung dokumentarischer Formen
255I006a / Exercise Group / 4,053

Description:

Business event contents:

Dokumentarfilme sind in Vermittlungskontexten überaus beliebt - nicht zuletzt wegen der Vielfalt an Themen und Sujets, denen sie sich widmen. In der vermittelnden Auseinandersetzung mit den Werken sind darüber hinaus grundlegende Fragen des dokumentarischen Arbeitens und der dokumentarischen Form zentral. So gibt es etwa beobachtende, essayistische, experimentelle, animierte, inszenierte, performative oder partizipativ erarbeitete Formen. Die Formenvielfalt der Gattung sollte sich auch in der Vermittlung - etwa an ein junges Publikum (in schulischen Kontexten, auf Festivals, in Filmworkshops mit Filmemacher*innen, in Lehrerfortbildungen usw.) niederschlagen. In der Übung werden wir einen zweitägigen Workshop mit praktizierenden Filmvermittler*innen und Expert*innen auf dem Gebiet der Filmvermittlung vor- und nachbereiten. Zur Vorbereitung werden wir Filme visionieren und uns fragen, wie sich die Filme für Vermittlungskontexte erschliessen lassen: Welche Filme sind interessant für ein junges Publikum? Wie lassen sich gattungsspezifische Aspekte sowie Form und Inhalt gleichermaßen vermitteln? Dabei werden wir uns gezielt auf den geplanten Workshop, die Workshop-Gäste und deren Vermittlungsschwerpunkte vorbereiten.

Notes:

Erwartet wird die aktive Vorbereitung des Workshops, die verbindliche Teilnahme daran (22. & 23.11.24, jeweils ganztägig) und die Übernahme von Aufgaben während des Workshops. Dazu gehört u.a. die Einführung von Gästen, die Beteiligung an Diskussionen, das Verfassen eines Inhaltsprotokolls zu einem Workshopbeitrag (1-2 Seiten), ggf. die Teilnahme an einer Podiumsdiskussion sowie die Nachbereitung und Auswertung des Workshops.

Event Bild/Arbeit: Harun Farocki zwischen Kino, TV, Museum und Archiv
255I008a / Seminar / 4,049

Description:

Business event contents:

«Bevor ich an der Filmakademie zum Hochschulversager wurde, war ich schon ein Schulversager gewesen. Noch bevor ich zum ersten Mal von der Schule flog, hatte ich angefangen, Brecht zu lesen», schreibt Harun Farocki rückblickend im Jahr 2010. Farocki studierte 1966 bis 1968 im ersten Jahrgang der Deutschen Film- und Fernsehakademie Berlin (DFFB). In den knapp fünf Jahrzehnten bis zu seinem Tod 2014 entstanden zahlreiche Filme und Fernsehsendungen unterschiedlicher Länge; seit den 1990er Jahren verstärkt auch Videoinstallationen für Museen und Galerien. Während die frühen Filme im Geist der Studentenbewegung agitatorische Züge trugen, entwickelten sich seine dokumentarische Arbeit später in Richtung nüchterner Beobachtung von Trainings- und Rollenspielsituationen (Die Bewerbung, Die Schulung, Die Umschulung u.a.) sowie gedanklich weit ausgreifenden Essayfilmen (Wie man sieht, Bilder der Welt und Inschrift des Krieges). Parallel zu seiner Arbeit als Filmemacher zwischen Kino, TV, Museum und Archiv arbeitete Farocki auch als Lehrer, Autor und Zeitschriftenredakteur. Ziel des Seminars ist es, den vielfältigen Aktivitäten Farockis nachzugehen. Ein Schwerpunkt liegt auf Fragen technischer und «operativer Bilder», w sie jüngst von Jussi Parik aufgegriffen wurden. Zudem sollen Archivalien aus dem Bestand des Harun Farocki Instituts in die Diskussionen und Analysen eingehen.

Event Im Schatten der Stars: Nebenfiguren im Film
255I009a / Seminar / 4,060

Description:

Business event contents:

Anders als die Stars im Kino erscheinen Nebenfiguren gewöhnlich nicht in Großaufnahme und erst recht nicht im Glamourlicht; sie beleben die Szene Hintergrund oder an den Rändern des Geschehens und sind deshalb mit der Vorstellung alltäglichen Treibens verbunden, das die Geschicke der Hauptfiguren, von denen die Filme erzählen, vermeintlich überdauert. Ihre Sichtbarkeit ist dem Gebot der Unauffälligkeit unterstellt, aus der sie nur für Momente oder Episoden heraustreten, die ihnen dann wiederum besondere Prägnanz in der körperlichen Erscheinung und im Spiel abverlangen. Oftmals verlassen sie die Szene, wenn sie ihren dramaturgischen Auftrag erfüllt haben, ohne wiederzukehren, verschwinden unbemerkt aus dem Film; mitunter prägen sich ihre Auftritte aber auch ein und bleiben im Gedächtnis. Anders als die Hauptfiguren, die als singular wahrgenommen werden, werden die Nebenfiguren auch dann, wenn sie allein auftreten, im Plural gedacht. Vielfach sind sie, schon durch eine bis heute gängige Praxis des Typecastings, als Angehörige sozialer, ethnischer, beruflicher Gruppen angelegt, die durch äußerliche Merkmale unmittelbar erkennbar sein sollen und auf wenige, um so prägnantere Züge festgelegt werden.

Dies macht sie besonders anfällig für Formen der Stereotypisierung und Diskriminierung, aber auch der Solidarisierung und Identifikation ausserhalb des Heldenschemas.

Im Seminar nähern wir uns der Nebenfigur, die in der (film)wissenschaftlichen Forschung bislang kaum Beachtung gefunden hat, von den Chargenspielern im klassischen Hollywoodkino bis zu den NPCs in Games und Social Media. Gemeinsam erschliessen wir dabei nicht nur Zugänge zum gewöhnlich übersehenen, aber allgegenwärtigen Personal des Films, sondern damit auch neue Blicke, die sich auf den Hintergrund und die Ränder des Films richten. Das Seminar findet in Kooperation mit dem Kino Filmpodium statt, das im Herbst eine Filmreihe zum Thema veranstalten wird. Es wird durch obligatorische Filmvisionierungen und Textlektüre begleitet. Erwartet wird die aktive Teilnahme an den gemeinsamen Diskussionen sowie die Vorbereitung von Diskussionsimpulsen und Einführungen zu einem ausgewählten Film oder Themenkomplex im Laufe des Semesters.

Event Theorien des Zuhörens im Film
255I016a / Colloquium / 4,062

Description:

Business event contents:

Was könnte ein klangliches Äquivalent zur Analysekategorie Blick (gaze) in der Filmwissenschaft sein? Michel Chion beschäftigt sich in seiner Publikation Audio-Vision (1994) mit dieser Frage und schlägt anknüpfend an point of view die Bezeichnung point of audition als (Hör-)Ort vor, von dem aus filmischer Ton wahrgenommen wird. Ob der Punkt im Bereich des Auditiven eine zufriedenstellende Grösse darstellen kann, wurde nicht nur von Chion selbst, sondern auch von anderen Film- und Soundtheoretiker*innen wie Pooja Rangan oder John Mowitt angezweifelt, der in seinem 2015 erschienen Buch Sounds. The Ambient Humanities den Begriff audit ins Feld führt, um die Aufmerksamkeit auf die sozialen und politischen Funktionen von Geräuschen - von Hören und Zuhören generell - zu lenken.

Allgemein findet eine Beschäftigung mit dem Zuhören als Praxis oder Perspektive gegenwärtig sowohl in den Künsten als auch in den Geisteswissenschaften statt.

Die Ansätze der theoretischen und praktischen sowie interdisziplinären Auseinandersetzungen mit Hören, Zuhören oder Listening sind folglich heterogen, was sich auch in der Lektüreauswahl des Kolloquiums niederschlagen wird. So wollen wir neben film- und medienwissenschaftlichen Positionen wie Tina Campit oder Mladen Dolar auch mit Theoretiker*innen wie Susan Bickford, Leah Bassel oder Jennifer Lynn Stoever arbeiten: Während Bickford und Bassel Zuhören als sozio-politische Praxis konzipieren und über dynamische und intersubjektive Dimensionen des Prozesses nachdenken, zeigt Stoever in ihrer Studie zur Sonic Color Line (2016) die enge Verbindung von Sound, race und Technologien auf und verweist auf rassifizierte wie rassifizierende Aspekte des Hörens. Ziel des Kolloquiums ist es, zentrale Positionen zum Themenkomplex Zuhören kennenzulernen, durch den Umgang mit den Lektüren die textanalytischen Fähigkeiten zu stärken und zu einer historisch-kritischen Auseinandersetzung mit unterschiedlichen theoretischen Positionen anzuregen.

Notes:

Neben regelmässiger und aktiver Teilnahme wird das Verfassen von kürzeren Texten (Lektürekarten) erwartet.

Event The Past in the Present: History, Memory, and Imagination
280-102a / Exercise Group / 4,101

Description:

Business event contents:

This course focuses on contemporary Chinese literature that reevaluates traditional understandings of Chinese history through alternative, revisionist, or deconstructive narratives from individual perspectives. It examines selected short stories that engage with the interrelated themes of the perception and narrative creation of time and history in individual psychology and social life. Additionally, the course analyzes new historical fiction that constitutes an oppositional discourse, challenging both the outdated revolutionary discourse and the now dominant discourse of "Chinese modernity". Students will gain an understanding of how contemporary Chinese literature (re)imagines and (re)constructs historical narratives while investigating the reciprocal relationship and mutual constitution between text and historical context.

Event China's Relationship with its Past
2801604a / Seminar / 4,211

Description:

Business event contents:

Imaginations of China - whether from the outside or the inside - have for centuries shared one striking commonality: China's special relationship with the past. From the "5000 years of unbroken history" as a source of adamant pride to the fetters of dysfunctional Confucian culture, the past has been a defining feature and powerful catalyst for foundational debates in the 20th and 21st centuries. This seminar will focus less on the facts of history but rather examine what China's history means to people and how their respective pasts are constructed. The discussion will touch upon diverse discursive positions, including the Party- state's instrumentalization of History since 1989, grass-roots nostalgias (including Hanfu cosplay), as well as some academic discussion of historicity. In the end, the students will be better equipped to critically reflect the many uses of history and the diverging pasts resonating in discussions of current and past affairs.

Event Die Schweizer Ansichten im Archiv des Klosters Einsiedeln. Ordnen und Inventarisieren
640I035a / Exercise Group / 4,443

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Kloster Einsiedeln verfügt über eine umfangreiche, nahezu unbekannte Sammlung von Schweizer Ansichten, sog. 'Helvetica'. Im Rahmen dieses Seminars vor Ort wird die Möglichkeit zu 'Sammlungserfahrung' aus erster Hand geboten. Die Sammlung ist topographisch geordnet. Die Teilnehmenden erhalten die Aufgabe, sich geographisch zu spezialisieren und sich einem 'hot spot' der schweizerischen Ansichtenproduktion zu widmen. Vermittelt werden Kenntnisse aus allen Bereichen der Sammlungspflege. Praktische Fragen der Erhaltung, Konservierung und Katalogisierung sind ebenso Teil der Veranstaltung, wie die kunsthistorischen und rezeptionsgeschichtlichen Aspekte auf dem Gebiet der sogenannten 'Schweizer Kleinmeister'.

Notes:

Die Veranstaltung findet in Einsiedeln, Archiv des Klosters statt

Event Kunst und visuelle Kultur der Jesuiten in der Frühen Neuzeit
640-513a / Seminar / 4,464

Description:

Business event contents:

Der 1543 von Ignatius von Loyola gegründete religiöse Orden, die Societas Iesu, ist für seine weltweite Missionstätigkeit im Dienst der Kirche bekannt. Die frühneuzeitliche Mission der Jesuiten auf verschiedenen Kontinenten veränderte nachhaltig die visuelle und materielle Kultur, sowohl in den neu erschlossenen Gebieten als auch in Europa. Das Ziel dieses Seminars ist es, der jesuitischen Bildkultur in ihrer Schlüsselrolle bei der Generierung neuartiger Objektformen, Bildpraktiken und ästhetischer Qualitäten in der Frühen Neuzeit nachzugehen, wobei neben Gemälden Skulpturen, Medaillen, Devotionalien, Reliquien, wissenschaftliche Instrumente, Kleidung, Architektur, Gartenkunst und Theater in Augenschein genommen werden. In Einzelfallstudien befasst sich das Seminar mit verschiedenen Formen der Vermittlung, Aneignung und Transformation des (religiösen) Wissens im Spannungsfeld lokaler und transkontinentaler Perspektiven. Behandelt werden u.a. die bildliche Inszenierung der ersten Jesuitenheiligen, die Herausbildung globaler und transkontinentaler Ikonographien, die Zirkulation sakraler Objekte, Kleidung und Habitus der Jesuiten, die Auseinandersetzung mit nicht-christlichen religiösen Praktiken und die Neubelebung von Bilddiskursen wie der Idolatrie und Praktiken wie dem Ikonoklasmus.

Event Zum Umgang mit Vernacular Photography
640I525a / Exercise Group / 4,491

Description:

Business event contents:

Wenn Walter Benjamin in seiner "Kleinen Geschichte der Fotografie" im Aufkommen privater Fotoalben einen Beweis für den "Verfall des Geschmacks" sieht, setzt er womöglich eine Grenze zwischen der sogenannten "Vernacular Photography"—der Amateur- oder Alltagsfotografie—und der ästhetisch anregenden (Kunst)Fotografie. Diese Grenze können wir heutzutage nicht mehr ziehen: Alltagsfotografie, die zunächst nicht für den Museumsraum gedacht waren, werden mittlerweile als Kunstwerke ausgestellt. So zeigte das Kunstmuseum Basel im Jahre 2020 im Rahmen der Ausstellung "The Incredible World of Photography" die Fotografiesammlung von Ruth und Peter Herzog, bestehend aus Fotoobjekten aus verschiedenen Genres und Epochen — von der kolorierten Urlaubsfotografie aus Coney Island bis hin zu frühen Röntgenaufnahmen. Ziel dieser Ausstellung war es, anhand der Exponate eine «fotografische Enzyklopädie des Lebens im Industriezeitalter» zu zeigen. Mittlerweile rückt der alltägliche Umgang mit Fotografien zunehmend in den Fokus: Das Fotomuseum in Winterthur beispielsweise setzt sich intensiv mit der Frage auseinander, inwiefern sich die alltägliche, v.a. digitale Fotografie auf die heutige Kunstszene auswirkt. In dieser Übung werden wir folgende Fragen stellen: Wie können wir die sogenannte Vernacular Photography definieren und welche Rolle spielt sie in der Fotografie- bzw. Kunstgeschichte? Stimmt es, wenn Geoffrey Batchen konstatiert, diese Form der Fotografie könne nicht mit kunsthistorischen Methoden analysiert werden? Welche Auswirkung hat die heutige digitale Fotografie auf den Umgang mit Fotografie in musealen Räumen? Anhand von ausgewählten Lektüren, künstlerischen Positionen und Ausstellungen werden wir gemeinsam diesen Fragen nachgehen. Der Leistungsnachweis erfolgt durch eine Sitzungsleitung und die Abgabe kurzer schriftlicher Inputs während des Semesters. Weitere Informationen werden im Laufe der vorlesungsfreien Zeit auf OLAT veröffentlicht.

Notes:

Event Kunst betrachten, Bilder lesen. Eine Einführung in die Bildanalyse
640I041a / Course / 4,496

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Vorlesung entwickelt beginnend mit der Werkbeschreibung einzelne Beispiele von Werkanalysen. Die Beschreibung von Kunstwerken soll als „entry point“, als Beginn des Nachdenkens und Forschens über Werke und Zusammenhänge von bildender Kunst verdeutlicht werden: eine genaue Analyse und Versprachlichung der zu sehenden Darstellung, der Ikonografie, der technischen Mittel und materialen Befunde gehören ebenso dazu wie der Abgleich mit der Forschungsliteratur. Diese Beispiele sollen –aus verschiedenen Genres kommend – verdeutlichen, dass die Analyse an Architektur, Grafik, Malerei, Bildhauerei oder Videokunst eine jeweils andere Sprache benötigt. Fachvokabular wird im Anschluss an die Einführungsvorlesung ebenso vermittelt wie Thesen aus der vorliegenden Forschung und Publikationen. Die Vorlesung ist somit sowohl für Anfänger:innen wie für Fortgeschrittene geeignet. Bildender Kunst vom 16. bis 21. Jahrhundert, sondern auch die Faszination für visuelle Erkenntnis. Ein Einblick in die Geschichte der Kunstbeschreibung gibt im ersten Teil eine historische Grundlage zu Quellentexten der „Kunstliteratur“ mit Konzepten aus der historischen Kunstkritik, Kunsttheorie und der Fachgeschichte. Als Referenzpunkt werden wir John Bergers kaum gealterten Text und die vorangegangene BBC-Serie „Ways of seeing“ von 1973 setzen. Das Buch erhielt zahlreiche Neuauflagen. Was hat sich geändert, welche seiner methodischen Fragen sind geblieben?

280I219a / Seminar / 4,618

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Veranstaltung bietet eine Einführung in die Geschichte und Kultur der Tang-Zeit (617 - 907), welche oft als goldenes Zeitalter der chinesischen Geschichte bezeichnet wird. Diese Zeitperiode war geprägt vom intensiven Kontakt mit anderen Kulturen und einer Faszination für das Fremde.

Die Studierenden erhalten einen Überblick über die massgebenden politischen Ereignisse, die zum Aufstieg und zum Zerfall der Tang- Dynastie beitrugen. Wir werfen zudem einen Blick auf verschiedenste kulturelle, gesellschaftliche und religiöse Entwicklungen, die sich nicht nur in Texten, sondern auch in künstlerischen Darstellungen und Grabfunden erkennen lassen.

Event International and Civil Wars

615-003a / Seminar / 4,615

Description:

Business event contents:

Wars remain a prevalent political phenomenon. Since the end of the cold war, the world has experienced a surge in the number of civil wars. Despite policy efforts to contain and even reduce the incidence, severity and duration of violent conflicts, in recent years these civil wars have turned more internationalized. We have also observed a pronounced increase in the number of militarized disputes between neighbouring countries, some of them escalating to war levels. Why do wars happen?

This seminar introduces students to contemporary research on international and civil wars. During the seminar, we study the origins, dynamics, and termination of international and civil wars, including the role of the international community, policy responses to war, and post-conflict legacies.

Notes:

The course will take place in room AFL-F-101.

Event Der Syrienkonflikt: Konfliktanalyse

615-003a / Seminar / 4,619

Description:

Business event contents:

Ziel des Seminars ist eine Vertiefung bereits erworbener Kenntnisse der Theorien der IB durch eine Analyse des Syrien-Konflikts aus unterschiedlichen theoretischen Perspektiven. Ausgewählte Theorien (z.B. neorealistic, neue liberale, neoinstitutionalistische, postmoderne und geopolitische) werden im Sinne theoriegeleiteter wissenschaftlicher Konfliktanalysen angewandt. Aus Vergleich und Diskussion der unterschiedlichen Konfliktperspektiven werden Schlussfolgerungen abgeleitet: Zum einen in theoretischer Hinsicht (Vergleichen unterschiedlicher theoretischer Perspektiven hinsichtlich ihrer Grundannahmen über Akteure und Strukturen und ihrer Erklärungsmodelle internationaler Politik) sowie zum anderen hinsichtlich ihrer praktisch-politischen Handlungsimplicationen.

Event Technology, Politics, and War
615-003a / Seminar / 4,621

Description:

Business event contents:

Technology is ubiquitous. As such, it takes on an ever-more significant role as a form of power in socio-political contexts. This module examines the relationship between politics, technology, and war in politics and international relations on both a theoretical and practical level.

The seminar aims to provide students with an introduction to the key contemporary technologies that will shape our political and military landscape in the years to come, and the challenges technologies pose for society, politics, and warfare. Among the topics discussed are digital networks, social media, artificial intelligence, automated and autonomous weapons systems. The seminar also grapples with the political and ethical challenges these developments pose for domestic and international political governance. In this, the seminar introduces students to the complexity behind new technological systems, and the role of political agency in shaping technology.

Notes:

The course will be held in a hybrid-format: in-person sessions until 29.10.24, then online sessions until the end of the semester.

This course is taught as a weekly two-hour seminar in which student attendance and participation is required. While I will lecture for some part of the class, the overriding focus is on student-led discussion and debate. The aim is to challenge assumptions and engage deeply with the topic, which is best achieved through active deliberation.

Each week, students will be assigned several required texts alongside a list of optional readings. Students are expected to read all of the required readings prior to coming to class. And they are encouraged to read as many optional texts as are necessary to provide them with a solid grasp of the topic, to allow them to form opinions on the issue, and to articulate and support their arguments in a substantive manner.

Class discussions will form the bulk of the seminar, and will focus on students' critical assessment of the readings. Exhibiting knowledge and analysis of at least required readings is essential.

Course Materials: Weekly readings are provided by the Lecturer on OLAT, and consist of a combination of academic texts, journal articles, and current news.

Event Why don't people vote? Understanding the void
615-004a / Seminar / 4,624

Description:

Business event contents:

Why don't people vote? Understanding the void means studying the difference between the interests politicians defend and voters' preferences. In this module, we will delve into the problem of high abstention rates in Western European countries from the perspective of representation. Starting with political representation concepts, we will focus on the issues raised in political debates and how they reflect the concerns of citizens. We will explore parties' issue strategies and citizens' issue priorities, as populism and technocracy as forms of representation. The main goal of the seminar is to guide students in building a strong theoretical knowledge base to identify research gaps within the topic. The homework assignments will serve as preliminary tasks for the final essay.

Course Materials: Course materials will be available on OLAT.

Event Contemporary EU integration: Challenges and Prospects in Eastern Europe
615-011a / Seminar / 4,630

Description:

Business event contents:

How did EU integration change over the last two decades? What is the future of the enlargement in South-eastern Europe? How does the EU deal with contemporary challenges, such as democratic backsliding in EU member states or the financial crisis? These are some of the questions that this seminar will discuss. The enlargement round in 2004-07 will be analysed with the theoretical tools provided by classic literature on EU integration and its mechanisms in Eastern Europe.

The first part of the seminar looks at the evolution of EU institutions, the first enlargement round and the classic Europeanization literature. The second part focuses on the stalled EU integration process in South-eastern Europe and Turkey and discusses newer approaches within the Europeanization literature. The third part analyses recent challenges for the EU, such as the Global Financial Crisis, migration as well as the rise of illiberal democracies within the Union itself.

Event Labor Markets and Politics
615-014a / Seminar / 4,634

Description:

Business event contents:

Labor markets in advanced capitalist democracies have undergone profound changes throughout the transition from industrial- to increasingly knowledge-based economies. Which workers have gained, and which have lost out in this transition? Why do some of the wealthiest democracies have some of the largest low-wage sectors? Can we relate this to shifting power dynamics between workers and employers, and what does the welfare state have to do with it? Why did unions decline, what are the consequences for different types of workers, and can we expect recent increases in strikes in countries like Germany to change the tide? What role do different labor market institutions and policies, such as minimum wages or job guarantees, play in exacerbating or mitigating such dynamics and inequalities? How do workers respond to fundamental disruptions of employment and opportunities at the ballot box, and what protection do they demand from their governments?

These are some of the questions we will address in the seminar to get a profound understanding of the economic and political forces that have shaped the employment structure and electoral landscape in post-industrial societies over the past decades. We will do so through an interdisciplinary lens, covering insights from political science, labor economics, and sociology. The seminar starts with an overview of some classics and tracing key economic developments. We will then move towards a curated selection of state-of-the-art literature on labor markets and politics as drivers and consequences of inequality.

Notes:

A willingness to engage intensely with current research in labor economics, political science, and sociology is expected. Some (passive) understanding of quantitative empirical research methods will be needed. As part of the seminar, there may be a half-day site visit to a company undergoing structural changes. This visit offers students firsthand exposure to real-world labor market dynamics and provides the opportunity to engage with both worker and employer representatives.

Event Literature in Context: History and Theory
440-200a / Course / 4,671

Description:

Business event contents:

Beginning with the early modern period - the time of the Renaissance in England and the first English settlements in North America - this lecture course will take a transatlantic approach to the history of Anglophone literature. It will concentrate on key moments, that is, political, social, and cultural constellations that led to the emergence of important literary trends and forms. These moments include the flowering of lyric poetry and drama in the Elizabethan period, the beginnings of American literature, the rise of the novel in eighteenth-century Britain, as well as movements such as Gothicism, Romanticism, and Modernism on both sides of the Atlantic. By repeatedly crossing the Atlantic to compare and contrast developments at different points in history, the course aims to give insight into some of the main periods, genres, and themes of British and American literature. In doing so, it hopes to familiarize participants not only with representative texts, but also with the historical contexts in which these texts were produced and received. At the same time, the lectures will introduce a variety of theoretical perspectives, including approaches from the field of postcolonial studies. The course will end by considering the rise of Anglophone literature from outside the UK and the US.

Course Materials: All assigned reading will be made available electronically on the OLAT platform. (Much of it is also included in the Norton Anthologies of English and American Literature.)

Event Dating in America: From Romance Novels in the 1900s to Netflix's "Love is Blind"
440-222a / Seminar / 4,675

Description:

Business event contents:

This course takes the current omnipresence of dating shows as an occasion to investigate a larger cultural history of dating in the United States. Over the course of the semester, students will examine a range of dating practices and representations of dating via the following guiding questions: Why do scholars claim that dating was "invented" around the 1900s? How did Americans pursue partners in prior eras? In what ways have factors like the law, the economy, race, gender, class, sexuality, and disability shaped dating practices-along with the expectations and fantasies Americans bring to romance? Why are romance novels at once so widely popular as well as disparaged? What does it mean to date in the age of Trump? And what are the political and aesthetic reasons that might explain why specifically the show Love is Blind seems to have struck a national nerve!

Event Re-Imagining the Colonial Period: Historical Fiction from Australia, 1950–2024

440-228a / Seminar / 4,682

Description:

Business event contents:

Australia Day, observed annually on January 26, is the country's national holiday and marks the landing of the First Fleet at Sidney Cove, in 1788. Many Australians, however, refuse to celebrate the day, with some referring to it as Survival Day, to acknowledge the violence and dispossession that the invasion of settler-colonialists entailed for indigenous peoples.

In this course, we will read Australian short stories, plays, and novels written after 1950 and set in the colonial period (1788-1901). Reading these texts will allow us to trace some key conflicts and debates concerning the country's history. Topics will include the question of genre (e.g. histori fiction vs. historiographic metafiction), the impact of postcolonial theory on literary production, and the problem of representing those whose perspective is missing from the historical record.

Course Materials: Texts to be read will include novels such as Patrick White's Voss (1957), Thomas Keneally's The Playmaker (1987), and Mirandi Riwoe's Stone Sky Mountain (2020), the play Kullark by Jack Davis (1979), and David Malouf's short story "Blacksoil Country" (2000). A full list of required texts will be made available via OLAT.

Event Reading Literary and Critical Theory: Group 1
440-550a / Seminar / 4,692

Description:

Business event contents:

This course will introduce MA-students to the most recent developments in critical theory, from new materialist approaches over cognitive and affect studies to ecocriticism, animal studies, new social history and disability studies. The concepts, terminology and research questions we encounter in the theoretical texts will then applied to (and tested out on) readings of Shakespeare's plays in the context of early modern discourses on subjectivity, embodiment and environment.

Notes:

Students need to be familiar with the more 'traditional' critical theories taught at BA-level, as the course builds on that knowledge but will not repeat any of these basic premises. In preparation, you are advised to refresh your memory by reading Jonathan Gil Harris, Shakespeare and Theory (Oxford University Press, 2010).

You will need to submit a short written to six of the critical texts prior to the session in which they are discussed. At the end of the semester, you will write a 6'000 word term paper, to be submitted by 1 April 2025.

Event Vorbereitung zum Forschungsseminar: Demokratisierung und Autokratisierung: Europa und neue Demokratien im Vergleich
615-501a / Seminar / 4,728

Description:

Business event contents:

Vor dem Hintergrund ins Stocken geratener Demokratisierungsprozesse in neueren Demokratien sowie Autokratisierungstendenzen auch in einigen älteren Demokratien beschäftigen wir uns mit der Frage, wie man diese Prozesse erklären kann. Weshalb macht die Demokratisierung in einigen Ländern schnellere Fortschritte und weshalb sind einige Demokratien resilienter gegenüber dem sogenannten "Backsliding" in Richtung Autokratie als andere? Sind nur die neueren Demokratien in Gefahr oder besteht auch in Westeuropa und den USA Anlass zur Sorge?

Dieser Kurs beschäftigt sich zunächst mit der Literatur zur (historischen) Demokratisierung, die sich in modernisierungstheoretische, strukturalistische und akteurszentrierte Ansätze gliedert. Während die strukturalistische Schule historisch-vergleichend vorgeht, arbeiten Anhänger*innen des modernisierungstheoretischen Ansatzes vornehmlich quantitativ. Die beiden Ansätze unterscheiden sich aber auch darin, ob sie Demokratie als eine Folge von Konsens oder eher von Konflikt zwischen sozialen Gruppen begreifen. Der akteurszentrierte Ansatz ist der jüngste der drei. Obwohl in der Demokratisierungsforschung nicht mehr sehr verbreitet, ist er bisher in der Autokratisierungsforschung am stärksten zur Anwendung gekommen (Stichworte Polarisierung oder Populismus). Das hängt damit zusammen, dass dies ein relativ neues Forschungsfeld ist und sehr direkt auf die aktuellen Prozesse in Ländern wie Ungarn, bis vor kurzem Polen oder der Türkei fokussiert. Im Hinblick auf die im Frühlingsemester zu schreibenden Forschungsarbeiten stellt sich die Frage, ob solche akteurszentrierten Erklärungen mit den längerfristiger angelegten Ansätzen kombiniert werden können, um besser verstehen zu können, unter welchen Bedingungen Autokratisierung stattfindet. Dazu beschäftigen wir uns auch mit der Frage, wie man Autokratisierungsprozesse überhaupt messen oder beobachten kann.

Notes:

Die Veranstaltung findet im Raum AFL-F-150 statt.

Die Veranstaltung richtet sich an Studierende, die das Seminar zusammen mit dem Forschungsseminar im Frühlingsemester 2025 als einjährigen Kurs besuchen möchten. Die methodologische Herangehensweise des Seminars ist divers: Während die strukturalistische Schule historisch-vergleichend vorgeht, arbeiten Anhänger des modernisierungstheoretischen Ansatzes vornehmlich quantitativ. Da viele der behandelten Beiträge zur Demokratisierungsforschung in Buchform veröffentlicht sind, setzt die Veranstaltung eine relativ umfangreiche Lektüre voraus. Die Leistungsüberprüfung erfolgt über eigenständig verfasste wöchentliche Wiki-Beiträge zu den Texten der Kurslektüre.

Course Materials:

Die Kurslektüre sowie ergänzende Materialien werden auf OLAT zur Verfügung gestellt.

Die folgenden einleitenden Texte sollten noch, die sich auf OLAT im Ordner "Literatur" finden, sollten noch vor der ersten Lektion gelesen werden:

Levitsky, S., & Ziblatt, D. (2018). How Democracies Die: What History Tells Us about Our Future. London: Viking. Introduction, S. 1-10.

Schmitter, P. C. (2010). Twenty-Five Years, Fifteen Findings. Journal of Democracy, 21(1), 17-28.

Da in der ersten Lektion aufbauend auf diesen Texten eine Einführung in die Thematik des Forschungsseminars geboten wird, ist deren vorangehende Lektüre dringend empfohlen.

Event Specialisation: International Economic Institutions
615I005a / Seminar / 4,735

Description:

Business event contents:

This seminar deals with the importance of international economic institutions for international politics. The globalization of the last decades has contributed to the fact that international institutions have gained political importance. Since nation states no longer (can) govern alone in the globalized world, political power is shifting to the global level and to organizations such as the World Bank, WTO, IMF, OECD or BIS. The seminar is therefore devoted to the emergence of international economic institutions on the one hand and their importance for current politics on the other.

Notes:

The learning objective is the acquisition of a scientifically sound understanding of the role of international economic institutions in a globalized world. The students should learn to develop concrete scientific questions and to examine them with the help of political science methods. The course puts a special emphasis on critical reflection of theoretical arguments and empirical research designs and their application. At the end of the fall semester, the students should be able to independently develop a scientific question, which they will empirically investigate in the following spring semester in the context of their BA thesis.

Course Materials:

Best - Limits of Transparency.
Gray - The Company States Keep.
Kelley and Simmons - The Power of Global Performance Indicators.
Mattli and Woods - The Politics of Global Regulation Vreeland and Dreher - The Political Economy of the UN Security Council.

Event Specialisation: Agenda Setting and the Media: Framing the Political Debate
615I006a / Seminar / 4,740

Description:

Business event contents:

In our daily lives, we often see certain political issues grab the spotlight, shaping conversations at dinner tables, on news channels, and across social media platforms. But how do some topics become the center of attention while others fade into the background? This Bachelor's course on "Agenda Setting and the Media: Framing the Political Debate" will guide students through the process of how issues rise to prominence in the political arena.

For instance, consider the issue of misinformation. Once a peripheral concern, misinformation has swiftly become a central issue in global politics, demonstrating the powerful role of media framing and agenda setting. News outlets and political leaders have highlighted it as a major challenge, influencing public opinion and prompting significant political and financial responses. Countries and organizations, including the European Union, are now investing millions to combat misinformation, showcasing how effectively framed issues can escalate into priority actions on the political agenda.

In this course, we will look at why certain issues become widely talked about, guided by the ideas of agenda setting and framing. Students will study real and recent situations, like the sudden surge in attention to artificial intelligence after groundbreaking achievements in machine learning, to see what's happening behind the scenes. Why do some subjects capture our attention while others do not? How do the ways media and politicians talk about these issues affect what we think is important? And what is the role of social media in this story? In this course, we will explore how media coverage, public interest, and political discussions and work together to make certain issues stand out. Students will discover the processes that decide which topics become big in public discussions and political discourse.

Notes:

The course will primarily be taught in English, with the option of some lectures in German if this works for all participating students. Written assignments can be handed in in both English and German.

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Zentrum der Spezialisierung stehen theoriegeleitete wissenschaftliche Analysen komplexer weltpolitischer Konflikte und unterschiedlicher Modi der politischen Konfliktbearbeitung und Kooperation. Die Studierenden werden dazu angeleitet, konfliktanalytische Fragestellungen zu entwickeln, für Konfliktanalysen relevante wissenschaftliche Literatur zu recherchieren, diese Literatur zu verstehen und zu vergleichen.

Kenntnisse der Rolle und Funktion sozial- und politikwissenschaftlicher Theorien im Forschungsprozess werden anhand konfliktanalytischer Forschungsarbeiten vertieft und erweitert, die Ableitung von Hypothesen aus der Theorie wird exemplarisch geübt und Kriterien für die Wahl geeigneter Methoden im Forschungsprozess werden intensiv diskutiert.

Course Materials: Bonacker, Thorsten (Hrsg.) 2008: Sozialwissenschaftliche Konflikttheorien. Eine Einführung. Wiesbaden: VS-Verlag Schiedler, Siegfried/Spindler, Manuela (eds.) 2014: Theories of International Relations. London and New York: Routledge.

615I014a / Seminar / 4,742

Description:

Business event contents:

What are the causes and consequences of political and economic development? How do the economic and political spheres of social life determine each other? Departing from a conceptual discussion about the meaning of each political and economic development, the course will delve into the institutional determinants behind the large cross-country differences in political and economic outcomes. While the course will make use of cutting-edge empirical research on the topic, the focus will be substantive rather than methodological.
