Event Filmgeschichte 1: Vom Kino derAttraktionen bis 1945
255-002a / Course / 4,031

Description:

Business event contents:

Wie wandelt sich der Film im Laufe seiner Geschichte? Welcher Zusammenhang besteht zwischen technischen Veränderungen des Mediums, ökonomischen Bedürfnissen der Filmindustrie, filmischen Gestaltungskonzepten und der Mentalität einer Epoche? Wie wirken gesellschaftliche, kulturelle und ästhetische Entwicklungen, auch solche in anderen Medien, auf den Film ein? Was macht zu unterschiedlichen Epochen die Faszinationskraft aus, die vom Kino ausgeht? Und wie lassen sich filmgeschichtliche Entwicklungen theoretisch fassen? Diesen und ähnlichen Fragen geht die Überblicksvorlesung zur Filmgeschichte nach. Sie ist als Grundlagenveranstaltung für alle, die Filmwissenschaft studieren, angelegt. Dabei konzentriert sie sich auf ausgewählte Hauptstationen der Filmgeschichte. In dem im Herbstsemester 2024 angebotenen Teil 1 reicht der Bogen vom frühen Kino der Attraktionen (ab ca.

1895) über das Stummfilmkino der 1910er und 1920er Jahre (u.a. Weimarer Kino, französische Avantgarde und sowjetisches Montagekino) bis hin zur ersten Dekade des Tonfilms. Die Überblicksvorlesung ist insgesamt für zwei Semester (je einzeln zu buchen) konzipiert und wird im Frühjahrssemester 2025 mit dem Teil 2 zur zweiten Jahrhunderthälfte (vom Film Noir bis zum postmodernen Kino) fortgesetzt. Jede Vorlesung (2 Stunden) wird durch einen Visionierungstermin (2 Stunden) ergänzt. Gezeigt wird jeweils ein zentrales Filmbeispiel zu der in der Vorlesung am selben Tag thematisierten Hauptstation der Filmgeschichte. Mit Vorlesungsbeginn werden auf OLAT das Programm der Vorlesung (inklusive der Visionierungen) sowie die Lektüre zu den Themen der einzelnen Vorlesungen bereitgestellt.

Notes:

Bitte beachten: Alle Termine (abgesehen von der Abschlussprüfung am 12.12.) finden von 16 bis 20 Uhr im Filmpodium der Stadt Zürich (Nüscherstrasse 11) statt. Die dortigen Filmvisionierungen um 18:30 Uhr sind obligatorischer Bestandteil der Vorlesung. Es werden keine Podcasts oder Filmvisionierungen auf Vimeo angeboten.

Event Wahrheit

160I036a / Seminar / 3,744

Description:

Business event contents:

Was ist Wahrheit? Was genau heisst es, dass eine Aussage oder eine Meinung wahr ist? Gibt es das überhaupt, eine «objektive Wahrheit», «ist Wahrheit subjektiv?» Gibt es nur eine Wahrheit? Was (neben Aus und Meinungen) kann wahr sein und was ist es, das es ggf. wahr macht? Was hat Wahrheit mit Tatsachen zu tun? Ist das, was wir wissen, wahr, oder können wir auch etwas falsches wissen? Was nützt uns die Wahrheit überhaupt -- wem nützt sie? Welche Wege führen zur Wahrheit und was ist uns Wahrheit wert? Können wir ohne die Dichotomie von wahr und falsch auskommen? Anhand klassischer und zeitgenössischer philosophischer Texte werden Fragen zum Begriff der Wahrheit diskutiert. Dabei wird es zunächst darum gehen, die vorgebrachten Thesen und Argumente zu rekonstruieren.

Course Materials:

Die zu lesenden Texte werden online zur Verfügung gestellt, weiterführende Literatur wird in einem Semesterapparat in der Philosophischen Bibliothek bereitgestellt. Materialien wie z.B. Handouts, Folien und Protokolle werden im OLAT-Campuskurs online gestellt.

Event Neues zur Fotografie
255I015a / Colloquium / 4,061

Description:

Business event contents:

Im vergangenen Jahr ist nach über 20 Jahren ein neuer Band einer nunmehr fünfbändigen Anthologie zur Theorie der Fotografie erschienen. Abgebildet und geordnet werden darin Diskussionen zum Medium Fotografie von 1995 bis heute.

Schaut man sich die Positionen dieses Zeitraums chronologisch an, steht am Anfang das vermeintliche Ende des Mediums und seines Theoriediskurses unter den Bedingungen des Digitalen und am vorläufigen Endpunkt eine Gemengelage neuer bildkultureller Phänomene, deren Beschreibung abermals neue Herausforderungen mit sich bringt. Im Kolloquium verschaffen wir uns ausgehend von diesen Texten sowie weiteren Positionen der letzten Jahre einen Überblick über ausgewählte Aspekte der Diskussion, deren Fragen und Annahmen in vielen zentralen Punkten auch ganz direkt das Medium Film und die Filmtheorie betreffen - etwa in Bezug auf die Indexikalität des fotografischen Bildes oder die Ästhetik und Materialität digitaler Bilder. Neben aktuellen Positionen hierzu erarbeiten und diskutieren wir ebenfalls Texte zu sozialen Gebrauchsweisen der Fotografie, zu ihrem Auftreten in und mit anderen Medien, zu Text-Bild-Verhältnissen sowie zur Theoriefähigkeit von Bildern selbst.

Notes:

Erwartet werden neben der aktiven Teilnahme die Übernahme eines kurzen Impulsreferats sowie das Verfassen von kürzeren Texten im Laufe des Semesters.
Das Kolloquium wird mit einer mündlichen Prüfung beschlossen.

Event Weibliches Filmschaffen in der DDR
255I512a / Seminar / 4,072

Description:

Business event contents:

Im wiedervereinigten Deutschland dauerte es 30 Jahre, bis man sich in grösserem Umfang den Regisseurinnen der ehemaligen DDR zuwandte. Ralf Schenk, ehemaliger Vorstand der DEFA-Stiftung, erklärte, dass bis dahin immer die grossen Männerfiguren wie Konrad Wolf und Frank Beyer im Mittelpunkt der Aufmerksamkeit gestanden hätten, während die Regisseurinnen der DEFA oft vernachlässigt worden seien. «Sie. Regisseurinnen der DEFA und ihre Filme» (Klauß u widmete sich erstmals den Frauen dieser Zeit in Porträts, begleitet von einer DVD-Reihe und einer Retrospektive auf der Berlinale 2019. Diese Vorarbeiten bieten einen guten Ausgangspunkt, um sich intensiver mit den filmischen Werken sowie den Leben und Schaffensprozessen dieser Frauen auseinanderzusetzen.

Das Seminar zielt darauf ab, einen Einblick in die kürzlich aufgearbeiteten Werke der DEFA-Regisseurinnen zu gewinnen. Wir werden Raum schaffen für die Entfaltung und wissenschaftliche Betrachtung ihrer Filme, Protagonist*innen und Entstehungsgeschichten. Ausgehend von einzelnen Filmen werden wir das Werk von Dokumentarfilmerinnen wie Angelika Andrees, Helke Misselwitz, Tamara Trampe, Petra Tschörtner und Chetna Vora erkunden. Ebenso widmen wir uns den Spielfilmen von Regisseurinnen wie Bärbl Bergmann, Hannelore Unterberg, Iris Grusner, Ingrid Reschke und Evelyn Schmidt.

Das Ziel ist es, ein Gespür für die Werke und ihre sozialen, politischen und kulturellen Kontexte zu entwickeln. Wir werden analysieren, wie die Filme in ihrer Ästhetik und Erzählweise wirken und welche Relevanz sie damals und heute hatten und haben. Darüber hinaus werfen wir einen retrospektiven Blick auf das zeitgenössische (weibliche) Filmschaffen in der BRD, der Schweiz und Österreich.

Jede Sitzung ist geprägt von der obligatorischen Filmsichtung und begleitender Textlektüre. Die Teilnehmer*innen erstellen kurze Lesekarten zu den Inhalten.

Zudem stellen sie mit Hilfe von Impulsreferaten einzeln oder in Gruppen mindestens einen weiteren Film, Text oder eine Person als Vergleichsfolie vor.

Die methodische Herangehensweise umfasst sowohl filmanalytische als auch filmgeschichtliche und -kritische Ansätze, um einen gendersensiblen Zugang zum audiovisuellen Erbe der DDR zu erarbeiten. Das Seminar strebt an, ein umfassendes Verständnis für die Komplexität der untersuchten Werke und Biografien zu entwickeln.

Event Distribution Studies – Zirkulation und Zugang
255I513a / Colloquium / 4,064

Description:

Business event contents:

«Gentlemen - Distribution is the Point that MUST interest you!» hei einer Werbung der Universal Film Manufacturing Company im Jahr 1937. Im Kolloquium Filmtheorie leisten wir dieser Aufforderung Folge. - Lange hat sich die Filmwissenschaft vor allem auf die Filme selbst in ihren ästhetischen, stilistischen und historischen Besonderheiten oder auf Fragen der Wahrnehmung und des Zuschauens konzentriert. Was aber passiert in der Lücke zwischen diesen beiden Polen, zwischen «textual analysis» und Theorien der «s kommen die Filme zur Zuschauerin? Wel real-geographischen oder virtuellen Distanzen sind zu überbrücken, welche Ökonomien und Infrastrukturen organisieren diese Bewegungen? Was für Medien kommen dabei zum Einsatz? Angesichts von Streams und Torrents sowie zahlreicher alternativer Orte, die parallel zum Dispositiv «Kino» existieren, zeichnet sich inzwischen die Begriffe Distribution, Zirkulation und Zugang ein zentrales Forschungsfeld der Film- und Medienwissenschaft markieren sollten. Das Theoriekolloquium schlägt eine stichprobenartige Kartierung dieses Felds vor. Sie geht dabei historisch vor und versucht die Vielfalt der Distributionsformen anhand interessanter Einzelfälle und Konstellationen zu beschreiben, in denen traditionelle Praktiken des Verleihs mit anderen Formen von Zugang und Zirkulation konfrontiert werden. Protagonisten dieses historischen Panoramas sind Fahrräder, mobile 16mm- Projektoren, Kino-Züge, Kinematheken und Filmmuseen, Filmfestivals, Filmclubs und Volkshochschulen, Fernsehredaktionen, Film-COOPs und Videotheken, legale und weniger legale Filesharing-Plattformen, Breitbandkabel, Privatsammler, Tablets, Smartphones und viele mehr.

Notes:

Im Laufe des Semesters sind kurze Lektüretex te zu verfassen. Geplant ist die regelmässige Arbeit in kleinen Gruppen.

Event Einführung in die Arbeit mit ethnologischen Texten Übungsgruppe D
721-002d / Exercise Group / 4,111

Description:

Business event contents:

In dieser Übungsgruppe werden wir Paige West's berühmtes Werk über Kaffee aus dem Hochland von Papua-Neuguinea lesen: From modern production to imagined primitive (2012). West führt uns entlang der Warenkette von den Kaffeebauern über die Kaffeeverarbeiter und -händler bis hin zu den Kaffeekonsumenten in aller Welt. Sie untersucht die unterschiedlichen Bilder, die über die Kaffeebauer zirkulieren: sie selbst sehen sich als modern und eingebunden in weltweiten Handel, die Verkäufer zeichnen sie als primitives und armes Volk, das durch Fair Trade unterstützt wird. Diese Ethnografie befasst sich mit der Globalisierung, indem sie internationale Vorschriften für die Kaffeeproduktion mit dem sozialen Leben einer melanesischen Gruppe verknüpft.

Paige West ist Professorin für Ethnologie an der Columbia University (<https://anthropology.columbia.edu/content/paige-west>). Sie wird uns Mitte Oktober 2024 in Zürich besuchen!

Event Sinfonik nach 1945
760I007a / Seminar / 4,343

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Sinfonie gilt als Gattung, die nach dem Zweiten Weltkrieg keine besondere Rolle mehr spielte und allenfalls um die Jahrtausendwende wieder neue Aufmerksamkeit erregt hat. Im Seminar soll dagegen der bedeutenden Reihe von Werken nachgespürt werden, die nach 1945 entstanden ist, z.T. sogar als direkte Reaktion auf den Krieg. Im Zentrum stehen Werke von Strawinsky, Messiaen, Zimmermann, Honegger, Penderecki, Schostakowitsch oder Fortner.

Event Anton Bruckner
760I011a / Course / 4,345

Description:

Business event contents:

Anton Bruckner ist ein schwieriger Komponist. Schon den Zeitgenossen galt er einerseits als Erfüllung einer von Wagner hergeleiteten Erneuerung des Sinfonischen, andererseits als besonders groteske Erscheinung einer gleichsam fehlgeleiteten kompositorischen Unschuld vom Lande. Nirgends wird das deutlicher sichtbar als in dem berühmt gewordenen und fälschlicherweise Gustav Mahler zugeschriebenen Diktum Hans von Bülow's aus dem Jahr 1885: „Halbgenie + Halbtrottel. In der Vorlesung soll das Werk Bruckners näher beleuchtet werden.

Event Giovanni Battista Piranesi: Archäologe, Vedutist und Visionär
640-503a / Seminar / 4,445

Description:

Business event contents:

Giovanni Battista Piranesi (Venedig 1720-1778 Rom) erweist sich bis heute als Schlüsselfigur der Kunst des 18. Jahrhunderts. Als Kenner der Antike und als führender Archäologe seiner Zeit dokumentierte er die römischen Altertümer in grossformatigen Radierungen und in umfangreichen Vedutensammlungen. Sein Interesse galt sowohl der wissenschaftlichen Dokumentation als auch der Inszenierung von phantastisch anmutender Architektur. Berühmtheit erlangten neben den Veduten insbesondere seine 16 Kerkerdarstellungen, die sog. Carceri d'Invenzione, die zu den Höhepunkten der europäischen Druckgraphik gehören. Das Seminar bietet neben einer Einführung in die druckgraphischen Techniken seiner Zeit eine intensive Auseinandersetzung mit Piranesis Werk anhand von Originalen der Graphischen Sammlung ETH Zürich. Der Lehrinhalt wird ergänzt durch praktische Fragen aus der Museumsarbeit: Berührt werden u.a. Aspekte des Umgangs mit Graphik, ihrer Aufbewahrung und Konservierung sowie der Ausstellungspraxis und -vermittlung. Das Seminar legt trotz monographischem Thema damit den Fokus auf die verschiedensten Aspekte der vormodernen Mediengeschichte. Es vermittelt für eine spätere kuratorische Tätigkeit praxisnahe Grundlagen und Anleitungen.

Event William Eggleston. "Masterworks" und "Re-Mastering"
640-504a / Seminar / 4,477

Description:

Business event contents:

William Eggleston gilt als der künstlerische Fotograf, mit dem die Geschichte der künstlerischen Farbfotografie ab ca. 1960 begann. Insbesondere seine erste grosse Ausstellung im Museum of Modern Art und der dazugehörige Katalog gelten bis heute als legendär und wegweisend. In der Kunstgeschichte etablierte Positionen wie die grossformatigen Fotografien Cindy Shermans und die Tableau-Fotografie der Düsseldorfer Schule (z.B. Andreas Gursky) lassen sich auf diesen frühen "Meister" der amerikanischen Farbfotografie zurückführen. Wie ist sein Gesamtwerk entstanden; und welche Forschungen wie auch Ausstellungen hat es gegeben, um Eggleston derart im Kanon der Kunstgeschichte zu verankern? Und was hat es mit dem technischen wie auch ästhetischen "Re-Mastering" seiner Werke im digitalen Zeitalter auf sich? - In den ersten drei Wochen des Semesters befassen wir uns gemeinsam mit den Werk- und Ausstellungskatalogen zu Eggleston, um eine gemeinsame Wissens- und Arbeitsgrundlage für das Seminar zu entwickeln. In der Bibliothek steht ein Handapparat.

Event Aus dem Wald. Holz als künstlerischer Rohstoff
640I039a / Course / 4,493

Description:

Business event contents:

Die nachwachsende natürliche Ressource Holz war über Jahrtausende hinweg in einem sehr umfassenden Sinne die Lebensgrundlage menschlicher Gesellschaften. Das änderte sich erst mit der Umstellung auf fossile Brennstoffe und der Einführung synthetischer Kunststoffe. Nicht zu Unrecht hat man daher für die vorindustrielle Zeit vom «hölzernen Zeitalter» der Menschheit gesprochen. Die grosse Verbreitung von Kunstwerken aus Holz spiegelt diese Situation: man denke nur an vollplastische Figuren und geschnitzte Reliefs, Druckstöcke für Holzschnitte und Gemälde auf hölzernen Bildträgern und in hölzernen Rahmen, aber auch kunstvoll verzierte Truhen und Throne. Dabei galt Holz generell nicht als besonders kostbares und edles, sondern eher als einfaches, leicht zu beschaffendes Material, das sich durch den fachkundigen Einsatz von Werkzeugen in die unterschiedlichsten Formen bringen liess. Die Geschichte des Rohstoffes Holz, um die es in dieser Vorlesung geht, führt so zu einer Archäologie der «arte povera» - w vor allem dort zutrifft, wo man sich ganz bewusst gegen den Einsatz teurerer Materialien entschied. Komplementär dazu kommt in der künstlerischen Bearbeitung von Holz immer die Herkunft aus dem Naturraum Wald und von belebten Organismen zum Tragen. So ist Holz nicht gleich Holz, sondern stammt von bestimmten Bäumen, die unter spezifischen Umweltbedingungen in genau lokalisierten Waldgebieten heranwachsen. Gefälltes, gelagertes und in Werkstücke zugeschnittenes Holz ist zwar einerseits tot, doch zeigen sich in ihm gut sichtbar die Spuren vergangenen Lebens. Heidnische Kulte und mythologische Erzählungen waren voller Geschichten von Baumgottheiten und von Verwandlungen zwischen Menschen oder Göttern in Pflanzen. Und im Christentum stand an zentraler Stelle das Kreuz als «Holz des Lebens» Auf der Grundlage dieser Vorstellungen konnte Holz in der künstlerischen Bearbeitung umfassend als belebtes Material aktiviert werden. In diesem Sinne versteht sich die Vorlesung als Beitrag, ausgehend vom «Rohstoff Holz» die Möglichkeiten einer Kunstgeschichte der Mensch-Umwelt-Beziehungen auszuloten.

Event Introduction to Life Course and Generations

240-501a / Seminar / 4,522

Description:

Business event contents:

The life course refers to age-graded roles, behavioral trajectories, and transitions as they reflect and also change social institutions and demographic composition. An implication of this definition is that, within and between cohorts of people in a society (e.g., people born in 2001 versus people born in 1960), biographical patterns will emerge. We seek to use the conceptual ideas of the life course to empirically identify and explain these biographical patterns. We will examine the interplay between institutions and biographies, how biographies may vary through historical time and across geo-political units, and “micro” aspects of the life course that help us to describe people’s movements through social institutions. Across all of these topics, one issue is cross-cutting: inequality.

Description:

Business event contents:

The analysis of empirical data and their subsequent presentation in an appealing and informative manner are among the basic skills of social scientists. Students will gain proficiency in the programming basics of the statistical software R and will be able to use it independently for data processing, statistical analysis and data visualization. Students will learn how to independently apply, analyze and evaluate the most important techniques of statistical analysis like hypothesis testing, linear regression, and a broad range of generalized linear models in the context of social science data. Students will be familiarized with key machine learning procedures like unsupervised, supervised an ensemble learning, and will be able to independently identify and apply methods appropriate to social science problems.

Event Inequality, Gender and Welfare Politics
615-001a / Seminar / 4,613

Description:

Business event contents:

In this seminar, we will discuss classic and recent research on the politics of the welfare state from a gender perspective. Students must read two weekly readings in advance, participate in discussions and one practical exercise, and write a final essay. You will gain tools to 1) compare welfare states with a gender perspective and 2) explain their variation and transformations.

On the one hand, we will explore different perspectives about how welfare states influence gender and social relationships, impacting opportunities, living conditions, and inequality. For instance, parental leave design influences mothers' and fathers' decisions about family care and employment, while childcare availability redistributes care and domestic responsibilities across families, states, and markets. In turn, the opportunities and constraints created by policies generate outcomes such as gender gaps and changes in the productive economy. On this basis, we will ask: How do policies influence gender outcomes? How have these policies changed recently in Western Europe and beyond? What challenges do we currently face?

On the other hand, we will explore diverse theoretical frameworks to explain welfare state change, focusing on gender and family policy. Some authors argue that the strength of social-democratic parties and the feminist movement explains why some countries have more gender-friendly policies than others. Others contend that incentivizing mothers to return to work is an economic strategy driven by the transition to a service economy. Further studies explore other aspects such as political cleavages, public opinion, trade unions or international organizations. We will critically engage with these discussions by asking: How do party politics affect welfare state change? What is the influence of trade unions, employers, and the feminist movement? What contextual differences explain the variety of trajectories of welfare state transformation?

Event Causes and Consequences of war
615-003a / Seminar / 4,617

Description:

Business event contents:

This course is devoted to the study of the multifaceted nature of wars as an integral part of the human history and far-reaching consequences of wars for international relations. Through a comprehensive exploration of historical case studies, theoretical frameworks and empirical analyses, this course aims to provide students with a deep understanding of the origins of inter-state wars and their implications on the different levels of the international system.

The second part will focus on the analysis of the consequences and implications of war on the different levels of the international system. One seminar will cover Russian invasion of Ukraine.

Notes:

This course is taught as a weekly two-hour seminar in which student attendance and participation is of highest interest. The course aims to develop an analytical understanding of the topic which is best achieved through student-led discussions. Throughout the semester, we will also discuss the transatlantic dimension of the war in Ukraine, seeking to understand what role different priorities play in this particular crisis. In order to advance academic reading and writing skills, students are expected to write short weekly comments of the readings, actively engage in seminar discussions, and write a term paper based primarily on the materials covered in class. All readings will provided digitally.

Event Armut und wohlfahrtstaatliche Politik
615-014a / Seminar / 4,628

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Zentrum dieses Seminars stehen wohlfahrtstaatliche Politiken und deren Möglichkeiten zur Bekämpfung und Prävention von Armut. Basierend auf der Lektüre klassischer und aktueller Texte diskutieren wir Politikprinzipien wie universelle versus bedarfsabhängige Leistungen, Konditionalität, Aktivierung oder soziale Investitionen und spezifische Programme und Strukturen der Armutsbekämpfung. Thematisiert werden auch Statistiken und Kennzahlen zur vergleichenden Messung von Armut und prekären Lebenssituationen. Vertiefend werden wir uns mit sozialen Mindestsicherungssystemen befassen, wobei wir im Rahmen kleinerer Recherchearbeiten jüngere Reformen in der Schweiz und anderen Ländern vergleichend betrachten: Welche politischen Akteure setzen auf welche Instrumente? Und welche Prinzipien können sich unter welchen Bedingungen durchsetzen?

Event B: English in Australia
440-123a / Seminar / 4,669

Description:

Business event contents:

This seminar offers a linguistic exploration of English in Australia from the arrival of the English on the continent in the late 18th century to modern times. While the main focus will be on Australian English and its regional varieties, attention will also be given to Aboriginal English(es) as an integral part of Australia's linguistic landscape.

Students will deal with phonological, lexical, and morphosyntactic features of Australian and Aboriginal English(es), on the one hand, and with sociolinguistic issues, on the other hand, exploring how different varieties of English in Australia intersect with, for example, identity, culture, and social dynamics.

The data for this seminar will include textual and audiovisual materials such as conversational data, corpora, telecinematic data, and online resources, providing students with an insight to English in Australia across different contexts and mediums. Students will also have a chance to critically assess and discuss diverse theoretical and methodological approaches used in different research projects such as the Australian Voices Project, the Australian Ancestors Project, or the Dialect Survey of the Lexicon of Australian English.

By the end of the seminar, students will have gained a comprehensive understanding of English in Australia and will be equipped with the analytical tools to navigate and contribute to ongoing discourse surrounding this dynamic linguistic landscape.

Event In the Flesh: Psychoanalytic Readings of the Body in Literature
440-225a / Seminar / 4,678

Description:

Business event contents:

"The human body is the best picture of the human soul," Wittgenstein once argued, touching on the famous line in Juvenal's Satire X "mens sana in corpore sano". In literature, the body often serves as a powerful symbol or metaphor and frequently embodies psychological and emotional experiences. The body is integral to the formation of identity and selfhood and illuminates the dynamics of interpersonal relationships. In this seminar, we will delve into the psychoanalytic underpinnings of how literary bodies and identities are constructed. The course is designed to explore, through psychoanalytic theory, literature, and film, the various ways in which the human body intersects with the psyche across three critical axes: the disintegration of the psyche, the cultural construction of bodies, and the fragmentation of identity in digital realms. This seminar invites participants to engage deeply with psychoanalytic theory as a lens to understand the continuous interaction between physical bodies and psychological identities. Participants will explore a diverse array of genres including Gothic, post-modernist and contemporary literature and film, such as Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray, David Fincher's Fight Club (1999), Sylvia Plath's The Bell Jar, Jeffrey Eugenides' Middlesex or Spike Jonze's Her (2013).

Event Caribbean Victorians
440-229a / Seminar / 4,679

Description:

Business event contents:

This course aims to draw attention to an often overlooked historical reality: the importance of the Caribbean to Britain in the Victorian age. Because Victoria's ascension to the throne coincided with the abolition of slavery era named after the monarch seems to have turned away from the colonies that were once the source of much of its wealth. In actuality, however, the Caribbean played a vital role in the British imaginary. It was a space in which anxieties around race and sexuality as well as concerns about the future forms of the Empire were negotiated. In this course, we will look at how writers in Britain conceived of the people living the Caribbean; the black former slaves, the coloured population, the white Creoles, and, increasingly, Asian immigrants. We will not limit ourselves to the view from abroad, but also read texts by Caribbean Victorians who negotiate the complicated social structures of the West Indies as well as their tense relationship with Britain itself. The reading will include both fiction and non-fiction texts.

By the end of this course, students will a) be familiar with the history of the Caribbean in the Victorian age, b) be able to critically engage with the concept of race within this specific historical context, c) be familiar with a number of lesser known anglophone texts d) understand the interplay between fiction and non-fiction texts, and e) understand how fiction reflects and shapes identities.

Event Preparation for the Research Seminar: Democracy and Development in Low- and Middle-Income Economies
615-501a / Seminar / 4,724

Description:

Business event contents:

In this course, we will address questions pertaining to the study of democracy, representation, and development. We will engage these topics by examining theoretical and empirical scholarly work on democracy and development in low and middle-income economies.

We will look at specific frameworks such as democracy under conflict and post- conflict settings, the role of gender, digitalization, corruption, inequality, and autocratization. Our focus on these cases will allow us to study a myriad of factors that can affect the stability of democracy, the proper conduct of democratic procedures, and the (non) success of development policies.

Notes:

This course is for students who would like to attend this seminar and the research seminar in the Spring Semester of 2025 as a one-year course.

Methodologically, we will resort to quantitative scholarly work to a large extent. The class will combine a lecture-style seminar with group exercises, discussions, and presentations. It requires extensive reading, and students are expected to actively engage with the materials and be prepared to join group discussions during class.

Performance is graded based on five response papers, one presentation, and a final research design.

Course Materials:

All course materials, including journal articles and book chapters, will be available on OLAT.

The following text should be read ahead of the first session:

Rose, R. (2009). Democratic and Undemocratic States. In C.W. Haerpfer, P. Bernhagen, R.F. Inglehart, & C. Welzel (Eds.), Democratization (1st ed., pp. 10-23). Oxford University Press.

Event Preparation for the Research Seminar: The Politics of Global Inequalities
615-505a / Seminar / 4,726

Description:

Business event contents:

While national inequality has made headlines in recent years, opportunities, wealth, and political rights are far more unequally distributed globally than they are within each nation state. This course introduces students to philosophical considerations and international political economy analysis about global inequalities.

We start from the premise that the distribution of wealth and social rights has always been deeply political, and cannot be reduced to purely economic mechanisms. In contrast to the alleviation of extreme poverty, where there is broad consensus about its normative desirability, the optimal level of inequality in society and between nations is a much more politically fraught question. We analyze therefore in a first step power relations in international regimes and their stance on social and economic inequalities. Secondly, we ask how increased globalization affects countries of different world regions and different parts of society. Can we witness an improvement of gender equality everywhere? Do political participation rights spread throughout the world? Who gains economically from globalization and who loses? Which new inequalities arise through climate change? In the last part, we look at attempts to mitigate global inequalities. We will see that this redistribution is a fundamentally different matter at the global than the national level, given the absence of a global welfare state or tax authority.

In the following spring semester (2025), students have the possibility to write a research paper (Forschungsseminar). The seminar is a core course for the MA Track Philosophy and Political Economy.

Course Materials: The readings for the seminar can be accessed via OLAT.

The following three texts give a flavor of the seminar and should be read before the first session:
Lockwood, E. (2021). The international political economy of global inequality. Review of International Political Economy, 28(2), 421-445.
Milanovic, B. (2016). Global inequality: A new approach for the age of globalization. Harvard University Press., Chapter "Inequality between countries, p. 118-154.

Event Spezialisierung: Governance und Demokratie
615I007a / Seminar / 4,746

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Governance moderner Gesellschaften ist nicht nur die Sache von nationalstaatlichen Institutionen. Die Regierungsmacht hat sich in drei Richtungen verschoben: nach 'oben' auf die internationale Ebene, 'seitwärts' zu privaten Regulatoren oder transnationalen NGOs sowie n 'unten' auf die lokale Ebene. Zahlreiche Institutionen jenseits des Nationalstaates haben heute einen grossen Einfluss auf unser Leben. Doch wie demokratisch sind diese Formen des Regierens hinsichtlich ihrer Kontrolle und Legitimität? Wie verbreitet ist dieses Phänomen tatsächlich und welche Konsequenzen ergeben sich daraus?

Im ersten Semester steht die konzeptuelle Diskussion dieser Fragen im Vordergrund. Zudem werden empirische Analysen in verschiedenen Politikbereichen besprochen. Dadurch werden die Grundlagen für die eigenen Forschungsarbeiten geschaffen, welche die Studierenden im Rahmen ihrer Bachelorarbeit im zweiten Semester verfassen werden. Der Schwerpunkt beim methodischen Vorgehen liegt auf der Durchführung von qualitativen Fallstudien (z. Bsp. Interviews und Inhaltsanalyse), ein quantitatives Vorgehen ist jedoch auch möglich.

615I008a / Seminar / 4,744

Description:

Business event contents:

Die regelmässig durchgeführten Volksabstimmungen sind ein charakteristisches Merkmal der Schweizer Politik. Diese Spezialisierung widmet sich der Analyse des Abstimmungsverhaltens der Stimmenden. Wie kommen die Stimmenden zu ihrem Entscheid? Welche Rolle spielt dabei die Abstimmungskampagne? Wie erklärt sich die Höhe der Stimmbeteiligung? Diese und weitere Fragen stehen im Fokus dieser Spezialisierung. Für Ihre Arbeiten werden den Studierenden Daten aus repräsentativen Nachabstimmungsbefragungen des aktuellen Nationalfondsprojekts 'Direkte Demokratie Schweiz im 21. Jahrhundert (SDD-21)' zur Verfügung gestellt.

Im ersten Semester des Seminars diskutieren die Studierenden die relevante Literatur im Bereich der Abstimmungsforschung, befassen sich mit Fragen der (vorwiegend quantitativen) Methoden und den Datensätzen, und erarbeiten ein Design für die persönliche Forschungsarbeit. Im zweiten Semester verfassen die Teilnehmenden eigene Forschungsarbeiten.

Event Specialisation: Reforming Representative Democracy
615I015a / Seminar / 4,743

Description:

Business event contents:

The past decade, representative democracies have come under pressure and their core institutions and principles have been challenged in ways not seen since the assault from totalitarianism after World War I. The critique is both populist, with anti-elitist demands for more inclusion and participation, and technocratic, with demands for more expertise and long-term problem solving that dispenses with electoral procedures and party competition. How have representative institutions responded to these opposing demands? The seminar analyses institutional reforms and new institutions created to improve the inclusion and participation of minorities, accountability of elites, responsiveness to popular demands, and the efficiency of decision-making and effectiveness of policies. The seminar is comparative and covers representative democracies globally.

Event Rechtsphilosophie
90GL18-1 / Course / 3,036

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Vorlesung behandelt zentrale Probleme der Rechtsphilosophie. Dazu gehören Fragen wie die Folgenden: Was hat Recht mit Gerechtigkeit zu tun? Was heisst überhaupt Gerechtigkeit? Was sind die Grundlagen von Menschenrechten? Welches sind die philosophischen Grundlagen der Verfassungsstaatlichkeit? Welche internationale Ordnung ist legitim? Was sind die theoretischen Grundlagen des Völkerrechts? Was heisst menschliche Schuld und Verantwortung? Welchem Zweck dienen Strafen? Was heisst Privatautonomie und welche Bedeutung hat sie für die Privat- und Wirtschaftsrechtsordnung? Welche anderen normativen Prinzipien sind für diese relevant? Diese Probleme werden historisch informiert und systematisch vertieft diskutiert. Dabei wird auf kulturübergreifende Perspektiven Wert gelegt. Die theoretischen Überlegungen werden durchgehend an aktuellen Rechtsproblemen erprobt.

Notes:

Die Vorlesung wird voraussichtlich von einem Proseminar begleitet, dessen Besuch freigestellt ist.

In questo corso approfondiamo il rapporto tra la pragmatica, la branca della linguistica che studia l'uso del linguaggio, e le scienze cognitive. Uno dei temi centrali nella ricerca contemporanea (a partire dai lavori fondamentali di Herbert Paul Grice) riguarda il modo in cui alcune informazioni possono essere scambiate nella comunicazione di tutti i giorni senza essere asserite esplicitamente. Osserviamo i seguenti esempi: (1) A: Dov'è Gianni? B: Mah, ho visto la sua macchina parcheggiata davanti al bar (2) Giorgio ha smesso di giocare a rugby Udendo (o leggendo) queste frasi, un parlante L1 di italiano non avrà alcuna difficoltà a recuperare l'informazione, da (1), che Gianni si trova probabilmente al bar e, da (2), che Giorgio ha alle spalle un passato da rugbista. Si tratta, in entrambi i casi, di informazioni cruciali per lo scambio comunicativo, trasmesse però in modo implicito, poiché non trovano un riscontro formale sulla superficie del testo.

Uno dei nostri obiettivi è quello di individuare i diversi tipi di implicito e di capire come i parlanti riescano a ricostruire senza sforzo apparente questo genere di informazioni anche con riferimenti alla ricerca in ambito neurolinguistico e psicolinguistico.

Event OT Seminar: The Joseph Story (Genesis37-50)

14SS035 / Seminar / 60

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Erzählung von Joseph in Ägypten gehört zu den bekanntesten und beliebtesten biblischen Stoffen. Gegenüber den übrigen Erzelterngeschichten hat sie eine Reihe von Eigenheiten: Sie sprengt den Rahmen der nomadischen Lebensweise. Sie zeigt, dass ein Gott gemässes Leben auch im Ausland, in einer fremdreligiösen Kultur möglich ist. Sie hat ein deutlich weisheitliches Gepräge. Und sie spricht auf eine neue Weise von Gott: Gott begegnet nicht mehr direkt den Menschen, sondern wirkt in verborgener Weise in der Geschichte. Der Satz des Joseph: "Ihr zwar habt Böses gegen mich geplant, Gott aber hat es zum Guten gewendet" (Gen 50,20), ist ein Schlüsselsatz theologischer Geschichtsdeutung geworden.

Im Seminar wird der Text der Josephsgeschichte exegetisch und interpretatorisch erschlossen und in seine biblischen Zusammenhänge hineingestellt. Auch ihre Wirkungsgeschichte im Koran und der Literatur wird thematisiert werden.

Notes:

Unterrichtsunterlagen werden in OLAT zur Verfügung gestellt werden.

--Während der Reading-Week vom 14.-18.10.2024 finden keine Lehrveranstaltungen statt.

Event HB/OT Seminar: The Bible and Literature - The Bible as Literature
14SS036 / Seminar / 59

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Bibel kann in verschiedensten Weisen hinsichtlich ihrer Normativität, ihrem Verhältnis zur Religionsgeschichte Israels, oder auch für theologische Zwecke der Gegenwart gelesen werden. Auf grundlegendster Ebene ist sie jedoch Literatur. Diese Beobachtung wirkt sich vor allem auf zwei Fragestellungen der Bibelwissenschaft aus, nämlich einerseits auf das methodische Repositorium dessen sich die Exegese bedient, und andererseits auf die biblische Rezeptionsgeschichte. Gleichzeitig verbleibt dies im aktuellen Forschungskontext ein unterbetrachtetes Feld. Anliegen dieses Seminars soll es sein, diese beiden Aspekte und auch deren Wechselspiel näher zu betrachten. Anhand ausgewählter Beispiele solcher literaturtheoretischer Ansätze, die die literarischen Dynamiken des Denkens und Schreibens im antiken Israel erhellen, sowie moderner Literatur, welche mit der Bibel in ein intertextuelles Verhältnis gebracht werden kann, soll ein Dialog mit biblischer Literatur versucht werden.

Event Practical course in Physical Chemistry II
CHE313.1 / Praktikum / 2,756

Description:

Business event contents:

The 6 experiments that must be completed in this course are often directly connected to current research methods at the institute. A measuring time of 1-2 afternoons per experiment, an extensive data evaluation and a laboratory report is required for each experiment. One experiment has to be presented as a poster at the end of the course. Next to modern techniques, we practice non-linear regression, global fitting and DFT calculations. Current experiments are:

- vibronic spectroscopy
- hydrophobic surfaces and contact angle measurement
- IR-circular dichroism and quantum chemical simulations
- RNA/DNA structure and folding
- Spectro-Electrochemistry
- nanosecond and femtosecond laser spectroscopy
- single-molecule spectroscopy

Notes:

The course is compatible with one of the other two advanced practical courses in the fall semester. Accordingly, students can choose to do the experiments either in the first or the second half of the term.

Course Materials: Laboratory manuals and instructions for data analysis.

Event Practical course in Physical Chemistry
CHE211.1 / Praktikum / 2,819

Description:

Business event contents:

You learn to apply physical experimental methods to chemical problems. Experiments are conducted on a total of 8 afternoons per semester and treat, for example, absorption spectroscopy, fluorescence quenching, NMR spectroscopy, calorimetry, viscosity, dipole moment measurement. The evaluation and statistical treatment of the measured data and the writing of laboratory reports is an important part of this lab course. For this purpose, demonstration hours are regularly offered.

Notes:

Usually one laboratory afternoon per week. At least one more day should be scheduled for evaluation and report. Prerequisite for the booking of CHE 211 is the successful completion of CHE 112; in case you completed CHE 173 (and need CHE 211 for the teaching diploma with 2nd subject chemistry), please contact the responsible lecturer

Course Materials: Instruction for the experiments

Event Reading course I: Interconnections between religion, economy and politics (according to Max Weber)
61SU001 / Exercise Group / 3,013

Description:

Business event contents:

Max Weber hat in seiner Arbeit immer wieder grundsätzliche Fragen nach der Verflechtung von Religion, Wirtschaft und Politik gestellt. Dabei ging er nicht nur der Frage nach dem Einfluss von religiösen Zugehörigkeiten auf das Wirtschaftsverhalten nach, sondern hat auch systematische Antworten auf die Verhältnisbestimmung von Religion, Wirtschaft und Politik formuliert. Zentrale Themen sind etwa solche nach der Weltablehnung, der Typologie von religiösen Akteuren oder dem Zusammenhang von Religion und Kapitalismus. Im Lektürekurs besprechen wir an zwei Freitagnachmittagen gemeinsam Texte von Max Weber aus seiner Religionssoziologie. Damit versuchen wir insbesondere, die Verflechtungen zwischen Religion, Wirtschaft und Politik stärker in den Blick zu bekommen. Der Lektürekurs richtet sich insbesondere an Studierende des MA Religion - Wirtschaft - Politik, ist aber für andere Studierende offen.

Notes:

Der Kurs kann besucht werden, ohne die Kreditpunkte zu erhalten. Für die Punkte benötigt es zu drei Texten je einseitige Lesekommentare, die in der Vorbereitungssitzung erläutert werden.

Course Materials:

Max Weber: "Zwischenbetrachtung: Theorie der Stufen und Richtungen religiöser Weltablehnung"; Auszüge aus "Die Wirtschaftsethik der Weltreligionen I und II"; Auszüge aus "Wirtschaft und Gesellschaft" (u.a. Die Typen der Herrschaft; Auszüge aus der "Religionssoziologie (Typen religiöser Vergemeinschaftung)"; Auszüge aus der Rechtssoziologie)

Event Seminar: Sakralisierung und Raum
53LM003c / Seminar / 3,293

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Heiligkeit eines Ortes ist die Folge von Praktiken der Sakralisierung. In Ritualen wie Pilgern und Opfern, aber auch in der narrativen Imagination von Räumen in Texten oder Karten werden sakrale Räume geschaffen. Im Seminar geht es darum, herauszufinden, wie diese Vorgänge der Sakralisierung vor sich gehen, was zentrale Faktoren sind und welche Ursachen, Motive und Konsequenzen damit verbunden sind. Dazu besprechen wir theoretische Texte sowie verschiedene Quellenmaterialien aus Mittelalter und Neuzeit. Dies vertiefen wir mit einer Exkursion zum Campus Galli, einem Versuch, im heutigen Süddeutschland einen tausendjährigen Klosterplan zu realisieren.

Event Seminar: Religion and modern society (RKE.S410.1)
56LP012 / PHZH SEK I Module / 3,011

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Studierenden erhalten grundlegende Einsichten in Dynamiken der Entstehung und Formation von Religionen, ihrer sozialen Organisation, materiellen Produktivität (Texte, Kleidung, Ikonographie, Architektur, usw.) sowie der Tradierung, Reform und Individualisierung religiöser Ordnungsvorstellungen, Ritualen und Lebensweisen. Die Studierenden lernen Religionen in Verflechtung und kontextuellem Wechselverhältnis mit ihrer Umwelt kennen und üben eine zweifache Perspektive auf Religion ein: Einerseits wird ein naives Verständnis von «Religion» als historisch gegebenem Faktum dekonstruiert, andererseits wird «Religion&ra als analytisches Konzept begründet, anhand dessen sich soziale und kulturelle Formationsprozesse beschreiben, analysieren und verstehen lassen.

Event La formation de la norme française au 17e siècle
390-005a / Seminar / 2,073

Description:

Business event contents:

Le 17e siècle est l'époque de la langue et des auteurs 'classiques' aujourd'hui les grands auteurs font partie de tout enseignement littéraire autant Corneille et Racine que Molière, La Fontaine ou La Bruyère. Les textes de cette époque restent importants comme modèle stylistique et linguistique.

Le séminaire se posera la question de savoir par quelle(s) voie(s) ce modèle de langue a pu s'établir dans la société alphabétisée de l'Ancien Régime appui sur le constat que la plupart des écrivains étaient impliqués dans la rédaction de la première édition du Dictionnaire de l'Académie française, préparé entre 1635 et 1694. Leurs textes entretiennent en effet des liens très étroits avec les choix de ce dictionnaire 'officiel', ce qui a sans doute renforcé le rôle de modèle autant des auteurs que du dictionnaire dans la formation de la langue exemplaire française contemporaine.

Le séminaire étudiera de plus près les relations concrètes entre le vocabulaire des différents auteurs et les choix du Dictionnaire de l'Académie pour mettre en relief les relations réciproques qui se sont instaurées entre les textes et le dictionnaire. Il tentera de montrer ainsi comment la norme du français actuel s'est formée à travers la médialisation de la langue par les différents genres textuels.

Event Feministische Filme und Schweizer Frauengeschichte(n)
506I005a / Seminar / 1,151

Description:

Business event contents:

Im thematischen Seminar untersuchen wir Inszenierungen und Aushandlungen 'frauenbewegter' Diskurse in feministischen Filmen der 1970er- bis 1990er-Jahre in der Schweiz. Nebst den ästhetisch-künstlerischen Merkmalen interessieren uns insbesondere die jeweiligen Bedeutungs- und Wirkungszusammenhänge sowie das feministisch-politische Potential der Filmarbeiten. Wir betrachten die Filme nicht nur als zeitzeugende Quellen, sondern auch als geschichtsmächtige Akteure.

Wir beschäftigen uns mit zentralen Forderungen, Phänomenen und Akteur*innen der Frauengeschichte sowie des feministischen Filmschaffens in der Schweiz. Auf dem Lektüreplan stehen Schlüsseltexte der (Feminist) Visual Culture Studies sowie Texte über die Schweizer Frauen- und Filmgeschichte. Im Verlauf des Semesters schauen wir eine Auswahl feministischer Filmarbeiten und üben am Material die Möglichkeiten einer kulturwissenschaftlichen Filmanalyse. Ziel des Seminars ist, Wege zu üben, filmische Quellen für kulturwissenschaftliche Perspektiven und Fragen fruchtbar zu machen.

Notes:

Insofern ein Film nicht online gratis verfügbar ist, schauen wir diesen in der Woche zuvor im Anschluss an die Sitzung (ab 18Uhr) gemeinsam. Die Visionierungen werden als Lektürezeit angerechnet.

Event True Crime: Aushandlungen von Fiktionalität in PLM
506I513a / Seminar / 3,588

Description:

Business event contents:

«True crime is a dangerous genre», schreibt Esquire in einer Rezension der Netflix-Serie Baby Reindeer (2024), die auf einem Stalking-Fall beruht, die der Creator Richard Gadd selbst erlebt hat. Gefährlich deshalb, weil die Ordnung der Fiktion sich mit der Ordnung der sozialen und politischen Wirklichkeit überschneidet. Baby Reindeer ist keine klassische True Crime-Serie, nimmt den Trend aber auf und entwickelt eine Reihe von Fragen, denen wir im Seminar nachgehen wollen: wie lässt sich Objektivität, wie lässt sich Gerechtigkeit herstellen in einer komplexen Welt, in der Aussage gegen Aussage steht, in der sich unterschiedliche Erzählungen gegenseitig auszuschliessen scheinen? Wir diskutieren im ersten Teil des Seminars True Crime-Serien und lesen theoretische Texte rund um Krimis, das Justizsystem und Fiktionalität (Luc Boltanski, Michel Foucault, Shoshana Felman), um im zweiten Teil zusammen mit der Gastdozentin Prof. Dr. Elisabeth Bronfen True Crime an der Schnittstelle zum Gerichtsfilm zu untersuchen. Teil des Seminars ist der Besuch einiger Abende im Kino Xenix, das im Oktober unter dem Titel «All Rise» eine Reihe zum Gerichtsfilm präsentieren wird.

Zur Vorbereitung für das Seminar schauen alle Teilnehmer:innen die Netflix-Serie Baby Reindeer.

Event Probleme der Wirtschaftsgeschichte
599-503a / Lecture with Practical Exercises / 2,869

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Vorlesung Probleme der Wirtschaftsgeschichte gibt Einblicke in die laufende Forschung und die Forschungsschwerpunkte der Dozierenden des Masterstudienprogramms Wirtschaftsgeschichte. Die Vorlesung bietet damit den Studierenden der Wirtschaftsgeschichte aber auch den Studierenden der anderen historischen Master-Studienprogrammen die Möglichkeit mit Dozierenden der Wirtschaftsgeschichte in Kontakt zu treten. Die Vorlesung vermittelt zum einen die Schlüsselemente zum Verständnis der langfristigen Entwicklungen der ökonomischen und sozialen Bedingungen von der Antike über das Mittelalter bis heute. Zum anderen gibt die Vorlesungen einen Überblick über zentralen Theorien, Fragestellungen und Forschungsfelder sowie Methoden der Wirtschaftsgeschichte. Das Spektrum der behandelten Themenbereiche reicht von der Geschichte des ökonomischen Denkens über die Klonometrie bis hin zur kritischen Auseinandersetzung mit wichtigen Forschungen zur Politischen Ökonomie. Ein besonderer Schwerpunkt liegt auf dem interdisziplinären Dialog zwischen Geschichtswissenschaft und Ökonomie, die wirtschaftliche Dynamik, unternehmerische Entscheidungen und wirtschaftspolitische Weichenstellungen mit unterschiedlichen Modellen und Terminologien erklärt. Die Vorlesung ist entsprechend epochenübergreifend, interdisziplinär und interfakultär angelegt und vermittelt sowohl quantitative als auch qualitative Ansätze in der Wirtschaftsgeschichte.

Event Der römische Limes: Anlage, Geschichte und Funktion der römischen Grenzschutzanlagen
600-005a / Seminar / 675

Description:

Business event contents:

Mauern, Zäune und Sperranlagen sind keine modernen Erfindungen. Auch in der Antike erhoffte man sich von ihnen Schutz und die Möglichkeit, gewollte und ungewollte Grenzüberschreitungen kontrollieren zu können.

Unter dem Begriff Limes fasst man heute eine Vielzahl solcher Sperranlagen aus der Zeit des römischen Kaiserreiches zusammen. Sie gelten seit einigen Jahren sogar entlang mancher Strecken als UNESCO Weltkulturerbe. Bedeutung, Ausbau und Funktion haben die moderne althistorische und archaeologische Forschung seit ihrer Begründung im

19. Jahrhundert beschäftigt. Sie bilden auch weiterhin einen wichtigen Forschungszweig, dessen Vertreter sich alle 3 Jahre am sog.

«Limeskongress» treffen (zuletzt in Batumi, Georgien, 08.-14. Septe 24).

In diesem Seminar wollen wir uns mit den Erscheinungen und den Funktionen des Limes in der römischen Kaiserzeit beschäftigen sowie mit den unterschiedlichen modernen historiographischen Interpretationen dieser Anlagen in vergangenen Jahrzehnten.

Event Gruppe 04: Reformen – Auf dem Papier und in der Praxis

600-007a / Seminar / 363

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Basismodul „Reformen: Auf dem Papier und in der Praxis“ werden am Beispiel des Städtebaus (PS 1) und der Kriminalpolitik (PS 2) die Wege von der Idee zur Umsetzung und die dabei entstehenden Reibungen und Widersprüche untersucht.

Das Proseminar 1 konzentriert sich thematisch auf die Architektur und den Städtebau vom Ende des 19. bis zur Mitte des 20. Jh. Es behandelt hauptsächlich die Verhältnisse zwischen der Planung, dem tatsächlichen Bauen und der gesellschaftlichen Entwicklung um die Bauten. Durch die Einführung ins historische Arbeiten auf Deutsch sowie auf Englisch wird der Umgang mit Fachliteratur geübt und es werden grundlegende Recherchetechniken fürs weitere Studium angeeignet.

Thema des Proseminars 2 ist die Kriminalitätspolitik der Schweiz von den 1960er Jahren bis zur Gegenwart. Anhand von Quellen zu den Strafrechtsrevisionen von 1971 und 2007 wird der Wandel kriminalpolitischer Ideen und der damit verbundene Wandel der Strafverfolgungs- und Strafvollzugspraxis untersucht. Gearbeitet wird mit Quellen zum juristischen, kriminologischen und forensisch-psychiatrischen Fachdiskurs, zur Gesetzgebung im Parlament, zur Rechtsprechung vor Bundesgericht und zur Vollzugspraxis in den Strafanstalten und den forensisch-psychiatrischen Kliniken.

Im Laufe des Semesters werden wir gemeinsam ein Archiv oder ein Museum besuchen sowie Führungen in der Zentralbibliothek und in der Unibibliothek Geschichte durchführen. Erwartet wird die aktive Teilnahme an den Sitzungen und das fristgerechte Einreichen der geforderten Aufgaben beider Proseminare.

Notes:

Proseminar 1: Mi 12:15-13:45

Proseminar 2: Mo 14:00-15:45

Leistungsnachweis: Als Leistungsnachweis wird im Proseminar 1 mündliche Mitarbeit, ein kurzes Referat (ca. 10 Min.) mit einem Handout sowie ein Forschungsbericht verlangt.

Leistungsnachweise im Proseminar 2 sind die aktive mündliche Mitarbeit, das Konzept der Proseminararbeit und die Proseminararbeit.

Event Gruppe 06: Mobil sein im Mittelalter und der Frühen Neuzeit
600-007a / Seminar / 365

Description:

Business event contents:

Ob über das Meer, vom Land in die Stadt oder von Stadt zu Stadt: Im Mittelalter und der Frühen Neuzeit waren verschiedenste Personengruppen unterwegs. Dazu zählten junge Dienstmägde und versklavte Afrikaner:innen genauso wie Ritter und bildungshungrige Gelehrte. Ebenso vielfältig wie die Menschen selbst waren die geographischen Ziele, die Frequenz, die Dauer sowie die Motive, die sie dazu bewegten, mobil zu werden. Oftmals trieb die Akteur:innen der Wunsch nach sozialer Mobilität an, oder Mobilität stellte die Voraussetzung dar, um das eigene Überleben zu sichern. Gerade etwa aus konfessionellen oder materiellen Gründen sahen sich viele Menschen gezwungen, ihre angestammte Heimat zu verlassen und in der Fremde das Glück zu suchen. Neben der binneneuropäischen Mobilität spielten in der Frühen Neuzeit auch die europäischen Migrationsbewegungen in Richtung der ‚Neuen Welt‘ sowie der transatlantische Sklavenhandel eine wichtige Rolle, wobei es sich bei letzterem um die extremste Form unfreiwilliger Mobilität handelte.

Dieses Basismodul I gibt einen Einblick in unterschiedliche Forschungskonzepte, Methoden und Quellen zur Forschung zu sozialer und geographischer Mobilität. Dabei werden wir uns sowohl klassische, sozialgeschichtliche Studien als auch neuere Ansätze aus der Wirtschafts- und Kulturgeschichte anschauen. Auf konzeptioneller Ebene stellt sich zunächst die Frage, was die Forschung unter sozialer und geographischer Mobilität versteht und wie beides erforscht werden kann. Die Erfassung von Mobilität fordert nicht nur aufgrund der spärlichen Quellenlage heraus, sondern wirft auch wichtige Fragen zur Klassifikation und Interpretation von Informationen auf. Anhand der Thematik werden die Studierenden in die Grundlagen der wissenschaftlichen Geschichtsschreibung eingeführt. Während im Proseminar 1 die Recherche sowie wissenschaftliches Lesen, Schreiben und Vortragen im Vordergrund stehen, liegt im Proseminar 2 das Hauptaugenmerk auf dem kritischen Umgang mit Quellen und dem Verfassen schriftlicher Arbeiten.

Event Gruppe 07: Land und Tiere nutzen. Umgang mit natürlichen Ressourcen vom Mittelalter bis in die Gegenwart
600-007a / Seminar / 366

Description:

Business event contents:

Angesichts von Pandemie und Klimakrise intensivierten sich gesellschaftliche Debatten über die Wechselbeziehungen zwischen Mensch, Tier und Umwelt. Auch die Geschichtswissenschaft denkt im 21. Jahrhundert vermehrt über den Menschen hinaus und reflektiert und historisiert das Verhältnis zwischen Mensch und Umwelt.

Diese Impulse aus der Umwelt-, Agrar- und Tiergeschichte nimmt das Basismodul auf. Anhand von Beispielen aus dem europäischen Raum geht es den Veränderungen in der Beziehung zwischen Mensch und Natur und in der Nutzung und Konzeptualisierung natürlicher Ressourcen zwischen Mittelalter und Moderne nach. So war die dörfliche Wirtschaft im Mittelalter eng mit der natürlichen Umwelt (Land, Gewässer und Wälder) verzahnt und die Sicherung der Existenz hing in hohem Masse von einer vertieften Kenntnis dieser Umwelt ab. Grosse Teile der Flur hatten keinen klaren Eigentümer, sondern wurden von unterschiedlichen Interessengruppen, wie bäuerlichen Dorfgemeinschaften, dem Gewerbe, Adeligen und Landesherrn beansprucht und genutzt.

Mit der Industrialisierung setzte eine Verschiebung der Grundlage westeuropäischer Gesellschaften weg von biotischen hin zu fossilen Ressourcen ein. In der Landwirtschaft führte dies ab den 1950er Jahren durch einen zunehmenden Einsatz chemisch-synthetischer Hilfsstoffe, dem Zukauf von Futtermitteln und der weitreichenden Motorisierung zu einem beispiellosen Wachstum der Produktion sowie einer erhöhten Aufmerksamkeit für dessen ökologische Konsequenzen. Mit einer Intensivierung der Nutztierhaltung veränderte sich auch das Mensch-Tier Verhältnis im 20. Jahrhundert.

Diesen Veränderungen spürt das Basismodul anhand konkreter agrargeschichtlicher Fallbeispiele nach und regt gleichzeitig dazu an, lineare Erzählungen über die Entwicklung von Nachhaltigkeit und Umweltbewusstsein zu hinterfragen und verkomplizieren. Mit diesem thematischen Schwerpunkt bietet das Basismodul eine umfassende Einführung in das geschichtswissenschaftliche Arbeiten.

Event Gruppe 09: Staatenbildung

600-007a / Seminar / 368

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Basismodul befasst sich mit Staatenbildung im Europa des Hochmittelalters und in Afrika im 20. und 21. Jahrhundert. Wie weit und wie sind Machtstrukturen entstanden, die man als 'Staaten' bezeichnen könnte? Im Europa des Hochmittelalters zum Beispiel reichte die Palette an Gebilden, die man als 'Staaten' bezeichnen könnte, von winzigen Burgherrschaften über Städte, Fürstentümer und Königreiche bis hin zum Heiligen Römischen Reich. Hilft der Begriff 'Staat' zu verstehen, wie in diesen Gebieten Macht organisiert war? Auch die politische Landkarte des vorkolonialen afrikanischen Kontinents unterscheidet sich signifikant von den heutigen modernen afrikanischen Staaten. Insbesondere die kolonialen Grenzziehungen veränderten bestehende Machtstrukturen maßgeblich.

Anhand dieser thematischen Schwerpunkte führt das Basismodul in das geschichtswissenschaftliche Arbeiten ein: Recherchier- und Lesetechniken, Zitierformen, und insbesondere die Arbeit mit wissenschaftlichen Texten und historischen Quellen stehen dabei im Fokus.

Event Alles verklungen? Eine Kulturgeschichte der mittelalterlichen Musik
600-011a / Seminar / 703

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Musik des europäischen Mittelalters ist verklungen. Allen modernen Nachahmungen zum Trotz werden wir aufgrund der fehlenden Möglichkeiten zur Tonaufnahme nie wissen, wie die von mittelalterlichen Menschen produzierte Musik getönt haben mag. Wohl aber können wir die Wahrnehmung ebendieser Musik durch mittelalterliche Menschen nachvollziehen. Eines wird nämlich bereits durch einen flüchtigen Blick klar: Auch wenn die mittelalterliche Musik nicht mehr authentisch zu rekonstruieren ist, war sie doch allgegenwärtig. Das Ziel dieses Seminars ist es deshalb, anhand verschiedener schriftlicher und bildlicher Quellengattungen die musikalischen Klangräume zwischen den Jahren 500 bis 1500 zu erschliessen. Das Themenspektrum reicht dabei über so unterschiedliche Aspekte wie die Verwendung von Kriegsmusik, kirchliche und höfische Klänge und den Stellenwert der Musik im mittelalterlichen Bildungskanon bis hin zu der Frage, ob sich Musik und Lärm in dieser Zeit immer trennscharf unterscheiden lassen.

Course Materials:

Einführende Literatur: Diehr, Achim: Literatur und Musik im Mittelalter. Event Polizei- und Gefängniskritik in der Schweiz

600-015a / Seminar / 2,788

Description:

Business event contents:

In demokratischen Rechtsstaaten ist die Exekutive dem Parlament und der Bevölkerung gegenüber rechenschaftspflichtig. Wie sich in der Geschichte der modernen Nationalstaaten beobachten lässt, kommt es in politischen Auseinandersetzungen immer wieder zu Konflikten von Teilen der Bevölkerung mit den Sicherheitsapparaten. Die Polizei, die Justiz und die Justizvollzugsanstalten verfügen über erhebliche Gewaltmittel, deren Einsatz Anlass zu Kritik geben kann. Doch wer übt diese Kritik aus und wie funktioniert sie?

In Europa und den USA kam es in den 1970er- und 1980er-Jahren zu einer Hochphase der Polizei- und Gefängniskritik: Linke Protestbewegungen machten vielfach die Erfahrung, dass die Staatsapparate repressiv auf Politikformen, seien sie gewaltvoll oder friedfertig, reagierten. In diesem Zusammenhang entwickelten sie Begrifflichkeiten, Artikulationsweisen und Aktionsformen, die wir am Schweizer Beispiel unter die Lupe nehmen werden. Wie analysierte das Spektrum der progressiven Gruppierungen das staatliche Gewaltmonopol in Gestalt der Polizei und die Bedingungen in Schweizer Gefängnissen? Welche Strategien kamen zum Einsatz, um die Kritik an der Polizei- und Verwahrungspraxis publik zu machen? Wie reagierten die Sicherheitsdienste, die Medien und die Gesellschaft?

Der Fokus des Seminars wird auf der Arbeit im Archiv und der Einübung in den Forschungsprozess (Quelleninterpretation und wissenschaftliches Schreiben) liegen. Geplant sind Archivbesuche. Es besteht bei Interesse die Möglichkeit, Gäste in die Lehrveranstaltung einzuladen. Geplant ist eine Exkursion nach Stuttgart mit finanzieller Unterstützung des Historischen Seminars.

Event Geschichte der Schweiz jenseits der Heteronormativität – eine Archivrecherche
600-020a / Seminar / 1,445

Description:

Business event contents:

In diesem Bachelorseminar möchten wir in Archiven und in der geschichtswissenschaftlichen Literatur auf Spurensuche gehen nach Menschen, Lebensformen und Lebensentwürfen, die man heute als queer bezeichnen würde. Dabei konzentrieren wir uns auf die Schweiz seit dem 19. Jahrhundert.

In einer primär sozialgeschichtlichen Perspektive sollen Lebensgeschichten und Handlungsoptionen, das Ringen um die Sichtbarkeit und der Kampf gegen Diskriminierung und Ausgrenzung thematisiert werden sowie die Geschichten der Betroffenen in der Geschichte der Schweiz verortet werden.

So behandelt dieses Seminar auch die Schweizer Geschichte der Emanzipationsbewegungen queerer Menschen seit ihren Anfängen bis zur Gegenwart. Darüber hinaus geht es in diesem Bachelorseminar auch darum, anhand der vorgegebenen Thematik die Arbeitstechniken der Geschichtswissenschaft, d.h. die Suche nach Quellen und Literatur sowie die Bearbeitung des Quellenmaterials mit eigens entwickelten Fragestellungen zu üben und anzuwenden.

Event Schreib- und Lektürekurs Skandinavistik: Landeskunde
360I231a / Exercise Group / 3,180

Description:

Business event contents:

Bilden av Sverige har förändrats över tid. Hur ser den ut idag? Överensstämmer den med verkligheten? Vilka samhälls- och kulturfrågor är aktuella, vilka får utrymme i media och vilka befinner sig i s.k. medieskugga? Vi tittar närmare på detta och blickar även över gränsen till grannländerna Danmark och Norge.

Den här kursen riktar sig till studerande som har avslutat kursen Lektüre i sina respektive skandinaviska språk eller har motsvarande språkkunskaper. Vi läser och diskuterar olika typer av texter, såväl skönlitteratur som tidningsartiklar och sakprosa, och vi intresserar oss även för deras språk och stil. Kursdeltagarna skriver egna texter och kan på så sätt förbättra sin skriftliga språkfärdighet.

Läslust och aktivt deltagande förväntas!

Event Epigenetics
BIO243 / Course / 925

Description:

Business event contents:

This course will explore epigenetics, non-coding RNAs, and post- translational protein modifications - three areas of molecular biology that complement and extend our basic knowledge of the upward causation of life (i.e., DNA->messenger RNA->Protein).

Cell fates and molecular mechanisms in different types of cells are orchestrated by transcription factors, chromatin changes, DNA methylation, noncoding RNAs, protein modifications, and other signals, whose dysregulation contributes strongly to human disease. These factors are currently the subject of intense research aimed at refining our understanding of the pathogenesis of these diseases and at developing new and more effective strategies for their treatment.

Event DNA metabolism and cancer
BIO257 / Course / 636

Description:

Business event contents:

DNA of all living organisms is under constant assault by endogenous and exogenous damaging agents. In order to protect their genomes, cells have evolved complex mechanisms that protect them from the deleterious action of these agents, ranging from specific DNA repair pathways, DNA damage tolerance and cell cycle checkpoints to modulation of gene expression. A failure of one or more of these mechanisms increases genome instability, and can lead to disease, cancer and ageing. In this course, designed to foster student participation, the students will gain theoretical knowledge about the cellular mechanisms required to protect genome integrity and avoid malignant transformation, such as DNA repair pathways, cell cycle control, DNA damage tolerance during replication, genome maintenance during transcription and telomere homeostasis.

Event Lessicografia ed etimologia italo-romanze: i dialetti meridionali
410I032a / Seminar / 2,148

Description:

Business event contents:

L'Italia meridionale è stata nei secoli crocevia di popoli e culture: se è vero che il lessico di una lingua è specchio della sua storia, il lessico dei dialetti italiani meridionali è un caleidoscopio che riflette quel mosaico di culture e di popoli. Il seminario ha come scopo di introdurre i/le partecipanti a questo appassionante oggetto di studio e nel contempo agli strumenti di lavoro ed alla metodologia della ricerca lessicografica ed etimologica sull'italo-romanzo. Ovviamente, la familiarità con tali strumenti e metodi serve anche per lo studio della lingua nazionale (l'italiano su base toscana).

Fra i temi di esercitazione, figurerà l'illustrazione della storia dei diversi apporti al lessico dei dialetti meridionali: grecismi, germanismi, arabismi, galloromanismi, ispanismi, ecc. Altra possibilità contemplata sarà l'elaborazione autonoma, con la supervisione del docente, di alcune voci di un vocabolario etimologico di un dialetto pugliese attualmente in corso di realizzazione presso la cattedra di linguistica storica italiana.

Course Materials:

I/le partecipanti al seminario dovranno leggere alcune sezioni dei seguenti manuali: M. Aprile, Dalle parole ai dizionari, Bologna, il Mulino 2005; D. Baglioni, L'etimologia, Roma, Carocci 2016; M.

Loporcaro, Profilo linguistico dei dialetti italiani, Roma-Bari, Laterza, 2a edizione, 2013 (capp. 1-2, 3- limitatamente ai §§3.1 e 3.

e cap. 4, limitatamente ai §§4.1, 4.5 e 4.7). Come preparazione al seminario i/le partecipanti che abbiano tempo e voglia potranno iniziare a leggere, entro inizio semestre: A. Varvaro, Lexical and semantic variation, in M. Maiden e M. Parry, curr., The Dialects of Italy, Londra, Routledge 1997, pp. 214-221; e C. Marcato, Lessico dialettale: etimologia e storia culturale, in M. Cortelazzo et al., curr., I dialetti italiani. Storia struttura uso, Torino, UTET 2002, pp. 97-103).

Ulteriore bibliografia sui singoli temi di esercitazione sarà indicata nella seduta introduttiva e inclusa in una Guida ai lavori di seminario.

Event «Züri brännt»: die 1980er-Jugendunruhen aus kommunikationsgeschichtlicher Perspektive
360-544a / Seminar / 3,876

Description:

Business event contents:

Ende Mai 1980 versammelten sich mehrere hundert Jugendliche vor dem Zürcher Opernhaus, um gegen die Kulturpolitik der Stadt Zürich zu protestieren. Der Protest mündete in gewaltsame Zusammenstösse zwischen Polizei und Demonstrierenden und ging als Opernhauskrawalle in die Geschichte ein. Es folgten weitere Proteste und Auseinandersetzungen, wobei sich Aktivist:innen einer Vielzahl unterschiedlicher Medien bedienten, um ihre Forderungen und Positionen zu artikulieren: Demonstrationen, Graffitis, Comics, Videokunst, Flugblätter etc.. Zu den bekannteren Quellen aus dieser Zeit zählen der Film Züri brännt (1981) und die Ausgabe der TV-Sendung CH-Magazin vom 15. Juli 1980, in der zwei Aktivist:innen als Herr und Frau Müller auftraten und wider Erwarten ein repressiveres Vorgehen forderten, was zur Eskalation führte.

Im Seminar nähern wir uns diesem sehr diversen Quellenmaterial aus kommunikationsgeschichtlicher (vgl. dazu Scharloth 2011; Linke 2014; Schröter & Linke 2019) Perspektive und gehen dabei auf kommunikat Praktiken der Proteste und ihre spezifischen Medien (z.B. Körper, Graffiti, Cartoons, Video, Flugblätter) ein. In einem ersten Block setzen wir uns aus theoretischer Perspektive mit Praxistheorie, Protestkommunikation und Multimodalität auseinander. Im zweiten Teil des Seminars steht die Erschliessung von Quellenmaterial des Sozialarchivs im Vordergrund. Die vorläufigen Ergebnisse unserer Untersuchungen sollen in Form einer interaktiven Stadtkarte der Öffentlichkeit zugänglich gemacht werden.

Event Inorganic Chemistry I: Main Group Chemistry - Exploring Elemental Diversity
CHE201.1 / Lecture with Practical Exercises / 194

Description:

Business event contents:

This lecture familiarises you with the fundamental aspects of inorganic chemistry, with a focus on the main group elements.

It deals specifically with:

- Origin of the elements
- Molecular symmetry and group theory
- MO theory of complex molecules
- Chemistry of the main group elements: Hydrogen, s-block elements, p-block elements, cluster chemistry.

The aim is to apply the basic principles learnt in the first year of study, to delve deeper into the chemistry of the elements and to understand their structure and reactivity, and to predict chemical reactivities and properties based on trends in the periodic table.

Notes:

Exercises take place in 3 groups approx. every second week during the lecture period (exact dates will be provided at the beginning of the semester).

Active participation in the exercises is expected!

Description:

Business event contents:

This lecture gives insight into the molecular and cellular bases of neurotransmission and signal transduction in the CNS, including sensory neurons (retina, olfactory epithelium), beyond the basic concepts covered in the "Grundstudium" (BIO143). The main topics include the structure and function of ion channels and receptors, the biochemical basis of synaptic neurotransmission, the functional properties of neurons and glial cells, and the principles of intra- and extracellular signal transduction.

Event Metabolism and Nutrition
BME317 / Lecture with Practical Exercises / 2,414

Description:

Business event contents:

After an introduction into the concepts of metabolism and nutrition, the subsequent topics will be energy metabolism, role of macronutrients in energy homeostasis, the metabolic challenges of pregnancy and lactation, of growth, physical exercise and of ageing, and specific nutrient requirements of the brain. Further, the control of energy metabolism by the brain (homeostatic and hedonic systems) and the periphery will be discussed. Finally, dysmetabolic situations and their influence on the cardiovascular system and in cancer cachexia will be discussed. The course format will be based on 1-h lectures (based on the Textbook: Nutrition and Metabolism edited by Susan A. Lanham-New, Ian A. Macdonald, Helen M. Roche) and 1-h journal clubs presented by students on the corresponding topic using recent literature.

Event Einführung in die synchrone Sprachwissenschaft
360-212a / Sprachkurs / 878

Description:

Business event contents:

In diesem Seminar werden wir uns mit den grundlegenden Konzepten, Begriffen und Fragestellungen der synchronen Sprachwissenschaft beschäftigen. Im Rahmen der linguistischen Teilbereiche wie Semantik, Phonetik, Phonologie, Morphologie, Syntax und Pragmatik wird der Fokus auf die wichtigsten Gemeinsamkeiten der festlandskandinavischen Sprachen (Dänisch, Schwedisch, Norwegisch) sowie auf ihre Unterschiede gelegt. Dabei werden auch die besonderen Merkmale der nordgermanischen Sprachen behandelt, die sie von den übrigen germanischen Sprachen absetzen.

In die oben erwähnten Themen arbeiten wir uns anhand von Einführungstexten und Übungen ein. Darüber hinaus werden wir uns mit den Eigenschaften und Gepflogenheiten des wissenschaftlichen Schreibens in der Linguistik vertraut machen.

Event Fachdidaktik Deutsch II (Weber)

090De2 / Seminar / 1,095

Description:

Business event contents:

Im zweiten Semester des Fachdidaktik-Kurses rücken die verschiedenen Lernbereiche des Deutschunterrichts stärker in den Fokus: Schreiben, Sprechen, Lesen, Zuhören und Reflektieren. Die entsprechenden Problemfelder und Fragestellungen werden wie im ersten Teil des Kurses ausgehend von der Unterrichtspraxis diskutiert und vor dem Hintergrund der fachdidaktischen Forschung betrachtet. Von besonderem Interesse sind Themen wie Leistungsbeurteilung, erweiterte Unterrichtsformen und -methoden, Textproduktion und -rezeption sowie die Arbeit mit neuen Medien. Eine intensive Auseinandersetzung mit Konzepten aus der Wissenschaft dient der Reflexion über die eigene Rolle als Lehrperson und ermöglicht die Erweiterung des persönlichen Handlungsrepertoires.

Event Fachdidaktik Deutsch III: Leistungsbeurteilung
090De3 / Seminar / 1,096

Description:

Business event contents:

Am Gymnasium werden Leistungen beobachtet und beurteilt. Seit ChatGPT auch auf den Computern der Lernenden zu finden ist, stellt sich zunehmend dringender die Frage, auf welche Weise sinnvoll diagnostiziert und bewertet werden kann.

Dieser Fragestellung wird im Kurs nachgegangen. Wie sehen produktive Schreibaufträge aus? Wie sollen die Texte der Schülerinnen und Schüler korrigiert werden? Welche Bedeutung erhält die Mündlichkeit für die Leistungsbeurteilung? In diesem Rahmen werden Entwürfe für eigene Unterrichtsprojekte entwickelt, in denen Überlegungen zur Beurteilung von Leistungen eine zentrale Bedeutung einnehmen.

Notes:

Der Kurs verlangt von den Studierenden die Bereitschaft, Unterrichtseinheiten zu entwickeln und zu reflektieren. Entsprechend werden ein beendetes Fachstudium und erste Lehrerfahrungen empfohlen.

Event Politische Informationen und Digitale Plattformen
254I511a / Course / 3,721

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Vorlesung konzentriert sich auf die Frage, wie digitale Plattformen (z.B. X, TikTok, Instagram) die politische Kommunikation in digitalen Gesellschaften verändert haben. Fragen, die behandelt werden, sind: Welche mediale Umwelt wird durch die Funktionalitäten digitaler Plattformen geschaffen? Wie lassen sich plattformgetriebene Kommunikationsmechanismen beschreiben? Wie präsentieren Medienakteure (z.B. Journalisten oder Influencer) politische Informationen auf Plattformen? Wie nutzen politische Akteure (z.B. Politiker, Parteien, NGOs) digitale Plattformen, um mit Stakeholdern zu kommunizieren? Wie rezipieren und produzieren Nutzer politische Informationen auf digitalen Plattformen? Was bedeutet ein verändertes Kommunikationsumfeld für die Verbreitung von (Falsch-)Informationen, das Vertrauen in Nachrichten und die Bürgerbeteiligung? Welche Machtdynamiken bestehen zwischen Plattformen und Politik, und wie kann ein nachhaltiges, politisches Kommunikationsumfeld für digitale Demokratien aussehen?

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Emotionspsychologie befasst sich mit einem zentralen psychischen Phänomen, das sich durch die Komponenten Erleben, kognitive Einschätzung, physiologische Erregung sowie Ausdrucksbewegungen beschreiben lässt und das Implikationen für Motivation, Kognition und Verhalten hat. Event Geschlechtercodierungen in der Literatur aus der Schweiz
360-113a / Colloquium / 3,661

Description:

Business event contents:

Wie wird Gender in der Literatur markiert, erzählt und gelesen? Das Seminar widmet sich der Lektüre von verschiedenen Formen von Geschlechtercodierungen, etwa auf der narratologischen Ebene, der Figurenzeichnung oder in den Themen und Motiven. Dabei soll auch besprochen werden, ob überhaupt und wie sich die Literatur aus der Schweiz zu welchen Zeiten und in welchem Kontext besonders mit Gender beschäftigt. Dazu wird die Literatur auf ihr Verhältnis zu politischen Aspekten (z.B. spätes Frauenstimmrecht 1971 und die Diskussion um ein drittes Geschlecht) befragt. Diskutiert werden neben theoretischen Grundlagentexten Primärtexte u.a. von Johanna Spyri, Jeremias Gotthelf, Lina Bögli, Robert Walser, Meret Oppenheim, Annemarie Schwarzenbach, Verena Stefan, Adelheid Duvanel, Erika Burkart, Kim de L'Horizon oder X Schneeberger.

Event Forschungskolloquium Lehrstuhl Schneider
360I557a / Colloquium / 1,210

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Forschungskolloquium stellen die Teilnehmerinnen und Teilnehmer ihre Projekte von Abschlussarbeiten vor (Masterarbeiten, Dissertationsprojekte), in allen möglichen Stadien ihrer Erarbeitung – von der Themenfindung, ersten Entwurfsskizze über Konzept, Disposition bis zu fertigen Kapiteln, und erhalten so Unterstützung. Auch bei der Suche nach möglichen Themen unterstützen sich die Teilnehmenden gegenseitig. Flankierend zu den jeweiligen Vorstellungs- und Diskussionsbeiträgen lesen die Teilnehmenden Primärtexte (Textbeispiele) und Theorie-, sowie Sekundärtexte. So ergibt sich ein anregendes Spektrum aktueller Literaturwissenschaft, von dem alle profitieren. Auch wer noch kein Abschlussprojekt hat, ist willkommen und kann ECTS-Punkte erwerben. Das Semesterprogramm wird in der ersten Sitzung nach den Wünschen der Teilnehmenden festgelegt.

Event Kunst- und Kulturrecht

90GL9-1 / Course / 2,057

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Modul untersucht Themen, die das gesellschaftliche Zusammenspiel von Kunst, Wirtschaft, Staat und Recht betreffen. Was ist "Kunst"? Wie unterscheidet sich der Kunstbegriff des Kunstsystems von jenem des Rechts? Wie steht es mit der Autonomie der Kunst, wenn Kunstwerke gehandelt werden? Ist "Kunst" dasselbe wie "Kultur"? Diese Fragen bilden den Fluchtpunkt rechtssoziologischer Reflexion, stehen aber gleichzeitig im Zentrum der aktuellen Diskussion über die Bedingungen, unter denen autonom kreatives Schaffen in einer global vernetzten Welt möglich ist.

Die praktische Relevanz dieser Fragen zeigt sich bei Beschränkungen der Kunstfreiheit durch staatliche Interventionen ebenso wie bei Massnahmen der staatlichen oder privaten Kunstförderung, die Autoren in besonderer Weise ihrer künstlerischen Freiheit berauben können. Sie zeigt sich ferner im Bereich des Urheberrechts, das KünstlerInnen zwar eine Möglichkeit zur Selbstfinanzierung bietet, sich aber gleichzeitig auch hemmend auf die Entstehung neuer Kunst auswirken kann (z.B. bei Collagen oder Remix-Kunst). Negative Auswirkungen des internationalen Handels mit Werken bildender Kunst machen häufig Schlagzeilen. Tatsache ist, dass jährlich viele Kunstwerke illegal grenzüberschreitend gehandelt werden.

Für das Recht stellt sich die schwierige Frage, nach welchen Grundsätzen solche Missstände verhindert werden können, ohne den legalen Kunsthandel unnötig einzuschränken.

Event Legal Theory - Law between Neuroscience, Psychology and Behavioral Economics
90GL14-1 / Course / 2,124

Description:

Business event contents:

The module offers an outline of key issues of a theoretical reflection of law and justice. It will discuss some historical examples of the evolving theoretical reflection of law and its ethical foundations. In addition, central analytical and normative problems will be considered concerning the structure and content of law and its relation to ethical thought. A special focus of attention will be contemporary cognitive science and its impact on the understanding and conceptualisation of law, including the structure and origin of moral cognition and the problem of free will. The course will offer a critical assessment of these approaches that form one of the most important issues in the contemporary reflection about law. Serious thought on these matters, it will be argued, leads to central problems of our human self- understanding that are of foundational importance for our concept of law. The theoretical reflection and its results will be exemplified by concrete cases including target killings, torture and other issues of civil, criminal, public law and the adjudication of human rights.

Event Nature, Money, Empire: Japanese Moral Philosophy at the Turn of the 19th Century
290I613a / Seminar / 2,569

Description:

Business event contents:

We will discuss sources from late 18th and early 19th century Japan that exemplify a turn away from traditional Confucianist and Buddhist moral philosophy and argue in favor of the exploration and economical exploitation of nature, the virtue of trade and the monetized economy, and for an expansionist policy. While not the mainstream at their time of writing, these texts prepared the ground for Japan's rapid modernization in the second half of the 19th century as well as for its imperialist course. Some also exhibit a connection between Shinto beliefs and the ruthless exploitation of nature that has been part and parcel of Japan's modern trajectory.

Notes:

This is a research seminar, centered around discussions of source texts and research literature. Regular presence in person is expected.

Event European Criminal Law

90IL3-1 / Course / 989

Description:

Business event contents:

The course offers a systematic introduction to the field of European Criminal Law combining European Union Law and Council of Europe Law. The course will cover substantive criminal law (e.g. money laundering, terrorism) as well as criminal procedure (most importantly mutual legal assistance and law enforcement institutions). In the first part, particular attention will be paid to the structures and constitutional foundations of European Criminal Law and its fundamental rights framework. The powers and limits of law- and policy-makers in the European realm will be subjected to critical analysis. The second part of this course continues with an overview of the main substantial and procedural issues in the field of European criminal law before turning to more in-depth explorations of selected up-to-date topics. Among others, innovations in the EU will be studied (EPPO, mutual recognition, e-evidence) and discussed in terms of their compatibility with human rights, traditional tenets of criminal procedure and basic concepts of justice. Finally, the delicate position and options of Non- EU-countries will be addressed.

Event Angewandte Medien- und Publikumsforschung
254-050a / Course / 180

Description:

Business event contents:

Seit Jahrzehnten schafft die als Branchenlösung organisierte Publikumsforschung Transparenz über die Nutzung von Medienangeboten und damit die Voraussetzung für den Wettbewerb um und den Handel mit medialer Aufmerksamkeit. Im Zuge der Digitalisierung sieht sich diese Forschung mit drei zentralen Herausforderungen konfrontiert: der Fragmentierung von Angebot und Nutzung, der Entkoppelung von Medieninhalten und Werbung sowie der Konvergenz der Nutzung über Mediengattungen und Plattformen hinweg. Die Vorlesung beschreibt diese Herausforderungen und ihre Implikationen, um anschliessend aktuelle Lösungsansätze der Reichweitenforschung in der Schweiz und in anderen Medienmärkten zu diskutieren und zu bewerten.

Event PhD Course: Market Design HS24

DOEC1156 / Course / 2,693

Description:

Business event contents:

Market Design is an elective PhD course and is also open to motivated Master&ap students.

We will discuss topics in market design, matching, and boundedly-rational mechanism design. The course will give you a sense of this rich area, but it will not be a complete survey. We will focus on some background papers and selected parts of the current research frontier. My aim is to make the class research oriented: we will talk in class about research ideas. In particular, I intend to go through papers in a selective fashion trying to understand what is in a paper, where it comes from, and where it might lead. While there will be lecture elements, we will also spend time jointly looking at questions.

Event Macroeconomics for Research Students Part I (Ph.D.) (L)
DOEC0380 / Course / 2,265

Description:

Business event contents:

This course is an introduction to macroeconomic theory at the PhD level. We develop tools that are commonly used in macroeconomics but also other areas of economics, notably recursive methods and discrete and continuous time dynamic optimization. We apply these tools to some of the most important topics of macroeconomics, including general equilibrium with complete and incomplete markets, consumption-savings problems, investment, dynamic contracts, fiscal policy, economic growth and climate macroeconomics.

Event Fundamentos de la Narratología (grupo 1)

427-001a / Seminar / 1,492

Description:

Business event contents:

¿Qué es un texto literario? ¿Cómo funciona y cuáles son las diferencias con otro tipo de textualidades? ¿Cómo se desarrolla el proceso de lectura y de producción de sentido? Estas son algunas interrogantes con las que abriremos este curso sobre análisis literario, cuyo primer curso (Semestre de otoño) estará dedicado al análisis narratológico. Tras un primer acercamiento general a la literatura, nos adentraremos en el campo de la narratología. Partiremos también de algunas preguntas clave: ¿De qué hablamos cuando hablamos de narración o de narrativa? ¿Qué es un autor, un lector, un texto, su circulación o su recepción? ¿Cuáles serían sus características, sus recursos y sus elementos? Y sobre todo, ¿Cómo y a través de qué herramientas podemos analizar el discurso narrativo? En clases leeremos y discutiremos una serie de textos teóricos sobre literatura y narratología, ejercitando su análisis en presentaciones orales y analizaremos textos cortos y dos novelas.

Course Materials:

Textos primarios:

Getrudis Gómez de Avellaneda, Sab

Lina Meruane, Sangre en el ojo

Textos secundarios:

Mieke Bal, Teoría de la narrativa

Monika Fludernik, An Introduction to Narratology Maite Alvarado, Paratexto

Maria Isabel Filinich, La escritura y la voz en la narración literaria Umberto Eco, Lector in fabula

Nota: para ejemplificar el uso de cada una de las herramientas de análisis narrativo, en cada clase estudiaremos un microcuento latinoamericano, que, junto con el resto de los textos, será puesto a disposición de los estudiantes durante el curso.

Event The Economy of Risk in Insurance (L)
22MO0033 / Course / 3,497

Description:

Business event contents:

In this course, we develop the main theoretical concepts and modelling techniques of QRM. The goal for the students is to acquire practical tools to solve real life problems. We discuss risk management in the context of finance and insurance, but RM applies also to other sectors of the industry. Main concepts include loss distributions, risk measures, dependence between risks and concentration of (extreme) risks, techniques derived from probabilistic modelling and statistical analysis, copula and extreme value theory. We also discuss corporate finance concepts like economic valuation of liabilities, capital, capital allocation and structure of capital. The course is recommended to students who are interested in:

- Actuarial and financial mathematics - financial risk management
- underwriting and market risk - corporate finance Through examples and case studies from the practice, we explain how sophisticated mathematical methods can be integrated in the efficient management of an insurance portfolio of risk. At the end of the course, students should be able to understand how a modern financial institution manages her risks.

Notes:

Most of the course will be lectures in front of students, but we will provide some exercises to deepen the understanding and discuss case studies coming from practice. Extensive slides will be distributed to the students. The exam will be a multiple choice questionnaire online.

Course Materials: You will receive a bibliography and a course schedule the first day of the course

Event Counterparty Credit Risk Management (L)
22MO0034 / Course / 601

Description:

Business event contents:

One of the challenges that the financial industry is facing after the crisis is to reach consensus on how to correctly assess counterparty credit risk. In particular, the two following practices emerged as consequence of the 2008 breakdown: (a) the splitting of the LIBOR curve in multiple curves (so to account for the different levels of credit risk embedded) and (b) the explicit inclusion of credit risk in the price of the trades. Additionally, (c) the new Basel III legislation brought much tighter rules on capital, defining RWA as the key parameter to assess the feasibility of any business strategy. Here below, more details on a)-c):

a) Multi-curves pricing: the market participants realized after the financial crisis that the banks contributing to LIBOR can also default.

This fact brings a plethora of basis spreads which need to be considered when pricing financial instruments, e.g. a forward rate agreement (FRA) which is fully collateralized (i.e. risk free) cannot be priced as an uncollateralized one. In addition, banks charge differently tenors on the yield curve (e.g. 3m vs 6m) taking into account the higher probability of default over the longer period of re-payment. Given that every market participant has a main funding currency, cross currency swaps are required to fund transactions in other currencies. The credit risk present in this process is reflected in a further cross currency basis that is included in pricing the trades.

b) CVA / DVA: financial institutions should charge for the counterparty risk they are taking entering trades with defaultable counterparties. The so called Credit Value Adjustment (CVA) is this additional component of the product's price. When CVA is taken into account even linear instruments, for instance vanilla swaps, acquire option-like characteristics. In bilateral agreements the counterparty risk is charged by both counterparties to ensure symmetry in the price-payoff [Bilateral CVA, i.e. CVA and Default Value Adjustment (DVA)].

c) Basel III: the new regulation which focus on the counterparty risk space (through the introduction of a capital charge for CVA) needs to be examined in focus by financial institutions to ensure optimal capital allocation/management, where a risk-return analysis will be actively part of the daily work and exposure.

These aspects will be discussed in a multi-asset class framework, working on real trading examples and complex portfolios. Best practices on modelling Counterparty Credit Risk, pricing under CVA and capital management will be added to the module to stimulate students who want to follow a Risk Management/Trading Career in Investment Banking.

Event Schreiben mit KI
504I062a / Exercise Group / 3,185

Description:

Business event contents:

Was heisst Schreiben mit KI (Künstlicher Intelligenz)? Welche Möglichkeiten der Nutzung erscheinen aus einer literaturwissenschaftlichen Perspektive sinnvoll - oder abwegig? Wo ist Kritik gefordert - und wo Optimismus angebracht? Die Lehrveranstaltung ist als Übung konzipiert. Das heißt, wir werden zwar auch im klassischen Sinne Texte - Forschungsliteratur ebenso wie literarische und experimentelle Texte - lesen und erörtern. Wir werden aber auch entsprechende KI-Tools nutzen, um unsere Fragestellungen an und mit ihnen zu erproben und zu evaluieren.

Event Antike Medienwelt
600I003a / Colloquium / 201

Description:

Business event contents:

Läuft man heute als Besucher durch die relativ gut erhaltenen Überreste einer antiken Stadt wie Ostia, Pompeii oder Ephesos, kann man die gelungene Stadtanlage, die grossartige Architektur einzelner Bauwerke und Denkmäler bewundern. Damit erfasst man freilich nur einen geringen Teil der antiken Lebenswelt im öffentlichen Raum, der ursprünglich voll war von Bildern, Statuen und Texten. Solche Medien, die primär als Kommunikationsmedien verstanden werden, sollen in ihrer Materialität und kommunikativen Funktion erfasst und analysiert werden.

Event Römische Münz- und Geldgeschichte (Kolloquium Münzkabinett Winterthur)
600I004a / Colloquium / 3,140

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Münz- und Geldgeschichte des Römischen Reichs umfasst mehrere Jahrhunderte, von bescheidenen Anfängen mit genormten Kupferbarren bis hin zu einem komplexen System unterschiedlicher Nominale und Metalle. Das Kolloquium behandelt die Entwicklung dieses Mediums sowohl in seiner wirtschaftlichen als auch in seiner sozialen Rolle. Dadurch bietet es eine Einführung in die antike Münz- und Geldgeschichte für Historiker*innen und Archäolog*innen.

Die Lehrformen verbinden theoretische und systematische Ansätze mit der praktischen Arbeit am Quellenmaterial, wofür Sitzungen im Münzkabinett Winterthur, das die beste derartige Sammlung in der Schweiz besitzt, vorgesehen sind. Ein besonderes Gewicht erhalten methodische Ansätze, die durch die normdatenbasierte Digitalisierung von Münzen und den damit verbundenen Verknüpfungen grosser interaktiver Forschungsdatenbanken möglich sind.

Ein wesentlicher Teil der Arbeit im Kolloquium findet daher mit diesen Instrumenten der Forschung in der digitalen Zukunft statt.

Event Geschichte des Kapitalismus. Neue Ansätze
600I013a / Colloquium / 1,449

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Geschichte des Kapitalismus ist seit den 2010er Jahren zurück auf der öffentlichen und akademischen Bühne. Der lange Zeit negativ konnotierte Begriff des Kapitalismus wurde im Kontext der Finanz- und Wirtschaftskrise (2007-8), die von einigen als erste Krise des globalen Kapitalismus beschrieben wird, wiederentdeckt. Kann diese aufkommende Geschichte des Kapitalismus dazu beitragen, die Wirtschaftsgeschichte zu erneuern - ein Forschungsfeld, das von den Historikern und Historikerinnen in den letzten Jahrzehnten vernachlässigt wurde, und das innerhalb der Wirtschaftswissenschaften nur noch eine marginale Rolle spielt? Und ermöglicht uns die Geschichte des Kapitalismus, jenseits akademischer Moden, etwas über die Geschichte unserer heutigen Gesellschaften zu erfahren?

In diesem Kolloquium suchen wir Antworten auf solche Fragen, indem wir aktuelle Forschungsliteratur zum Thema mit klassischen Ansätzen vergleichen.

600I504a / Colloquium / 712

Description:

Business event contents:

Es wird oft und gerne auf den Erfolg des Wirtschaftsstandorts Schweiz verwiesen. Tatsächlich war die Schweiz eines der wohlhabendsten Länder des 20. Jahrhunderts (und ist es auch heute noch). Wie lässt sich dieser wirtschaftliche Erfolg erklären?

Ziel der Veranstaltung ist es, uns einen Überblick über die sozial- und wirtschaftsgeschichtliche Forschung zum Raum Schweiz und seinen Bewohnern seit dem Ende des 19. Jahrhunderts zu verschaffen. Wir werden uns mit Akteuren und (institutionellen) Rahmenbedingungen, Entwicklungspfaden, Vor- und Nachteilen des Wachstums sowie vielen weiteren Themen und methodischen Aspekten beschäftigen.

Event Global Strategic Management (L+E)
22MO0063 / Lecture with Practical Exercises / 1,483

Description:

Business event contents:

Global Strategic Management addresses the challenges confronting managers and firms competing internationally. The course focuses on multinational enterprises ("MNEs"), which own or control significant resources and operations in several, often disparate countries, cultures, and markets. An MNE's performance depends on internal and external income streams denominated in multiple currencies. MNEs have operations situated in localities with different and often face conflicting public policy priorities, product preferences, and standards of ethical conduct. The context creates strategic challenges that are distinctly different from operating in a single country. The overall theme of the course is understanding the MNE: how it is structured, how it competes, and how we explain persistent differences in performance between the MNC and its various rivals. The overall aim of the course is to understand how strategy carried out by the MNE in an international context is different from firm strategy in a purely domestic setting. The course will consist of lectures and case studies with mandatory exercises.

Notes:

Attendance in all meetings is strongly encouraged.
Students who have attended all guest speaker lectures will receive extra 5 points (out of 100) in the final exam, provided that they pass the final exam.

Course Materials: Please see the syllabus on the Chair's website.

Event Russia, the US, and the Middle East: From the Cold War to the Present
612I501a / Colloquium / 3,128

Description:

Business event contents:

The colloquium explores the changes and continuities in Russian and US policies in the Middle East from the late 1970s to the present. The analysis starts with the Jimmy Carter - late Leonid Brezhnev years at a time of major changes in the Middle East that also re-defined the balance of power between superpowers in the region. The discussion thus begins with Egypt's shift from the USSR to the United States under Anwar Sadat, the Iranian Islamic Revolution, and the peace agreement between Egypt and Israel. It then moves to discussing the tumultuous 1980s decade marked by the Soviet-Afghan War, the Iran-Iraq War, and the rise of Islamism in the Muslim world. Throughout this period, the broader Middle East remained an arena East-West confrontation around issues such as the war in Afghanistan, the Lebanese Civil War, and, more broadly, the Arab-Israeli conflict. The US-USSR competition in the Middle-East underwent afterward a tremendous reconfiguration as the Soviet Union collapsed and the United States launched into the Gulf War in 1990. With Russia largely withdrawing from the region, the Middle East remained dominated by the United States in the 1990s. This situation continued as Washington launched into the Afghan War in 2001 and the Iraq War in 2003. The re-emergence of Russia as a major actor in the Middle East only came in the 2010s around issues such as the Iranian Nuclear Deal and the Syrian Civil War. The United States by contrast partly retreated from the region after the failed Iraq War. This retreat weakened the traditional Saudi-US alliance, allowing Russia to also build ties with Riyadh. The latter situation came most clearly on display since the start of the war in Ukraine.

Event Fabeln des Pañcatantra
330-013a / Exercise Group / 1,086

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Pañcatantra ist das bekannteste indische Fabelbuch der klassischen Zeit. Seine amüsanten Geschichten von königlichen Löwen, Schakalen und Krähen sollen - so die Einleitung - "einfältigen" Prinzen politische Führungskunst und Menschenkenntnis auf unterhaltsame Weise nahebringen. Unsere Lektüre ausgewählter Fabeln dient dazu, Routine im Übersetzen von Sanskrit-Texten und in der Benutzung der wichtigsten Hilfsmittel zu gewinnen. Wir lesen den Text in Hertels kritischer Edition des Tantrāhyāyika, der ältesten (bekanntesten) Fassung des Pañcatantra.

Event Diskursanalyse und wissenschaftliches Wissen nach dem Zeitalter der Objektivität
226-512a / Seminar / 727

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Modul beschäftigt sich mit der Frage, wie Theorien und Methoden den Blick auf den Untersuchungsgegenstand mitbestimmen. Während die Kultur- und Geisteswissenschaften seit der Mitte des 19. Jahrhunderts mit unterschiedlichen methodischen Zugängen versucht haben, den „Wahrheitsanspruch“ der naturwissenschaftlichen Forschung zu erreichen, hat sich im 20. Jahrhundert die Überzeugung durchgesetzt, dass weder natur- noch geistes- oder kulturwissenschaftliche Forschung absolut objektiv oder „richtig“ sein kann. Forschungsergebnisse können immer nur vorläufig und unter bestimmten Bedingungen zutreffend sein. Sind sie damit aber beliebig? Vor diesem Hintergrund beschäftigt sich das Modul mit unterschiedlichen Positionen, die der Frage nachgehen, wie wissenschaftliches Wissen auch nach dem Zeitalter der Objektivität generiert werden kann.

Course Materials: Programm, Lektüretexte und Informationen zum LNW sind ab Mitte August auf OLAT zu finden.

Event Bestimmungsübung Klassische Archäologie
682-013a / Exercise Group / 406

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Archäologische Sammlung der Universität Zürich und das Landesmuseum Zürich besitzen einen umfangreichen und vielfältigen Bestand an originalen Antiken aus griechischer und römischer Zeit. Im Rahmen der Veranstaltung werden ausgewählte Objekte beider Sammlungen, im Hinblick auf ihr Material, den Erhaltungszustand, die Gattungsbestimmung, die Entstehungszeit, die stilistische Einordnung genauer untersucht. Im Fokus stehen dabei insbesondere Metallobjekte der Römerzeit aus der Schweiz und darüber hinaus. Durch sorgfältige Beobachtung und Beschreibung sowie die Suche nach Vergleichsstücken werden Vorarbeiten für eine wissenschaftliche Einordnung und Bewertung dieser Objekte geleistet.

Notes:

Die Veranstaltung wird teilweise im Landesmuseum stattfinden.

Event Wer interpretiert Bilder wie? Theorien und Methoden im Spiegel ihrer bildanalytischen Anwendung
640I049a / Exercise Group / 5,067

Description:

Business event contents:

Nach der langen Aufteilung kunstgeschichtlicher Zugänge in form- und ikonographieorientierte Ansätze hat sich ein ungleich weiteres methodisches Feld eröffnet, das immer wieder neue Paradigmen wie Marxismus, Gender Studies, jüngst auch z.B. Postcolonial Studies, Animal Studies und Ecocriticism einschliesst. Zudem möchten bestimmte Forschende überkommene blinde Flecken prinzipiell durch neue Blickweisen überwinden oder strikt durch historische Rahmenbedingungen wie das System der Rhetorik hindurch ein Kunstwerk verstehen. Auch wenn Grundansätze der jeweiligen, meist disziplinübergreifenden, Forschungsfelder bekannt sind, stellt sich im Detail noch die Frage, wie solche Erkenntnisinteressen konkret in die Analyse bzw. Interpretation von Einzelwerken überführt werden: Worauf wird jeweils geachtet, wie werden konkrete Beobachtungen am Bild mit Theorie verknüpft? In einem close reading repräsentativer Bildinterpretationen wollen wir das (z.T. implizite) methodische Vorgehen der Autor:innen rekonstruieren und diskutieren. Dabei werden kunsthistorische Texte von den 1980er Jahren bis in die jüngste Zeit analysiert, die sich allesamt mit vormodernen Kunstwerken (vor 1800) beschäftigen, was impliziert, dass diese nicht im Bewusstsein der heutigen Fragen entstanden sein können.

Notes:

Verlangt werden ein Referat, meist in Form einer Texteingführung, und eine schriftliche Ausarbeitung oder eine die Seminardiskussion synthetisierende Zusammenfassung der jeweiligen Interpretationsansätze.

Course Materials: Als erste Orientierung für das Spektrum methodisch-theoretischer Ausrichtungen kann auf Hans Belting u.a. (Hg.), Kunstgeschichte. Eine Einführung, 7. überarb. Auflage 2008, zurückgegriffen werden.

Event Saudi Arabia and Iran: The Regional Rivalry between Realist and Constructivist Approaches
615I505a / Seminar / 4,787

Description:

Business event contents:

The regional rivalry between Saudi Arabia and Iran has been described as the New Cold War of the Middle East - one that has shaped the regional order in the Arabian Peninsula, the Middle East, and beyond. While some scholars in international relations describe the competition in sectarian tropes, others explain it in geopolitical and political economy terms. Understanding the complexity of this issue need not be a choice between equally valid perspectives. Drawing on International Relations theories, this seminar will examine the political systems and religious ideologies of the two countries and their implications for foreign policies and regional relations. It will integrate recent developments in the MENA region, including ongoing conflicts, diplomatic shifts, and emerging alliances that continue to influence the Saudi- Iranian rivalry and present concrete cases (e.g. Bahrain, Iraq, Lebanon, Syria, Yemen) to highlight the two countries' foreign policy approaches and how and why they may change. Students will gain solid understanding of the dynamic nature of the geopolitical landscape in the Middle East and its broader implications for international relations.

Event Digital Democracy: How Digitalization Shapes Democracy in the 21st Century
6151515a / Seminar / 4,796

Description:

Business event contents:

This seminar introduces students to research on the impact of digitalization on politics and will focus in particular on three research areas: changes in individual political behavior and means of political participation as a consequence of digitalization, the impact of these changes on political processes, and the implications this has for policy. The seminar will cover conceptual readings on these topics but also new methodological approaches that enable this kind of research and critically discuss their strengths and limitations.

Notes:

Students are expected to prepare an (empirical) research design together with a proof-of-concept implementation as the final assignment for the seminar. The topic can be freely chosen but has to fall within the substantive areas (broadly conceived) covered in the seminar.

Course Materials:

The seminar is reading-based, i.e., 3-4 papers will be assigned to be read per session. Students are required to prepare three response papers throughout the term that analyze the readings of a given week in more detail. A full list of papers will be provided in the detailed course syllabus.

Event Interessengruppen und soziale Bewegungen
6151520a / Seminar / 4,800

Description:

Business event contents:

Die zentrale Funktion von Interessengruppen und sozialen Bewegungen ist die Organisation, Artikulation und Durchsetzung politischer Interessen und Wertvorstellungen. Die Forschung beschäftigt sich mit den Fragen, wie und unter welchen Bedingungen kollektive Aktion möglich ist, welche Strategien (direktes Lobbying und/oder Öffentlichkeitsarbeit) die kollektiven Akteure verwenden, welche Effekte auf die Politik erzielt werden und wie Gruppenorganisation, Strategien und Wirkungen durch Kontextbedingungen beeinflusst werden. Wir beleuchten diese Fragen mit einem besonderen Fokus auf die Schweiz und diskutieren dabei auch welchen Veränderungen das Schweizer Interessengruppensystem in jüngerer Zeit unterworfen ist. Neben klassischen Werken behandeln wir vor allem theoretisch informierte empirische und oft vergleichende Studien zu Interessengruppen und sozialen Bewegungen.

Notes:

Das Seminar wird teilweise im Blended-Learning Modus durchgeführt, d.h. Präsenzunterricht wechselt sich mit Onlinesequenzen (asynchrone Inputs und Arbeitsaufträge) ab. Online-Termine am 30.09., 21.10., 04.11., 18.11.24.

Event The Swiss Parliament in Comparison
6151523a / Seminar / 4,806

Description:

Business event contents:

This course delves into the core duties of members of parliament (MPs) in Switzerland, focusing on representation, legislation, and oversight.

Through a comparative lens, we analyze how these core duties are fulfilled in the Swiss context and explore variations in parliamentary practices worldwide.

Course Objectives:

Understanding Parliamentary Representation:

- Investigate how Swiss MPs represent their constituencies, examining issue- and ideology-based approaches, lobbying, and the consequences of failed representation.
- Compare descriptive and substantive forms of representation in the Swiss parliament with those in other parliamentary/congressional systems.

Legislative Duties and Bargaining:

- Explore the legislative duties of MPs, including drafting new legislation, making amendments, and understanding party strategies in legislative bargaining.
- Analyze the impact of successful legislative bargaining on power structures within the parliament.

Oversight of the Executive:

- Examine the mechanisms MPs use to oversee the executive branch to ensure democratic principles.
- Discuss institutional instruments available to MPs for oversight and how these mechanisms vary across different parliamentary systems.

Each thematic block comprises an introductory lecture, group presentations, discussions, and hands-on empirical analyses. We will utilize new data on the Swiss parliament to study legislative drafts, their success rates, and their long-term effects.

Course Materials:

1. literature on the workings of parliaments around the world
2. R exercises for empirical analyses (data and code)
3. pop quizzes at the start of every week to (self-)assess learning progress

Event Zurich's Global Revolutionaries, 1890–1960
440I006a / Colloquium / 4,924

Description:

Business event contents:

"In Zurich, everything seemed in order, whereas the rest of the world seemed to be spinning out of control." (Charles Epping. Trust. Greenleaf Press, 2006, p. 7) Zurich, like Switzerland in general, is often portrayed in terms that evoke a sense not only of safety, but also of boredom: clean, prosperous, neutral, and so on. And yet, several revolutionary developments of the first half of the twentieth century were in fact linked to this supposedly tranquil city on the banks of the river Limmat - developments ranging across fields as varied as literature, politics, psychology, art, and physics. After briefly considering two earlier periods of radical change (specifically, the Zwinglian Reformation and the decades following the French Revolution), we will devote our attention to figures associated with major twentieth-century upheavals: Rosa Luxemburg and Vladimir Ilyich Lenin; C. G. Jung, Sigmund Freud, and Sabina Spielrein; Albert Einstein, Erwin Schrödinger and Wolfgang Pauli; the Dadaists, James Joyce, and Bertolt Brecht; and the anonymous gay activists of Der Kreis. We will study excerpts from literary texts by and about these figures, in combination with historical materials, to address questions such as: Why did these revolutionaries come to Zurich? What made their contributions so revolutionary? And what, more generally, can their work teach us about the concept of revolution and its relevance today? By the end of the course, students will not only have gained a better sense of Zurich's significance as a node within diverse networks of transnational revolution, but will also be able to reflect more broadly on the historical and philosophical relationships between different types of revolutionary transformation. Note: The course will include two site visits in Zurich (to the Cabaret Voltaire and to the James Joyce Foundation). In addition, third-party funding will be sought for two excursions: (a) to the Einsteinhaus and the Einstein Museum in Bern, and (b) to the Haus C. G. Jung in Küsnacht.

Notes:

Assessment: - oral presentation (1/3) - presentation (5-10 min, with handout) on a Zurich poem, incl. background information on the persons and/or places mentioned in the poem (max. 20 points) - learning portfolio (2/3) - ten homework tasks (max. 2 points per task; 20 points overall) - two-page handout on a historical figure who appears on a commemorative plaque in Zurich (incl. photos of the plaque and surroundings; max. 20 points)

Course Materials: The course materials will be made available on OLAT, the University of Zurich's online learning platform.

Event Imag(in)ing Japan: Land-Landscape-Land Art
642-521a / Seminar / 4,962

Description:

Business event contents:

This seminar examines the interplay between images and imaginings of space and place in Japan across different media and scopic regimes throughout history, from antiquity to the present. While engaging with the pivotal notion of landscape, considered one of the canonical genres in Japanese art, it encompasses a broader spectrum of artistic interactions with the land, diverse visual technologies, and their social functionalities. The course discussions will be organized around three focal points: 1) Mapping, ranging from ancient maps depicting Buddhist cosmology and early modern vernacular mapping to scientific cartography; 2) Landscapes including traditional genres like sansuiga (paintings of water and mountains) and shinkeizu (true-view pictures), as well as meissho (images of famous places) found in ukiyo-e woodblock prints, and extending to modern fūkeiga paintings (landscapes) and export photography, and contemporary photography and installations by Hiroshi Sugimoto; and 3) Site-specific artistic interventions with land, ranging from the land-art of Mono-ha to present-day āto purojekuto (art projects) such as Echigo-Tsumari Art Field. The course provides an opportunity to explore how diverse spatial concepts and ideologies shape visual representations of space and artistic engagements with the environment, while also considering how these images and artistic practices reciprocally influence the ways people see, perceive, and understand the world around them. Moreover, the course introduces students to theoretical frameworks in spatial art history, human geography, and postcolonial studies. It also serves as a platform for developing academic skills such as critical thinking, academic writing, and oral presentation, pertinent to students' final research projects, and relevant beyond academia.

Event Objekt/Macht: Dekolonisierung in Ostasiatischer Kunstgeschichte

642-021a / Seminar / 4,965

Description:

Business event contents:

This course explores the decolonization of museums, focusing on East Asian art in Swiss public collections. The translocation of East Asian objects to Europe during the colonial era, formation, and dispersion of collections after two World Wars, and their acquisition and display in public museums post-war raise complex issues of ownership, heritage, and cultural identity within global networks of power. These questions are relevant not only for the art world but also for the wider public as they pertain to democracy and global social justice. The discourse on cultural decolonization has entered the public domain since the last turn of the millennium, leading to calls for repatriation of objects and restructuring or renaming museums, particularly those housing ethnological collections. There remains, however, the need for a more nuanced understanding of the goals and strategies applied in this context. This course pays critical attention to diversity of factors and actors that have shaped formation and operation of East Asian art collections in Europe and current processes of their decolonization facilitating development of pertinent expertise for students specializing in different disciplines such as art history, heritage studies, East Asian Studies, cultural studies, or anthropology. It is also relevant for students from other fields, who will have a unique chance to develop an informed understanding of one of the major issues relevant for contemporary globalized world. This introductory course does not require any specific skills, but knowledge of one East Asian language is of benefit. Study visits to auction houses and museums are planned.

Notes:

Study visits to auction houses and museums are planned.

Event Unternehmenssteuerrecht II

90WM32-1 / Course / 3,640

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Vorlesung Unternehmenssteuerrecht II baut auf der Vorlesung Unternehmenssteuerrecht I des Frühjahrssemester 2023 auf. In der Vorlesung werden spezifische Geschäftsvorfälle und Transaktionen, in denen ein Personen- oder Kapitalunternehmen und ihre Beteiligten involviert sein können, behandelt. Zu den Themen gehören u.a. die Erbteilung und der Erbvorbezug eines Unternehmens, die Sanierung eines Unternehmens, die Konzern- und Akquisitionsfinanzierung, die Umstrukturierung von Unternehmen sowie der Zuzug und Wegzug eines Unternehmens. Die Methodik entspricht derjenigen der Vorlesung Unternehmenssteuerrecht I: der Vorlesungsstoff wird weitgehend anhand von Übungsfällen diskutiert und aus Sicht sämtlicher Steuerarten, mit Ausnahme der Mehrwertsteuer, besprochen.

Notes:

Es handelt sich um eine Vorlesung mit integrierten Übungen, die eine aktive Mitwirkung und entsprechende Vorbereitung der Studierenden voraussetzt.

Course Materials: Siehe dazu die Website von Prof. Dr. Madeleine Simonek. Die Unterrichtsmaterialien werden im entsprechenden OLAT-Kurs aufgeschaltet werden.

Event Die Philosophie Gottlob Freges
1601521a / Seminar / 4,022

Description:

Business event contents:

Gottlob Frege (1848-1925) wird als Gründerfigur der analytischen Philosophie gefeiert. Seine logisch-mathematischen Arbeiten waren für die Entwicklung der modernen Logik bahnbrechend und viele seiner Überlegungen zur Sprache, wie die Unterscheidung zwischen Sinn und Bedeutung oder zwischen Kraft und Inhalt, prägen die analytische Sprachphilosophie bis heute. In diesem Seminar wollen wir uns in Freges Werk vertiefen und auf verschiedene Probleme eingehen, die in der Frege- Literatur heiss diskutiert werden. Zu diesem Zweck lesen wir nicht nur seine sprachphilosophischen Aufsätze, sondern auch Auszüge aus der Begriffsschrift und den Grundlagen, die wir mit Stellen aus dem Wissenschaftlichen Nachlass und Briefwechsel vergleichen.

Event Urbane Gefühlswelten: der städtische Raum im globalen filmischen Kontext
255I001a / Seminar / 4,052

Description:

Business event contents:

Wie wird die Stadt in einem Film ästhetisch dargestellt? Inwiefern spielen bei dieser Gestaltung ausserfilmische Kontexte wie soziale oder politische Zustände und zeitgenössische Debatten eine Rolle? Und ist dabei eine Tendenz des Transnationalen und/oder National-Ideologischen mitausschlaggebend für die audio-visuelle Darstellung der Stadt? Diese und viele weitere Fragen sollen die Grundlage des Aufbauseminars bilden. Denn die Stadt - ob es sich nun um eine Studio-Stadt oder um dokumentarische Aufnahmen einer realen Stadt handelt - hat Anteil an der räumlichen Gestaltung eines Films. Die Ikonographie einer Stadt, welche sich durch verschiedenste Disziplinen (z.B. Soziologie, Kunst und Literatur) konstituiert, fliesst in die filmische Gestaltung ein und kann je nach Dekade und national-ideologischen oder transnationalen Kontexten unterschiedlich ausgeprägt sein. Hierbei spielen einerseits filmtechnologische Möglichkeiten und andererseits Genre-Tendenzen der jeweiligen Zeit eine Rolle.

All diese Aspekte sind relevant dafür, wie wir die Stadt im Film wahrnehmen und wie die Stadt als Akteurin nicht nur sich selbst filmisch reflektiert, sondern auch die darin lebenden Figuren und deren Emotionen widerspiegelt. Um die Vielfalt dieser Aspekte zu begreifen und den zentralen Fragestellungen gerecht zu werden, umfasst das methodische Vorgehen im Aufbauseminar die wöchentliche Visionierung ausgewählter Filme und das Lesen von Texten. Diese werden aus verschiedenen zeitgenössischen und nationalen Kontexten bezogen. Dabei sollen sowohl die filmanalytischen sowie auch die textanalytischen Fähigkeiten gestärkt werden.

Event Kosmos, Kosmologien und Worldbuilding im Kino
255I003a / Seminar / 4,050

Description:

Business event contents:

Das altgriechische Wort «Kosmos» hat die Bedeutung von Universum, Ordnung, Weltordnung. Das ebenfalls altgriechische Wort «Kosmologie» bedeutet demnach «die Lehre von der Welt»: Die Kosmologie beschäftigt sich mit dem Ursprung des Universums und versucht, seine Entwicklung zu erklären. «Worldbuilding» hingegen, ein englisches Wort, das vergleichsweise jünger ist, beschreibt die Praxis der Erschaffung von narrativ-ästhetischen Welten in der Fiktion - sei es in der Literatur, im Film oder in Videospielen. Im Aufbau-seminar wird untersucht, inwiefern sich der Film als Medium eignet, kosmische Welten zu erschaffen. Der Kosmos hat die menschliche Wissens-, Kunst- und Kulturgeschichte seit den frühen Hochkulturen immer wieder beschäftigt. Auch bereits in der frühen Kinogeschichte finden sich die ersten kosmischen Filmreisen. Zahlreiche weitere Filme zeugen davon, wie sich der Kosmos als Projektionsfläche für Vorstellungsbilder erweist. Die Erfahrung des Kosmischen im Kino ist daher oft von Phantastik geprägt.

Auch im Bereich des Worldbuilding spielt das Phantastische oft eine zentrale Rolle. So ist Worldbuilding insbesondere für das Genre der Science Fiction konstitutiv. Zur Erschaffung einer neuen Welt gehört neben einer historisch und geographisch kohärenten Erzählung auch das Ökosystem. Die Beispiele, die im Seminar diskutiert werden, beziehen sich nicht nur auf das Mainstream-Kino wie AVATAR (James Cameron; USA/GB, 2009), sondern auch auf alternative ästhetisch-kosmologische Entwürfe - etwa im Bereich der Videokunst, wie in THE MARTIAN WORD FOR WORLD IS MOTHER (Alice Bucknell; USA, 2022). Oft sind dabei alternative Entwürfe im Bereich des Worldbuilding von nicht-westlichen oder nicht-anthropozentrischen Kosmologien inspiriert. Die Spannweite dieser unterschiedlichen Erzählungen und ihrer ästhetischen Umsetzung wird im Seminar ausführlich behandelt.

Im Aufbau-seminar wird ein breites Spektrum theoretischer und historischer Texte gelesen, die neben filmwissenschaftlichen auch anthropologische oder wissenschaftsgeschichtliche Positionen auf ihre Relevanz für das Kino untersuchen.

Darüber hinaus zielt das Seminar auf eine eingehende Auseinandersetzung mit zentralen medienontologischen Ansätzen zur Ästhetik und Theorie des filmischen/fotografischen Bildes. Zusätzlich zur Vertiefung der historischen und theoretischen Kenntnisse über grundlegende Aspekte der Filmästhetik werden die analytischen Fähigkeiten der Teilnehmer*innen in einem intensiven Umgang mit Filmmaterial gefördert.

Event Genretheorie
255I017a / Colloquium / 4,058

Description:

Business event contents:

Ein Horror-Film macht Angst, in der Science Fiction gibt es Raumschiffe, Lasergefechte und schleimige Monster, und ein Western ist nicht komplett ohne Cowboys mit Stetson und Revolver sowie einem Saloon (mit Schwingtüre), der Weite der Prarie und natürlich Schiessereien. Wer sich einen Genrefilm ansieht, betritt das Kino in der Regel mit relativ klaren Erwartungen - Erwartungen, die meist auch erfüllt werden. Was im alltäglichen Gebrauch wenig Mühe bereitet, lässt sich theoretisch aber nur schwierig fassen. Denn Genres sind keineswegs starre, abgeschlossene Gebilde, sondern hochgradig wandelbar. Sie gehen ineinander über, vermischen sich, können vorübergehend verschwinden, wiederbelebt, miteinander gekreuzt und durch den Kakao gezogen werden. Darüber hinaus spielen Genres in Fan-Diskursen eine zentrale Rolle. Um Genres wie Science Fiction, Fantasy oder Horror haben sich umfangreiche Fandoms gebildet, die in komplexen Prozessen den «korrekten Umgang» mit dem Gegenstand aushandeln.

Ziel des Theoriekolloquiums ist es, einige zentrale filmwissenschaftliche Positionen zum Themenkomplex «Genre» kennenzulernen. Im ersten Teil Fokus darauf liegen, wie sich Genres theoretisch fassen lassen. Im zweiten Teil wird dann die Frage im Vordergrund stehen, wie verschiedene Publikumsgruppen mit Genres umgehen respektive was diese mit uns als Zuschauer*innen machen.

Notes:

Neben regelmässiger und aktiver Teilnahme wird das Visionieren von Filmen sowie das Verfassen von kürzeren Texten (Lektürekarten) erwartet. Das Kolloquium wird mit einer mündlichen Prüfung beschlossen.

Event Einführung in die Arbeit mit ethnologischen Texten Übungsgruppe A
721-002a / Exercise Group / 4,108

Description:

Business event contents:

In dieser Übungsgruppe werden wir Megan Styles's in 2019 erschienenenes Buch Roses from Kenya: Labor, Environment, and the Global Trade in Cut Flowers lesen.

Styles, Megan. A. (2019) Roses from Kenya: Labor, Environment, and the Global Trade in Cut Flowers. Seattle: University of Washington Press.

Kenya supplies more than 35 percent of the fresh-cut roses and other flowers sold annually in the European Union, and over half are grown near the shores of Lake Naivasha, a freshwater lake recognized as a wetland of international importance. This industry—which employs at least ninety thousand workers—is lucrative but controversial. Critics decry its environmental side effects, and activists demand better wages and living conditions for workers, most of whom are women.

Event Vom Pfirsichblütenquell zum Buch der Grossen Einheit -- Anarchisches und Utopisches in vormodernen chines. Texten 280-680a / Exercise Group / 4,147

Description:

Business event contents:

Der Kurs ist eine kursorische Lektüre von Auszügen aus anarchistischen und utopischen Texten aus zweieinhalbtausend Jahren chinesischer Literatur- und Ideengeschichte. Beginnend mit Stellen aus antiken Klassikern wie Laozi und Zhuangzi schreiten wir über mittelalterliche Texte wie Tao Yuanmings 陶淵明 (365-427) berühmtem Pfirsichblütenquell und spätkaiserzeitliche "Schatzbücher" (baojuan 寶卷) zu Kang Youweis 康有為 (1858-1927) Buch von der Grossen Einheit (Datongshu) und Tan Sitongs 譚嗣同 (1865-1898) Abhandlung über die Mitmenschlichkeit (Renlun). Der Kurs kann begleitend zum Seminar besucht werden.

From the Peach Blossom Spring to the Book of Great Union -- Anarchic and Utopian Thinking in Premodern Chinese Texts The course offers a cursory reading of excerpts from anarchic and utopian texts from 2,500 years of Chinese literary and intellectual history. Starting with ancient classics like Laozi, Zhuangzi and others, we proceed to works like Tao Yuanming's 陶淵明 (365-427) "Pear Blossom Spring", passing through late imper "Precious scrolls" (baojuan 寶卷) and finally arriving at late 19th century utopian thinkers like Kang Youwei 康有為 (1858-1927) and Tan Sitong 譚嗣同 (1865-1898). Texts will be read in the Chinese original.

Course Materials: Auszüge aus chinesischen Primärquellen. Detailliertes Programm bei Kursbeginn bekanntgegeben.

Event Von Kettensägen und Kannibalen: Gender, Sexualität und Differenz im Horrorfilm
506I015a / Colloquium / 4,248

Description:

Business event contents:

Provokativ und polarisierend: kaum ein Filmgenre ist so umstritten und meinungsspaltend wie das des Horrors. Gezielt drängt der Horrorfilm an Grenzen etlicher Art und konfrontiert, erodiert oder zieht diese neu. Damit einher gehen Normierungs- und Marginalisierungsprozesse sowie Fragen nach Handlungsmacht und Repräsentation. Insbesondere der kommerzielle US-amerikanische Horrorfilm-Kanon ist dicht bevölkert von schillernden Aussenseiter*innen, die als Systemsprenger*innen gekennzeichnet sind und in ihren konventionswidrigen Verhaltensweisen als Bedrohung des Status quo wahrgenommen werden. Zeitgenössische soziokulturelle Ängste der ausserfilmischen Welt sowie gesellschaftlich verankerte Gedankengüter werden in einer Vielzahl von Horror-Narrativen des Mainstream-Milieus mitkommuniziert – oder etwa reproduziert?

Von Slasher Franchises bis hin zu Horror-Musicals: das 'Andere' genießt handlungsbedingte Dauerpräsenz und tritt mal rassifiziert, mal verque(e)rt, mal entmenschlicht auf. Gegliedert ist das Kolloquium daher in drei thematische Blöcke (Genre – Körper/Raum – Gender/Performanz), in denen wir uns anhand verschiedener Filmbeispiele – von Kulterzählungen Cravens oder Carpenters über Jennifer's Body und Ginger Snaps – gemeinsam an die US-amerikanische Horrorfilmlandschaft herantasten. Anknüpfend an die Lektüre, die Einblicke in wiederkehrende Konzepte wie das 'final girl' oder 'the monstrous feminine' offeriert, arbeiten wir in Gruppen- und Plenumsdiskussionen sowie kurzen Inputreferaten heraus, inwiefern Ideen von Körperlichkeit, Raum, Gender und Differenz in den Untersuchungsgegenständen zum Tragen kommen.

Notes:

Die Unterrichtssprache ist Deutsch. Die Filmausschnitte werden jeweils in ihrer Originalsprache (grösstenteils Englisch) mit Untertiteln zur Verfügung gestellt. Die Auswahl der Lektüretexte setzt sich gleichermassen aus deutsch- und englischsprachigen Texten zusammen. Filmanalytische oder genrespezifische Kenntnisse werden nicht vorausgesetzt. Bei allfälligen Fragen gerne melden.

Event Social Behaviour of Bacteria
BIO297 / Course / 4,277

Description:

Business event contents:

The view of bacteria as solitary life forms has strong roots in the tradition of culturing bacteria as suspensions in liquid media. In their natural environments, however, bacteria form surface-associated, structured and co-operative consortia, referred to as biofilms. In this lecture series different aspects of prokaryotic social behaviour, including swarming motility, biofilm formation and cell-to-cell communication, will be presented and existing links between these social phenomena are discussed.

Notes:

This lecture complements the Blockkurs BIO 284 "Systemic Microbiologie" and is offered as a master course in the Microbiology Curriculum of UZH and ETHZ. Teaching language is English.

Event On Getting Lost
645-505a / Seminar / 4,465

Description:

Business event contents:

The seminar will depart from an array of "aninstitutional" models and formats that provide concrete alternatives to the art institutions we are well-familiar with, which are embedded in the global apparatus of necropolitical power. These new models and formats, tactically impermanent and shapeshifting as they are, challenge the stability of modern sovereignty. The several original anti-institutional impulses that may show different paths to aninstitutional organization will be discussed based on case studies of existing and imaginary museums, schools, foundations, institutes etc. Those would be, basically, seen as living instances of a state of exception, the loci enabling work of destituent energy in the otherwise seamlessly organized institutional mainframe of contemporary culture and its exhibitionary complexes. While looking into the spectrum of "aninstitutional" forms, we will reach for examples from both literature and theoretical texts-to attempt at an understanding of the specific contexts where critical practice once unfolded, still unfolds, and will yet unfold.

Notes:

The program will be discussed in the first session.

Im Kurs suchen wir Antworten auf viele Fragen, die sich im Zusammenhang mit den herkunftssprachlichen Kenntnissen der BKMS-Sprachen stellen.

Wie funktioniert in der privaten, der Bildungs- und der beruflichen Umgebung das Wechselspiel zwischen den mutmasslichen Vorteilen und Nachteilen, die sich für die Sprecher dieser Sprachen, aber auch für ihre «nicht BKMS»-Umgebung ergeben? Wenn man davon ausgeht, dass Fremdsprachenkenntnisse nicht nur für eine Person, sondern auch für eine Gesellschaft selbstverständlich von Vorteil sind, warum lehrt und lernt man keine BKMS-Sprachen auf dem Mittelschulniveau in der Schweiz, obwohl die BKMS-Sprecher:innen eine imposante Bevölkerungsgruppe darstellen? Inwiefern ist ein:e BKMS-Herkunftssprecher:in der dritten oder der vierten Generation (also, längst kein:e «Gastarbeiter:in» oder «Secondo» mehr) nach wie vor ein «Jugo»: wie beschreibt man sich selbst und wie wird man von aussen beschrieben - nicht administrativ (mit Begriffen wie z.B. «Wohnbevölkerung mit Migrationshintergrund»), sondern im Alltag? Wie lässt sich also die Position der herkunftssprachlichen BKMS-Kenntnissen zwischen einer ersten und einer Fremdsprache erfassen und inwiefern wirkt das Image der Herkunftsländer auf das Rating der Sprachen? Kann man die Vorteile der BKMS-Sprachkenntnisse sichtbar machen?

Über dies und vieles mehr wollen im Kurs berichten, lesen, diskutieren und in Form der Referate, Protokolle und kurzen Essays auch schreiben.

Notes:

Der Kurs eignet sich nicht nur für BKMS-Herkunftssprecher:innen, sondern für alle Interessierten, die genug BKMS-Sprachkenntnisse mitbringen (etwa B1).

Course Materials: Sämtliche Unterrichtsmaterialien werden zur Verfügung gestellt.

Event Insulare Buchkunst
640-024a / Seminar / 4,498

Description:

Business event contents:

Die frühe Buchmalerei der britischen Inseln gehört zu den Gründungsmomenten der Kunst des europäischen Mittelalters. Mit ihren expressiven Ornamenten und ihren intensiv leuchtenden Farben ziehen Werke wie das Book of Kells, das Book of Durrow oder das Book of Lindisfarne auch das Publikum des frühen 21. Jahrhunderts noch ungebrochen in ihren Bann. Das Seminar bietet eine Einführung in eine Kunstpraxis, die auf gänzliche neue Weise das Buch als ästhetisches Objekt definierte und die graphischen Zeichen der Schrift zu energetisch aufgeladenen Bildern umformte. Mitten in einer Welt, in der die meisten Menschen weder schreiben noch lesen konnten, verliehen die christlichen Klöster Irlands und der Ostküste Englands so ihren Vorstellungen rund um heilige Bücher Ausdruck. In der Auseinandersetzung mit der regionalen visuellen Kultur entwickelten sie eine Kunst ornamentaler Verflechtung und Belebung. In ihr kann man eine radikale Gegenposition zum antiken Ideal figürlicher Bildlichkeit sehen, das die zeitgleiche Kunst auf dem europäischen Kontinent prägte. Neben die Einführung in den Kontext und die genaue Betrachtung der Hauptwerke der insularen Buchkunst wird im Seminar eine erweiterte geographische Perspektive treten: zu entdecken gibt es hier die überraschenden Parallelen zur frühen islamischen Buchkunst und die spannende Wirkungsgeschichte insularer Bücher auf dem Kontinent. Ein Besuch in der Stiftsbibliothek St. Gallen, die eine Reihe insularer Buchkunstwerke beherbergt, soll das Programm des Seminars abrunden und die Möglichkeit zur direkten Begegnung mit einigen Originalen bieten.

Event Forschungsseminar Wirtschaftssoziologie (Teil 1)
240-510a / Seminar / 4,539

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Forschungsseminar üben wir anhand eines konkreten Forschungsprojektes das Schreiben eines wissenschaftlichen Beitrages, welcher in der Forschungsarbeit mündet. Die Themen dürfen selbst gewählt werden; gern machen wir aber auch konkrete Themenvorschläge. Das Projekt kann empirisch quantitativ, empirisch qualitativ oder theoretisch sein. Vorhandene Datensätze aus verschiedensten Themengebieten stellen wir gern zur Verfügung. Auch ist eine Mitarbeit in bereits laufenden Forschungsprojekten möglich. In manchen Jahren vertiefen wir am Anfang des Seminars auch ein gemeinsames Thema, um wissenschaftliche Arbeit, Theorie- und Hypothesenbildung und Datenerhebung zu üben. Dieses Thema kann - muss aber nicht - für die Forschungsarbeit genutzt werden.

22MO0232 / Course / 4,553

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Vorlesung führt Studierende in die zentralen philosophischen Debatten der Managementwissenschaften ein. Welche Realität untersuchen wir und gibt es nur eine davon? Was ist ein Unternehmen eigentlich und wie erforscht man es? Müssen Wirtschaftswissenschaftler und Wirtschaftswissenschaftlerinnen politisch neutral sein oder ist Forschung immer politisch? Wann wird die Nähe zur Privatwirtschaft problematisch? Um diese und weitere Fragen anzugehen, lernen Teilnehmende unterschiedliche wissenschaftstheoretische und wissenschaftsethische Positionen kennen. Für weitere Hinweise siehe: <http://www.business.uzh.ch/professorships/as.html>

Event Kunsthandel: Mechanismen, Akteure, Theorien
640I044a / Exercise Group / 4,610

Description:

Business event contents:

In der sozialen Realität der Kunst kommt dem professionellen Kunsthandel seit der frühen Neuzeit eine stetig wachsende Bedeutung zu, zugleich ist er durch technologische Neuerungen und Veränderungen der wirtschaftlichen Rahmenbedingungen dem Wandel unterworfen. So haben in jüngster Zeit digitale Innovationen wie Blockchain und NFTs nicht nur neue künstlerische Medien, sondern auch neuartige Formen des Handelns mit Kunst hervorgebracht. Trotz der zentralen Rolle des Handels im System der Kunst, finden sich einschlägige Studien eher in der Soziologie und Rechtswissenschaft als in der Kunstwissenschaft, stellvertretend seien hier die Forschungen des Soziologen Franz Schultheis zur Art Basel erwähnt. Eine der Ausnahmen bildet das am Schweizerischen Institut für Kunstwissenschaft SIK-ISEA beheimatete Forschungsprojekt "Akteure und Akteurinnen des Kunsthandels in der Schweiz" (2022-2026), das sich der systematischen Erforschung des Schweizer Kunsthandels von den Anfängen in der frühen Neuzeit bis in die Gegenwart widmet. Die Übung hat zum Ziel, eine Einführung in die grundlegenden Formen des Kunsthandels zu geben und ein Basisverständnis für die Mechanismen des Kunstmarkts zu schaffen. Sie richtet sich ausdrücklich nicht nur an Studierende, sie sich den Kunsthandel als späteres Arbeitsfeld vorstellen können, sondern geht von der Prämisse aus, dass es für alle auf dem Feld der Kunstwissenschaft Tätigen von Vorteil ist, Einblicke in das Funktionieren des Kunstmarkts zu gewinnen.

Ein zentrales Element des Unterrichts bilden Gespräche mit Fachleuten und Besuche in den Institutionen des Kunsthandels. Hierzu zählen nebst Unternehmen des Primär- und Sekundärmarktes auch Akteure, die nicht direkt zum Kunsthandel zählen, aber wichtige Voraussetzungen für diesen liefern, etwa bei der Authentifizierung von Kunstwerken oder der Abklärung von Provenienzen. Die Lektüre aktueller Literatur und der direkte Austausch mit Forschenden bilden weitere Elemente des Unterrichts.

Event Familien, Care-Arbeit und der Wohlfahrtsstaat
615-001a / Seminar / 4,614

Description:

Business event contents:

Care-Arbeit, unbezahlt wie auch bezahlt, ist ein zentraler Faktor individueller und gesellschaftlicher Wohlfahrt. Moderne Familienpolitik setzt denn auch stark auf die Vereinbarkeit von Beruf und Familie. Zunehmend geht es dabei auch um die Frage, wie unbezahlte Care-Arbeit gerechter zwischen den Geschlechtern aufgeteilt werden kann. Verbunden sind diese Politiken aber auch mit den Rahmenbedingungen im öffentlichen und privaten Care-Arbeitsmarkt. In diesem Seminar beleuchten wir die Thematik aus Sicht der vergleichenden politische Ökonomie. Wir lesen und besprechen klassische und aktuelle Texte, diskutieren politische Vorstösse und befassen uns mit Statistiken und Daten zu familienpolitischen Instrumenten und Care.

Event Gender and Politics in the MENA Region
615-009a / Seminar / 4,632

Description:

Business event contents:

Researchers studying gender politics in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region have been puzzled by a phenomenon common in many Arab states: The post-colonial and newly emerging Arab states often did not hesitate to grant women their suffrage rights, but they were very reluctant to grant women rights that concerned their private lives. Why? This course attempts to answer this question. It argues that the problem of women's rights in Arab MENA region is also political in nature and can be understood once we focus on the authoritarian nature of the state itself, power base, and features. According to this approach, the Arab state functions according to certain 'logic' and its features have direct consequences on its gender policies, in both the public and private spheres. This introductory course will look at this issue within the changing political landscape of Middle Eastern countries before and after the Arab Uprisings of 2011.

Notes:

The students are expected to:

- 1) have a general background on the situation of women in the region, Islamic law and human rights, and women's movements
- 2) learn more about a state-society approach to the study of gender and politics in the region
- 3) look at the gender situation within different states' contexts
- 4) learn about the post 2011 political orders in some countries and how they shape the gender situation accordingly

Event Citizen Representation in the European Union

615-011a / Seminar / 4,629

Description:

Business event contents:

The European Union is often accused of suffering from a 'democratic deficit' and a 'crisis of legitimacy'. This course aims to build students' understanding of the functioning of democracy in the European Union and provide the analytical tools to evaluate proposals for reform to alleviate these concerns.

This course will examine both how citizens are represented in the European Union and how the EU shapes democratic politics in the member states. At the European level, we will analyse how citizens are represented in EU policymaking, focusing on institutions such as the Council and the European Parliament. At the domestic level, we will explore the growing role of the EU in domestic politics and public opinion, including the study of Euroscepticism, political entrepreneurs, and referendums on European integration.

Notes:

Questions we will cover include, but are not limited to:

- Does the EU suffer from a democratic deficit?
- What explains public opinion towards the EU?
- Does the European Parliament represent the preferences of European citizens?
- Is there an emerging European 'demos'?
- Do crises lead to a more divided or a closer integrated Europe?
- Why do national governments call referendums on European integration?

Event A: Gender and Sexuality in English
440-123a / Seminar / 4,668

Description:

Business event contents:

Gender as a topic of discussion is a moving target; recent years have brought about a wider societal shift in how gender is conceptualized and instrumentalized in political discourse.

In language, we can speak of gender as a grammatical, pragmatic, discursive, or sociolinguistic category. From there, the topic extends to other academic fields, where both the 20th century and recent years have brought about a wealth of literature and new discussions.

This seminar will attempt to bridge the gap between societal discourse on gender and the field of linguistics. We will approach the topic with inclusivity of all identities and good-faith opinions in mind, emphasizing shifting perspectives and discussion.

The aspects covered will include historical perspectives (social and linguistic), gender-(in)equality in language and discourse, pronouns, sociolinguistics, pragmatics, queer sexualities and nonconforming identities, old and new discourses, and emerging ideas in academia.

The main emphasis will be on how all of this can inform our work as linguists.

The resulting seminar papers will be an opportunity to reflect on this and contribute to the wider field of queer/gender linguistics, for example in the form of newly created resources.

Participants are not expected to 'come out' if they do not wish to do anything regarding their gender identity and/or sexuality. Everyone's identity will in any case be treated with utmost respect, as should be the case regardless.

Participants will be encouraged to discuss and debate, as well as to read research literature from different fields and disciplines.

Outside controversies shall not stand in our way to spirited levity and ever-curious learning.

Event Fantasy and Fairy Tales: From Romanticism to the Edwardian Era
440-221a / Seminar / 4,673

Description:

Business event contents:

Fantasy as a clearly distinguishable literary genre is a relatively recent phenomenon, but it has deep roots in the long nineteenth century. Contemporary genre fantasy would be virtually unthinkable without the Romantic revival of folklore, fairy tale, fancy, and wonder, finding literary expression in the popular Kunstmärchen, for instance, and culminating, in the Victorian era, in the first fantasy novels. While magic tales were often decried as corruptive, numerous nineteenth-century writers defended the marvellous. As Dickens argued: "[i]n an utilitarian age, of all other times, it is a matter of grave importance that Fairy tales should be respected", explaining the Victorian vogue for all things 'faerie' and emphasising the latter's value historical perspective. Following this line of thinking, in this seminar, we explore how various historical and cultural contexts paved the way and even created a need for fantasy as a new genre. How and why did the Romantics, Victorians and Edwardians imitate, expand and repurpose the fairy tale form; what were its literary, cultural, and political functions? We examine these questions by looking at a wide range of texts, including the Romantics' theoretical and poetic writings, Victorian retellings of "Cinderella", and fantasy novels by writers such as George MacDonald and Edith Nesbit.

Course Materials:

We will read several shorter works (fairy tales, poems, essays, theory chapters), but also a few longer ones such as MacDonald's fantasy novel Phantastes. A full list will be made available on OLAT.

Event Aestheticism of Camp

440-224a / Seminar / 4,674

Description:

Business event contents:

In her seminal essay "Notes on Camp" Susan Sontag discusses the "sensibility [...] that goes by the cult name of 'Camp'" and states that "[i]ndeed of Camp is its love of the unnatural: of artifice and exaggeration." Sontag dedicated her influential essay to the quintessential dandy Oscar Wilde and quotes him on the proposition that "[o]ne should either be a work of art or wear a work of art," highlighting the way in which Camp is often performative and geared towards making an artistic statement, favoring form over content.

While scholars agree that Camp is notoriously evasive and difficult to define, as evidenced by Sontag's conceptualization of Camp as a "sensibility," the a simultaneous agreement that any aestheticism of Camp is marked by excess.

Camp aestheticism appreciates the playful potential of taste as well as artifice and favors pleasure over seriousness, celebrating extravagance as a form of liberating theatricality. As such, Camp has emerged as a resilient cultural phenomenon which opens up a space for critical reflection and (re) negotiation of cultural norms. While Sontag attests that "Camp is a certain mode of aestheticism. It is one way of seeing the world as an aesthetic phenomenon," the popularity of Camp suggests that this particular prism also allows for the mediation of philosophy, culture and identity politics.

This seminar will use Susan Sontag's essay "Notes on Camp" as a theoretica base as well as frame through which we will read a number of texts exploring Camp's spirited and strategic deployment of the politics and poetics of ex

Event Frankenstein Reimagined
440-226a / Seminar / 4,676

Description:

Business event contents:

Frankenstein, the "hideous progeny" conceived by the imagination of an 18-year-old Mary Shelley on a dark and stormy night in 1818, has continued to multiply with progeny of its own. Each text, like Frankenstein's creature, has comp a "body" of work wrestling with the question of what it means to be human. This question has haunted, in proper gothic fashion, every generation and especially those people and groups who find themselves struggling with the expectations and exclusions of society. In this seminar we will explore this haunting in the afterlives of Shelley's original novel. Participants will examine how auth and artists have used Frankenstein as a point of departure to interrogate the agonies of desire and rejection, the dynamics of gender and sexuality, and the complexities of violence, race, and justice. We will consider how each text picks up on the original and how it transforms it to address the concerns of its time, author, and audience. The course texts will span different media, including novels such as Ahmed Saadawi's Frankenstein in Baghdad, films su Yorgos Lanthimos's Poor Things, television such as Buffy the Vampire Slaye comics such as Victor LaValle's Destroyer, and electric literature such as Shelley Jackson's Patchwork Girl. Engaging with close reading, critical analysis, and theoretical inputs, participants in this class will participate in active class discussions and synthesize their ideas into a final term paper exploring some aspect of the reimagining of Frankenstein. The class will also assemble its own "Frankenstein's monster" by working collaboratively to br together the insights of individuals and groups into a final media project.

Course Materials: The main texts students are expected to acquire are:

- Jackson, Shelley. Patchwork Girl. Eastgate Systems, 1995.
(<https://www.eastgate.com/catalog/PatchworkGirl.html>)
- LaValles, Victor. Destroyer. Diamond US, 2018.
- Saadawi, Ahmed. Frankenstein in Baghdad. Oneworld Publications, 2018.
- Shelley, Mary. Frankenstein. 1818. Norton Critical Edition, Norton, 2021.
- Tsai, Addie. Unwieldly Creatures. Jaded Ibis Press, 2022.

Most media material will be made available on OLAT. Any exceptions will be indicated on the syllabus, which will be made available on OLAT. Secondary texts will either be provided or can be found in the Norton Critical Edition of Frankenstein. If there are any issues acquiring the required material or any other questions about the seminar content, please contact Nastacia Schmoll (nastacia.schmoll@es.uzh.ch).

Event Introduction to ecological genomics and molecular adaptation
EEE322 / Block Course / 782

Description:

Business event contents:

This course offers students a review of current theoretical and methodological advances in the application and analysis of genomic data for addressing evolutionary questions at the population level and at the interface of populations and species, with an emphasis on practical data analysis skills. Through lectures, paper discussions, and interactive computer labs, students will learn the advantages and limitations of specific types of genomic data and methods (e.g. AFLPs, SSRs, SNPs/NGS data, etc.) and they will be provided with an introduction to a variety of powerful software packages for data analysis. Specific topics covered in the course will focus on the application of multi-locus data for estimating population genetic parameters, analysing population structure and differentiation, inter-population relationships, demography, gene flow, finding loci under selection, and understanding the molecular basis of adaptations.

Event IE Seminar: Gender, Sexualität und Körperlichkeit im Islam
27SS001 / Seminar / 1,645

Description:

Business event contents:

Regional unterschiedlich ausgeprägte patriarchale Traditionen werden häufig in Zusammenhang mit dem Islam gebracht. Woher rührt die Vorstellung und inwiefern sind muslimische Frauen unterdrückt? Dieses Seminar soll ein Verständnis der Rolle von Frauen und Gender im Islam vermitteln. Dafür werden die Themen zu Gender, Sexualität und Körperlichkeit in der islamischen Offenbarung, in der Tradition und in zeitgenössischen Diskursen erörtert und kontextualisiert.

Im ersten Teil des Seminars wird die Rolle der Frau in den unterschiedlichen Epochen, von der vorislamischen bis zur heutigen Zeit, im Fokus liegen. Im zweiten Teil des Seminars werden ausgewählte thematische Schwerpunkte wie zur Frage des Kopftuchs, zur Homosexualität und zur Stellung der Frau im islamischen Recht gesetzt. Dabei soll ein regionaler Fokus auf den Nahen Osten, Nordafrika und Südostasien gelegt werden, um die Kenntnisse über die islamisch geprägte Welt zu vertiefen.

Die Studierenden sollen sich auf diese Weise mit dem gelebten Islam in seiner Vielfalt zu dieser ausgewählten Thematik auseinandersetzen.

Event Proseminar: Social-scientific study of religion
55LB000 / Proseminar / 2,910

Description:

Business event contents:

"Säkularisierung", "Pluralismus", "Individualisierung" und "Fundamentalismus" sind einige Schlagworte, mit denen auch in populärwissenschaftlichen und journalistischen Kontexten Stellenwert und Rolle von Religionen in der Gegenwart beschrieben werden. Im Proseminar wird durch die gemeinsame Lektüre und Diskussion sozial- und religionswissenschaftlicher Texte ein differenzierter Umgang mit diesen und weiteren Begriffen erarbeitet und dadurch ein religionswissenschaftlicher Zugang zur Thematik "Religionen in der Gegenwart" eröffnet. Anhand konkreter Beispiele werden zudem einige der typischen Methoden (Interviews, teilnehmende Beobachtung) religions- und sozialwissenschaftlicher Gegenwartsforschung vorgestellt.

Notes:

Die Prüfung findet am Dienstag, 7. Januar 2025, 14:00-16.00 Uhr statt.

Event Cell Biology of Viral Infections
BIO322 / Block Course / 509

Description:

Business event contents:

Viruses are at the interface of living and non-living matter. Outside of their hosts, they are passive carriers of genetic information with inherent capabilities to enter their hosts and rewire the genetic programme of the host cells. Viruses contain information that allows them to evade the pressure of both innate and adaptive immune systems. In their entire complexity viruses manipulate all known aspects of cell physiology. This makes them excellent tools to discover thus unknown features of cells and organisms. Exploring how viruses interact with cells offers new handles against viral disease.

In this course we will discuss and experimentally assess virus-host interactions. In particular, we will elaborate on human adenoviruses, herpes viruses, and influenza viruses, and compare their specific ways to interact with host cells.

Event Seminar: Spiritual healers - skills and concepts, from biographical experience to clairvoyance
55SS003d / Seminar / 3,280

Description:

Business event contents:

Wie sehen Geistheilerinnen ihren eigenen Werdegang, worin sehen sie ihre spezifischen Kompetenzen und welche Konzepte liegen ihrer Praxis zugrunde? Wie erleben Klient*innen die Behandlung durch Geistheilerinnen? Wie kann aus sozialwissenschaftlicher Perspektive dieses Segment des Gesundheitssystems verstanden werden? Inwiefern wird hier Gender als analytische Kategorie relevant? Diese und andere Fragen werden anhand von qualitativ-empirischen Interviewdaten und weiteren Primärquellen, sowie Sekundärliteratur behandelt. Wir werden während des Seminars die Gelegenheit haben mit mindestens einer Geistheilerin direkt über ihre Arbeit und ihr Selbstverständnis sprechen zu können. Der Schwerpunkt liegt auf der Deutschschweiz, ergänzt mit Fallbeispielen insbesondere aus Japan sowie weiteren kulturellen, z.B. afrikanischen Kontexten.

Das Seminar vermittelt Kenntnisse über diesen Bereich der Komplementär/Alternativmedizin, über zeitgenössische Formen von „Spiritualität“ und diskutiert die Rolle von Geistheilerinnen in verschiedenen kulturellen Kontexten unter gendertheoretischen und sozialwissenschaftlichen Gesichtspunkten. Methodisch werden Kenntnisse der Interviewanalyse (insbes. Kodiervverfahren) vermittelt und angewandt.

Notes:

Seminararbeiten können innerhalb eines Jahres (bis Ende FS 25) zum Seminarthema abgegeben werden.

Reading Week vom 14.-18.10.2024. In dieser Woche finden an der Theologischen und Religionswissenschaftlichen Fakultät keine Lehrveranstaltungen statt.

Event Aktuelle Fachdebatten: «Ethnographie und Kulturanalyse»
506-550a / Colloquium / 984

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Kolloquium ist als eine Einführung – für Fortgeschrittene – in die Empirische Kulturwissenschaft konzipiert. Es richtet sich sowohl an Studierende, die den BA Populäre Kulturen an der UZH abgeschlossen haben, als auch an Neueinsteiger:innen. Ziel ist die Etablierung einer gemeinsamen Basis. Die Lektüre umfasst im ersten Teil verschiedene, auch kontroverse, Positionsbestimmungen und Definitionen des Fachs (als Empirische Kulturwissenschaft, als Europäische Ethnologie usw.), die mit unterschiedlichen kultur- und gesellschaftstheoretischen Schlüsselbegriffen arbeiten (z.B. Alltagspraxis, Machtregime, assemblage, Figuration, conjuncture). Der zweite Teil beschäftigt sich mit exemplarischen neueren Monografien (also ganzen Büchern), die auf empirischer ethnografischer und/oder mikrohistorischer Arbeit basieren, und diskutiert, mit welchen Konzepten, Zugängen und Methoden die Autor:innen diese Programmatiken zu verwirklichen versuchen, zu welchen Erkenntnissen sie gelangen und wie sie diese Erkenntnisse vermitteln.

Description:

Business event contents:

Ausgehend von der These, dass die Bedeutung populärer Musik sich nicht nur musikästhetisch erschliesst, sondern mindestens ebenso sehr über ihre lebensweltlichen Einbettungen, damit verbundene Subjektivierungseffekte und neu entstehende Kollektive, führt das Seminar in kulturwissenschaftliche Konzepte und Zugänge im Rahmen der Popular Music Studies ein. Es beschäftigt sich mit alltäglichen Praktiken des Musikhörens, Musikmachens, Musiksammelns; mit sozialen Formationen wie Szenen, Subkulturen und Online-Sozialitäten; mit Haltungen wie Camp und (Post-)Ironie; mit Schnittstellen zwischen dem Popmusikalischen und dem Politischen – sowie der alten Frage nach dem Zusammenhang von Identität, Geschmack und Distinktion: Das Seminar geht den Relationen und Zusammenhängen zwischen Pop-Musik und «ihren» Welten nach. Von den Teilnehmenden werden intensive Textlektüre und -diskussion sowie die Bereitschaft erwartet, eigene empirische Recherchen durchzuführen.

Das Modul kann mit dem Besuch der Tagung "Metadaten / Metainformationen. Populäre Musik und ihre Metamorphosen" (07.-09.11.2024) an der UZH kombiniert werden

506l407a / Exercise Group / 3,706

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Workshop produzieren die Studierenden in kleinen Gruppen unter Anleitung kurze Webclips für die Website der Fachstelle Studienfinanzierung der UZH.

Die Fachstelle ist Informations- und Anlaufstelle für alle Fragen rund um Studienfinanzierung: Finanzielle Unterstützung und Stipendien, Budgetplanung, Studium && Lebenskosten, Studium && Nebenjobs etc.

Auf der neu gestalteten Website

(<https://www.studienfinanzierung.uzh.ch>) sollen kurze Webclips untergebracht werden, in denen Studierende über ihren Umgang mit Geld, Studienfinanzierung etc. sprechen. Diese Clips werden im Workshop produziert. Dabei werden wir von einer Fachperson der Multimedia && E-Learning Services (MELS) der UZH unterstützt. Die fertigen Clips werden an einer Vernissage vorgestellt.

Notes:

Für das Schneiden der Clips ist ein eigener Laptop mitzubringen.

Event Tagung: Metadaten | Metainformationen. Populäre Musik und ihre Metamorphosen
506I508a / Selbststudium mit Leistungsnachweis / 3,470

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Kontext digitaler Systeme, maschinellen Lernens (KI), flächendeckender Internet-Verfügbarkeit im globalen Norden, Streaming-Möglichkeiten usw. sind „Daten über Daten“ bzw. Etikettierungen anderer Daten für die Infrastrukturen populärer Musik von erheblicher Bedeutung. Zugleich wirken sie auch auf die Produktionsseite zurück, weil sich Genregrenzen und andere Konventionen verschieben. Streaming-Dienste und ihre Musik-Empfehlungs-Algorithmen sind das Paradebeispiel für die gegenwärtige Relevanz von Metadaten. In der Konjunktur der Metadaten – als Phänomen, als Begriff – und, allgemeiner, von als „Meta-“ etikettierten Phänomenen, werden soziotechnische Konstellationen greifbar, die die gegenwärtige Produktion, Zirkulation und Rezeption populärer Musik in besonderer Weise prägen. Etikettierungen als „Meta“ (Metadaten – aber z.B. auch Metatags, Metatrend, Metamaterial oder gar die Umbenennung des Facebook-Mutterkonzerns in Meta) evozieren zudem eine zeitgeistig wirkende Vieldeutigkeit und Vagheit. „Meta-“ ist somit mindestens so sehr ein Phänomen des kulturellen Imaginären wie der technologischen Materialität. Als Leitmotiv der Tagung verweist „Meta“ (im Sinne der vieldeutigen griechischen Vorsilbe μετά) auf das jenseits der klanglichen Dimension populärer Musik Liegende, das mit ihr Einhergehende, das in ihren Zwischenräumen Existierende.

Im Rahmen der Tagung befassen sich ca. 30 Vorträge und Diskussionsrunden mit diesen Fragen. Ausrichter der Tagung sind die International Association for the Study of Popular Music (Sektion Deutschland – Österreich – Schweiz), das ISEK-Populäre Kulturen und das musikwissenschaftliche Institut der UZH sowie die Musikwissenschaft der Universität Bern.

Das Modul umfasst eine Vorbereitungs- und Nachbereitungssitzung, die Tagungsteilnahme sowie die Erstellung eines Tagungsberichts.

Description:

Business event contents:

In Zürichs Altstadt Häusern verbergen sich Geschichten, die mit Literatur, Kultur und Kunst verbunden sind. Dazu gehören barocke Wohnhäuser, Gotteshäuser mit frühmittelalterlichem Fundament oder auch institutionelle Gebäude wie Zunfthäuser und Bibliotheken. In multimedialen Beiträgen bringen wir Wohnkultur ans Licht, zeigen Narrative der Repräsentation, Zugehörigkeit und Geborgenheit. Die elektronische Veröffentlichung erfolgt zum Semesterende auf der Plattform zurichstories.org (Webarchiv Schweiz des Bundesamts für Kultur).

Notes:

Mit Exkursionen, Gesprächen mit Gästen aus der Praxis und Werkstatt-Unterricht. Die Storys werden am Semesterende auf der Plattform zurichstories.org veröffentlicht. Die aufgeschalteten Beiträge geben einen guten Eindruck von dem, was wir erarbeiten werden.

Event Genome Instability and MolecularCancer Research
BIO246 / Block Course / 1,363

Description:

Business event contents:

DNA of all living organisms is under constant assault of endogenous and exogenous damaging agents. Cells have evolved complex mechanisms to deal with these attacks and maintain genome stability, such as specific DNA repair pathways, DNA damage tolerance, cell cycle checkpoints and modulation of gene expression. A failure in one or more of these mechanisms increases genome instability, leading to disease, cancer and ageing. In this course, the students will gain theoretical knowledge and hands-on experience of state-of-the-art methods to study DNA damage and repair, checkpoint activation, DNA replication stress, cell cycle regulation and pathogen-induced tumorigenesis. The experimental section will extend from yeast and human cell culture to tumor mouse models, covering various areas of molecular biology and cell biology. The experiments will make use of a variety of techniques such as flow cytometry, western blotting, RNA interference, immunofluorescent stainings, single-molecule analysis of replicating chromosomes and physical detection of chromosomal breakage, depending on the set of laboratories visited by the individual student.

BIO319 gives an introduction to research in oncology with focus on the regulation of cancer cell motility and invasion. Paediatric neuro- oncological disorders will be presented and current challenges for effective cancer treatments discussed. The course will give an introduction to cell migration and its deregulation in disease. Using a paediatric brain tumour cell model, the students will practically experience how specifics of cancer cell behaviour can be addressed experimentally.

Event Eine intersektionale Einführung in Trans* Studies

2451622a / Seminar / 3,005

Description:

Business event contents:

Spätestens seit der Eurovision 2024 sind nicht-binäre und trans* Lebensweisen in aller Munde. Mit dem Song The Code hat d* Künstler*in Nemo eine Kritik an rigider Zweigeschlechtlichkeit auf das mediale und - gemeinsam mit nicht-binären und trans* Aktivist*innen - auf das politische Parkett in der Schweiz gebracht. Diese Kritik hat eine lange aktivistische Geschichte und wird neuerdings auch als akademische Forschungsrichtung betrieben. Trans* Studies ist ein neues wissenschaftliches Feld, das vor dem Hintergrund jahrzehntelangen Aktivismus von trans* und nicht-binären Personen entstanden ist. Das Seminar führt in dieses neue Forschungsfeld ein und behandelt die Frage, was unter der Bezeichnung Trans* Studies in (Teilen) der Akademie Eingang gefunden hat. Was sind Trans* Studies, was behandeln sie und wie sind sie mit Aktivismus verknüpft? Welche Abgrenzungen und Verbindungen mit anderen wissenschaftlichen Disziplinen und Fachrichtungen werden vorgenommen? Welche Kontroversen bestehen innerhalb der Trans* Studies hinsichtlich des Gegenstandsbereichs und der Art und Weise, wie Phänomene und die aktuelle politische Lage für trans* und nicht-binäre Personen erforscht, erklärt und theoretisiert werden? Ziel dieses Seminars ist es, diese Fragen mittels (vorwiegend englischsprachigen) Texten zu bearbeiten und dadurch die Bedeutung der historischen und gegenwärtigen Parameter, die zum Feld der Trans* Studies geführt haben, zu erfassen sowie seine interdisziplinär angelegten, theoretischen und methodischen Ansätze aus einer intersektionalen Perspektive kennenzulernen.

BME358 / Block Course / 184

Description:

Business event contents:

Animal models are essential to understand the pathophysiology and provide treatment modalities of inherited and acquired diseases. Recent advances in genome engineering and detailed phenotyping have eased the generation and utility of model organisms in translational sciences. This course will offer insights and hands-on experience in mammalian (mouse) and lower vertebrate (Xenopus) models to explore their unique advantages as well as limitations. The module will focus on the crosstalk between the immune system and the vasculature in several organs as well as inherited developmental disorders and kidney disease.

Event Cellular Modelling of Neuropsych
BME365 / Block Course / 511

Description:

Business event contents:

Since its discovery by Yamanaka and Takahashi in 2006, induced pluripotent stem cell (iPSC) technology has attracted significant interest from researchers worldwide in a wide range of biological and medical sciences. The complicated aetiology of many mental disorders, including schizophrenia, anorexia nervosa, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), bipolar disorder, and autism spectrum conditions, is still unknown. These disorders have genetic/polygenic, neuro-immunological, environmental, and neurodevelopmental factors. The use of patient-specific iPSC disease models holds great potential in various aspects of medical therapy. These models can provide valuable insights into treatment monitoring, identification of appropriate medications for specific patient groups, and the discovery of new diagnostic markers for different subtypes of diseases.

This course will offer valuable insights into the field of technology, providing participants with a comprehensive understanding of individualized cellular modeling. Additionally, participants will gain practical expertise in culturing and quality control techniques, specifically focusing on somatic cells and neural cells found in the central nervous system (CNS).

Event Biomaterials and Applied Technologies in Dentistry
BME345 / Block Course / 464

Description:

Business event contents:

Advances in the field of biomaterials and digital technologies changed the conventional applications in the dental profession and introduced many therapy options for tooth-, implant- and mucosa-borne solutions. Material science knowledge is essential for a wide range of applications ranging from tooth pastes to implants or bone substitutes. In this course, fundamental knowledge and current developments in the field of dental biomaterials, namely metals, high performance ceramics, polymers and composites will be introduced and formative, computer-aided subtractive and additive digital technologies will be demonstrated and practiced. Practical part of the course will allow for experiencing fabrication technologies for reconstructions and tissue substitutes as well as practising digital impression technologies, designing, manufacturing artificial materials and testing their stability. The course topic is at the interface between material science and biomedical engineering. Students are expected to approach a specific topic by self- study, literature and data analysis and at the end of the course present their work to the members of the group and write a short report.

Event Applied statistics for biomedicine and biology: advanced linear models
BME334 / Block Course / 215

Description:

Business event contents:

Linear models lie at the heart of many statistical approaches, yet applying them to biomedical or biological data is no trivial task. In this course, we start with a review of the basic linear model (OLS regression), and gradually extend its framework in R to arrive at Generalized Linear Mixed Models (GLMMs) which can accommodate for most common complications inherent to data in the life sciences. During the last week of the course, participants will be introduced to, and learn to apply, a Bayesian framework to build linear models.

Notes:

Room: Campus Irchel, Y42 K88

Participants should bring their own laptops with a recent version of R (and highly recommended, RStudio) installed

Event Neuromorphic Engineering I
INI404.1 / Course / 2,587

Description:

Business event contents:

Neuromorphic circuits are inspired by the organizing principles of biological neural circuits. Their computational primitives are based on physics of semiconductor devices. Neuromorphic architectures often rely on collective computation in parallel networks. Adaptation, learning and memory are implemented locally within the individual computational elements. Transistors are often operated in weak inversion (below threshold), where they exhibit exponential I-V characteristics and low currents. These properties lead to the feasibility of high-density, low- power implementations of functions that are computationally intensive in other paradigms. Application domains of neuromorphic circuits include silicon retinas and cochleas for machine vision and audition, real-time emulations of networks of biological neurons, and the development of autonomous robotic systems. This course covers devices in CMOS technology (MOS transistor below and above threshold, floating-gate MOS transistor, phototransducers), static circuits (differential pair, current mirror, transconductance amplifiers, etc.), dynamic circuits (linear and nonlinear filters, adaptive circuits), systems (silicon neuron, silicon retina and cochlea) and an introduction to multi-chip systems that communicate events analogous to spikes. The lectures are accompanied by weekly laboratory sessions on the characterization of neuromorphic circuits, from elementary devices to systems.

Event Weibliches Abenteuer? Spurensuche in mittelalterlichen Erzähltexten
360-510a / Seminar / 3,749

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Abenteuer - als, Wagnis, das auf einen zukommt und von dem erzählt werden muss - stellt ein im Mittelalter äusserst produktives Narrativ dar.

Definitionen, die 1. einen Helden und 2. eine grenzüberschreitende Bewegung im Raum als konstitutiv für ein Abenteuer betrachten, scheinen Frauenfiguren in mittelalterlichen Erzählungen nur selten erfüllen zu können. Über weite Teile der Literaturgeschichte bleibt die Frau dem Mann sozial zu- und innerhalb ständischer und familialer Strukturen untergeordnet, was sich auch auf die narrative Hierarchie auswirkt, stellt die männliche Figur doch vielfach den Protagonisten in Erzählungen. Historisch bedingt sind Frauen häufig auf Innen- oder gar geschlossene Räume festgelegt, die ihren Handlungsspielraum zudem begrenzen.

Will man Frauen nicht kategorisch vom Erzähl- und Erfahrungstyp 'Abenteuer ausschließen, scheint eine Aufmerksamkeit für die Eigenlogiken 'weiblichen Abenteuers' angebracht, die nicht das am männlichen Helden entwickelte Stereotyp als Muster voraussetzt.

Ausgehend von Frauenfiguren erarbeiten wir in close readings mögliche Komponenten weiblichen Abenteuers, mit Blick etwa auf Interrelationen von Abenteuer(lichkeit), Wissensgenese und Erzählvorgänge, auf Beziehungen zu (nicht-)menschlichen Wesen und (magischen) Objekte oder auf Verhältnisse von Statik/Dynamik sowie Passivität/ Aktivität.

Event Wissenschaftliche Fundillustration
683I012a / Exercise Group / 3,780

Description:

Business event contents:

Schwerpunkt des Kurses bildet die zeichnerische Funddokumentation, welche für die wissenschaftliche Dokumentation und Publikation von archäologischen Fundobjekten essenziell ist. Über die Zeichnung werden Material, Form und Dimension eines Objekts auf systematische Weise festgehalten, die den Vergleich mit anderen Objekten vereinfacht. Für Archäologieschaffende ist es daher unverzichtbar, die Eigenschaften dieser Darstellungsform zu verstehen und noch besser, diese selbst anwenden zu können.

Im Kurs behandeln wir die zeichnerische Dokumentation mit analogen und digitalen Medien und werden einen Exkurs in die 3D-Dokumentation machen.

Höhepunkt des Moduls bildet eine individuelle Abschlussarbeit, bei der die Studierenden ihr frisch erworbenes Wissen vertiefen und beweisen können.

Notes:

Die Veranstaltung findet grösstenteils in der archäologischen Studiensammlung des Landesmuseums Zürich statt.

Das Modul ist online nicht buchbar. Die Anmeldung erfolgt per Mail an den Dozierenden (oliver.bruderer@uzh.ch) mit folgenden >kurz gefassten< Informationen: Name, Motivation für Kursbesuch, allfällige Vorkenntnisse, Studiengang, Semester.

Der definitive Entscheid fällt nach Ablauf der Anmeldefrist intern.

Course Materials:

Zeichnungsutensilien und weiteres Material werden bereitgestellt.
Literatur im Handapparat. Grafikrechner und Scanner in der Bibliothek PRA stehen zur Verfügung.

Event Kirchenrechtsgeschichte und Kirchenrecht
90GL8-1 / Course / 1,887

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Kirchenrecht überschneiden sich langgestreckte rechtshistorische Traditionslinien, verfassungs- und verwaltungsrechtliche Strukturbildungen und Problemstellungen, die auch in Rechtsphilosophie und Rechtstheorie erörtert werden. In der Vorlesung soll versucht werden, diesen Verbindungslinien nachzugehen. Die Veranstaltung soll in die historischen Grundlagen des Kirchen- und Staatskirchenrechts einführen. In zwei weiteren Schritten werden das katholische und dann das evangelische Kirchenrecht näher in den Blick genommen.

Event Musik in Frankreich von Debussy bis Grisey
760I010a / Course / 2,534

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Vorlesung widmet sich der französischen Musikgeschichte des 20. Jahrhunderts, die anhand von wichtigen Werken und Persönlichkeiten beleuchtet wird. Die Zeit um 1900 ist durch Absetzungsbewegungen von den Traditionen des 19. Jahrhunderts und der deutschsprachigen Sphäre ebenso wie durch die Öffnung für aussereuropäische oder historische Einflüsse geprägt. Der «Groupe des Six» und andere postulierten nach dem Ersten Weltkrieg eine dezidiert ‚französische‘ Identität, der Neoklassizismus suchte die Verbindung zur Vergangenheit. Nach 1945 entsteht eine komplexe Konstellation mit vielfältigen und teils gegenläufigen Strömungen der Moderne: Serialismus und der Verweigerung gegenüber Systemen, «musique concrète», Spektralismus, andere Experimente mit Klang, Mathematik oder kunstübergreifendem Arbeiten. Lehrerpersönlichkeiten wie Nadia Boulanger oder Olivier Messiaen prägten unter ganz unterschiedlichen Vorzeichen die nachfolgenden Generationen, Organisationen und Institutionen wie Boulez' «Domaine musical» oder das IRCAM boten neue Plattformen. Dabei blieb die Musikkultur von den politischen Ereignissen nicht unberührt – Erster und Zweiter Weltkrieg, die Volksfrontbewegung, Besetzung und Résistance, aber auch die Protestbewegungen der 60er-Jahre finden Widerhall im Musikleben.

Notes:

Keine Sitzung am 18.9.2024.

Im Rahmen der Veranstaltung werden detaillierte Kenntnisse in ausgewählten Bereichen der internationalen Rechnungslegung vermittelt, soweit sie für die Bilanzanalyse von besonderer Bedeutung sind (i.W. DOEC0384 / Doktorandenseminar / 2,698

Description:

Business event contents:

This seminar is a collaboration between ETH and UZH; marketing groups from both sides will participate. It is open to PhD students attached to the UZH Chairs of Prof. Algesheimer and Prof. Natter as well as the ETH Chair of Technology Marketing of Prof. von Wangenheim. To be prepared for the seminar, students need to read up on central topics in the related literature. They are invited to present "work in progress". The work to be presented should be in a state that allows for submission to an international peer-reviewed journal in the not too distant future.

Event Fundamentals of Digital Marketing (L+E)
22MO0197 / Lecture with Practical Exercises / 1,310

Description:

Business event contents:

Digital marketing has transformed how business and other organizations communicate with their audiences. Thus, the question is not whether to use Internet technology but how to deploy it. The objective of this lecture is to give you an overview of the fundamentals of digital marketing. The lecture will be structured as follows:

1. Introduction to Digital Marketing
2. Value Proposition Design
3. Metrics and Analytics
4. Website Development
5. Search Engine Optimization
6. Marketing on Social Media
7. Advertising Online (display and paid search)
8. Email Marketing

Throughout bi-weekly exercise sessions, students will apply theoretical knowledge to a collaborative group project. Each group is tasked with developing their own project ideas, such as a book exchange platform, a landing page to promote an app launch, or a platform to find sports buddies. The practical application involves setting up a basic website, optimizing it for search engines, promoting their projects on social media, implementing a paid online advertising campaign, and conducting an email marketing campaign. In the final lecture and exercise session, each group will present their project along with the insights gained from the experience.

Active participation is crucial for success in this course, especially during exercise sessions, the Value Proposition Design Workshop, and group project presentations. Your engagement in these activities will directly influence your assessment.

Notes:

- This lecture will take place on-site.
- Slides, documents, and further information will be provided in OLAT at the beginning of the course
- The registration for this course takes place via the UZH Module booking tool.

Event Bachelorarbeit: Schreiben im Forschungsprozess
600I016a / Exercise Group / 345

Description:

Business event contents:

Von der ersten Idee bis zum fertigen wissenschaftlichen Text ist es ein langer Weg. In der Schreibwerkstatt befassen wir uns mit diesem Prozess, der beim Verfassen einer Bachelorarbeit in wenigen Monaten durchlaufen wird. Wir lernen, wie man eine Abschlussarbeit plant und entwickelt, probieren verschiedene Arbeitstechniken aus und entwerfen, diskutieren und überarbeiten Textpassagen. Dabei schreiben wir von Beginn weg - lange vor dem Verfassen der «eigentlichen» Arbeit.

Notes:

Die Übung richtet sich ausschliesslich an Studierende, die im Herbstsemester 2024 eine Bachelorarbeit schreiben und während des ganzen Semesters an der Abschlussarbeit arbeiten können und wollen. Erwünscht sind Personen, die bereit sind, im Hinblick auf jede Blockveranstaltung Texte verschiedener Art zu verfassen, diese zur Diskussion zu stellen und anderen Feedback zu geben.

Event Intersektionalität als kritische Theorie
2451518a / Seminar / 1,755

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Konzept der "Intersektionalität" wurde in den 1980er Jahren im Kontext des Black Feminism und der Critical Race Studies in den USA eingeführt, um auf Ausschlüsse von Schwarzen Frauen in Antidiskriminierungsgesetzen und feministischen und antirassistischen Politiken aufmerksam zu machen. Seither hat sich der Ansatz disziplinär, methodisch und inhaltlich in vielfältige Richtungen weiterentwickelt. Er umfasst heute ein breites Spektrum an Bedeutungen und Anwendungen über den Kontext der USA hinaus.

Im Seminar werden wir uns anhand von ausgewählten Texten, u.a. von Patricia Hill Collins, ein Verständnis von «intersectionality» als kritischer Theorie erarbeiten. Im Zentrum steht die Frage, was es heisst, im Sinne der Intersektionalität kritisch zu denken, zu handeln und Wissen zu produzieren.

Notes:

Beginn in der zweiten Semesterwoche am 24. September 2024.

Im Rahmen des Workloads erbringen die Studierenden insgesamt zusätzlich zu den benoteten Leistungsnachweisen sechs unbenotete Lektüreprotokolle, die in der Vorlesungszeit anfallen.

Event Praktische Filmkritik – Produktion von Video-Essays
255I022a / Exercise Group / 5,163

Description:

Business event contents:

In der an zwei Wochenenden online stattfindenden Blockveranstaltung werden theoretische Erkenntnisse mit praktischer Montage-Arbeit zusammengeführt. Ziel ist die Herstellung kurzer, skizzenhafter analytischer Kommentarfilme über einen noch zu bestimmenden Film, der zu Beginn des Seminars gemeinsam geschaut werden wird.

In den zu produzierenden Video-Essays werden mittels Voice-Over sowie Montage der Bilder und Töne aus dem Film individuell gewählte Aspekte fokussiert. Es werden also keine «eigenen» Bilder gefilmt, sondern ausschliesslich Bilder aus dem vorliegenden Film verwendet! Dabei sollen sich mittels Schnitt und kommentierendem Text persönliche Auseinandersetzungen sowie die Reflexion über formale Fragen und damit korrespondierende Erzählhaltungen artikulieren. Theorie wird überführt in Praxis, Filminterpretation wird selbst Film.

Event Bürger:innenkompetenz und demokratische Innovationen in der direkten Demokratie
6151525a / Seminar / 4,801

Description:

Business event contents:

In den letzten Jahrzehnten hat nicht nur die Anzahl der Volksabstimmungen in der Schweiz allgemein zugenommen, sondern insbesondere auch die Anzahl von kontrovers diskutierten Volksentscheiden. Bei gesellschaftspolitischen Themen wie dem Minarettverbot, der Verwahrungsinitiative oder der Ausschaffungsinitiative traten trade-offs zwischen verschiedenen Grundprinzipien der Demokratie zutage. Andererseits scheiterten wichtige Reformvorhaben wie die Rentenreform oder das CO₂-Gesetz an der Urne. Eine Frage, die immer wieder aufkommt: Sind die Bürger:innen kompetent genug, um über solche komplexen Politikfragen zu entscheiden? In diesem Seminar besprechen wir wichtige Studien zur Bürgerkompetenz und diskutieren verschiedene Definitionen und Messmethoden der Bürgerkompetenz. Zudem beschäftigen wir uns mit der Deliberativen Demokratietheorie und demokratischen Innovationen und fragen uns, inwiefern mit deliberativen Institutionen die Kompetenz verbessert werden kann.

Event International Trade Regulation
90IL14-1 / Course / 1,741

Description:

Business event contents:

This course deals with the two central developments in the field of international trade regulation since the end of the Second World War, namely multilateralism and regionalism. With respect to the former, the focus lies primarily on the law and policy of the World Trade Organisation (WTO). Topics include the principles of non-discrimination and transparency, the pursuance of legitimate policy objectives other than trade liberalisation (such as the protection of the environment and human and animal life and health), non-tariff measures (such as rules on technical regulations and subsidies), and current developments (such as economic coercion, the dissolution of the WTO Appellate Body, and trade sanctions against Russia). Special attention is given to the case law of WTO panels and Appellate Body. With respect to regionalism, the focus lies on the law and policy of free trade agreements. Of particular interest are examples of regulatory innovation in selected free agreements which the US, the EU and Switzerland have concluded with partners all over the globe. Moreover, the relevance of "mega regionals" and plurilateral initiatives, such as the CPTPP, RCEP, or the Joint Statement Initiative on E-Commerce is discussed. Finally, the course also addresses the relationship between international trade regulation and domestic law and policy, in particular with a view to EU and Swiss law.

Course Materials: To be announced.

Event Kolloquium für Bachelorarbeiten
160I038a / Colloquium / 2,020

Description:

Business event contents:

In den Kolloquien werden Texte der Teilnehmerinnen und Teilnehmer (insbesondere erste Fassungen und Teile von Bachelorarbeiten) gemeinsam diskutiert. Bei Bedarf können auch andere Texte besprochen werden.

Studierende stellen ihre eigenen Texte den anderen Teilnehmenden rechtzeitig vor einem Kolloquiumstermin zur Verfügung und präsentieren und verteidigen ihre eigenen Texte im Kolloquium. Sie kommentieren die Texte von anderen Studierenden in Form von Koreferaten und in der gemeinsamen Diskussion. Bewertet wird die im Portfolio dokumentierte Gesamtleistung.

Notes:

Damit das Verfassen der Bachelorarbeit optimal unterstützt werden kann, findet das Kolloquium unregelmässig statt (ca. alle zwei Wochen) und endet vor dem Abgabetermin für Bachelorarbeiten (1. Dezember).

Event Artikulationen des Dokumentarfilms zwischen Authentizität und Fiktion (nur für Studierende der ZHdK)
2551514a / Colloquium / 4,065

Description:

Business event contents:

In der Veranstaltung werden die vielen Artikulationsmöglichkeiten dokumentarischer Arbeiten eingehend anhand von theoretischen Texten, Filmbeispielen und ganzen Filmen untersucht und mit den Studierenden diskutiert. Grundlegende Überlegungen kreisen um ethische Verantwortungen sowie moderne Erzählstrategien wie Reenactment, Animation oder auch die Verwendung von Musik und Sounddesign. Bei allen formal-ästhetischen, erzählerischen und stilistischen Prägungen steht zudem die Frage im Zentrum, inwieweit sie das komplexe Verhältnis zwischen Authentizität und Fiktion berühren und verhandeln.

Der Filmkorporus wird mehrheitlich zeitgenössische dokumentarische Filmschaffen umfassen, bei dem auch Schweizer Produktionen nicht zu kurz kommen werden. Für den Kurs sind ansonsten keine theoretischen Vorkenntnisse erforderlich, es wird jedoch eine aktive Teilnahme erwartet, die das eigenständige Lesen der Texte und die Visionierung ganzer Filme ausserhalb der Unterrichtszeit beinhaltet - dafür ist auch ein Tag des Selbststudiums vorgesehen.

Description:

Business event contents:

Many bacteria have a "Dr. Jekyll and Mister Hide" personality: While they may be beneficial for biotechnological applications, e.g. as biocontrol organisms or for the degradation of pollutants in the environment, they may also cause severe infections in humans. Using various molecular methods light will be shed on the various facets of bacterial behaviour within this practical course.

Notes:

Begleitend zum Blockkurs BIO 284 wird der Besuch der zweistündigen Vorlesung BIO 297 "Social Behaviour of Bacteria" dringend empfohlen.

Event Genetic and Epigenetic Control of Plant Development
BIO285 / Block Course / 4,066

Description:

Business event contents:

In this course we introduce concepts of developmental biology at the genetic and molecular level and apply general methods for their analysis. The lecture focuses on plant reproduction and epigenetic processes and investigates how these affect development. In the laboratory we use Arabidopsis as a model system concentrating on four aspects: the identification and isolation of genes, the investigation of genetic interactions and hierarchies, and the characterization of gene expression and gene function.

Event Die Schweizer Kunstszene im KunsthausZürich 1910-1930
640I042a / Exercise Group / 4,499

Description:

Business event contents:

Vor rund 115 Jahren, am 17. April 1910, öffnete das Kunsthaus Zürich am Heimplatz seine Pforten. Mit einer umfangreichen Ausstellung und diversen Festivitäten zelebrierten geladene Gäste aus Kunst, Kultur, Wirtschaft und Politik das neue Kunstzentrum der Zürcher Kunstgesellschaft. Bereits in den ersten 20 Jahren - zwischen 1910 und 1930 - entwickelte sich das Kunsthaus unter dem ersten Konservator und Direktor Wilhelm Wartmann (1882-1970) zu einem der wichtigsten Treffpunkte der Schweizer Kunstszene. Zahlreiche Künstler:innen aus dem In- und Ausland wurden hier erstmals in Kollektiv- und Einzelausstellungen gezeigt, ihre Kunstwerke betrachtet, erforscht, vermittelt, diskutiert, gehandelt und gesammelt. Bereits 1925 folgte die erste Erweiterung des Museumsbaus von Karl Moser (1860-1936), der nicht nur räumliche Umgestaltungen sondern auch die Modernisierung und Neustrukturierung des Sammlungsbestands ermöglichte. Über die spannenden Anfänge und facettenreiche(n) Geschichte(n) des noch jungen Kunsthauses ist heute nur noch wenig bekannt - diese gilt es gemeinsam neu zu entdecken. In Archiv/Bibliothek des Hauses haben sich zahlreiche Zeugnisse wie annotierte Kataloge, Jahresberichte, Protokolle, handschriftliche Briefe, Fotografien und Verkaufsunterlagen überliefert, die Erkenntnisse zur Institution, zu beteiligten Akteuren, Ausstellungen und der Sammlung erlauben und die es zu befragen gilt. Im Kurs werden wir uns anhand der historischen Quellen im Kunsthaus und ergänzenden digitalen Recherchertools mit der Geschichte des Hauses aber auch mit methodischen Fragen, insbesondere zur Arbeit und dem kritischen Umgang mit Archivalien, beschäftigen.

Notes:

In Sitzung 2 werden wir uns im Kunsthaus mit der Bau-/Sammlungsgeschichte beschäftigen und das Archiv kennenlernen (=Referatsgrundlage). Abschliessend ziehen wir Bilanz.

Event Quantitative Methods
240-503a / Seminar / 4,523

Description:

Business event contents:

The course gives an introduction to advanced quantitative research methods. Students will learn to think critically about causal inference using different research designs, to reflect threats to validity and to understand, apply and criticize methods of replication.

The course starts with an overview of theoretical concepts of causality and validity and discusses the replicability of empirical results in the social sciences. This is followed by an introduction to causal inference from experimental, quasi-experimental and observational data, and an introduction to the methodology of replication studies. In order to enable students to interpret, analyze and critically reflect multivariate data analyses, students are expected to write a term paper on an own replication of an empirical research article, in which the results are reproduced and an innovative additional statistical analysis is presented. During the course students will present and discuss their replication.

Notes:

Students are encouraged to also enroll in the course "Data Analysis". It will give a comprehensive introduction into statistical analyses using R and will cover the important statistical concepts raised in this course.

Event The political economy of culture
615-001a / Seminar / 4,612

Description:

Business event contents:

The aim of this course is to bring students in touch with ongoing research at the intersection of political economy, economic development and cultural economics. The course "The political economics of culture" investigates both the origin of different cultural attitudes of societies and how cultural traits affect a society today. We will investigate the role of natural and long-gone institutional differences on attitudes and norms today, look at specific groups of people, i.e., migrants, settlers or expellees, to analyze how family history shaped values and culture over generations and ask what are the (historical) foundations for trust, cooperation and democratic values of societies. The course mainly focuses on recent empirical research papers. The course starts with an overview of the most common empirical methods. Each of these methods will be introduced in a non-technical manner based on a particular research paper. Students do not have to understand these empirical methods in every detail, but basic knowledge about the methods will help (i) to understand the research papers covered in class and (ii) may help for own writings in the future (i.e., for your BA thesis). The main focus of the course is thereafter reading and discussing seminal empirical papers together in class. Each student will prepare one discussion paper by his/her own and preparing slides to present in class. At the end of the term, students will write their own short seminar paper that will (ideally) link to his/her presented paper in class. The proposal can extend the paper, link it to a different setting, criticize it or make a comparison of two potentially competing papers/arguments.

Notes:

The course takes place in room AFL-H-372.

The first meeting will introduce the course and provides a brief overview of empirical concepts of causal inference. In the weeks after, students present their chosen research paper in class. After the last meeting, students have the chance to discuss their seminar paper idea with the instructor. Students are requested to define the topic of their seminar paper by their own.

Course Materials: All course material will be accessible over the course webpage in OLAT before the first meeting.

Description:

Business event contents:

Dieses Seminar untersucht die aktuellen Beziehungen zwischen den Vereinigten Staaten und der Welt. Das primäre Ziel ist dabei, den Studierenden konzeptionelles Rüstzeug an die Hand zu geben, um zu verstehen und analysieren zu können, wie die Ziele der US-Außenpolitik und aktuelle Ereignisse, wie sie sehen, aufeinander wirken, insbesondere in einer Welt geopolitischer Rivalitäten und eines geschwächten Multilateralismus. Historische Entwicklungslinien und normative Grundlagen der US-Außenpolitik sollen da genauso Berücksichtigung finden wie der außenpolitische Entscheidungsprozess und die Politik der USA in ausgewählten Politikfeldern/ regionalen Ordnungen.

Event NT Seminar: Eastern orthodox and Western exegesis of the Letter to the Romans
15SS038 / Seminar / 2,557

Description:

Business event contents:

Die östliche orthodoxe Auslegung des Römerbriefes steht in einer Tradition seit der Spätantike. Vor allem die Homilien des Johannes Chrysostomos, die ihrerseits auf einer langen Auslegungstradition aufbauen, wurden breit rezipiert. Die frühesten westlichen, lateinischen Römerbriefkommentare (Pelagius, Ambrosiaster) nahmen Impulse aus dem griechischen Osten auf (v.a. von Origenes). In der Spätantike, insbesondere durch den grossen Einfluss des Augustinus, trennten sich die Wege. Ab da bestimmten Themen wie Erbsünde, Prädestination und verdienstliche Werke die westliche Tradition. In diesem Seminar werden anhand zentraler Passagen die unterschiedlichen Herangehensweisen an diesen wichtigen Paulusbrief untersucht.

Notes:

Das Seminar wird gemeinsam von Junior-Prof. Dr. Cosmin Pricop, Dozent an der orthodox-theologischen Fakultät in Bukarest, und Stefan Krauter unterrichtet. Leistungsnachweis ist die aktive Teilnahme am Blockseminar und die Abfassung eines Essays.

Event Solid State and Structural Inorganic Chemistry
CHE719.1 / Course / 3,338

Description:

Business event contents:

This course is geared towards senior undergraduate students and other participants with basic knowledge of inorganic chemistry and a strong interest in materials sciences and the related structural chemistry. An introduction to the basic principles of structural inorganic chemistry (structure and bonding models, crystallographic principles) will be provided, followed by a detailed discussion of the most important crystal structure types that are the foundation of modern materials research. In parallel, key synthetic and analytical techniques (e.g. preparation/ characterization of nanomaterials) will be illustrated, thereby preparing the participants for their own future projects in the field. During the course, an introduction to single crystal X-ray diffraction techniques and to X-ray absorption spectroscopy will be provided to complement these key techniques, together with hands-on problems from our current research. Concise introductions to other key analytical techniques in materials research, such as electron microscopy, will furthermore be provided. Selected state-of-the art examples for the development of functional and energy materials will round off the course. Depending on the profile of the audience, special content arrangements can be made at the beginning of the course.

Notes:

Starting date and times can be newly arranged upon request.

Event Studierendentagung EKWS 2024
506l416a / Selbststudium mit Leistungsnachweis / 3,442

Description:

Business event contents:

Jährlich richtet die Empirische Kulturwissenschaft Schweiz (EKWS) ihre Studierendentagung aus, die sich an alle interessierten Personen aus ihrem Umfeld richtet und in Zusammenarbeit mit Studierenden der Universitäten Basel und Zürich organisiert wird. Dieses Jahr steht die Tagung ganz im Zeichen des Um- und Aufbruchs: Letztes Jahr wurde aus der traditionsreichen Schweizerischen Gesellschaft für Volkskunde (SGV) die EKWS. Wir nehmen die Namensänderung zum Anlass, uns die Frage zu stellen, welche Kulturwissenschaft wir brauchen, in und ausserhalb der Universitäten: Welche kulturwissenschaftlichen Perspektiven wollen wir in wissenschaftliche und gesellschaftliche Diskurse einbringen? Welche Foren stehen uns dafür zur Verfügung? Welche Strukturen brauchen wir dazu? Wir können wir Studierende, Arbeitstätige und Pensionierte generationenübergreifend ansprechen und deren Stimmen hörbar machen? Die Tagung fokussiert auf dialogische Formate, in denen Diskussion, Austausch und gemeinsamen Nachdenken möglich sind. Gäste aus dem In- und Ausland ergänzen diese mit Inputreferaten.

Notes:

Donnerstag, 29.08.24 14:00-15:45: Vorbereitungssitzung (online) Freitag 06.09.24 und Samstag 07.09.24: Tagung
Donnerstag, 31.10.24 14:00-15:45: Nachbereitungssitzung (online)

Der Tagungsbesuch erfolgt selbständig und auf eigene Kosten.

Event Data Management Planning
OD_3 / Block Course / 650

Description:

Business event contents:

Research data management deals with the entire lifecycle of data, from its production to its reuse and publication. The first stage in this data life cycle comprises data management planning where researchers plan how to document, process, store, share and reuse data before the actual start of the project. Especially when working with sensitive data, data management planning is essential for responsible data collection and handling. Good data management planning also decreases the chances of lost data, crashing hard drives, backups gone missing, etc. during the research project. At the same time, data management plans are now often required by funding bodies (e.g. the SNSF) when submitting grant proposal, thus making it increasingly essential for researchers to know how to write a good data management plan.

The online components before and after the day event can take up to 20 hours (preparation and final assessment) that students have to complete in self-study.

Course Materials:

All materials will be made available on OLAT. Preparatory tasks will be made available on OLAT three weeks before the day event and need to be completed before the course date. Please be aware that the tasks in the preparation phase aim to provide you with the necessary information and knowledge while the day event will be dedicated to the application of said knowledge.

Event Linguistische und rhetorische Zugriffe auf Künstliche Intelligenz
360-541a / Seminar / 2,155

Description:

Business event contents:

Diese Veranstaltung ist eine Blockveranstaltung und stellt eine Kooperation mit dem Seminar für Allgemeine Rhetorik der Universität Tübingen dar. Wir wollen uns im Rahmen der Veranstaltung zunächst dem Phänomenbereich der Künstlichen Intelligenz aus linguistischer Perspektive nähern. Da viele KI-Verfahren Sprache verwenden, Menschen aus diesem Grund mit KI sprechen und aufgrund ihrer großen gesellschaftlichen Relevanz gegenwärtig auch sehr viel über KI gesprochen wird, ist künstliche Intelligenz ein genuin linguistischer Forschungsgegenstand. Innerhalb der ersten Blockveranstaltung wollen wir aus unterschiedlichen linguistischen Perspektiven Teilaspekte Künstlicher Intelligenz analysieren. In einer zweiten Blockveranstaltung werden wir schließlich Tübinger Rhetorik-Studierenden diese Perspektiven präsentieren und deren rhetorische Perspektive präsentiert bekommen, um im Anschluss disziplinäre Gemeinsamkeiten und Unterschiede herauszuarbeiten. Ziel des Seminars ist somit zum einen die linguistische und rhetorische Analyse von KI-Verfahren und zum anderen die Herausarbeitung eines Verständnis der Linguistik als wissenschaftliche Disziplin in Kontrast zu einer anderen wissenschaftlichen Disziplin.

Notes:

Die Veranstaltung ist eine Blockveranstaltung. Der erste Block findet am 24. und 25.10.2024 in Zürich statt. Der zweite Block findet am 13. und 14.12.2024 an der Universität Tübingen statt. Die Reise- und Übernachtungskosten können voraussichtlich komplett oder zu grossen Teilen übernommen werden.

Event Electrophysiological Recording Techniques
BIO434 / Block Course / 905

Description:

Business event contents:

The course provides the background knowledge and hands-on experience and training in various electrophysiological recording techniques. The scope of the course is to provide a thorough training of these techniques.

Practical work and demos will cover a broad range of techniques, including intra- and extracellular recordings, patch-clamp recordings from individual neurons, electrical field potential measurements in neural tissue, and in vivo recordings in the brain. Furthermore, experiments combining electrophysiological measurements with imaging methods such as two-photon targeted patch-clamp and two-photon calcium imaging of neuronal network activity will be topic of the course.

Event Translational Medicine in Neuroscience and Infection
BME368 / Block Course / 3,577

Description:

Business event contents:

Translational medicine is a rapidly growing discipline in biomedical research with the overall goal to translate new knowledge, mechanisms, and techniques generated by advances in basic research into new approaches for prevention, diagnosis and treatment of disease.

In this course we provide insights into current research including ongoing randomized clinical trials, and discipline-specific laboratory and clinical research using multi-disciplinary, "bench-to bedside" approaches. Students will be able to choose between a wetlab microbiology project for urinary tract infections or an in-vivo neurophysiology/imaging project (places limited per project), and will be joined for lectures in clinical sciences. Students will be asked to voluntarily participate in non-invasive study procedures, but participation is not required and will not be factored into the evaluation.

Event From stem cell to full tissue analysis
BME350 / Block Course / 1,306

Description:

Business event contents:

Regenerative therapies are emerging for a vast number of diseases including cardiovascular and neurological disorders as well as disorders of the blood system. Major developments in stem cell technology, and preclinical animal models have improved our understanding of disease pathology and helped us to identify novel therapeutic strategies. In this course, we will provide an overview of new developments in regenerative medicine across diverse disease models.

In lectures you will learn about the basics of pluripotent stem cell technologies, their use for modelling and treating diseases and their application in preclinical animal models in combination with state-of-the-art laboratory techniques. In the practical part you will gain (1) experience in cultivation, reprogramming, differentiation and characterization of human stem cells and their derivatives, such as iPSC-Astrocytes, (2) know-how of analysis of preclinical in vivo experiments, e.g. cell therapy for stroke, and (3) insights into multi-parameter single-cell profiling using flow cytometry combined with automated data analysis tools. The course will include self-study (e.g., journal club) and data analysis exercises. At the end, the results will be presented to the other participants of the course.

Event Prevention of noncommunicable diseases - digital applications
BME367 / Block Course / 2,851

Description:

Business event contents:

Noncommunicable diseases ("NCD") such as cancer, diabetes, or cardiovascular and respiratory diseases are responsible for a significant amount of premature deaths. Scientific evidence shows that lifestyle factors such as excessive alcohol consumption, smoking, unbalanced nutrition or lack of exercise contribute to the development of NCDs. Triggering changes in such lifestyles has been a relentless endeavor of health promotion and prevention agencies, whereby digital applications have become an indispensable supporting factor. Course participants will conceptualise a digital intervention for lifestyle change. They will learn to define a health problem and target group concisely and formulate specific aims for lifestyle change. Next, they will develop an intervention logic model based on behaviour change techniques and design a digital application with mock-ups. Finally, they will pitch this digital solution to their peers.

Event Perspectives and approaches to the current Middle East conflict
55SK001 / Colloquium / 5,177

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Kolloquium möchte einen Raum bieten, um multiperspektivische Zugänge kennen zu lernen. Verstehen, Verständnis und Einverständnis sind nicht dasselbe. Ziel ist das nähere Verstehen und möglicherweise auch Verständnis diverser Perspektiven auf den Krieg bzw. den Nahostkonflikt, inklusive ihrer jeweiligen zu problematisierenden Aspekte. Dies bedeutet explizit nicht notwendigerweise auch Einverständnis. Im Fokus sollen auch die prekären Auswirkungen auf die unmittelbar betroffenen Menschen in Israel und Palästina sowie die internationalen Auswirkungen stehen. Ziel ist insbesondere die Förderung einer akademischen Reflexion der gegenwärtigen Diskursituationen im Rahmen dieses Kolloquiums.

«Einen direkten Beitrag zur diplomatischen Lösung des Konflikts kann die UZH als Institution nicht leisten. Aber sie kann zur Qualität der öffentlichen Debatte beitragen. Der Nahostkonflikt trifft auf eine Stimmung in der Öffentlichkeit, die durch eine zunehmende Polarisierung geprägt ist. Umso wichtiger ist es, dass die Universität einen sicheren Rahmen für eine differenzierte und offene Diskussion auf der Grundlage gegenseitigen Respekts bietet.» (M. Schaepman, Rektor der UZH am 30.5.2024, <https://www.news.uzh.ch/de/articles/news/2024/nahostkonflikt.html>)

Notes:

Die Anzahl der Teilnehmer:innen ist beschränkt, Anmeldung und Buchung erfolgt via der Dozentin per Mail: dorothea.lueddeckens@uzh.ch

Im Kolloquium werden Positionen behandelt werden, denen voraussichtlich nicht alle Teilnehmenden persönlich zustimmen können und die gegebenenfalls ihrer eigenen Einschätzung nicht entsprechen. Voraussetzung für die Teilnahme ist die Bereitschaft sich dennoch mit diesen Positionen auseinander zu setzen, mit dem Ziel sie in ihrer eigenen Logik möglichst nachvollziehen zu können, auch ohne Einverständnis mit der betreffenden Position.

Terminhinweis: Montag, 16.12.24, 18.15-19.45 Uhr Podium: «Ab wann ist Israelkritik antisemitisch?»

090De1 / Seminar / 1,093

Description:

Business event contents:

Im ersten Semester des Fachdidaktik-Kurses stehen die Planung, Durchführung und Reflexion von (Übungs-)Lektionen im Zentrum der Arbeit.

Dabei befassen wir uns mit Inhalten, Methoden und Lernzielen der verschiedenen Bereiche des Deutschunterrichts; und es beschäftigt uns die vordringliche Frage, wie sich das Fachwissen, das im Germanistikstudium erworben wird, in fachdidaktisches Wissen und Können transformieren lässt.

In einem ersten Schritt besuchen Sie einige Deutschlektionen in meinen Klassen an der Kantonsschule Enge, wobei Lernziele, Inhalte und Methoden dieser Lektionen und ihre Verortung im Lehrplan im Seminar vor- und nachbesprochen werden. In einem zweiten Schritt erarbeiten Sie in Gruppen kurzen Unterrichtseinheiten, die Sie anschliessend in meinen Klassen durchführen und die darauf in Nachbesprechungen in den Gruppen wie auch im Seminar selbst eingehend beleuchtet und diskutiert werden.

Event Fachdidaktik Informatik I
090In1 / Seminar / 1,111

Description:

Business event contents:

Das Modul FD Informatik I legt den Schwerpunkt auf die Vorbereitung für die Praxis des Unterrichtens von Informatik am Gymnasium. Konkreter praktischer Unterricht wird hospitiert, vorbereitet, durchgeführt und reflektiert. Es werden eigene Unterrichtsmaterialien erstellt, bzw. zusammengestellt.

Methodisch wird mit Fallbesprechungen und Unterrichtsbeobachtungen gearbeitet. Ein weiteres Thema ist die Leistungsbeurteilung im Unterricht.

Ein Teil der Veranstaltung findet als praktischer Unterricht an der Kantonsschule Alpenquai Luzern statt.

Notes:

Die Fachdidaktik Informatik I ist die erste von zwei semesterweise aufeinander folgenden Veranstaltungen. Fachdidaktik II ist die zweite.

Es finden Exkursionen (für Hospitationen und eigenen Unterricht) statt, z.B. an die KS Alpenquai Luzern.

Aufgrund der speziellen Angebotssituation im Bereich Informatik wird das Detailprogramm erst zu Semesterbeginn festgelegt.

Es wird empfohlen, das Hospitationspraktikum im 1. Semester zu absolvieren und die Übungslektionen zu buchen, damit sie parallel zur Fachdidaktik stattfinden können.

090MINT / Seminar / 672

Description:

Business event contents:

Ziel des Moduls ist eine vertiefte Erfahrung der Lernpotentiale von Schülern*innen zu Beginn ihrer Bildungskarriere. Durch das Vermitteln von MINT-Inhalten im Anfangsunterricht lernen sie unterschiedliche MINT-Bildungsbiographien kennen und können die Entwicklung von Vorstellungen mitverfolgen. Das Seminar mit Assistenzzeit beinhaltet drei Phasen: Im Blockseminar werden Alltagsvorstellungen im eigenen Fach als auch theoretische Inputs aus Entwicklungs- und Kognitionspsychologie diskutiert Während der Assistenzzeit wird aktiv in einer Klasse eine von den Primar- und Sekundarlehrpersonen definierte Lehraufgabe übernommen. Zum Schluss erfolgt das Verfassen eines Schlussreportes, welcher die Beschreibung des Wissenstandes der SuS beinhaltet. Dieses Seminar ist nur für LD Studierende geeignet, die sich flexibel auf die Bedürfnisse von SuS im MINT Eingangunterricht einlassen möchten.

Die Veranstaltung findet an der ETH im Raum ML H 43 statt.

Event Law and Technology - a cross-continental perspective
90WM15-1 / Course / 2,108

Description:

Business event contents:

This course will explore the interaction between law and modern technology. It will introduce students to the potentially problematic relationship between legal rules and technological change, and then begin to explore real substantive problems at the interface between them. This will require some understanding of particular legal doctrines and particular technologies, which the course itself will provide. It is the aim of the course to teach, encourage and nurture creative legal (and technological) thinking when contemplating questions such as the possible regulation and/or promotion (for example, through patents) of technology and technological change.

Event Transnational Organised Crime - The UN Perspective
120WM4-1 / Course / 3,586

Description:

Business event contents:

This course explores the international legal framework and best practice guidelines to prevent and suppress transnational organized crime, including drug trafficking, trafficking in persons, and the smuggling of migrants. The course explores the criminology and criminalization of these activities and outlines national and international efforts to investigate such crime and prosecute offenders.

The course is designed to give students an understanding of contemporary patterns and characteristics of transnational organized crime and relevant international conventions in this field. The seminars, individual and team-based exercises, and assessment in this course invite students to gain insight into the levels and characteristics of various types of organized crime and critically reflect on international, regional, and domestic laws and policies designed to combat these phenomena. The course enhances students' abilities to engage with and research policy documents and legal material, critically analyze legislation, case studies and scholarly writing, present research findings to academic audiences, and elaborate practical recommendations for law reform and policy change relevant to the subject area.

Notes:

The main teaching days will be offered face-to-face. Attendance on campus and in person is required.

The introduction to the course (Vorbereitung) will be held online.

Course Materials: All course material will be provided to participants online (OLAT) no later than three weeks prior to the main teaching days.

Event Market-Based Research in International Accounting, Part I (S)
DOEC0463 / Doktorandenseminar / 2,275

Description:

Business event contents:

Market-based research in international accounting uses cross-border comparisons and within-country analyses exploiting the unique features of the local institutional environment to study how public and private institutions affect the properties and uses of accounting information. More recent studies go beyond descriptive analyses and attempt to better understand how economic institutions affect the role of accounting information in capital markets, financing decisions and corporate governance. The course consists of two parts: in Part I, we cover the foundations and discuss some of the basic concepts of international accounting research. Specifically, the topics of Part I cover voluntary disclosure, the relation between disclosure and cost of capital, real effects of financial reporting, and CSR reporting. In Part II, we apply these concepts to specific areas (e.g., IFRS adoption, regulation and enforcement). Note that it is suggested but not required that students attend both parts of the course in sequence.

Notes:

The number of seminar participants is limited. Interested UZH doctoral students are kindly asked to register for the course at <https://www.dar.uzh.ch> before booking the module no later than August, 15, 2024.

Event Impact Investing, Sustainable Finance & Family Offices (S)
22BO0120 / Seminar / 1,660

Description:

Business event contents:

This seminar discusses the rise of two parallel, critical themes: On one hand, the climate crisis, biodiversity crisis, and other sustainability challenges led to the currently ongoing mainstreaming of impact investing and sustainable finance - with all its challenges, incl.

green-/impact-washing. On the other hand, half of global wealth has become intensely concentrated amongst less than 1% of the world population. This seminar dives into how sustainable- and impact investing really works, and how private wealth holders and family offices grapple with the theme. We will discuss the underlying science, speak with real-world family offices in-person, and learn how to build impactful investment portfolios.

Notes:

Students need to apply to participate in the seminar. Application (CV) is possible until Monday, 1.07.2024, to falko.paetzold@df.uzh.ch.

Event Managing Geopolitical Risks in International Business (S)
22MO0228 / Seminar / 2,273

Description:

Business event contents:

Veranstaltungsinhalt Today, businesses act in various highly volatile, polarized and often unstable contexts, where they need to be aware of global issues and ethical considerations.

Business decision making thus regularly involves entrepreneurs and managers having to be aware of, and find solutions for geopolitical risks, in order to maintain business operations in a responsible manner. Similarly, analysts and consultants have to assess the geopolitical risks that business have when conducting in such contexts. Understanding and thus managing geopolitical risks globally thus becomes an important task for managing business responsibly.

This course introduces master students to a variety of topics related to managing geopolitical risks. The course aims at providing students with an overview of potential opportunities, but also the geopolitical risks that emerge from conducting business in polarized, unstable or weak political contexts. It further aims to sensitize students for the ethical considerations of conducting businesses in the context of dictatorships, failed states, or highly polarized contexts.

Event Corporate Entrepreneurship (S)
22BO0021 / Seminar / 597

Description:

Business event contents:

Corporate entrepreneurship refers to entrepreneurial activity that occurs in established firms, which compete in technologically sophisticated markets and search for entrepreneurial opportunities.

Innovation constitutes a major foundation for the discovery and exploitation of opportunities in those firms.

Opportunities typically arise from market conditions and the firm's internal capabilities, resources and skills. In their search for opportunities, corporate entrepreneurs frequently explore technological frontiers within and outside a firm's current business domain. The seminar will focus particularly on corporate venturing, strategic renewal, and innovation, with an emphasis on how firms get access to knowledge from external sources that can be combined with internal capabilities. In the seminar, students will present and discuss selected academic journal articles on the topic.

Notes:

The seminar is limited to a maximum of 28 students (first come, first serve). Beyond normal booking (Modulbuchung), a second application to the chair is necessary between 1st of July and end of August 2024 by e-mail: entrepreneurship@business.uzh.ch. It is not allowed to attend the seminar without confirmation from the chair, as there will be a waiting list. The papers will be randomly assigned to groups of two in the introductory session. If you have any preferences with respect to the person you want to work with, please let us know his/her name in your e-mail.

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Studierenden erhalten durch das Modul "Consumer Insights" eine Einführung in das wissenschaftliche Arbeiten als Vorbereitung für empirische Masterarbeiten im Bereich Konsumentenverhalten und Marketing.

Im Rahmen eines Flipped Classroom Kurses erhalten die Studierenden anhand von diversen angewandten Beispielen aus der aktuellen Forschung eine Einführung in den Forschungsprozess. Als Basis dafür erhalten die Studierenden einen Überblick über zentrale Theorien, Forschungsfelder, Methoden, Open Science Standards und Trends. Die Studierenden werden nach diesem Kurs in der Lage sein (1) konkrete Forschungsfragen und Hypothesen aus bestehender Literatur abzuleiten, (2) experimentelle Forschungsdesigns zu entwickeln, (3) Fragebogen zu erstellen und (4) erhobene Daten zu analysieren und diese im Hinblick auf Forschungsfragen/Hypothesen zu interpretieren und diskutieren.

Die Inhalte dieses Kurses werden interaktiv vermittelt und im Rahmen von verschiedenen Übungen angewendet. Schliesslich werden die Studierenden ihre Kenntnisse zum Forschungsprozess anhand einer eigenen Forschungsidee im Rahmen einer Einzelarbeit sowie einer Gruppenpräsentation vertiefen.

Event Quasi-Experiments and Research Design in Political Economy
6151513a / Seminar / 4,798

Description:

Business event contents:

This course surveys widely-used quasi-experimental methods and research designs in the social sciences with a focus on applications in Political Economy (PE). We will review approaches such as difference-in-differences and synthetic control, fixed-effects and first-differencing, regression discontinuity designs, and instrumental variables. Instead of discussing the mathematical derivation or computational implementation of these methods, however, we will focus on their underlying inferential logic and on concrete opportunities and challenges for implementing these designs in applied work. Each method is covered over a period of two class sessions. In the first session, we learn how, why, and under which conditions the methods work. In the second session, we discuss concrete applications from the PE literature on voting, trade, aid, development, and conflict. The course will provide students with an overview of state-of-the-art research designs.

Notes:

This course will be held as a block seminar.

Event To Mind and to Mend - Antirassistische Praktiken in der Kunstgeschichte
640I045a / Colloquium / 4,866

Description:

Business event contents:

Mit einem Schwerpunkt auf Europa, wo antirassistische und dekoloniale Initiativen und Praktiken an Universitäten und in kulturellen Institutionen noch weniger etabliert sind, soll im Institutskolloquium im HS 24 diskutiert werden, wie die Kunstgeschichte eine selbstkritischere Haltung einnehmen kann, um Rassismus in all seinen Formen aktiv entgegenzuwirken. Wie können kunsthistorische Forschung, Lehre und die Kontextualisierung von Kunstwerken oder Sammlungen antirassistische und dekoloniale Bestrebungen befördern und begünstigen? Was sind notwendige Interventionen oder bestehende Best Practices innerhalb der Disziplin der Kunstgeschichte, um sich kritisch mit rassistischen Darstellungen oder historischen Zuschreibungen auseinanderzusetzen? Inwieweit kann eine angemessene Sprache die Verfestigung von Stereotypen und Vorurteilen vermeiden, wenn über solche Repräsentationsformen gesprochen wird? Wie stellen Künstler*innen rassistische Stereotypen und Strukturen in ihren Arbeiten in Frage oder prangern sie im Rahmen kollektiver Initiativen wie Kunststreiks und Boykotte an? Und wie können Debatten über Inklusion und Diversität nachhaltig in der Wissenschaft, in Museen und an Kunsthochschulen verankert werden? Solche und andere Fragen werden im Rahmen der Veranstaltung von Kunsthistoriker*innen, Historiker*innen, Kurator*innen, Kunstkritiker*innen und Kunstvermittler*innen verhandelt. Folgende Termine sind geplant: 26.09. Anne Lafont 10.10. ACRAH (Jaqueline Francis + Camara Dia Holloway) 31.10. Gürsoy Doğtaş 07.11. Brit Barton 21.11. Event Architektur auf dem Plan und in der Fotografie
640-019a / Exercise Group / 4,867

Description:

Business event contents:

Jedes Bauwerk wird von medialen Repräsentationen umgeben, die für seine Planung, Umsetzung und Historisierung eingesetzt werden. Für den Entwurf sind modellhafte Visualisierungen und Pläne notwendig, die den Bauprozess initiieren. Für eine kunst- und architekturhistorische Rezeption spielt die fotografische Vermittlung eines Bauwerks, seine gestalterischen Details und seine Positionierung im Raum eine zentrale Rolle; Fotografien können dabei unterschiedliche Deutungsansätze anbieten; sie sind historische Dokumentationen, politische (Propaganda-)Inszenierungen oder dienen der persönlichen Erinnerung. Bevor Architektur gebaut werden konnte, bedarf es der Planung. Doch wie ging das von statten? Welche unterschiedlichen Pläne, welche Fotografien existier(t)en heute und was sagen sie aus? In welchen Archiven und mit welchen Verschlagwortungen werden sie aufbewahrt? Wie sind diese zu lesen und zu deuten? Diesen und anderen Fragen soll in dieser Übung nachgegangen werden. - Die Übung wird in Kooperation mit Prof. Dr. Sophie Junge und Studierenden des Instituts der Kunstgeschichte der LMU München durchgeführt. Im ersten Teil der Veranstaltung werden wir uns mit (spät-)mittelalterlichen Plänen und Planungskonzepten auseinandersetzen (z. B. Turmrise, Matthäus Roriczers «Geometria deutsch»), um dann zu erkunden, wann sich die heutigen Konventionen für Pläne etabliert haben. Im zweiten Teil wird die Architektur in der Fotografie - sei es auf Postkarten, historischen Stadtansichten oder aber durch Luftaufnahmen - genauer analysiert. In zwei Exkursionsblöcken wird das Erlernete vor Originalen diskutiert. Die ersten beiden Teile der Veranstaltung werden hybrid im Seminarraum stattfinden, so dass sich die Studierenden der jeweils anderen Universität dazuschalten können.

Notes:

Allgemeine Infos: 15.10.

Veranstaltungsdaten sind: 22.10.; 29.10.; 12.11.; 26.11. Die Exkursionen werden an folgenden Terminen stattfinden: Freitag, 29.

November 2024 (Ulm, Münster); Samstag, 30. November 2024 (München), Freitag, 6. Dezember 2024 (Zürich, ETH Graphische Sammlung). - Dies ist ein Bewerbungsmodul. Sie müssen sich in der Anfragefrist über das Buchungstool der UZH dafür bewerben. Geben Sie in der Bewerbung die Semesterzahl an und erläutern Sie in 2-3 Sätzen Ihre Motivation, weshalb Sie die entsprechende Veranstaltung absolvieren wollen. Die obligatorische Anmeldung/Buchung erfolgt durch den Dozierenden.

Event Advertising and Branding in Contemporary China: Critical Explorations
2801605a / Seminar / 5,032

Description:

Business event contents:

This seminar aims at introducing the students to the major developments that happened in China in two realms of promotional culture, namely: advertising and branding. Each session starts with an introduction of the economic, political and socio-cultural context, followed by the main cultural theories and methodologies (semiotics) that are useful to critically assess the topic in an informed way. Each session closes with the analyses of some illustrative case studies: the latter are representative of the on-going evolution of China from a country of "Made in China" to one of "Created in China", in alignment with Xi Jinping's call, and reflect the rise of guochao ("national wave" or "China chic"). At the end of this seminar, students will be able to evaluate the cultural importance of advertising and branding campaigns and relate them to wider issues such as China's search for national identity, the rise of domestic consumerism, the difficult encounter with globalization, the quest for a creativity "with Chinese elements", among the others.

Notes:

Day 1 14:00 - 18:00 Uhr Session 1 Commercial advertising: Past, Present and Future - History and recent developments (China's access to WTO in 2001 and subsequent liberalization of the advertising market) - Issue of "creativity" and "Chinese elements" (China's first participation to the Cannes Festival in 1996) - Analysis of case studies
Day 2 09:00 - 12:00 Uhr Session 2 - Advertising and branding to China: what works, what doesn't? - Translation strategies of foreign brands - Crosscultural advertising - "Problematic" campaigns of foreign brands in China - Analysis of case studies
14:00 - 18:00 Uhr Session 3 - Advertising for the good: Public Service Advertising - History and recent developments - Ideology underpinning the rise of public service advertising in China - Analysis of case studies
Day 3 14:00 - 18:00 Uhr Session 4 - The rise of Chinese brands - History and recent developments of Chinese national brands - The "going-out" (zouchuqu) strategy - Analysis of case studies
Day 4 09:00 - 12:00 Uhr Session 5 - Olympic branding: Beijing 2008 - Visual identity of the first Beijing Games (slogan, emblem, torch, medals, mascotte, etc.) - Case studies of official partners/sponsors advertising campaigns and Olympic public service campaigns
14:00 - 18:00 Uhr Session 6 - Olympic branding: Beijing 2022 - Visual identity of the second Beijing Games (slogan, emblem, torch, medals, mascotte, etc.) - Case studies of official partners/sponsors advertising campaigns and Olympic public service campaigns - Guidelines for the final essay/paper of the seminar

Event Plant Sensing
BIO286 / Block Course / 4,074

Description:

Business event contents:

Plants are constantly exposed to a variety of external stimuli - being either autocrine or paracrine signals controlling growth and development, or signals that directly originate from the environment.

Plant use both intracellular and cell-surface receptors (many of which being receptor kinases) to sense these signals, which allow them to transduce these inputs into a plethora of adaptive cellular responses.

During this block course, students will take part in ongoing projects within the group, dealing specifically with measuring different signalling outputs using diverse qualitative and quantitative bioassays in a range of native or heterologous experimental systems. In addition, general techniques to analyse protein expression, protein localization, as well as enzymatic activity will be introduced. The block course will be accompanied by theoretical lectures on the methods used, as well as an overview of sensing mechanisms used by plants to develop, grow, and adapt to their ever-changing environment.

Event Roma Contributions to Contemporary Art: Epistemic, Political and Art-Historical Reflections
645-504a / Seminar / 4,468

Description:

Business event contents:

This seminar explores the contexts, discourses, stories, histories, and creative contributions to European/Western art by the largest minority of Europe: the 12-14 million Romani people, often referred to as Roma and Sinti, Gypsies and Travelers, Gitano and Gitana. In this class, we will engage with the long-oppressed, hidden, and untold genealogy of "Roma culture and art history." We will sharpen our (self-)awareness of the "post-colonial constellation" in which the discourse of a potential "Roma art history" is embedded. We will make use of theories and conceptual tools that have often been considered radical and political in Roma-related scholarship, such as the idea of decoloniality, postcolonial theory, feminist scholarship, cultural studies, trauma studies, and critical Romani studies. The course will analyze events, artists, and artifacts that speak-actively and consciously-from within a Roma subjectivity. We will closely examine how artists of Roma origin, such as Delaine le Bas (UK), Daniel Baker (UK), Emilia Rigova (SK), Robert Gabris (AT), Malgorzata Mirga-Tas (PL), Selma Selman (BH) and Gabi Jimenez (FR) currently shape the European contemporary art discourse.

Notes:

The program and presentation topics will be discussed in the online introductory session on September 20. The seminar will take place in full-day sessions (in person) on October 17-18 and October 31-November 1.

Event Green London: Stadtraum.Landschaftsraum. Gemalte Natur.
640I037a / Field Trip / 4,482

Description:

Business event contents:

London gilt als grünste Metropole der Welt. Gleichwohl hat ihre Vergrauung, wie es in verschiedenen Projekten heisst, zugenommen, sodass es diverse Aktivitäten gibt, diese "grüne" Stadt und ihren Bezug zur Natur zu schützen und zu pflegen. Die Exkursion schlägt den Bogen zwischen der Metropole, ihren Museen und Künsten, um sich auf die Spur künstlerischer und aktivistisch-kultureller Beiträge zu "Green London" zu setzen. Wir werden verschiedene Orte und Institutionen aufsuchen, vom Landschaftspark bis zu den Gemälden Constables und Turners, von fotografischen Positionen bis zur zeitgenössischen Klimakunst, von Stadtvierteln, die von der Geschichte der industriellen Revolution geprägt wurden, bis zur Themse als Lebensader Londons, um zu fragen, welche Naturvorstellungen, kulturellen Konstruktionen und nationalen Identitätsmuster in die Geschichte von "Green London" eingegangen sind.

Wir werden versuchen, mit Projektmitarbeiter*innen und Kunsthistoriker*innen vor Ort zum Thema "Green London" zu sprechen und zu diskutieren.

REFERATE: Nach einem Vorbesprechungstermin werden die Referate VOR der Exkursion im Seminarraum gehalten. Die Studierenden haben die Aufgabe, während der Exkursion vor den Originalen/an den jeweiligen Orten ein Gespräch zu führen, das die Gruppe insgesamt einbezieht. Wir werden also als Expert*innen nach London fahren, um das zuvor Gelernte zu überprüfen, zu vertiefen und zu erweitern. Alle Referent*innen können/dürfen auch in Gruppen arbeiten und werden in London Zeit haben, jeweils an den Vormittagen ihre Präsentationen auf der Grundlage ihrer Referate vorzubereiten.

Event Biogeography and Biodiversity
EEE324 / Block Course / 457

Description:

Business event contents:

Sie beschäftigen sich mit Fragen wie "Warum gibt es hier mehr Arten als dort?" oder "Warum hat eine Art ein bestimmtes Verbreitungsmuster?".

Hierzu erarbeiten Sie in Kleingruppen Forschungsprojekte ("Anträge") auf der Basis von aktuellen Publikationen zur Thematik und üben zudem die Planung von Experimenten (Versuchsaufbau, statistische Voraussetzungen, usw.) sowie das wissenschaftliche Schreiben.

In this course, you deal with questions such as "why are there more species here than elsewhere?" or "why does a species have a certain distribution?". For this, you will work in small groups to design research projects ("proposals") on the basis of current publications. In this way, you also acquire skills in the planning of experiments (experimental design, statistical requirements, etc.) as well as in scientific writing.

Event Experimental Coordination Chemistry and Analytics
CHE312.1 / Praktikum / 1,066

Description:

Business event contents:

The lab course consists of three parts. For three weeks, students do one analytical experiment and two advanced literature syntheses with a main focus of applying various inert gas techniques. The experimental instructions for the literature syntheses have to be found by a literature search in different databases. For another three weeks, students do an advanced project in a research group, whose members will also provide the supervision. This gives a fascinating insight into the current research activities. In the seminar, the work groups in Inorganic Chemistry present themselves. The final part takes place in the last week, in which the students present the results from their research projects.

Notes:

takes place in the 2nd half of the semester

Event Immunology
BIO430 / Block Course / 1,658

Description:

Business event contents:

This practical course is centered on the learning of current immunological techniques applied in basic and medical immunology. The course addresses aspects of the immune system related to transplantation medicine, allergology, infectiology, autoimmune diseases and cancer.

Students will perform various experiments, such as Mantoux skin tests, cytokine ELISPOT, mixed-lymphocyte reaction, IgE sensitivity assay and flow cytometry analysis. The course covers tutorials, experiments, demonstrations and lectures. We expect a solid background understanding of Immunobiology (Text book knowledge) Attendance of the ETH courses Immunology I (551-0317-00L) and Immunology II (551-0318-00L) are strongly recommended before signing up for this course.

Teil Evolution I: Geschichte des evolutionären Denkens, Beweise für die Evolution, von Fossilien bis zur experimentellen Evolution. Das Fitnesskonzept, natürliche und sexuelle Selektion, life history evolution, Populationsgenetik

Teil Biodiversität I: Dieser Kurs widmet sich der Biodiversität von Wirbeltieren und wirbellosen Tieren mit einem speziellen Fokus auf den Interaktionen zwischen Arten. Gemeinsam mit dem Modul Bio121 (Biodiversität II) führt dieses Modul ein in die gesamte Diversität der eukaryotischen Organismen.

Im Praktikum werden Themen selektiv vertieft.

Teil Biodiversität I: Dieser Kurs widmet sich der Biodiversität von wirbellosen Tieren, Einzellern & Pilzen. Dabei werden vor allem phylogenetische und taxonomische, aber auch öko(morpho)logische und ontogenetische Aspekte der Evolution der grossen Gruppen behandelt, sowie deren Vorkommen, Reproduktion, Ernährungsweise, Bedeutung in Ökosystemen, Bio- und Lebensmitteltechnologie, etc. Zwei parallel geführte praktische Übungen sind wichtiger Bestandteil des Moduls. Gemeinsam mit dem Modul Bio121 (Biodiversität II: Wirbeltiere & Pflanzen), führt dieses Modul ein in die gesamte Diversität der eukaryotischen Organismen.

Event Zellbiologie PR Gr A
BIO112.2 / Praktikum / 3,828

Description:

Business event contents:

Die Zelle ist die funktionelle Einheit des Lebens. Verschiedene Zelltypen erfüllen einzeln, oder in Geweben organisiert, spezifische Aufgaben. Ziel der Vorlesung ist, ausgewählte Aspekte von tierischen und pflanzlichen Zellen und die zugrunde liegenden Regeln zu diskutieren.

Notes:

Das Modul beinhaltet 2 Stunden Vorlesung pro Woche während des ganzen Semesters, sowie insgesamt 2 Praktikumsnachmittage.

Course Materials:

Alberts B. et al., "Molekularbiologie der Zelle" 6. Auflage, Wiley-VCH, ISBN: 978-3-527-34072-9
oder alternativ die englischsprachige Ausgabe: Alberts B. et al., "Molecular Biology of the Cell", 6th edition, Garland Science, New York, NY, 2014, ISBN 9780815344322. Dieses Buch gibt einen umfassenden Ueberblick über die moderne Zellbiologie. Es bildet das Rückgrat der Vorlesung und bietet Beispiele für Problemstellungen und Fragen sowie Selbsttests. Ein Glossar am Ende des Buches fasst die wichtigsten Begriffe zusammen.
Das Studium der englischen Version ist eine hervorragende Vorbereitung für den späteren Umgang mit englischer Fachliteratur. Obwohl nur selektive Ausschnitte dieses umfassenden Lehrbuchs für die Vorlesung direkt relevant sind, empfehlen wir dieses Buch auch im Hinblick auf die Veranstaltungen in Molekularer Biologie der höheren Semester.
Weitere Vorlesungsunterlagen siehe OLAT.

Event Virology: Methods in Molecular Biology, Pathogenesis, and Control of Human Viruses
BIO372 / Block Course / 3,692

Description:

Business event contents:

This course provides an introduction to molecular methods and principles in medical virology, with an experimental focus on the pathogenicity and control of clinically important human viruses such as HIV, influenza and coronavirus. Participants will experience state-of-the art technologies currently being employed in modern virology research and diagnostic laboratories, including: virus quantification; cloning of viral genes from patient material; sequencing and analysis of viral genes; testing of antivirals that act at different stages of the virus life cycle (particularly entry); and assessment of human factors that control infection.

Event Quantitative Life Sciences: from Infectious Diseases to Ecosystems
BIO445 / Block Course / 2,995

Description:

Business event contents:

Quantitative approaches are gaining steadily in importance in biology due to the increasing complexity and amount of data generated, which often require mathematical models for their interpretation. This course aims to present students with the diversity of research-questions in the Life Sciences that can be addressed with quantitative methods and to give them a hands-on experience (typically using R) with these methods.

The topics discussed range from interpreting genomic data, to the epidemiology of Infectious Diseases, Pharmacodynamics, Immune Dynamics, to Evolution and the Stability of Ecosystems. Researchers who actively work in the field of quantitative biology will present in an approx.

60min lecture about their recent research. Each lecture is followed by a discussion of the key concepts and a hands-on part for the respective topic, ideally in R. At the end of the course, the students will present (15 min) one paper from one of the lecturers.

Each course day is dedicated to one of the following topics (minor changes possible) - Hands-on introduction to R - Big Data in R - From Epidemics to Viruses - Population Biological Models on Phylogenetic Trees - Analyzing the complexity in species-interaction networks - Quantitative Genetics - Modeling emerging epidemics/outbreaks - Cancer evolution - Resource Competition and Game Theory - Reconstruction of diverse populations using Next-Generation Sequencing Data - Bacterial Dynamics within Hosts - Pharmacokinetics, Pharmacodynamics, Stoichiometry - Gene Regu Networks

Event The 3Rs and the Ethics of Animal Research
BIO664 / Doktorandenseminar / 4,895

Description:

Business event contents:

Animal experiments are the subject of intense social, scientific, legal and ethical debate. The discourse on animal protection, animal rights, freedom of research and research quality will accompany students of various disciplines also in the future. The course brings up for discussion questions, which medicine, natural and social sciences employ and that must be answered by them in a common effort. It offers the opportunity to analyze complex problems from different perspectives, to critically reflect on one's own views and to exchange ideas with other disciplines through lectures, discussions and group work. The course is designed to help students to form a well-founded and differentiated opinion on the socially and scientifically relevant and current topic of "Science and Animal Use", regardless of whether they carry out animal experiments themselves.

Event Alles im Wandel? Medien in Zeiten von Digitalisierung und künstlicher Intelligenz
2541114a / Seminar / 139

Description:

Business event contents:

Im Mittelpunkt des Seminars wird Veränderung der massenmedialen Öffentlichkeit stehen. Ein Schwerpunkt wird dabei auf den letzten 2 Jahrzehnten liegen. Spätestens dann treten mit der Digitalisierung und dem verstärkten Aufkommen von Social Media neue, meist internationale Akteure in die Öffentlichkeitsarenen ein. Diese Entwicklungen haben gravierende Auswirkungen auf die Inhalte der öffentlichen Kommunikation. Ein weiterer Schwerpunkt wird der Einsatz von künstlicher Intelligenz in den Medien sein. Neben der automatisierten Textproduktion wird KI heute für die Distribution von Inhalten, für Recherchezwecke und anderes mehr eingesetzt. Daraus ergeben sich für die medienvermittelte Öffentlichkeit Chancen und Risiken, die im Seminar ebenfalls behandelt werden.

Business event contents:

Ist die heutige Jugend politisch interessiert? In welchen Formaten engagieren sich Jugendliche für politische Themen? Im Verlauf des Jugendalters prägt sich das politische Interesse, Orientierungen und Engagement massgeblich aus. Das bedeutet, dass in dieser Lebensphase die Weichen für das politische Denken und Handeln im Erwachsenenalter gestellt werden. Doch welche Sozialisationsinstanzen, Differenzkategorien und Bedingungen prägen den Verlauf dieses Entwicklungsprozesses? In diesem Seminar wird diesen Fragen nachgegangen und sich dem Thema der politischen Sozialisation im Jugendalter sowohl a) in theoretischer Hinsicht, b) in Auseinandersetzung mit aktuellen Forschungsbefunden und Debatten und c) unter Zugriff auf aktuelles empirisches Material genähert.
